Let 'Er Roll.

We are friendly to all harmless diversions of the people from circus to senatorial primaries, so let her rock. Besides, it is useful. We have the word of ex-Senator Jarvis that without the primary folks wouldn't know that an election is on hand. We don't care how much the candidates fight, but we do regret to see some of the brethren of the press so wrought up over a matter that will not be worth a green persimmon to them and for which they will get no thanks after it's all over. But that is their business and we are not attempting to meddle with it. Greensboro Telegram.

FLOATING GRAVE YARD.

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—The transport Sherman, which has arrived here from the Philippines, is practically a funeral ship. On board the vessel are 51 dead, 12 insane, 467 sick and 58 convalescent soldiers and civilians. The transport has been sent to quarantine.

Most discouraging reports are brought from the far East by the physical wrecks who have come home in the Sherman. It is stated that the hospitals at Manila are overcrowded with the victims of bullets and disease. Fully 2,000 soldiers now lie on the cots in the hospitals and many of these will die before they can be placed on board transports to be brought home.

Added to this is the fact that the transport Meade is now on its way to San Francisco with 300 soldiers. All of these are shattered in mind and body, many of them being violently insane from the effects of hardship and the climate. Most of them will never recover their reason.

The transport Logan left Manila last Tuesday. It carries 273 soldiers, all of whom are sick and many of whom are bordering on insanity.

It is thus with every transport that leaves Manila. Hardly enough ships can be secured to carry on the victims of the campaign against the Filipinos. Worn by severe trials in the fields, soldiers become demented day after day, and reports say, are obliged to be confined and watched for fear they will do harm to themselves and their comrades.

If the above is not a horrible arraignment of the warfare this government is carrying on in the East, we are at a loss to know what to call it. To satisfy the greed of those who are domineering this government, we are not only carrying on an unjust war and slaughtering a people we have no right to molest, but are also sacrificing thousands of our own men for naught. It is to the everlasting shame of the United States that such a war is continued.

The South's Progress.

The New York Commercial is much impressed with the rapid development of the cotton manufacturing industry of the South.

It says: That section has now 4,801,320 spindles in active operation and during the present year will bring 1,418,397 more spindles into play, closing the year with some 6,250,000 spindles. Since 1880 the progress has been amazing, both in the growing and in the manufacturing of cotton. In other lines also the progress has been phenomenal. Iron and steel making, copper and coal mining, lumbering, cotton seed oil industry, diversification of crops, railroad building, banking and education in all these great things have been accomplished. The South is to-day emphatically the most promising field of enterprise in the Union.

The new music played by the Osceola Band is the best our people have heard. The band grows better all the time.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

A special term of the Superior Court of Greene county will begin on Monday the 19th day of November 1900, for the trial of civil cases only. Judge Moore will preside.

Greensboro is suffering from a queer kind of vandalism. Somebody is going around boring small holes in trees and then blowing the trees to pieces with dynamite. The public is indignant.

On Thursday, November 8th, Mr. Charles M. Parks, of Hillsboro, will be married in Tarboro, N. C., to Mrs. Kate S. Blount, of that town, formerly a Miss Staton. Mr. Parks is a retired merchant, having done business in Hillsboro for many years.—Raleigh Post.

SEEN AND HEARD IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, N. C., Oct. 22th

We were glad to see our old friend, A. J. Smith, of Hyde county, on Sunday last.

Capt. Geo. H. Hill is building an addition to his residence on East Second street.

Capt. "Dave" Hill, of the steamer Tar River, is attending court at Beaufort, N. C., as a witness in a case in which the N. & S. R. R. Co. is sued by a preacher, on account of his getting overboard at Bell Haven.

Spencer Bros. are progressing finely on rebuilding their store.

Rev. A. Latham baptised ten persons on last Lord's day near the Campbell mill. They were part of the fruit of the meetings held by Rev. J. D. Waters. There were 20 additions in all.

Thos. E. Latham, of Norfolk, has been some days on a visit to his mother.

