

ALBEMARLE PRESBYTERY.

In Session With Greenville Church.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Presbytery met at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Morton read the Missionary appointment for the coming winter which was received and adopted.

The report on Sabbath schools was read by the Agent, Rev. C. N. Wharton.

Rev. C. N. Wharton tendered his resignation as Sabbath school agent. After considerable discussion the resignation was accepted and Rev. W. T. Walker was elected in his place. Further discussion was postponed until after services at night.

Elder C. M. Brown, of Washington, was granted leave of absence.

Elder Shaw was granted leave of absence after this afternoon's session.

Report of agent colored evangelization was postponed and discussion of report of committee on Minutes of General Assembly resumed.

Subject under discussion was whether or not the action of the General Assembly in regard to the "foot note" to the Confession of Faith should be rescinded. After much earnest discussion it was decided in the affirmative.

An overture to the General Assembly to revise the Confession was voted down, 4 for and 9 against.

THURSDAY NIGHT.

At 7:30 Rev. Dr. Daniel preached a powerful sermon on "Our Forgetfulness" as suggested by that of The Chief Butler, see Genesis Chapters 40 to 41.

After the sermon Presbytery resumed its sessions and heard the report of the Agent of Colored Evangelization. Rev. W. T. Walker resigned as Agent for this cause and Rev. E. P. Bradley was chosen as his successor.

The Agent of Publication and Colportage work reported that this branch of our work had been very encouraging during the year.

Agent of Foreign Missions made an encouraging report.

Presbytery adopted by a rising vote the following resolutions of thanks: Resolved:

1 That it has afforded the Presbytery very high pleasure to meet once more in this beautiful church and in the lovely city of Greenville; and that the thanks of the Presbytery are warmly tendered to this congregation for its cordial entertainment, and to the homes so graciously and liberally extending their hospitality to the members of this body, as well as to the other churches of the city for their Christian courtesy and to the citizens generally for kindest attention and consideration.

2. That this resolution be read from the pulpit of this church at the discretion of the session.

The docket being clear, after the reading of the minutes the Presbytery adjourned to meet in Raleigh during the meeting of Synod, at call of the Moderator. Closed with the Apostolic benediction.

There will be preaching at 7:30 tonight by Rev. W. T. Walker.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

Raleigh fair next week and Weldon fair the week after.

The ministers of Charlotte passed strong resolutions against the location of a $300,000 brewery in that city.

The University of North Carolina has ordered work to begin at once on a new dormitory. It will be a three-story brick building, with granite trimmings and slate roof. It is to cost $18,000.

Emma Brooks, a colored woman on the farm of Lam Lawrence, locked her 1-year-old child in the house and went off. The house caught fire and the little one was burned to death.—Tarboro Southerner.

Exchange Greatly Improved:

Mr. F. C. Toepelman, General Manager of the Carolina & Virginia Telephone Company, who was here part of this week, told THE REFLECTOR that most of the outside work of reconstructing the exchange here had been completed. New poles have been put up, and new cables and lightning arrestors have been put on. All that remains to be done now is putting in the new distributing board and all metallic switch board, which will be done next week. After this is finished Greenville will have one of the best telephone exchanges in the State.

Cotton Mill Trouble.

Charlotte, N. C., October 17.—The cotton mill trouble in Alamance county has reached an acute stage. Hundreds of men, women and children are idle as the result of notices posted by the mill owners some days ago notifying all operatives who would not withdraw from the Textile Union to consider themselves discharged after the 15th.

Very few if any of the operatives abandoned the union, and as the mill men remained firm, a majority of the mills in the county are either idle or running with greatly reduced forces. Instead of crippling the union, the order of the mill owners seems to have had the effect of strengthening it, numbers of new members having been received since the notices were posted.

Both the operatives and their late employers are firm and determined to carry their points. As yet no disorders have been reported.

If the difference is not soon adjusted or employment secured elsewhere, many of the operatives will suffer for the necessities of life. A majority of them are homeless and with practically no means. The Textile Union is taking steps to provide shelter and food for the needy.

The Philadelphia Press rises to remark that when Mr. Bryan talks about the plans of Mark Hanna to carry the election by fraud and corruption he offers an insult to the American people. Oh, no, but he evidently makes the organs very wrathful by referring to Hanna's programme. Does any one suppose that Hanna is raising all this money to be honestly expended?—Wilmington Star.

Democratic Speaking

Mr. James L. Fleming, County Elector for Bryan and Stevenson, and Mr. G. B. King, will address the people of Pitt county on the issues of the coming election at the following times and places:

Farmville, Saturday, October 20th, 2 o'clock P. M.

