OUR RALEIGH LETTER

An Appeal in Behalf of the Uncared For Insane and Blind Unfortunates.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Dec. 3, 1900

Perhaps no "policy" followed by any political party has caused more suffering and heartaches than niggardliness of the dominant element in our legislatures for the past several years—politely yclept by them "economy"—in dealing with our charitable institutions.

No matter how closely the committees have pared down the appropriation bills, there has always been some close fisted, stingy, niggardly smart Aleck who will stick up his jack-in-the-box head and yell "economy," and ask for a further reduction. And this when the jails of scores of counties in both the east and west hold the blank minds and tortured bodies (in chains) of God's own people—children of the State of North Carolina who have a right to be properly cared for in one or the other of our hospitals for the insane (and probably cured there), but who are confined to a fate worse than death because there isn't room, or if there is room the appropriation has been made so small that they cannot be clothed and fed there. It is outrageous, it's inhuman!

I see from the reports that more than 60 per cent. of the patients who are sent to Dr. George L. Kirby, superintendent of the hospital for the insane at Raleigh, are cured. At Dr. Murphy's hospital in Morganton, about 50 per cent. are discharged as cured, I believe. And there are hundreds of poor unfortunates every year who are denied this one chance of their lives to be restored to their right minds, but instead are bound with chains, many of them, and thrown into the common county jails—maniacs for life, then, of course.

Others are kept by their families at home as best they can—always a source of heartaches, and in most cases of fear and apprehension, in every case denied the skill of these splendid specialists who might cure most of them, under proper conditions, in a few months.

And now I see it announced by the principal of the Asylum for the Blind here that, although there are ample accommodations now for all who would come, so far as room is concerned, he has been forced to deny applications and give notice that no more poor blind children can come there—the one place in all North Carolina where they can secure an education—because the appropriation is so small that no more can be supported. And so rooms remain vacant and the sightless orbs of these poor children are lifted towards Heaven with the mute inquiry upon their voiceless lips:

"Why, oh Lord, do our own flesh and blood treat us thus?"

Aye, why? Ask the little soul-shrivelled numb-skull who objected to an adequate appropriation. Ask the scarry time servers whom he scared out of the manliness they should have exhibited when the vote to cut down the appropriation was taken.

In Heaven's name (and I say it reverently), gentlemen of the General Assembly of 1901, do not follow in the disgraceful example set you by the last several legislatures! Come out in the broad open of humanity and charity, and be just to yourselves and to your State while you mete out the common, even-handed justice which these stricken and dependent wards of our State ask at your hands, and have a right to demand.

Vote to the asylums for the insane at Raleigh and Morganton and Goldsboro and to those for the blind at Raleigh and the deaf-mutes at Morganton sufficient funds to operate them so as not to impair their usefulness, and thus remove this miserable and disgraceful blot from the fair face of our prosperous and humane commonwealth.

County Affairs.

The new fiscal year of the county began Monday. There are but few changes in the administration from the past year. O. W. Harrington, who was a member of the Board of Commissioners, is now Sheriff, and his place on the Board is filled by W. G. Little. C. J. Tucker was not present at this meeting of the Board, having gone to Baltimore for treatment. R. L. Davis was re-elected Chairman of the Board.

O. W. Harrington, Sheriff; J. B. Cherry, Treasurer; T. R. Moore, Register of Deeds; J. D. Cox, County Surveyor; C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Coroner, and several of the township Constables, tendered their official bonds which were accepted and the oath of office administered. Sheriff Harrington has retained Leon Tucker, who was Deputy under Sheriff Mooring, as his Deputy. Mr. Tucker has made a good and faithful Deputy, and no doubt the people of the county will commend Sheriff Harrington for retaining him.

The people can rest assured that the management of the affairs of the county is in good hands.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

Chas. White, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.

William Webb, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.

Chas. Braxton, drunk and disorderly, and using vulgar and profane language, fined one penny and costs, $2.36.

Carrington Carter, rioting and disorderly and assault, fined $1.00 and costs, $4.55.

Wm. F. Harrington, riotous and disorderly and assault fined $1.00 and costs, $4.

Laura Sutton and Easter Gorham riotous and disorderly conduct and assault. Sutton guilty, fined one penny and costs $2.36. Gorham not guilty.

Ed. Randolph, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs $2.21.

Richard Craft, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $2.21.

Good Farming.

Mr. J. J. Nobles tells us a colored tenant on his place this year cultivated a one horse crop, and raised 18 bales of cotton, 100 barrels of corn, besides his smaller crops and forage.

The Vitality of Values.

The first question in the minds of intelligent people now-a-days, who have money to spend is: "If I trade at such and such a store can I feel assured that for every dollar spent I shall receive in exchange a full round honest dollar's worth of merchandise?" To this question this store answers emphatically YES.

of this business is and will be VALUE GIVING.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1900.

Mr. O. W. Harrington, who retires from the Board of County Commissioners to take the Sheriff's office, has made an efficient Commissioner and will also give us a good administration in his new office. Mr. W. G. Little, who succeeds him as a Commissioner, served on the Board years ago and the work is not new to him. He will make a good Commissioner. Mr. G. M. Mooring, the retiring Sheriff, has given the county most excellent service, as has also his son, Mr. J. S. Mooring, who was a deputy under him.

