GREENVILLE, N. C. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1900.

NO. 1813

TO OUR VERSATILE PRESIDENT.

Bishop Bill McKinley,
On the heathen lands—
Bible in your pocket,
Rifle in your hands!
Crush the unbeliever,
Hit him hard and well,
Spill the stuffing in him,
Send him straight to—Blazes!

Sultan Bill McKinley,
Kaiser Wilhelm, too,
Sing "Das Vaterland,"
"Yankee Doodle Doo!"
Loving angel Hanna,
Heaven's forces swell,
Hit the wicked heathen—
Send 'em all to—Thunder and lightning.

Cesar Bill McKinley,
Down in Africa
There is lots of trouble
For Queen Victoria.
Send your bloody soldiers
Ch. nomen to quell,
While her Tommy Atkinnes
Send the Boers to—Dunder wetter nochein mall!

Monarch Bill McKinley,
Oh! you are a brick—
Hold the other monarchs
Make the heathen sick,
Prostitute your office,
It may pay you well,
What's the Constitution?
Let it go to—Ireland and South Africa,
Begorra!

—HENRY GOHRMAN in Prescott Courier.

Captain John Kell Dead.

Sunbyside, Ga., Oct. 5.—Captain John McIntosh Kell, Adjutant General of Georgia, and one of the most noted men in the South, died at his home near this place this evening at 6:30 o'clock. He had been in bad health for a long time. He was 77 years of age.

At the age of 16 Kell was appointed a midshipman in the navy. He served with distinction in the Mexican war and was present at Monterey, Cal., when the United States flag was hoisted over that territory. He was later an officer in Commodore Perry's expedition to Japan.

In October, 1856, he married Miss Julia Blanche Monroe, of Macon, Ga. A brief service at Norfolk and 18 months at Pensacola constituted his only duties on shore while a member of the United States navy. Upon the secession of Georgia, he tendered his service to his native State, and in May, 1861, reported for duty to Captain Raphael Semmes, at New Orleans, where he served on the Sumter. Later he was with Admiral Semmes as executive officer of the Alabama, the famous Confederate battleship.

After the loss of the Alabama, he returned to the Confederacy and was given command of the iron-clad Richmond. In 1886 he was appointed Adjutant General of Georgia, which office he held until his death.

Daughters of The Confederacy.

The Singletary Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held their regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Charles Harvey on Friday afternoon, Oct. 5th, Mrs. Jarvis presiding. Much business was disposed of. The report of the Chapter for the year was submitted. The Secretary, Miss Louise Latham, the delegate to the convention at Raleigh, was instructed to cast the vote of this Chapter as might be deemed best for the interest of the general order.

Mrs. Jarvis, Vice-President of the State organization and Miss Latham left this morning to attend the State convention which meets in Raleigh tomorrow.

Another idea of Greenville's business can be had from the fact that the telegraph office here handled 135 messages on Monday.

MURDER IN AYDEN.

Colored Man Kills His Step-Son.

We learn by telephone from Ayden of a brutal murder that had been committed there. John Hargett, colored, had a step-son about 8 or 9 years old. He has been in the habit of getting in a rage with the boy and at times beating him unmercifully. He gave the boy a severe whipping on Sunday night. Monday night he beat the boy again, and people living near by say that all at once the boy's screams ceased. This morning the man went to a mill in Ayden to get some lumber, saying the boy had died and he was going to make a coffin for him. He was at once suspected of having killed the boy and was arrested. An investigation showed that the neck and back of the boy were broken.

Coroner Laughinghouse is in Ayden this afternoon holding an inquest over the body.

Martyrs in China.

New York, Oct. 6.—More than fifteen thousand native Christians and one hundred and fifty Catholic and Protestant missionaries died the death of martyrs during the four or five months of the Boxer uprising in the northern part of China, according to figures supplied by the local missionary boards. These figures are only approximate, as it will be impossible to obtain a complete record of the Christians massacred until the missionaries return to the districts from which they were driven and make detailed reports to their respective boards.

At present it seems doubtful if the missionaries can safely return to the more disturbed provinces for a year or perhaps longer. The estimates thus far given of the number of Christians killed during the uprising differ greatly. Statistics recently published by the religious press of London place the total number of British and American missionaries massacred, including children at so high a figure as 118. According to these statistics the American societies lost twenty-eight men, forty women and twenty-five children, and the British societies fifty-six men, fifty women and fifteen children.

Died.

Mr W. C. McGowan, of Chicod, died suddenly on Sunday. While his health had been poor for some time, he was going about as usual, and returning home from a visit to a neighbor complained of not feeling well. He lay down on a pallet and in a few minutes was dead. He was the father of Mr. J. K. McGowan, and also of Mrs. D. W. Hardee, of Greenville.

There were five new pupils at the Masonic Hall School on Monday bringing the total number up to sixty. The success of the school is very gratifying.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Rev. T. Page Ricaud, aged 83, one of the oldest ministers of the Methodist church in this State, died Saturday at Durham.

