WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Dec. 7th.

Our poem in the last Daily has attracted so much attention that the praises we have received on account thereof have enthused us with the idea of publishing a volume on the saying and doings of a very wise young man. Look out, for it is coming.

1,000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Mr. G. A. Highsmith, of our town, was on last Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. John Overton in Carolina township, united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Maggie Overton, W. H. Williams, Esq., officiating. The bridal couple arrived here on the evening train and were met at the depot by a large host of friends. We extend Mr. Highsmith our most hearty congratulation on his good fortune and cordially welcome his fair bride as one of our citizens. They were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. J. R. Cooper.

10,000 good second growth white oak spokes wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Mrs. J. F. Harrington is on a visit to her mother, near Greenville. J. W. Harper and wife spent Thursday in your town on a trading tour.

A. G. Cox is absent in Raleigh in attendance upon the Baptist State Convention.

B. F. Manning went to Greenville Wednesday.

The Winterville Wire Fence Co. are now offering their next 10,000 yards of 4 foot farm fence at 10c per yard. There is barbed wire at the bottom. They also have a large quantity of 4 or 5 foot garden fence for sale.

The Neuse Association at its meeting here in October elected the following named gentlemen as trustees for the Winterville High School: A. G. Cox, C. W. Blanchard, W. C. Newton, J. D. Cox, O. H. Perry, J. A. McDaniel, J. B. Carroll, W. C. Jackson, T. W. Carr, G. A. Norwood, W. R. Simmons, Jesse Jackson, E. W. Cox, W. H. Burke, J. A. Pridgen, Duffy Lane, T. A. Bell and J. M. Alderman.

Yesterday about noon the dry kiln of Moye and Kittrell caught on fire and was entirely consumed with about 10,000 feet of poplar lumber and 300 spokes. Loss $200. The loss falls on Moye and Kittrell, A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. and the Hunsucker Carriage Co. There was no insurance.

H. F. Keel was here yesterday on business.

A. G. Cox is still paying the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

New Officers.

The Daughters of the Confederacy held an interesting session at the residence of Mrs. L. O. Arthur, on Thursday afternoon. There was quite a full attendance and cordial good nature prevailed throughout the deliberations. After some routine work the election of officers was taken up and the following is the list for the ensuing year:

Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, President.

Mrs. W. H. Grimes, Vice-President.

Mrs. F. G. Whaley, Recording Secretary.

Mrs. J. B. Cherry, Treasurer.

Miss Louise Latham, Corresponding Secretary.

The Chapter decided to produce Christian Ried's play, "Under the Southern Cross," at an early day for the benefit of the Davis Memorial Funds and to hold a public reception on Jan. 19th, Gen. Lee's birthday.

At the close of the session the ever agreeable hostess served refreshments, and the members dispersed in high good humor, as the shadows of evening were settling on the lawn.

Help the Poor.

To the good people of Greenville and the community at large:

It is the custom of the order of The King's Daughters to try and make our Master's birthday a time of good cheer to some one less fortunate than ourselves, especially to poor, destitute, old aged and children who do not have much to remind them that Christ came into the world as a little child, and that He is in an especially tender way the friend of little children. We want to make this Christmas the most blessed and happy one possible to all such. We propose to have baskets at a few of the stores, if the merchants will co-operate with us, that any one in the town or country may give what their hearts may prompt them to give, in the way of meat, meal, flour, sugar, coffee or poultry. Any one desiring to help in the good work by giving money may send or give it to me, and it will be gratefully accepted, In His Name

MRS. J. B. CHERRY,

Sec. of Patient Circle.

Have Your Eyes Examined.

Dr. H. Mayer, the celebrated oculist from the Imperial and Royal University of Vienna, Austria, is stopping for several days at Hotel Macon, where he examines all defects of the eyes free of charge. Dr Mayer gives consultation in six languages. The Norfolk Virginian says:

"Dr. H. Mayer, the oculist, has during his twelve month's stay in our city successfully treated the eyes of hundreds of our best people and his practice is continually increasing."

Now Is The Time

To buy Christmas goods, whether of us or not, it is time. All stocks of Holiday goods are about complete and as surely and as quickly as evening follows morn, broken stocks will follow. Besides the unpleasant rush of the last few days before Christmas, you may miss the very thing you wanted if you wait. We have faith in our stock and our prices and invite your inspection.

