The Youth's Companion's Seventy-Fifth Year.

The new volume of the Youth's Companion for 1901 will mark the paper's seventy-fifth year of continuous publication—seventy-five years, during which it has had the approval of three generations of readers. The constant aim of The Companion is to carry into the home reading that shall be helpful as well as entertaining—reading that shall contribute to the pure happiness of all the family. Strong in the assurance that every reader gained is a friend won, the publishers offer to send The Companion free for the remaining weeks of 1900 to those who subscribe now for the new volume for 1901. There will not be an issue from now until 1902 that will not be crowded with good stories and articles of rare interest and value. Diplomats, Explorers, Sailors, Trappers, Indian fighters, Story-Writers and Self-Made Men and Women in Many Vocations, besides the most popular writers of fiction, will write for The Companion not only next year, but during the remaining weeks of this year.

The new subscriber will also receive The Companion's new "Puritan Girl" Calendar for 1901, lithographed in 12 colors.

Illustrated Announcement of the volume for 1901 will be sent free to any address, with sample copies of the paper.

TWENTIETH CENTURY MOVEMENT.

What is popularly known as the Twentieth Century Thank-offering Movement was the Conception of a distinguished layman, the Hon. R. W. Perks, an able lawyer, and an influential member of the British House of Commons. The idea was that the birth of a new century was a fitting time for spiritual rededication and a grateful thank-offering to Almighty God for mercies past. The thought was at once seized upon by the English Methodist church and became so popular that it was quickly caught up by other members of the same ecclesiastical household, and today is stirring the heart and quickening the zeal of world-wide Methodism. Various other demonstrations have also adopted some similar plan to endow educational institutions under their care.

The amounts proposed as a thank-offering by some of the leading denominations of Methodism are as follows: Methodist Episcopal, north, twenty million dollars, British Wesleyan five million, Methodist Episcopal, south, one million five hundred thousand dollars, Canadian Methodist one million dollars. The campaign to raise this vast sum of money began more than a year ago, and at the last report, Oct. 30, the Methodist Episcopal church had secured about ten million dollars, the British Wesleyan four million, the Methodist Episcopal, south, one million two hundred thousand, and the Canadian Methodist nearly one million dollars. The approaching Thanksgiving Day will be widely utilized to bring the fund up to the proposed amounts. This money is to be devoted to education work under the care of the church. In this State the donors may direct their contributions to be given either to Vanderbilt University, Trinity College, Littleton Female College, or the Methodist Orphanage. The services to be held at the Methodist church on Thanksgiving night will be in the interest of this Twentieth Century Fund. The Greenville public is cordially invited to join in this last Thanksgiving service of the Century. Envelopes will be prepared for the occasion, and each one contributing may direct his Thank-offering to be applied according to his own wish.

As a people, we have occasion for great rejoicing and generous thanksgiving. This Century with an affluent hand has poured upon us the blessings of Heaven. We are the beneficiaries of all the past. We are facing a great future and must prepare for it.

"Attempt great things for God. Expect great things from God."

Will Observe Thanksgiving.

We have not heard the matter discussed any, but the custom of closing the business houses in Greenville on Thanksgiving day has become so fixed that THE REFLECTOR feels safe in announcing that all will be closed next Thursday as usual on Thanksgiving. And we hope our people will be as liberal in remembering the orphans as usual.

Lots of women know more about fashion plates than they do about dinner sets.

MUCH MOVING AHEAD.

Many Contemplated Changes for the New Year.

If all that is talked on the streets be true, the new year and the new century will be ushered in with many business changes in Greenville. There are always some changes about the beginning of a new year, but this time the number is much larger than usual. Here are the ones that are being talked so far:

J. C. Cobb & Son will discontinue their mercantile business.

Ormond & Carr will move their hardware business to the Forbes store now occupied by J. C. Cobb & Son.

J. A. Andrews will retire from the mercantile business.

J. S. Tunstall will move to the store now occupied by J. A. Andrews.

Zeno Moore & Bros., will move to the store now occupied by J. S. Tunstall.

The Jolley bar will vacate the corner of the Brady building and J. A. Brady will move into that store.

J. S. Smith will move to the store now occupied by J. A. Brady

E. L. Clark will close his bar room and move back to Fayetteville.

B. E. Patrick will withdraw from the firm of Patrick & Green and Wiley Brown will become his successor.

Higgs & Taft will change their business, A. H. Taft having engaged with a New York firm.

Mrs. M. A. Leggett will move her millinery business to Farmville, Mr. Leggett having exchanged his property on Dickinson avenue with the heirs of the late John King for property they owned in Farmville.

THE REFLECTOR, the telegraph office and the express office will be moved up to new quarters in the Rialto building opposite the post-office.