Winterville, Thursday, October 25th, at night.

Falkland, Saturday, October 27th 2 o'clock P. M.

Grifton, Thursday, November 1st, at night.

Grimesland, Tuesday, October 23rd, 2 o'clock P. M.

Penny Hill, Friday, October 26th, at night.

Mays Chapel, Tuesday October 30th, at night.

Stokes, Saturday November 3rd 2 o'clock P. M.

Democratic Clubs are requested to meet with their entire membership at said times and places, together with all who are interested in the success of Democracy.

Ex-Senator W. R. Williams will speak with them at Falkland and May's Chapel.

Negro Men Monopolizing Reading Rooms and Tables.

Much complaint is being heard just now about the large number of negro men and youths who are making a practice of lounging around the State library monopolizing the periodical table and other departments. This nuisance for it is declared such by white patrons of the library and Mr. Sherrell, the genial and efficient librarian as well, has only been noticeable for the past two or three weeks. In fact for scarcely so long a time as that, and the authorities are somewhat puzzled to decide just how it shall be abolished. As conditions now are the librarian is receiving very many complaints from ladies who have to almost elbow their way through these negroes to select from the reading room table a paper or periodical that they may want to read.

The librarian is determined to put a stop to this condition in some way. He says the legislature should enact some law by which separate reading rooms would be provided for white and colored people.—Raleigh Post.

Rev. John E. White Called to Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 17.—The congregation of the Second Baptist church, of this city, tonight decided to call Rev. John E. White, secretary of the Baptist mission board of North Carolina, to fill the pulpit of that edifice.

W. L. Wilson Dead.

Lexington, Va., Oct. 17.—Hon. William L. Wilson, president of Washington and Lee University and ex-postmaster general, died suddenly at 9:30 o'clock this morning of congestion of the lungs. He had been failing ever since his return from Arizona. He was a member of Cleveland's cabinet.

When Hanna insists that there are no trusts he displays a bump of incredulity equal to that of Youtsey when he declared that Goebel wasn't dead. But Youtsey was laboring under a mental hallucination, while Hanna is just faking.—Wilmington Star.

COTTON STALKS AS STOCK FEED.

The cotton stalks have in many places come out so that the fields are greener and prettier than they have been at any time. This is an unusual condition, and some few persons have expressed the opinion that a very late fall would cause many new bolls to open. But the best informed have no such hope. The bolls are too young to mature before the cold weather kills the plants.

However, it may be that these green cotton stalks would make good feed.

Mr. Isaac Brown, of Tuckahoe, Jones county, writes us that a short while ago he wrote the State commissioner of agriculture asking advice as to the best way to utilize cotton stalks to advantage, so as to supplement the poor short crop of lint cotton. Mr. Brown says he stated that cattle and horses will eat the tender part of the stalks and that cattle will fatten in a cotton patch after the stalks are killed by cold weather.

Mr. Brown further mentioned in his postal that Prof. Atkinson, of Boston, asserted at the first Atlanta exposition that "the cotton stalks and seed properly utilized are worth more than lint."

Mr. Brown stated that the farmers have no "silos" to put the stalks in, and asked if any experiments had been made converting them into hay.

The reply follows:

Raleigh, Oct. 10th, 1900

MR. ISAAC BROWN,
 Tuckahoe, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—Your postal of the 8th inst, to Mr Patterson has come to me, in his absence, for reply. The chemical analysis of cotton stalks show them to be equal in feeding value to ordinary grass hay but the difficulty with them is that after the cotton is picked the stalks are so tough that animals will not eat them to any considerable extent; though, as you say the case is rather different this season, and if they should be cut before frost, then stock would eat them. I see no reason why they should not be a fair feed. You might try an experiment with them by cutting a quantity, curing, and putting away for your stock. I am satisfied that no experiment of this kind has been made. If you had a shredder, like the ones used in the shredding of corn stalks, it would certainly improve the value of the stalks for feeding, as it would break and tear them up so that the animals could eat them to much better advantage. Of course it would not pay you, I think, to get one of these shredders just for this purpose, as it would be an experiment with you, though a number of farmers in the State having good sized farms are getting them and utilizing the entire corn plant instead of the ear and fodder as it has been done heretofore. By this process double the feeding value is gotten from the corn plant, as the ears contain about 55 per cent of the total feeding value and the stalk about 45 per cent.

I am sorry I cannot give you definite information on the subject but, as I have stated, I know of no experiments that will help you out.