H. Clay, of Fairfield, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Capt. Studdert.

The powers that be, in their paternal oversight in the matter of sheds over the sidewalks, were inexorable and the sheds had to come down. In rainy weather we shall have no loafing place and will be compelled to cease blocking the sidewalks and then persons on business can pass down the sidewalks. Now if they (the powers that be) will quit "straining at a gnat" and look at such porches, cellar doors, &c., as take up from one-half to three-fourths of the sidewalks, we will rise up and bless them. We specially regret the taking down the shed in front of the court house, as it will break up the practice by a lot of boys (f) of congregating there on Sunday nights.

We hear somebody enquiring about Hon. Matt. W. Ransom. We believe that if the gallant old ex-Senator were to come out in the present race he would sweep North Carolina like an avalanche.

The article in the Monday's REFLECTOR about the Simmons Club adjourning to hear Senator Pritchard speak, should have been credited to the Charlotte Observer. The printer overlooked the credit.

A new magazine that has just made its appearance is The World's Work. Doubleday, Page & Co., New York, are publishers, and Walter H. Page, a North Carolinian, editor. We have received the first copy and it is a truly handsome publication. Besides its beauty in appearance, it is filled with the choicest matter of the time and richly illustrated. It sells for 25 cents a copy or $3 a year.

The Charlotte Observer, already the leading newspaper in North Carolina, has made a new departure and set the pace far in lead of all competitors. Sunday's issue of the Observer announced that it would appear every day in the week hereafter, there being a regular issue on Mondays as well as all other days. It is the first North Carolina paper to make this departure. As the Observer will have to work a force on Sundays to get out this Monday morning paper, it is not in our heart to congratulate it upon this step, for, regardless of what custom elsewhere may be, the fourth commandment has not been repealed and there might be danger in dis-regarding it. All the same we congratulate the Observer upon being a prosperous, enterprising paper.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

The State Fair Now in Progress a Big Success.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Oct. 23, 1900.
 This is "Fair week," annually the gayest of the year in Raleigh and judging by all the indications up to this hour—the morning of the second day of the Fair—the event promises to surpass any of like character in many years.

THE COTTON MILL "LOCK-OUT."
 The trouble between the cotton mill owners and their operatives in Alamance county, which, by reason of the "lock-out," has now resulted in the enforced idleness of some two or three thousands of working men and women, is causing much comment and no little speculation over the probable result.

The operatives who decline to renounce their recently organized "unions" have been compelled to cease work in the mills and to vacate the dwellings used by them and I am told many will have to resort to tents in which to live and sleep; some, it is stated already are doing so. This mode of life would seem to work a great hardship when cold weather sets in, and it is to be hoped some means of settling the trouble will soon be reached. The two newspapers at Graham and people from Alamance now in Raleigh state that the sympathy of the local public is now with the operatives; that their right to form organizations for their own benefit and protection is one that ought not to be denied them, etc. The organized mill owners do not accede this, and therein rests the whole trouble.

SENATORSHIP THE ABSORBING SUBJECT.

The advance guard of fair visitors are all talking about the senatorship and the primary. For, although they take time to admire and discuss the exhibits, that does not prevent the discussion of the other subject, which is unquestionably the absorbing one at present from one end of North Carolina to the other; on the contrary, the fair is rather helping along the "discussion;" and the names of Simmons, Carr and Waddell are heard on all hands.

I have found out already that the east appears to be overwhelmingly for Simmons or Waddell, if the representatives of that section now here correctly or even fairly well indicate the general status of things east of Raleigh. Of course most of them advocate Mr. Simmons, with Major Waddell coming second, in the proportion of about three to one. On an average, the fifth man in a crowd of easterners is an enthusiastic talker-up of General Carr's candidacy, most of the Carr strength coming unquestionably from the Fifth congressional district.

Those of the western Democrats who express their readiness to yield to the preference of the east, even if contrary to their own individual inclinations, are pursuing the proper course. Obviously and unquestionably the east ought to name the eastern Senator. If the west named him for her, then the west might find the east's memory at least long and troublesome in 1902 when it comes to the selection of Pritchard's successor.

But they very properly base their desire to do the right thing by the east on a higher plane than that, and eastern gentlemen tell me they so accept it—just as they would accord it to the west.

Killed in a Football Game.

Asheville, Oct. 21.—William Dougal Price, of Palestine, Texas, a student at Bingham School, died this afternoon of injuries received in a football game yesterday afternoon at 5:30.

