WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Nov. 17.

The farmers are about through harvesting their crops and during the season they have received fairly good prices for what they have made. Regardless of elections and all other casualties they are in a remarkable state of preservation, and to some extent are prepared to observe Thanksgiving and enjoy the Christmas holidays. Whether it is owing to McKinleyism or the mercies of a Divine Providence, we are afraid to venture an opinion just at this time, as the Republicans are claiming everything in sight, from a government mule to the future destiny of mankind in general. Oh, for a monarchy!

W. J. Wyatt brought some sweet potatoes in the office the other day, known as the vineless variety, the vine of which grow in bunches and is not near so difficult to harvest as our ordinary product. For sweetness and table use they cannot be excelled.

The Dixie and Free Silver Havana Cheroots manufactured by the Winterville Cigar Co., have attained a notoriety that places them in the front rank as the best Cheroots on the market. They do not belong to the trust and are sold strictly upon their merit.

Allen Humbers and Miss Mamie Forest were married at the home of the bride's mother, last Wednesday evening, William Edwards, Esq., officiating.

Quite a large number of colored people and a few whites went to Greenville Thursday in order to take in the circus as well as be taken in.

Mrs. A. G. Cox has been quite sick several days, but is now very much better.

Matt Slaughter, of Kibston, spent several days in town this week visiting relatives.

G. R. Dixon and C. D. Hooks, who have been on a visit to Governor-elect Aycock, at Goldsboro, returned home Wednesday. The Governor was glad to see them.

Very few of our people attended the New Bern fair. Those who did report it a success.

Dr. B. T. Cox returned from Baltimore last Tuesday evening.

B. C. Pearce, of Sanford, was here yesterday.

A. G. Cox is still paying the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

Suggestion to Central.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I notice in your paper of Friday a request coming from the Central telephone office for subscribers to be more prompt in answering when their bell rings, and thus help the service. It might also be suggested that if Central would be a little more prompt in answering calls from subscribers there would be less cause for complaint, and the subscribers would no doubt be less indifferent when they know they would not have to wait. A SUBSCRIBER.

MASQUERADE.

Little Folks Inaugurate the Season.

The first masquerade party of the season was given by the little folks in the opera house, Friday night, under the auspices of the Children's Sewing Society. They began arriving early and entered heartily into the pleasures of the evening. There were some good costumes among them, and a large number of spectators were out to see the little folks.

At 9:30 o'clock the participants unmasked, and it was not until then that the identity of a number of them could be told. Just after the unmasking the curtain on the stage was raised disclosing tables laden with a sumptuous supper prepared by the society.

Following is a list of the participants in the masquerade:

- Ethel Skinner, chrysanthemum girl.
- John Shelburn, old man.
- Lottie Skinner, chrysanthemum girl.
- Cecil Cobb, jockey.
- Frank Skinner, country cousin.
- Bert James, country cousin.
- Leon Pender, sailor boy.
- Will Lipscomb, Indian chief.
- Mary James, sport.
- Blonnet Pearce, belle of Black Jack.
- Zeno Brown, country man.
- Frank Wilson, show boy.
- Durwood Wilson, sailor.
- John Gay, old woman.
- Bessie Haskett, dudess.
- Katie Tunstall, chrysanthemum girl.
- Lucille Cobb, baby mine.
- Minnie Best Dail, little boy blue.
- Margaret Skinner, folly.
- Mary Shelburn, baby mine.
- Carrie Gay, flower girl.
- Lee Shelburn, woman.
- May Schultz, mother goose.
- Helen Forbes, chrysanthemum.
- Mattie Lawrence, girl of the forest.
- Lizzie Higgs, Japanese.
- Alice Blow, maid.
- Charlie Horne, Josh Billings.
- Nina Harris, fairy queen.
- Nellie Pender, old woman.

Nobody or no newspaper has ever hit off President McKinley more accurately and more cleverly than the London Spectator, which closes an editorial on the American election last week with a reference to the successful candidate as a "genuinely conscientious man, who, seated in Pilate's judgment chair, would have reverently awaited the verdict of the people and have decided for Barabas." English ignorance of American political affairs and public men is proverbial, but no American citizen could have sized up our President more correctly than has been done by this London editor.—Charlotte Observer.

Nothing can constitute good breeding that has not good nature for its foundation.—Bulwer.

"What did you get on your gunning trip?" "O! I got some ducks." "Hah! I'll bet you didn't shoot them; bought 'em most likely." "I did both. Unfortunately, just as I was putting them in my bag the farmer who owned them came along."

The Well Dressed Man

Attracts your attention wherever you meet him. He is numerous in Greenville this fall, and we take considerable of the credit for this condition of affairs. Ask the man if we are not entitled to this honor. Never before in the history of this establishment have we carried such a complete assortment as we have this fall. Our customers tell us this, and they are certainly competent to judge. We have everything that is the rage in New York, and a visit to our establishment will give you a complete knowledge of all that is new and "Chic" in the fashionable world. In regard to our prices: We know that you will not utter a word of complaint. Drop in when you have a little time, we want to see you.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 26.
I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.
Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother; to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

The state Presbyterian synod will meet next year in Charlotte.

The $100,000 damage suit of Rev. T. J. Gattis against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and others, will be called in Oxford next Wednesday.

The McCormick Harvesting Machine Company, of Chicago, has selected Charlotte as the distributing point for North and South Carolina.

Wednesday night a mob broke into Stanley county jail, at Albemarle, and took away a negro prisoner who had committed murder. It is not known what disposition the mob made of the negro.

Arnold Worseley, who lives near Conetoe, yesterday accidentally shot himself in the arm. He was going through a gate, which his shot gun in some way struck so as to fire it. The load took effect in the forearm, cutting arteries, muscles and nerves, but not touching the bone.—Tarboro Southerner.

The celebrated Gilbert bankruptcy case which has been in the United States District and Circuit Courts for a year, now goes to the Supreme Court of the United States. It came up in the Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond Monday, and on the failure of attorneys to agree on certain points, it was sent up to the higher court. The suit involves the sum of $12,000, the proceeds from the sale of stock of the Winston Hardware Company, formerly owned by W. H. Gilbert, who went into bankruptcy. The money is held in trust by the court.

The worm that is trodden upon believes that one good turn deserves another.

We have taken great care in growing the most improved bright tobacco seed—the White Stem Orinoco, the Broad Leaf Orinoco are the most reliable tobacco ever grown in any section. Every man in the east, who cultivated this kind will average from 2 to 5 per cent more than any other kind. Mr. Sam Mumford, at Ayden, says that his Orinoco will bring fifty dollars more per acre than any other kind grown on same land. Martin county people are growing Orinoco and coining money. You will find these seed for sale at Dr. Wooten's and Dr. Bryan's Drug stores and at some store in each section of the county at 25 cents per package.