This is quite a list of changes, and there may be yet others to announce before the new year comes.

Not Intended For Miss Foley.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

The suggestion offered a few days ago that the Central Telephone office might help the service by attending more promptly to calls, seems to have been misconstrued by some to have been intended for Miss Julia Foley, the day operator there. Nothing was further from mind at the time of offering the suggestion. I have never heard a word against her service, but there has been numerous complaints against the management of the exchange, as the subscribers, and even those connected with the exchange, are well aware. As the exchange had just made a complaint about the subscribers through your paper the day before, I thought it a most opportune time to suggest that there were two sides to the complaint.

We have taken great care in growing the most improved bright tobacco seed—the White Stem Orinoco, the Broad Leaf Orinoco are the most reliable tobacco ever grown in any section. Every man in the east, who cultivated this kind will average from 2 to 5 per cent more than any other kind. Mr. Sam Mumford, at Ayden, says that his Orinoco will bring fifty dollars more per acre than any other kind grown on same land. Martin county people are growing Orinoco and coining money. You will find these seed for sale at Dr. Wooten's and Dr. Bryan's Drug stores and at some store in each section of the county at 25 cents per package.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1900.

Grover Cleveland received one vote for President in North Carolina at the late election. It was cast in Wilson county. The old man has some admirers yet.

A destructive cyclone swept over the State of Tennessee Tuesday night, killing fifty people and injuring a hundred more. The property damage is large. The western portion of the State suffered worst.

There is hardly a doubt that the next Legislature will be asked to give Greenville the opportunity of voting on the question of issuing bonds for the construction of water works, electric lights, better streets and other improvements, and THE REFLECTOR predicts that when the voting time on this question comes it is going to be carried by a large majority.

A horrible crime was committed Tuesday night in Mecklenburg county, five miles from Charlotte. Two old women, a Mrs. Coolley aged 80, and a niece, Miss Cathcott, aged about 65, lived together by themselves. They were both murdered in their kitchen and their building burned down on them, cremating their bodies. It had been said that the old women had money hid about the house and it is believed the murder was committed with the view of securing this.

Mr. Will S. Greer, a clever commercial tourist for a carriage builders' supply house, who makes occasional visits to Kinston, where he has many friends, sends us a clipping from the Denver News, a Republican paper, giving an account of the burning of a negro at the stake in Colorado. Mr. Greer says the paper "uttered not a single word of reproach. Suppose it had happened in North Carolina—what a howl!" Its the truth. Republican papers of the north and west are quick to "raise" whenever a negro is lynched for the unmentionable crime in the south, but when such occur in their part of the country they haven't a word to say in denunciation.—Kinston Free Press.

There is nothing like a good hearty laugh, but there should be moderation even in hilarity. Mrs. Sharp, of New York, paid the penalty for forgetting this when she laughed so hard that she dislocated her under jaw and it took the doctors a couple of hours to prize it back into place.

In the Philippines.

Manila, November 21.—General MacArthur was asked today whether the result of the presidential election in the United States was in any way responsible for the orders to push operations against the Filipinos. He replied that the result of the election was merely coincident with other features of the situation. He added that the return of the soldiers and marines from China, with the recruits who had arrived recently, would increase the number of troops to 70,000 men. The enlargement of the forces, the ending of the rainy season, better roads, improved transportation and the desire to make the most efficient use of the volunteers before their term of service expires in June, are all contributory to the most active campaign.

Concerning the replacing of volunteers, General MacArthur said he favored the establishment of a standing army of 75,000 men and authorizing the president to increase it to 100,000 men.

The general also said he was enlarging the force in General Young's district to nearly 7,000 men, and that heavy reinforcements were being sent to General Hughes in the island of Panay.

The stranding of the coasting transport Indiana is causing a long delay in reaching a number of the remote coast stations in southern Luzon, which have subsistence to November 1st only and will have to depend largely on foraging until the Indiana is floated or a steamer secured.

The customs warehouses are congested, which is delaying the commerce of Manila. General Smith, the collector of the port, at a meeting today of Manila importers, urged the necessity for the removal of the goods. The merchants talk of organizing a company for the erection of bonded warehouses.

The soldiers and marines who have returned from China are selling quantities of curios looted from the residences of the nobility or wealthy persons at Pekin and Tien Tsin. Many of them are valuable and ridiculously cheap and a number of presents of such loot have been mailed to the United States for Christmas presents.

A correspondent of The New York Herald, writing from Lincoln, Neb. says that Hon. Wm. J. Bryan has ceased giving interviews to newspapers and is only writing for pay. "I am not writing for the money," exclaimed Mr. Bryan, "but I will not write without it. If I were to discuss subjects of importance I should wish to do so only after consideration and study, and I should wish to prepare a careful statement at my leisure, as I shall do with what I publish for a time."