The Florida Press Association will spend Friday in Raleigh.

The dry kiln at Hawkside, belonging to the Pine Lumber company, was burned yesterday morning. It was filled with lumber and the loss is about $1,200.—Newbern Journal, Oct. 7.

The editors of the State have returned from the Niagara excursion. They report a big trip.

Is Kinsaul Alive.

A startling and exceedingly sensational report comes from Clinton. We learn today that one of Clinton's most prominent lawyers says that it is current rumor and readily believed, that Archie Kinsauls, who was hanged at Clinton last Friday, is still alive.

It is well known that Kinsauls, after hanging fourteen minutes, opened his lips and requested to be dropped again and that this was done by order of the physicians, and that the second drop tore loose the wound which Kinsauls made on his neck in attempting to commit suicide, the day before the first day set for the execution, thus flooding him from head to foot with blood. After hanging seven minutes the doctors pronounced him dead and he was cut down and the body turned over to his family for burial.

The story says that when the corpse (?) was taken home, Kinsaul's body was wrapped in wet blankets and resuscitated, and was at once sent to Richmond, where he is now under treatment.—Fayetteville: Observer.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye has disposed of the following cases since last report:

John Jones, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and cost, amount $2.41.

John Clark, disorderly and profane, fine $1 and costs, total $6.85.

Samuel Allen, disorderly conduct and assault, fined $5 and costs, total $9.65.

During the progress of this trial Allen became abusive to the court and Mayor Moye sentenced him to 30 days in jail. He afterward made full apology and was released.

James A. Sutton, drunk and disorderly, fined $5 and costs, total $7.70.

Charles Newton, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, total $3.68.

W. H. Allen, drunk and profanity, fined $1 and cost $4.15.

Elijah Griffin, driving recklessly, fined $1 and cost $3.35.

Joshua Mills, driving recklessly, fined $1 and cost $3.35.

Ola Forbes, and H. C. Hooker, riotous and disorderly, find one penny each and half costs each, total $2.37.

"Bear" Facts.

Are the only we deal in. No exaggerations, no word trickery to get your dollars, nothing but good wholesome truth. When we advertise a thing you may stake your faith on it as "Bare Facts" nothing more, nothing less. We assert without fear of challenge that the same money will buy more sterling worth of clothing at our store than any other place in Greenville. No matter whether it is a $5.00-7.50, 10.00 or 12.50 one. This is a sweeping-statement but we will prove it at your pleasure.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8th.
 Mr. McKinley's return to Washington this week is to be followed by increasing activity of the administration in the campaign. He and his party managers are desperate, and every scheme that will get out votes is likely to be in full swing these last weeks of the campaign. Voters in states which the republican managers consider doubtful who are employed in the government department in Washington, have all been given to understand very plainly that they must go home and vote or take the consequences. What States the republican managers consider close or doubtful may be judged from the fact that this notice has been given voters from New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, West Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan. That they have no expectation of carrying Kansas or Nebraska or any of inter-mountain states of the far West, may be judged from their having left the voters from those states free to use their own discretion about going home to vote.

Mr. McKinley is counted upon by the party bosses to do something official to try to raise a hurrah between this and election. Just what this will be has not leaked out, although the expectation has. It will be well for the democrats to be on the lookout for any sort of move on the part of the administration that may be calculated to catch and enthrall those who do not look below the surface of things and to be prepared to counteract the effect of any such move. As a statesman, history may not give Mr. McKinley a very high rank, but as a slick politician up to all the tricks of the trade and having the ability to originate some of his own, Mr. McKinley is a top liner, and will bear close watching.

Republicans are privately admitting that Bryan and Stevenson will carry Illinois, although they are publicly claiming that they will get a majority in the rest of state to wipe out the Bryan majority they concede Chicago will give. To concede Chicago is to concede the state, as the returns in '92, when the state was carried by Cleveland, and in '96, when it was carried by McKinley show that as goes Chicago as goes the State.

The administration seems disposed to make the defeat of Senator Pettigrew the paramount issue in South Dakota. Postmaster General Smith has gone to join Boss Hanna, Senator Frye, and other republican big guns in stumping that state and in trying to down Pettigrew, and incidentally, of course, to capture the electoral votes of the state for Mr. McKinley. Reports from the state say that the campaign is red hot and that the democrats are confident of winning.

False Sentiment.

A saying among certain lawyers is, that it is better that ninety and nine guilty persons go free of punishment, than that one innocent man should be punished; and they seem to think that is Scripture. On this assumption, they will use every method fair or foul, to clear the guilty on the plea that it is merciful to do this. Now what is the scriptural teaching? It is to punish the guilty and protect the innocent. How far from the true object of investigating causes, and putting men charged with crime on trial is it when the plea is, do not punish the innocent! No right-minded man wants the innocent punished. But these fellows who raise this cry—that ninety and nine guilty ones should go free, rather than punish one innocent man—are after clearing the guilty. They do not wish to find out who is guilty and punish them, but to screen the guilty is their aim. Every man accused of crime should have a fair and lawful trial—not to screen the guilty, but to find out whether such are guilty or not; and if on trial it is proven they are guilty every man should be in favor of punishing them according to law. It is as much the duty of the people and their interest for the guilty to be punished as it is for the innocent to be protected.

