DOUBLE ROBBERY.

Two Stores at Falkland Entered.

There was a double robbery at Falkland Thursday night, the store of King & Morrill and the bar room of R. N. Nichols both being broken into. The thieves got in the former by taking out the transoms over the back door and climbing through it, and got in the bar room by breaking a bolt out of a window. The same parties no doubt broke in both places. The money drawers in both places were rifled of what change had been left in them, which in neither instance was large.

The thieves took part of a cheese out of the store and some case liquor from the barroom and had a feast on top of a goods box outside. No other goods of consequence have yet been missed. Blood hounds were taken out there, but owing to so many people getting about the village the trail could not be run.

Bryan Gains Everywhere.

Latest and most authentic advices from New York and Indiana are to the effect that the electoral votes of these States will be given to Bryan while Illinois and Ohio are very likely to join in the landslide against McKinley.

In Indiana the situation is well defined in the Chicago Record (Republican) which practically concedes the State to Bryan and Stevenson. Marked changes in the laboring centers, a bitter antipathy to trusts, the Cuban postal steals, and the Porto Rican tariff measures are said to have created a political revolution in the Hoosier State which has become a stampede since the great Indianapolis convention of Democratic clubs.

In New York the Democratic committee makes the statement that Republican defections are reported from every portion of the State, and the Democratic committee has so far received the names of over 50,000 Republicans who, it is claimed, will repudiate the present policy of their party, and will vote for Bryan November 6th. The concessions to the Democratic cause are greatest in the farming district of the State.

The Democratic campaign managers are much pleased with the outlook and every indication points to a greater Democratic victory in this State than that registered in 1892.

No less an observer than Lyman J. Gage concedes Chicago to Mr. Bryan. Local Democratic leaders claim the city by 50,000 plurality. This will carry the State of Illinois into the Bryan column.

In Ohio the chances of Democratic victory are no less favorable. It is claimed that Cleveland will give Bryan 12,000 plurality and that 60 per cent. of the Jones vote of 1898 will be cast for the Democratic electoral ticket.

Maryland, Kentucky, West Virginia and Delaware are considered by the national committee to be safe for the Democrats.—National Democrat.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

There are 23 orphans in the Catholic protectory at Raleigh.

J. M. Gattis, of Orange county is dead. He was 98 years old.

The Populists of the Fifth district have nominated Rev. J. T. B. Hoover for Congress.

Two Mooresville boys, aged about 14, who were great novel readers, run away from their homes to join a circus.

The Republican executive committee of the Wilmington district met at Hamlet Tuesday and nominated Col. Oliver H. Dockery for Congress against Hon. John D. Bellamy.

The residence of Mrs. Annie Maxwell at Mt. Olive was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday night. The fire originated in the kitchen and very soon the whole building was in ashes.

A Frenchman who recently traveled in the United States has written an article on the tooth-filling branch of dentistry, and after studying statistics he estimates that upwards of $500,000 worth of gold is packed into the teeth of Americans every year.

The following is the list of congressional nominees of the three parties, so far as yet named, and is convenient for reference:

First district, John H. Small, D.; second, Claude Kitchin, D.; Joseph J. Martin, R.; third, Charles R. Thomas, D., John E. Fowler, P., fourth, E. W. Pou, D., J. A. Giles, R., J. J. Jenkins, P.; fifth, W. W. Kitchin, D., J. R. Joyce, R.; sixth, John D. Bellamy, D., seventh, T. F. Klutz, D., J. Q. Holton, R., A. C. Shuford, P.; eighth, J. C. New Bern Fair.

The Fair and Race Meet to be held in New Bern, Nov. 12-17, will be more attractive than ever. Good bands of music will be plentiful, the exhibits will be larger and more varied, and the special attractions—always good at these fairs—will embrace startling and interesting novelties never before seen in the State. The association assures us that no money or pains will be spared to make this fair a record breaker.

SEEN AND HEARD IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., Oct. 10th

Glad to see Mr. T. J. Latham, Jr., out again, after a severe attack.

Fortunately we are in a lightwood country, so that when the gas won't burn, we can carry a lightwood torch and find our way.

The Rodman property is being rebuilt, and we understand it will be built a solid block from the old office to Water street.

Rev. J. D. Waters began his series of meetings at the Christian church on Sunday the 7th inst., and there was a large attentive audience at church at the evening service.