The first and second elevens were playing a practice game and Price, who was left end, attempted to stop interference and fell, his head being partly under his body and several players fell on top of him. Price's spinal cord was sprained and the lower part of his body paralyzed. He was 18 years of age.

This is quite an unusual case. Two young men, Gentiles, will be married to two Hebrew young ladies at Kingstree, S. C., October 31st and the Governor of South Carolina—Gov. McSweeney—will perform the ceremony.

The Great New Bern Fair.

The next Grand Fall Exhibition and Race Meet of The Great New Bern Fair will be held November 12-17, 1900.

It will be the Grandest and Greatest Exhibition of the Diversified Products of our State ever held. Every Department has been augmented, and the Program of Amusements has been made to embrace only the very latest and best attractions.

A Double Balloon Ascension and Double Parachute Leap will be made every day by two of the Most Celebrated Aeronauts in the World. The Vaudeville Attractions will include everything that is Up-to-date, Daring Acrobats, Tumblers and Performers, and the very funniest Clowns and Comedians ever seen on the fair grounds.

Splendid bands and orchestras! The best and most exciting racing ever seen in North Carolina insured. The large purses, aggregating $3,000, will be hotly contested for by the speediest trotters and runners on the turf.

Wild and domesticated animals will be exhibited in their natural state—a whole menagerie of them.

An immense aquarium will contain the finest specimens of fish—a truly beautiful and interesting exhibition. The fish, oysters and game exhibits will be greater than ever. The fair is to be made a great cyclorama of the farthest art, nature and industry. Do not miss it.

Hon. F. M. Simmons will formerly open the fair November 13th.

A great many other distinguished persons will be present. All the railroads and steamboat lines will run cheap excursions. Send for premium list or other information to

PURELY PERSONAL.

Brief Mention of the Comers and Goers.

N. Jackson went to Kinston Monday evening.

J. B. Williams left this morning for the Raleigh fair.

Z. P. Vandyke returned Monday evening from Parmele.

N. H. Whitfield went down the road Monday evening and returned this morning.

R. A. Tyson and daughter, Miss Bettie, left this morning for Raleigh to attend the fair.

Mrs. C. T. Munford and little son, Charlie, left this morning for Raleigh to attend the fair.

R. H. Hunsucker and Miss Cox, of Winterville, passed through this morning for the Raleigh fair.

Soldier's Reunion.

There will be a reunion of the Confederate soldiers of the county in Greenville on Friday, 26th. Gen. J. S. Carr will be here to speak on that day and all the old soldiers should meet him.

Waddell Withdraws.

It is announced today that Hon. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, has withdrawn from the Senatorial race. This leaves only two candidates in the field, Hon. F. M. Simmons and Gen. J. S. Carr.

Speakings.

Hon. T. G. Skinner will speak in the court house tonight. Let everybody go out to hear him. The Osceola Band will make music.

Gen. J. S. Carr will speak in Greenville on next Friday, at noon. He is entitled to a large crowd and a respectful hearing of his side to the Senatorial candidacy.

Clark-Monaghan.

The following cards have been sent to friends out of town today:

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clark request your presence at the marriage of their daughter Etta Belle to

Mr. Edward J. Monaghan Tuesday morning November sixth at eight o'clock, at residence Greenville, North Carolina, 1900.

Next Friday.

Gen. Julian S. Carr will speak in Greenville Friday, October 26th, at 12 o'clock. Everybody invited, especially the ladies. The Osceola Band will be on hand and furnish music for the occasion. We think this is the first opportunity Pitt county people have had to hear Gen. Carr and no doubt a large crowd of people will be on hand to greet him. He is a pleasant as well as a forcible speaker.

Not Half Had Been Told.

We heard of a gentlemen from another town, who was in Greenville recently for the first time in ten years. He remarked that he had heard much of the improvements going on here, but did not expect to see half that had greeted his eyes. That is the way here. Greenville does not make much noise over what she is doing, and when people come to look at us they are forced to exclaim that not half had been told of our progress.

The New York Life Insurance Company is issuing the most liberal policy on the market, and offering an excellent opportunity for first class reliable men to make money. Correspondence invited.