We read with much pleasure a recent statement of Dr. Peacock, president of Greensboro Methodist Female College, that Julian S. Carr "has educated there out of his own pocket between 20 and 30 needy and deserving girls." Out of the abundance of his liberality he had paid every cent to educate over twenty-five North Carolina girls at the chief female school of the Methodists in this State. Excellently, kindly generously done.—Wilmington Messenger.

Just so. A man from the country claims that his horse was made to run away by the blowing of an engine in town and he wants damages. Then if the engines do not blow loud and long at the crossings the company is bounced, and if some one is killed at crossing the railroad is sued. A case is now on for this very thing.—Greensboro Record.

Novel Corporation.

J. C. Braswell, John Griffin, T. H. Battle, E. H. Crews, and others today filed articles of agreement with the Secretary of State for formation of "The Railway Advertising and Station-Indicator Company," for manufacturing and selling a patent railroad advertising machine. Headquarters are at Rocky Mount, and the capital stock will be $50,000.—Raleigh Times.

A Longer School Term.

The educational condition of North Carolina will not be good until the general school is longer. The educational condition of a county in which the school term embraces not more than four months in the year, cannot be called good in the strict sense. The General Assembly will disappoint many citizens of the State if it adjourns in March without having legislated so that the common school have longer terms. The fact that so many are in favor of a compulsory system is significant and encouraging.—Raleigh Christian Advocate.

A Smile in Each.

The worm and the tide will turn.
 The shoe dealer sells right and left.
 The counterfeiter gives out a false impression.
 The photographer takes things as he finds them.
 It's only natural that the man who takes in a "dive" should get soaked.
 It's generally the man who parts his hair in the middle that parts his name in the middle.
 The obstreperous gallery god is not a thing to be worshipped.
 A man may walk with a springy step even in the fall.
 Fall styles in wraps are being advertised by spiritualistic mediums.
 The fellow who owes $20 is often slow about settling an old score.

Nell—"I don't care for Mr. Rounder. He seems to lack repose." Belle—"Well, I don't imagine he gets much."
 "When a man gets his just deserts," asks a little Germantown boy, "does it mean ice cream and pie and things?"
 The poets who do the most posing are not Poes.
 Widow's weeds are often allowed to grow on a man's grave.
 It's a wise husband who allows his wife to engage his typewriter.
 The novels of today seem to be either historical or hysterical.
 The fellow who eats with his knife must have a rather sharp appetite.
 Widowers are peculiar. Some of them pine away, and others spruce up.
 When a man stops having his picture taken he begins to feel he is getting old.
 Some people are known by the company they keep, and others by the people they shake.
 "See here, waiter," called the fussy man; "there's a hair in this stew." "Yes, sir," replied the waiter. "It's a rabbit stew."
 "The poorer a man is," says the Manayung Philosopher, "the more he realizes that money is the root of all evil."
 Some people boast that they pay as they go, but when they register at a hotel without baggage they have to pay as they come.

Somebody is making money out of the railroads in Texas. The last fiscal year ending June 30th they paid $1,018,637, in damages for personal injuries.—Wilmington Star.

R. Williams, E. L. Carr, Frank Wilson and J. M. Reuss went to Washington this afternoon to assist the Masons there in conferring Royal Arch degrees tonight.

Obit.

Mr. William Weathington, aged 22 years, son of Mr. Alfred Weathington, died at 2 o'clock this morning at his home near Winterville, of typhoid pneumonia. He had been sick about three weeks.

The burial will take place Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Farmville Progressing.

We learn that the citizens of Farmville organized a volunteer fire company Thursday night. They contemplate erecting a large water tank near the center of the business portion of the town so as to have water convenient for protection against fire.

Honor Roll.

Of the primary department of the Greenville public school for first quarter ending Nov. 23, 1900.

Nannie Bowling, Ethel Bowling, Grace Smith, Essie Whichard, Mary Lucy Dupree, Allie Estelle Greenc, Oscar Greene, Inez Pittman, Irene Hardison, Frank Cheek, Elouise Cheek, Mable Williams, Daisy Laughinghouse.

Return to The Whipping Post.

Judge Simeon E. Baldwin of the Supreme Court of Connecticut, in a speech before the Hartford business Men's Association recently advocated a return to the whipping-post as a punishment for cer classes of criminals. The fact that such a proposition is advocated by a judge of a State Supreme Court indicates that such a change in the method of punishment is being seriously considered by the bench and the bar. Judge Baldwin would confine the punishment to juvenile offenders, ruffians, wide beaters and those who do deeds of violence. A proposition advocated by so high an authority and favored silently by many men familiar with the administration of justice cannot be brushed aside.—Baltimore News.