Capt. A. W. Styron is talking a steamboat route from this place to Ocracoke, and if anybody in this section can get it, he will. The proposed route is from Washington to Ocracoke via Swanquarter and back daily.

The schooner Cora, about which some uneasiness was felt, has arrived.

The machinery for the steamer Goldsboro is expected now, and will be placed in position as soon as it arrives.

Z. Habourn has turned his dwelling around to face Second street and built him a store to front Gladley street.

The butchers are scattered about the town pretty generally since the fire.

We were glad to see D. C. Way, of Haslin, on our streets on Monday.

Mrs. Bullock, of Rocky Mount, spent Sunday with Mrs. A. Latham.

The family of J. H. Blake has moved to Norfolk. B. W. Taylor has moved to the house occupied by Mr. Blake.

Rev. Mr. Corpenning, the pastor of the Missionary Baptist church has moved up to the West end.

F. H. Short is in New York, on a business trip.

The Pungo Lumber Co. is putting in a band mill at their mill on Pungo Creek.

The contractor will begin repairing the bridge at Washington in a day or two.

If the bridge at Leachville received as much attention as the one here, it would be in far better condition.

The city fathers are going to make Water street 10 feet wider. Those who have to pass down that thoroughfare in the future, will rise up and call them blessed.

We read with sorrow the account of the death of our beloved friend, Moses T. Moye. We have known and loved him for 25 years, and have known no better, and few as good men as he. We were present at his ordination at Oak Grove, Pitt county, in Oct. 1874, and it is sad to reflect on the number of those present on that occasion, which have been called away.

J. A. Trickett, formerly manager of the Washington Planing Mills, and now of Ohio, is spending some days here.

Rev. J. D. Waters who was holding a series of meetings here received a 'phone message from Bath that his sister was supposed to be dying and he left for her bedside at once. We learn she is dead.

And now it is alleged that Marcus Aurelius Hanna was born in England, coming to this country with his parents when he was seven years of age. The author of the allegation should be promptly suppressed. This country is too busy in the Philippines to risk any possible provocation of trouble with England.—Charlotte News.

The Washington Post would like to know what the administration is doing about Mr. Neely, the Indian hustler, who sequestered so much of that Cuba postoffice money. It is doing nothing until after the election and will then do as little as possible. Mr. Neely is an orthodox regulation Republican.—Wilmington Star.

Some populists say that they will not vote for Bryan this year, as they did in 1896, because they are opposed to the election law passed by our last Legislature.

It is said that a bad excuse is better than no excuse, but the above excuse for not voting for Bryan is worse than no excuse at all. Of course Mr. Bryan had nothing whatever to do with the enactment of our election law, and is in no way responsible for it. He had no more to do with the enactment of that law than with the election law of the Fusion Legislature. It is not only unjust but silly to blame Mr. Bryan for any law passed by any Legislature. He has studiously refrained from taking sides on any question in our State politics. Indeed he has recently been much criticized and even censured for not advocating our suffrage amendment in the speeches, which he made on his last visit to this State. And Democrats have been urged, because of this, not to vote for him next month. Such Democrats would be as foolish and as unjust as the Populists who oppose Bryan because our last Legislature passed an election law, which they do not like.—Pittsboro Record.

The United States Leads in the Number and Grade of Awards.

Washington, Oct. 10.—A cablegram received here to-day from Commissioner General Peck, at Paris, contains an announcement of the final results obtained by the various countries in the form of awards at the Paris Exposition. The United States received 2,175 awards, Germany 1,826, Great Britain 1,727 and Russia 1,493.

The United States leads not only in the grand total, but also in all grades of awards, from grand prizes to merely honorable mention.

Will Try it Again.

London, Oct. 10.—A challenge from Sir Thomas Lipton for another series of races for the America's cup has been sent to the New York Yacht Club.

Sir Thomas Lipton informed a representative of the Associated Press that his challenge is on board the White Star Line steamer Germanic, due at New York, Thursday, and that he prefers that all information as to its contents be first given out by the New York Yacht Club.

The letter challenging contains a suggestion as to the date of the race, which, it is understood, will be in August. It is reported that the challenging yacht will be built on the Thames and that she will be named Shamrock.

According to rumor, Robert Wringle, one of the commanders of the old Shamrock, will command the new racer.

Don't be Morbid.