P. D. GOLD.

A Lesson for Boys.

The solid business men, successful and talented professional men, the men who frame the laws which guide the Nation, the men who occupy high official positions and places of trust, the men who accumulate and distribute wealth for the benefit of mankind, the men who live out of the life which their Maker intended they should were once the boys who had the will power, the grit, the determination and tenacity to press onward through adversity and discouragements, and, though often faint and weary, never gave up, but went ever on and on until they passed the mist of obscurity and shone out in the eyes of everyone as men who had accomplished something. When such men dies the Nation mourns. Boys do you understand the meaning of this lesson?—Advance.

Registration for the November election will commence on Monday, the 22nd day of October, and close at sunset on Saturday night, the 27th day of October. On Saturday of closing the registration the registrar must attend at the polling place with his registration books so that persons may register there if they desire to do so. On other days he may register persons qualified to register, at any place in his precinct. The same pollholders and registrars who held the August election are required to hold the November election, and any vacancies are to be filled exactly as they were filled in that election. In all respects as to time and place of holding the election in November the same law prevails, the polls being opened at sunrise and closing at sunset, and the voting being done at the present voting precincts unless they are altered by the county board of election.

Well Said.

There are cranks and blackguards in every campaign and in every party. The Republican party, therefore, could not justly be condemned on account of the mere fact that there is a person in its ranks stupid and caddish enough to say that Mr. Bryan was bribed for $150,000 to insist on having a silver plank put into the Democratic platform. But when the Republican National Committee, instead of treating this preposterous yarn with the contempt with which anybody of gentlemen would naturally receive it, announces that it will "investigate thoroughly" the "serious charges" against Mr. Bryan, it degrades its party and lowers the tone of the campaign, to the extent of its ability, to a level from which we had hoped American politics had escaped forever. —New York Journal.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Brief Mention of the Comers and Goers.

Joe Powell, of Parmele, came in Monday evening.

E. E. Griffin left this morning on a trip to Wilson.

D. W. Andrews and wife returned to Durham today.

Rev. F. H. Harding left this morning for Washington.

Carlos Harris went down to Winterville Monday evening.

L. L. Hargrave returned to Seven Springs Monday evening.

Mrs. Laura Brown returned Monday evening from a visit to Oxford.

P. H. Gorman left this morning going north, as far as Scotland Neck.

Miss Mary Hardee has taken a position with Higgs & Taft during their special sale.

J. L. Anderson went to Kinston Monday evening to take a position in a buggy factory there.

Miss Annie Kitchen, of Scotland Neck, who has been visiting Miss Rosalind Rountree, returned home this morning.

Mrs. H. C. Edwards, Mrs. G. W. Hardee, Miss Talitha Edwards, Mrs. W. A. Savage, and Mrs. J. A. K. Tucker returned Monday from the Association near Hassells.

BOTH IN A MUDHOLE.

And the Captain had to get more clothes.

Chief of Police J. T. Smith was promenading the street in his "tother clothes" today. The whereofness of it came about this way: Monday night the Captain went to arrest an offender against the peace and quiet of the town. The said offender showed a disposition not to be arrested, and the officer had to take hold of him a bit. He still stuck out that he wasn't going anywhere at all, when Capt. Smith, with that quick way he has of doing up this kind of a customer sometimes, set his right foot over behind the other fellow's left heel, and there was a tumbling over, both of them landing "ker-flop" in the middle of a mudhole. Capt. Smith was on top, but all the same he got so muddy that he had to hunt for more clothes. While he had the offender down in the mudhole the fellow hollered "fire," "murder," "this man's drowing me," and everything else he could think of. Perhaps he thought his time had come.

Badly Cut.

Monday evening about dark Charles Braxton and Meekin Weathington had a row in Forbes' Bar. Sam Allen went up to try to separate the men and stop the fight when one of them stabbed him in the side with a knife. The doctors say Allen is seriously cut.

Not Known Yet.

Some who made guesses in June at the population of Greenville, in competition for the prize offered by THE REFLECTOR, are inquiring about it. The figures have not been learned yet, but all guesses have been saved and the result will be announced as soon as known.

He is Right.

A business man says he cannot judge whether all are subscribers, but he thinks everybody in Greenville reads THE REFLECTOR. He sees the result of his advertisement.

A Curiosity.

Hop Lee, the Chinese Laundryman, brought THE REFLECTOR something that he called "Chinese peanuts." The things were quite a curiosity, and good, too.