Very respectfully,

B. W. GILGORE,
 State Chemist.

The Free Press knows nothing about such matters as the above, but publishes this article simply to put our farmers to thinking. If it ever would pay to harvest and save the cotton stalks, it seems to us that this is an ideal year to do so.
 —Kinston Free Press.

The Johnston County Case.

Raleigh, N. C., October 17.—Following are the names of fifteen Johnston county citizens arrested on the charge of intimidating and assaulting D. T. Massey last July: Cleon Parker, F. H. Brooks, J. M. Morgan, C. L. Rains, F. B. McKinne, B. S. Pittman, R. J. Noble, C. F. Kirby, E. S. Abell, Thomas Brinkley, George Powell, C. S. Powell, N. T. Ryals, George Holt, Claude Bandy. All are representative men. Morgan is a member of the legislature, Abell and ex-member, C. S. Powell ex-sheriff, Noble past grand master of Masons.

The warrants were issued through United States Commissioner Parker by Claude Bernard, district attorney. All those arrested asked for immediate hearing, but Parker declined to have it and postponed it until October 25th. That is the day Chairman Simmons speaks at Smithfield. It is suggested that fusionists probably thought there would be some disturbance there that day owing to the great crowd, and that they would get some excuse for attacking the validity of the election.

Tarboro Bank Wins Its Suit.

Tarboro, N. C., October 17.—In the superior court here today, Judge Coble presiding, in the case of the Bank of Tarboro vs. the Fidelity and Trust Deposit Company of Baltimore, Md., with James G. Mehegan, the defaulting cashier, defendant, the jury, after a week in investigating, rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff bank. The Surety Company was resisting payment of the bond.

Counsel representing the bank were Hon. H. G. Connor and G. M. T. Fountain. The Surety Company was represented by Colonel John L. Bridgers and Mehegan by Donnell Gilliam.

The Great New Bern Fair.

The next Grand Fall Exhibition and Race Meet of The Great New Bern Fair will be held

November 12-17, 1900.

It will be the Grandest and Greatest Exhibition of the Diversified Products of our State ever held.

Every Department has been augmented, and the Program of Amusements has been made to embrace only the very latest and best attractions.

A Double Balloon Ascension and Double Parachute Leap will be made every day by two of the Most Celebrated Aeronauts in the World. The Vaudeville Attractions will include everything that is Up-to-date, Daring Acrobats, Tumblers and Performers, and the very funniest Clowns and Comedians ever seen on the fair grounds.

Splendid bands and orchestras! The best and most exciting racing ever seen in North Carolina is insured. The large purses, aggregating $3,000, will be hotly contested for by the speediest trotters and runners on the turf.

Wild and domesticated animals will be exhibited in their natural state—a whole menagerie of them.

An immense aquarium will contain the finest specimens of fish—a truly beautiful and interesting exhibition. The fish, oysters and game exhibits will be greater than ever. The fair is to be made a great cyclorama of the Far West art, nature and industry. Do not miss it.

Hon. F. M. Simmons will formerly open the fair November 13th. A great many other distinguished persons will be present.

All the railroads and steamboat lines will run cheap excursions. Send for premium list or other information to Narrow Escape.

Mrs. Dr. E. A. Moye and little son both had a narrow escape from injury, Thursday afternoon. She had the little fellow out driving and was holding him in her lap, one of her sisters, Miss Hellen, Forbes, being in the buggy with them. The child held the whip, and while Mrs. Moye was leaning over and talking to some one passing the little fellow struck the horse a sharp lick. The horse jumped and both Mrs. Moye and the child were thrown out of the buggy. Fortunately neither of them was hurt, but they were badly frightened, the mother being especially alarmed about her child.

Rev. I. A. Canfield Reported to Have Shot and Killed His Wife and Child.

The report was made on the street here yesterday that Rev. I. A. Canfield of Snow Hill, killed his wife and child. Mr. Canfield is well known here, having at one time been assistant to Rev. M. M. Marshall, of Christ church. Since leaving here he has abandoned the ministry and was to be cashier of a bank to be established at Snow Hill.

Mr. J. B. Hill, of Snow Hill, was in the city yesterday, and stated that he was directly from Snow Hill, and that when he left, no such affair had occurred, and that Mr. Canfield had not been in Snow Hill in three weeks.—Raleigh News and Observer 18th.

A report somewhat similar to the above has been circulated in Greenville for the last day or two, though its correctness could not be vouched for. Mr. Canfield for several months last year served the Episcopal church in this town as a supply pastor, and left here to go to Snow Hill to engage in banking business. We hope the rumor is not true and that no such awful tragedy has been committed.
