

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Oct. 10th.,

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., are shipping daily many wagons, carts, cart-wheels, cart saddles and back bands throughout all North Carolina, and occasionally fill large orders from other States. Their work is not only appreciated at home, but wherever seen and used passes upon its own merit and calls for richly deserved patronage.

If there is another town in the State, twice the size with one half the enterprise, thrift and go ahead-iveness of Winterville, we would like to see it advertised.

Our two banker ponies, Billie Carroll and Frankie Harrington, are a fine team. Come down and we will give you a treat. They go well together.

The change in the weather makes it much more pleasant, and doesn't remind one so forcibly of what the great hereafter might be.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kittrell, will give a party to their numerous friends on the evening of the 11th. in honor of the birthday of their daughter Miss Effie. We make our best bow in acknowledgment of an invitation to be present.

Mrs. G. E. Lineburry left yesterday to visit relatives and friends at her old home.

Moye & Kittrell have a fine kiln of brick now ready for the market. Anyone in need of brick will do well to call and see them.

J. Dail left Monday for Institute where he will spend some time recreating and visiting friends.

It is a common remark how remarkably strange the great number prosecuted in our courts for capital crimes and so few convicted. There must be some flaw in the law or else a big screw is loose in the administration of it. Patience sometimes ceases to be virtue. The time may come when such will not always be the case.

The Hunsucker Carriage Co. has just received a fine assortment of harness which they propose to sell at small profit. They can suit the plainest as well as the most fastidious. Call and examine them.

A. G. Cox is paying 23 cents per bushel for cotton seed.

The paramount issue in Durham just now, with house keepers, is getting a good cook; and one that will stick. Many of the darkies are giving up this avocation, and some actually prefer to remain idle instead of cooking for a living. It may be possible that when the cold pinches this winter, and the necessities of life are hard to get, some of these same idle cooks will be appealing to their white friends for fuel and rations to keep them going. This view of living without work is certainly an erroneous one among the colored people and should not be encouraged.—Durham Sun.

The wedding ring always fits the hand of fate.

It doesn't always pay the supercilious doctor to cut his patients.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

BLACK JACK, N. C., Oct. 9th. Rev. M. Linton preached here Saturday night and Sunday last.

We are having some rainy weather.

Mr. W. C. McGowan, aged about 80 years, died at home about 3 miles from here on Sunday morning, Oct. 7th. He was taken very suddenly and lived only a few minutes. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones left to mourn his death. The remains were taken to the Skinner farm for burial today.

Johnnie Smith sustained the accident of getting his leg broken Wednesday last. He was improving when last heard from.

Jessie Smith is confined to his bed with the mumps.

Jesse Clark got his arm broken last Tuesday.

Mrs. C. S. Dixon is visiting on Clay Root.

L. H. White, who has been very sick is able to be out again.

Dr. A. D. Betts who has been assisting Rev. Mr. Bruton in the Convention at Salem, returned to his home in Ayden Wednesday. We wish uncle Betts well.

Who is to Blame?

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

The South will never have better mail facilities as long as the mail contractors are allowed to come down here and pick up anybody that has an old blind horse, give a straw bond and hold out a month or two, then give up. Can't the Post Masters see to it that no man shall take a contract only those who can go on time?

The Government gives enough for us to have a good service then why not put a stop to these fellows who sublet to a man that fails and forfeits what he has already worked for, and fails two-thirds of the time to make schedule on account of insufficient team. X.

[We think a remedy would be for the Government to forbid subletting, and make the contract direct with the man who carries the mail, at a price that will warrant good service.—Ed.]

"Mack" Dowdy, the champion hunter of this section tells the Express that he has killed some 1,800 wild turkeys since he first engaged in the sport. He has killed over 60 in one season. "Mack" thoroughly understands the nature and habits of the turkey and when he goes after the game he seldom ever fails to bag it.—Sanford Express.

Senator Hanna seems to evince a desire to eliminate all of the issues for the campaign. There are no trusts, he says, nor is there any such thing as imperialism. Will he go on and say that the "full dinner pail" is a myth, and that free silver is a figment of the imagination?—Savannah News, Dem.

Governor Roosevelt's protest against the charge of militarism is not very affective with people who recall his loud lament that President Harrison's administration did not go to war with Great Britain over the Bering Sea controversy, instead of peaceably settling it by arbitration.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

Shot Two Women.

Columbia, Pa., October 8.—William Mott, of Norfolk, Va., his evening shot and killed Mlle. Alberta, a palmist, with whom he was traveling about the country, and dangerously wounded Mrs. Elizabeth Steinbauer, with whom the couple boarded here. Mlle. Alberta, whose real name was Anna Furlong, was thirty-seven years old; Mott is twenty-nine. Her home is in Chicago. Mott says she has a husband, a hotel man, and son named Brennan living at Bayonne, N. J. Mott met her a year ago at Dover, Delaware. They have been traveling from place to place and for the past two months have had palmistry offices in Lancaster and Columbia. Lately Mott had become very jealous of the woman and this evening, after drinking all day, went to their room and had an altercation with her. Mrs. Steinbauer attempted to pacify them, whereupon Mott began to fire from a 32-calibre revolver. Mrs. Steinbauer fell to the floor with a bullet in her stomach and another in her head and Mlle. Alberta was shot three times in the head and breast. She died instantly. Mrs. Steinbauer was taken to a hospital. Mott surrendered and talked coolly of the murder, regretting that he had shot Mrs. Steinbauer, whom he said he liked, and saying that he had become tired of Mlle. Alberta's fickleness and could stand it no longer.

Bribery and Intimidation.

