NOTICE.

I have sold out my entire mercantile business in Greenville, including stock, store, fixtures and good will, to Ricks & Wilkinson, and transferred the same to them this date. I will settle all outstanding indebtedness against the former business, and accounts due the business are payable to me. I will be glad for all owing me to come forward and settle at once. This 9th day of Nov. 1900.

H. M. HARDEE.

Having purchased the mercantile business of H. M. Hardee we will continue under the name of Ricks & Wilkinson to carry on the business at his former stand, occupying the south room. We will carry a complete line of dry goods, clothing, notions, boots, shoes, &c. and respectfully solicit the patronage of Mr. Hardee's former customers, as well as that of our own friends and the public generally.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Nov. 14. It is said. "A man is not without honor, save in his own country." It is further said, "There are exceptions to all rules." So with the A. G. Cox Mfg Co. Right here at home, as well abroad, they are highly honored, from every source come letters and words of commendation and praise for the excellency of their work, and the superiority of their wagons, carts, cart wheels, back bands, cart saddles and cotton planters, which have no rival and all this from our own people "who know a good thing when they see it and hold fast when they get it," and that accounts for the high appreciation placed upon the articles manufactured by this company.

While out hunting items yesterday, we inquired of a crowd of gentlemen, if they would kindly tell us something to put in the paper. Mr. R. J. Sutton promptly replied. "Yes, I have an old hog out at my home, broken down in the loins and I've got a carpenter making a pair of crutches for her so she can go out in the field and eat peas. Will that do?" he added. We told him yes, "that he was infilited to the key," to go and get it from Bob Dixon." The last we saw of him he was headed that way.

B. F. Manning says he wants money, and would be very much pleased if those who are indebted to him would come forward and settle.

Misses Effie Kittrell and Charlotte Dixon went to Ayden on last Saturday evening's train and returned Monday.

W. L. Hurst has been quite sick for the past week, but is now much better.

G. R. Dixon & C. D. Hooks are spending the week in Goldsboro. They will return the latter part of the week.

A. G. Cox is still paying the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

While the sickness at the Normal created but little if any talk in Greensboro, the news was magnified elsewhere to some extent and there was some alarm—and naturally—that there was to be a reception of last year. For the benefit of all living away from Greensboro it can be stated that the sick are getting well. One patient left the hospital yesterday and the others are all free from fever and in a convalescent state. The disease was of a mild form, but always had to run its course. Parents of few of the students took them home, but these have returned.—Greensboro Record.

Large Potato.

Mr. Adrian Savage tells us that he has the best sweet potato crop this year that he ever raised. He brought THE REFLECTOR a fine specimen of his crop in the shape of a yam that weighs 7 pounds and 2 ounces.

Mrs. J. B. Cherry keeps on hand at all times first class silverware, cut glass and jewelry suitable for presents.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

Burglars blew open safes in the post office and in Black & Co's., store at Mathews, N. C., and took $1,000 in cash.

The six-year-old child of a negro woman, named Maynot, was burned to death last night. She was playing near an open fire place when her clothes caught afire, and before her screams brought help, she was burned to a crisp.—Fayetteville Observer, 10th.

Near the clay deposit on Fishing Creek is the famous mammoth bone that spans the creek from the Nash to the Halifax side. Tradition says that years ago Indians used it in summer to cross, thinking it a moss covered log. As a matter of fact, it can be clearly seen in dry weather, or when the water is low. The late Maj. J. M. Mayo succeeded in digging up from the Nash county bank one-half of the lower maxillary—jawbone—but it was so decomposed as to crumble before it could be handled and moved. This condition due to the head being buried in the earth while the main body, lying submerged nearly all the time in water, is still intact. If disinterred and mounted there are naturalists who could easily supply the missing half.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

Dock Clark, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $3.20.

Charles Webb, riotous and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $4.65.

James A. Sutton, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $3.20.

Robert Hanrahan, riotous and disorderly and assault and battery, fined one penny and costs, $1.96, upon condition that his mother give him a good thrashing in the presence of the Chief of Police. The defendant was about 15 years old, and Chief Smith says that what his mother did for that boy with the lash was a plenty.

Lambert Tyson, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.

New Firm.

J. A. Ricks and C. L. Wilkinson have purchased the stock of goods and business of H. M. Hardee and have taken charge as his successor. Both of these young men have splendid business capacity and will succeed. Mr. Ricks has been with the firm of J. B. Cherry & Co., for eight years and Mr. Wilkinson was with H. M. Hardee five years. They will continue business at the same stand, occupying the south store. See announcement.

For the Orphans.

The undersigned committee appointed by Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A. M., for the purpose of soliciting contributions for the Oxford Orphan Asylum as a Thanksgiving offering, request the people of the community, who wish to contribute anything to this good cause, to leave the same at Mr. A. J. Griffin's jewelry store, not later than the 27th inst.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14. No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since. MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 14, 1900.