It is an easy thing to get into a morbid state; to imagine that people do not care for you, and to be over-sensitive, and to think slights and neglects are intended, when this is not the case. Your tears grow very quick to come, your heart is heavy, and you are a sorrow not only to yourselves, but to every one around you. The cure for this state of mind is simple and practical. Busy yourself in making other people happy; remember there may be other girls who feel as you do, and show them some kind, pleasant attention. If you have felt left out of a conversation because you did not know about the subject being discussed, and the talker turned to some one who did know, do not draw away and feel hurt; forget yourself, and show an interest by attentive listening, or asking sensible questions—there is nothing a talker likes better than an interested listener.

Putting yourself in somebody else's place is a good antidote against the heaviness which comes when you allow yourself to think you have been neglected.—Farm Journal.

Kinsauls Butchered.

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 10.—It is believed here that the butchered execution of Archie Kinsauls will probably result in the introduction of a new execution law in the next legislature. People in these parts have talked about the Clinton affair a good deal and say that it emphasizes the need of a change in the system. It is altogether likely that the result of the agitation that a measure will be submitted when the Legislature meets again providing for the State to become the public executioner. As soon as a man is condemned he will be sent to the penitentiary and kept there until the day of execution when his "taking off" will be affected by the State executioner according to improved methods.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply Iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

Speaking of that lie about Bryan being paid to keep the silver plank in the Kansas City platform, Mark Hanna says he doesn't believe it, that while "Bryan is a demagogue, he is not dishonest." Perhaps Hanna thinks a demagogue can be honest. Bryan doesn't and neither does any other honest man.—Wilmington Star.

A Kansas woman who experienced religion thought it sinful to wear ornaments, and gave her gold watch to her husband. He took it down town and bet it against another watch that Bryan would carry Indiana, and by the time she fully recovers from her pious spell and wants her property again he will have a watch of his own to wear. Great heads those Kansans have.—Denver Post.

Brief Mention of the Comers and Goers.

W. A. Fleming, of Hassells, was here today.

Rev. B. H. Hearne went to Plymouth today.

Rev. F. B. Tichnor left this morning for Washington.

Adrian Savage returned from Richmond Thursday evening.

Miss Rebecca Dixon, of Greene county, spent Thursday here with friends.

Policeman E. B. Brinson, of Kinston, spent today here. He came over to see about purchasing some blood hounds for his town.

Mrs. Dr. Dixon, of Ayden, spent Thursday here with the family of her brother, H. L. Coward, and returned home on the evening train.

In a sermon at the Baptist tabernacle at Raleigh Sunday Rev. Dr. Hubbard, the pastor, declared that the day of miracles is not past; that the church has left miracles, but that miracles have not left the church. He called attention to the fact that on the day of the death of Dr. Wingate, president of Wake Forest college, the latter saw the Saviour and talked with him personally for the space of eight hours. Baptists in Raleigh, among them N. B. Broughton, declare that this is an unquestioned fact.

Convention Held at Edenton.

Edenton, N. C. Oct. 10.—The Republican convention of the First district was called to order by Dr. Abbott, with Mr. Phelps in the secretary's chair. Committee on credentials reported fourteen counties represented, and on motion the temporary officers were made permanent.

Dr. Abbott stated briefly that the convention had been called to name a candidate for Congress, an elector and a district executive committee.

Without speeches, Dr. A. B. Alexander, of Tyrell, was nominated and unanimously chosen candidate for Congress, and Mr. T. P. Wilcox, of Pasquotank for elector. The executive committee was appointed, one member from each county, and the convention thereafter adjourned.

The Populists hung on the outskirts of the convention desiring to get in Theo. White for Congress, but their desires were ignored. So they at once called their convention and endorsed the Republican ticket.

Both conventions were lacking in number of speeches and enthusiasm, though they appear to mean business.

Ike Meekins and D. O. Newberry, who were nominated by some Republicans last summer and have been speaking through out the district were treated with silent contempt. This means that they are not in the fight and Mr. Meekins' energy and efforts to confront Congressman Small have been wasted. Of course Mr. Meekins and Mr. Newberry will have to come down.

A Smile in Each.

It's sometimes the women who get sold at bargain sales.

It doesn't take a married woman to husband her resources.

It takes more nerve than voice to become a society vocalist.

The man who boasts that he has no enemies is usually a nonentity.

The people who jump at conclusions would jump for the rear of a ferry boat.