Salem, Ills., October 8.—William J. Bryan began his week's work with a speech early today in this city, his former home. Friends, many of whom had known Mr. Bryan from boyhood, gave him a marked reception.

Mr. Bryan told of the success of the meetings at the other places visited by him, and the enthusiasm with which he was received.

"If the election were held today," he said, "there is no doubt we would have a majority in the electoral college and on the popular vote. But the Republican managers are now collecting from the monopolies a large campaign fund. They will buy every vote that can be bought. They will coerce every vote that can be coerced. They will intimidate every laboring man who can be intimidated; they will bribe every election judge that can be bribed. They will corrupt every count that can be corrupted. I do not understand how it is possible for the plain every-day Republican to close his eyes to what is going on when he knows that if he aids these influences to carry the election at this time, the same means can be employed to carry other elections when those who are supporting the Republican ticket today will be opposing the Republican ticket."

Census Figures.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The Census Bureau today announced that the population of the State of Delaware was 184,735 in 1900, as against 168,493 in 1890. This is an increase of 16,242, or 9.6 per cent.

The population of the District of Columbia is 278,718, as against 230,392 ten years ago; an increase of 48,326, or 20.9 per cent.

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 10, 1900:

Will Cost Five Million Dollars.

It will cost more than two hundred million dollars for the support of the army and navy for the next year. The chiefs of the bureaus of the War Department are estimating their expenses on a basis of an army of one hundred thousand men. Imperialism and militarism come high, but the trusts want them! North Carolina's part of the cost will be five million dollars—over five times as much as is raised for public schools in the State. Think of it, men and brethren: North Carolina will be taxed in 1901 five dollars for militarism for every dollar it pays to educate its own children. And this heavy burden just as the spirit of the people is aroused to new effort for increased taxation for public schools.

If there were no other reason, North Carolina ought to put the education of their children above imperialism.

Words of Wisdom.

To repel one's cross is to make it heavier.—Amiel.
 He that has patience may compass anything.—Rabelais.
 We take no note of time but from its loss.—Edward Young.
 Diligent is the mother of good fortune.—Miguel De Cervantes.
 What the Master desires is a wakeful work.—Richard Glover.
 Anyone who does less than his very best is not living fully to his duty.
 Like strength is felt from hope and from despair.—Alexander Pope.

It matters not how a man dies, but how he lives.—Dr. Samuel Johnson.

Courage consists not in blindly overlooking danger, but in seeing it, and conquering it.

History is a little else than a picture of human crimes and misfortunes.—Voltaire.

Nothing happens to anybody which he is not fitted by nature to bear.—Marcus Aurelius.

What distinguishes us from one another is our varying relations with infinity.—Maeterlinck.

Fight Between Whites and Blacks.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 8.—A special to The Times-Union and Citizen, from St. Augustine says: "What threatened to terminate a serious fight between a party of young white men and a number of colored men was checked in North City, late last night by the timely arrival of police. A young man was walking on San Marco avenue with two young ladies when he was insulted by a colored man, according to his statement. A fight followed in which a score of white and colored men took part. Fence pickets were the weapons used, and some telling blows were dealt. City and county officials were soon on the spot, and the riot speedily settled."

A man who does not take his home paper, but occasionally answers advertisements in "Story papers" has had some interesting experiences, says an exchange. He learned that by sending one dollar to a Yankee he could get a cure for drunkenness. "Sure enough he did. It was to "take the pledge and keep it." Later on he sent fifty one cent stamps to find out how to raise turnips successfully. He found out, "Just take hold of the top and pull." Being young he wished to marry, and sent thirty-four one cent stamps to a Chicago firm for information as to how to make an impression. When the answer came it read, "Sit down in a pan of dough." That was pretty rough, but he was a patient man, and thought he would yet succeed. The next advertisement he answered read, "How to double your money in six months." He was told to convert his money into bills, fold them, and he would see his money doubled. The next time he sent for twelve useful household articles, and got a package of needles. He was slow to learn, so he sent a dollar to find out "how to get rich." "Work like a devil and never spend a cent." That stopped him, but his brother wrote to find out how to write a letter without pen and ink. He was told to use a lead pencil. He paid five dollars to learn how to live without work, and was told on a postal card, to "fish for suckers as we do."

Here is another argument against imperialism. It is stated by scientists that one of the results of our war in the Philippines will be the importation into this country of many new and strange parasites, germs and microbes not to mention diseases that were never heard of before on this side of the Pacific. All of these are in addition to the war tax.—Atlanta Journal, Dem.

Some of the Pennsylvania papers are warning the mine owners against importing negroes to take the places of the striking miners. They do not think a race racket would be a good way to end the strike racket.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.
 I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.
MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

McLREE'S Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it? They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

During August and September Greenville sold 2,724,231 pounds of tobacco. During the same months Kinston sold 2,832,077 pounds or 107,846 pounds more than Greenville. The average price in Greenville is 6.80, according to the secretary of the Greenville board of trade.—Kinston Free Press.

Died.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Council Dawson, which occurred at 10:30 o'clock this morning at his home near Littlefield, this county, of consumption. Mr. Dawson was a prominent citizen of the county, an upright man and one held in high esteem by every one. He was chairman of the Board of County Commissioners for fourteen years and a member of the Board 18 years. He leaves a large family, among his sons being Dr. W. W. Dawson, of Grifton.

Both Sent to Jail.

The investigation held by Coroner Laughinghouse at Ayden, Tuesday evening, looking into the cause of the death of the little step-son of John Hargett, colored, resulted in the jury returning a verdict to the effect that the boy was killed by John Hargett and his wife, Edith Hargett, both of whom were committed to jail without bail.