The Observer publishes this morning returns from 38 county chairmen in reply to an inquiry sent to all county chairmen last week as to the effect of the recent senatorial primary in their respective counties upon the democratic party. The replies are of the same general tenor: that the effect was injurious. From some counties they are that there is no perceptible influence. It is noticeable that in several instances in which this is said to be the case, the chairmen add that they want no more senatorial primary. The Mecklenburg chairman says that the constitutional method of choosing senator is good enough for him. The Vance chairman says that the populists used to charge the democrats with all the crimes of the decalogue, and that the primary gave democrats the opportunity to make the charges good. Nearly all of the state papers speak out on the primary question last week and the press is found to be practically unanimous in opposition to another. It is to be hoped that all of the fun to be gotten out of the fad has been extracted and that we have seen the end of this thing. We don't believe that the legislature is going to be guilty of the folly of adopting any "legalized" primary plan. This would simply be another thing under a bigger name and would afford the same opportunity for democrats to black-guard each other.—Charlotte Observer.

The old Stewart house at Fifth avenue and Thirty-fourth street, which is again reported as practically sold, is still looked upon by country visitors as a model of a New York palace. When A. T. Stewart built the house nearly forty years ago he was one of the most talked about of New York's millionaires. Every visitor to the city saw Stewart's store as one of the sights and then gazed on the exterior of his new house. The appointments of this mansion were so embellished by the imagination that Stewart himself would not have recognized them. From its situation and style the house has always been conspicuous, but as a residence it would not bear comparison with any one of a hundred New York houses. Since Mrs. Stewart's death the only tenant of this property has been the Manhattan Club and that organization was almost killed by it. Since the Manhattan Club moved down to the University Club's old house the property has been for sale. Rumor has turned it into a restaurant several times and once into a store, and now there is no certainty as to what will be done with it. It is a conspicuous monument to A. T. Stewart's fortune and so long as it stands it will be known as the Stewart house.—N. Y. Sun.

Store now occupied by J. S. Tunstall will be for rent Jan. 1st. J. A. ANDREWS.

OUR KALEIGH LETTER

Shall the National Democratic Corps Be Revived by the Gold Cure?

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 13.—Now the party "reorganizers" are coming to the front, each a modern Solomon, charged to the muzzle of his lingual gun with advice anent what we must do if we hope to have the Democratic party figure in national political contests hereafter. Simply as a matter furnishing "food for reflection" along this line, let me say this: I have been surprised at the number of well known Democrats in this city who have openly expressed themselves as being not at all sorry that Mr. Bryan was defeated—and nine-tenths of them voted for him, too. Judge—one of the best Democrats and best men in the State, said to me: "The Democratic and not the Republican voters beat Bryan; they do not believe in his policies." Now, I submit that when such conditions as these obtain there is unquestionably something radically wrong in our party household. Let the uninformed probe the mystery. Yes, let 'em talk! We've got a recess that will give us ample time to consider what they have to say. But mind you this: The old mule of Democracy is a tough number when it comes to surviving blows designed to serve as "knock-outs," and he's a political publist of right valuable experience and no mean order of ability—with hardened muscles and a "thinker" that doesn't always go wrong—and no body has yet seriously thought of caging him for a lunatic or of sending him to an infirmary for the balance of his natural life.

NO MORE AUGUST ELECTIONS.

I said last week, in these letters, before the polls closed, that we would probably have no more State primary campaigns, "legalized" or of the outlawed variety we have just passed through. That statement seems to have met with the prevailing opinion and desire expressed since in various quarters. And we are to have no more August elections, it can be added. The Legislature will, in January, again designate November as the month for State and county elections, as well as National, I am told. And nobody will object, I am sure.

REDISTRICTING OF THE STATE.

One of the important duties which the Legislature will attend to at the approaching session will be the redistricting of the State for the election of the ten congressmen to which we will be entitled after the next Congress. It is already mooted that an effort will be made to place all the stronger Republican counties of the west in one district—such as Mitchell, Madison, Yadkin, Wilkes, Surry, Stokes, Davie, Ashe, Alleghany, Davie, Wantanga, etc., if found to be practicable and legal. But aspiring Democrats in some of these counties will probably object to this scheme.

The Rhoda Royal

AUSTRALIAN TRIPPLE RAILROAD SHOWS.

MAMMOTH MENAGERIE AND REAL HIPPODROME.

"The Rhoda Royal Shows was good, big and moral."—Worcester Spy, August 29, 1900.

"One of the best tent shows ever given in New London was that of the Rhoda Royal last Wednesday. The one great feature about the show is that they give exactly what they advertise. The Rhoda Royal Shows have made a most favorable impression in this city."—New London Daily Globe, Wednesday, September 5th, 1900.