The administration arithmeticians having under consideration the most politically advantageous ratio to be adopted in the reapportionment of members of the federal house of representatives have fixed upon 194,344 as the proper population for a congressional district. That ratio would if adopted increase the present membership by twenty-eight. Pennsylvania would gain two seats, New Jersey two, New York three. The net Republican gain would be twenty seats, against eight seats, for the Democrats. The representation in the house ought to be reduced instead of being enlarged; but it is probable that considerations of partisan advantage will have great weight in deciding the final action of congress.—Philadelphia Record.

It is frequently noticed that our North Carolina people are becoming more cultivated in their tastes and that the standard of civilization is being raised in our midst. A fresh evidence of this is found in a note which a prisoner in Buncombe county jail wrote to his lawyer in which he begged to be taken out, saying: "This hole is infested with vermin and crowded with niggers. It ain't no fitten place for a gentleman." The prisoners in one of the county jails once united in a written complaint to the county commissioners that they were fed on cucumber rinds and corn bread made of musty meal, and the jailor taxed them with their fastidiousness, saying, "I will give you to understand that this is no place of pleasure." This is a fact which the Buncombe gentleman appears to have realized, with out being told, concerning that county's house of detention.—Charlotte Observer.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3rd.

The reassembling of Congress found the Capitol full of ugly and sensational rumors connected with the Isthmian Canal question. Some of these rumors make charges entirely too serious to be repeated without proof of their truthfulness, as to what has been accomplished by the the lobbyists employed by the Panama Canal Company, in their efforts to delay Congressional action authorizing the constructing of the Nicaragua Canal. But there are some facts which speak for themselves. Some time ago it was announced in a semi-official manner that the report of the Canal Commission would be strongly in favor of the Nicaragua route; now it is allowed to become known that the report of the commission will not specify a preferable route but will give its estimates of the cost of the Canal by the Nicaragua route, and the cost of the completion of the Panama Canal, together with the terms upon which this government can secure control of the latter, and leave Congress to decide for itself. What brought about this change? That is the question that the rumors deal with. The President of the Panama Canal Company had a long conference with the Secretary of State, and, of course, everybody knows what the gentleman is in Washington for. Although the Nicaragua Canal bill, which passed the House at the last session was, by resolution of the Senate, made a special order for Wednesday of this week, a programme has been arranged by which the Ship Subsidy bill will be used to sidetrack the Canal bill, unless the programme is upset by a majority vote of the Senate. The Panama Canal Company has caused one great National scandal, which disgraced eminent Frenchmen, and from present indications, it may cause another, that will disgrace some prominent Americans.

Nominally the two branches of Congress met today and adjourned without waiting to get Mr. McKinley's message, as a mark of respect to the late Senators Davis and Grear and members of the House who have died since the last session, but in reality the adjournment was for the purpose of giving the republicans a little more time to try to reconcile their numerous differences and to get together on a legislative programme.

A treaty has been signed with Nicaragua, giving the U. S. the right to construct and operate the Nicaragua Canal, which will be sent to the Senate for ratification, but whether the Panama lobby will allow it to be acted upon, only time can tell.

A democratic caucus of the House is now in session, to decide upon the party policy to be followed with the army reorganization bill, which the republicans will push at once.

It is a high attainment in politeness to allow others to be mistaken. Let a trifling misstatement pass unnoticed where no principle is involved, and when a mistake is past remedy it is best to let the subject drop. The argument of the "I told you so" character is always quite superfluous.—Mr. Burton Kingsland in the December Ladies' Home Journal.

What sort of a way is this we have of celebrating Thanksgiving by stuffing ourselves till we can scarcely navigate? Still it is more appropriate than our custom of making Christmas one continued round of horrible noises and drunks. And yet we send missionaries across the seas!—Ashville Citizen.

Campaign Promises vs. Performances.

One of the most interesting studies in life is that of campaign assurances and what comes of them afterwards. The Republicans did everything in the recent campaign, except give bond for the fulfillment of the promises, by way of assurance that if President McKinley were re-elected the Philippine insurgents would lay down their arms as soon as they got the news, and at once become good and peaceable citizens of the United States. They have had the news all right, but are still in business, and if there is any odds have increased their activity. The man who accepts for the truth any considerable part of what is told him by any party in a political campaign ought to be bored for the simple.—Charlotte Observer.

There is much interest as to the popular vote in the presidential election of last month. Full official returns are not yet available and will not be for some days or perhaps weeks to come, but The Philadelphia Record says that "the following statement of the aggregate is very nearly correct:"

McKinley	7,238,514
Bryan	6,360,796

McKinley's plurality in 1896 was 574,224, against 877,718 this year. McKinley's aggregate vote was 131,210 votes larger in 1900 than in 1896; Bryan's aggregate was 172,284 votes less in 1900 than in 1896.

Perhaps money talks, but it seems averse to holding conversation with merchants who never advertise.

The management of the A. & N. C. R. R. is doing a great deal for the road. New warehouses and depots have been built at Newbern, Kinston and Goldsboro, and other improvements have been made. Another passenger train was put on Saturday morning. We have two trains each way every day now—a great convenience to the people. The train just put on reaches Kinston at 8:28 a. m., returning arrives at Kinston at 6:03 p. m. No change is made in the schedule of the old passenger train. —Kinston Free Press.

We have taken great care in growing the most improved bright tobacco seed—the White Stem Orinoco, the Broad Leaf Orinoco are the most reliable tobacco ever grown in any section. Every man in the east, who cultivated this kind will average from 2 to 5 per cent more than any other kind. Mr. Sam Mumford, at Ayden, says that his Orinoco will bring fifty dollars more per acre than any other kind grown on same land. Martin county people are growing Orinoco and coining money.