THE WORLD'S GRANDEST AND BEST AMUSEMENT INSTITUTION. SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

Tented exhibition entirely different from anything you have ever seen, and you will be convinced, if you see the big aggregation, that shows are not all alike. Read the special features:

PROF. BERRIS AND HIS 63 BEAUTIFUL TRAINED HORSES
 All performing in one ring and at one time. This act cannot be duplicated on this terrestrial globe.

CAPTAIN SHARP and his Detachment of ROUGH RIDERS—THE HORSE BACK RIDING PONY, a cute, cunning, thoroughbred shetland pony will actually ride and perform on the backs of 2 large horses, while galloping at full speed.

THE THOMPSON BOYS. The funniest of all clown mule hurdle riders will actually introduce something new in the riding comedy line. A TROUPE OF TRAINED PERFORMING ELEPHANTS, That do everything but talk.

Madam Royal The queen of all lady trainers and manage riders. Not the old time manage acts, but each and every trick new and of the latest high school riding art. The HIPPODROME RACES entirely different from the old style. 50 other first-class performers and performances. The FOUR ASHES, the funniest of all European clowns. Every piece of property brand new. New harness, new wagons, new cages, new horses, new animals, new features, new material, new specialties, new acts, new in appointments and all tents positively new and waterproof. No gambling and no games of chance.

GORGEOUS STREET CARNIVAL passes through principal streets between 10 and 11 o'clock the day of exhibition, and immediately upon the return of the parade to the show grounds the original "GIRL WITH THE AUBURN HAIR" WILL MAKE A HIGH DIVE from an aerial ladder into a net below, free. Also immediately after the high dive other free exhibitions will take place.

Doors open, 1 and 7 P. M. Performances Commences, 2 and 8 P. M.

Walter Harding, of Centerville, came up this morning to visit relatives.

B. J. Pulley went down the road Tuesday evening and returned this morning.

J. R. Shelton, of Washington, has taken a position with THE REFLECTOR.

W. A. Fleming, of Hassells, came down Tuesday evening to visit relatives near town.

W. O. Little, of Newport News, came down Tuesday evening to attend the Moye-Barnhill wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. B. T. Cox, of Winterville, passed through Tuesday evening returning home from Baltimore.

Mrs. T. B. Wilkinson and children, of Raleigh, arrived Tuesday evening to visit her father, W. T. Lipscombe.

Jesse Taylor, of Kinston, who has been assisting in the express office here for a few days, left this morning for New Bern.

James Dixon, of the southern part of the county, came in Tuesday evening from Baltimore where he had been in the hospital undergoing treatment.

A Wild, Fierce Desperado.

Resting quietly in the city's repository for young, old and middle aged criminals, awaiting the regular Monday afternoon matinee, yesterday and last night, was a youthful desperado hailing from the quiet precincts of the Southside. He was captured after a desperate struggle and a winding race by Special Policeman Hiatt, Saturday night. He carried a six shooter, which is now in the curio cabinet at police headquarters. The arrest was the result of a hand-to-hand encounter with a fellow citizen Saturday night, in which the captive endeavored to use his gun. The captive is a coon, a wild, fierce coon. He is, by actual measurement, twenty-seven inches high in his boots. He gave his age in as five summers, but his mother said he is ten. His gun, which he tried to use on a fellow citizen of similar size, is a "baby hammerless" six shooter, about three inches long, 22 calibre, corresponding in size to its owner. When Special Policeman Hiatt arrested him and started up town he tried to shoot the policeman, and when his gun was taken from him, he quietly submitted until an opportune time, when, he nailed the policeman's hand with his teeth. The policeman slung him off something like one might do a terrapin that had become too familiar. Being thus freed, the offender sought liberty from his legs, and here is where the long chase came in. The policeman finally landed him.

The boy's mother came up today to seek release for her wild young offspring and agreed to have him whipped. Chief Scott gave him a mild thirty and turned him over to her.

The gun is still in the curio cabinet, and Special Policeman Hiatt is making inquiry to find out if the biter is a "blue gum nigger."—Greensboro Telegram.

The marriage of Mr. R. M. Moye and Miss Lillian Barnhill takes place this afternoon at the bride's home near Grindool. A reception will be held to-night at the home of Mr. E. A. Moye, in West Greenville.

The Dog All Right.

The big blood hound that Mr. Everett Brinson brought to Kinston Friday is all right. He was given six trials yesterday and easily traced the men to their hiding places.—Kinston Free Press.

This is the dog that Mr. W. C. Hines sold to Policeman Brinson one day last week. His dogs are all good stock.

Fair Excursion.

The excursion train to the New Bern fair passed Greenville on good time this morning. There were several passengers on when the train reached here, and about forty tickets were sold at this station. Points between here and Kinston also added to the number. The Osceola Band went along. It has been a pretty day for the excursion.