ZENO MOORE & BRO.

The Well Dressed Man

Attracts your attention wherever you meet him. He is numerous in Greenville this fall, and we take considerable of the credit for this condition of affairs. Ask the man if we are not entitled to this honor. Never before in the history of this establishment have we carried such a complete assortment of

"The Real Thing."

as we have this fall. Our customers tell us this, and they are certainly competent to judge. We have everything that is the rage in New York, and a visit to our establishment will give you a complete knowledge of all that is new and "Chic" in the fashionable world. In regard to our prices: We know that you will not utter a word of complaint. Drop in when you have a little time, we want to see you.

The Vitality of Values.

The first question in the minds of intelligent people now-a-days, who have money to spend is: "If I trade at such and such a store can I feel assured that for every dollar spent I shall receive in exchange a full round honest dollar's worth of merchandise?" To this question this store answers emphatically YES.

One of The Vital Principles of this business is and will be VALUE GIVING.

We Bank on the honesty of our merchandise. You may bank on receiving an honest equivalent for your money every time. If wrongs creep in will right them for you.

Our Store Claims

your attention this time. We have some plain talk for you on DRESS GOODS, CLOTHING, SHOES, WHITE AND FANCY GOODS. Your inspection is cordially invited. We have many new things to show you that were bought in the late season at low prices.

SATURDAY DECEMBER 8, 1900.

The Christmas present problem will be the paramount issue for the next few weeks.

The Sultan is to pay up through the purchase of a cruiser and the United States has professed itself satisfied. It may be pointed out, by the way, that payment could have been had months ago by this means, but was refused and the very idea of its acceptance was ridiculed. But that was before the election.

One of the worst bills of its kind ever proposed is now pending in Congress. By its provisions all veterans, whether disabled or not, are to have preference for appointment and promotion in the government service. If the bill passes, it will mean that the entire government service will be put into the hands of the veterans to the exclusion of all civilians.

American girls who are going to marry foreigners should look very carefully into the laws. In most European countries it is entirely possible for a foreign girl to have her marriage declared void because of the commission of certain technicalities. In France, for instance, a marriage is void without the written consent of the parents of the groom.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7th.

The republican leaders in Congress are on their knees to the brewers, begging to be let off with a small reduction in the tax on beer instead of the entire war tax as demanded by the brewers. All this has been brought about in a week. A week ago the republican members of the Ways and Means committee refused to even consider a reduction in the beer tax. Since then Representative Babcock, who was chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee and knew all about campaign contributions and promises, has succeeded Dolliver, of Iowa, who has gone to the Senate, as a member of the Ways and Means Committee, and has told the republican members thereof a few things, as Mr. Hanna has also done. Now it is no longer a question of whether there will be a reduction of the beer tax, but of how small a reduction the brewers can be cajoled into accepting. The bill as reported from the Ways and Means Committee makes a reduction of 40 cents a barrel in the beer tax, but it is not yet certain that the brewers will accept that.

While the democratic caucus on the Army bill, which was railroaded through the House this week, did not agree upon any party policy in opposing the bill, the democrats who spoke against the bill in the limited time allowed them were practically unanimous in objecting to the imperial powers given the President, of increasing the regular army from 58,000, the minimum number provided by the bill, to 100,000 men whenever so disposed and of retaining it at the highest figures as long as he wanted to. The democrats agreed that it was more powerful than Congress ever placed in one man's hands and more than should be given to any man. Other objectionable features were pointed out by democrats, but that is all that they could do. Mr. McKinley's orders had been issued to Speaker Henderson, and of course the bill was passed.

Senator Tillman got a bill through the Senate without opposition, appropriating $75,000 for a government building at the Interstate and West Indian Exposition to be held at Charleston, S. C. Dec. 1, 1900 to June 1, 1902 and $250,000 to aid the furtherance of the exposition.

It is understood that the revival of the grade of vice-admiral, recommended by Secretary Long and provided for in the bill introduced by Senator Hale, is to make a place to which Rear Admiral Sampson can be promoted by Mr McKinley. Rear Admiral Schley has many warm friends in Congress and they may have a word or two to say about this scheme before it gets through.

Students of human nature as exhibited in the political world are trying to reconcile Mr. McKinley's words with his acts. In the closing paragraph of his message were words which read like a patriotic warning to Congress not to be led into making extravagant appropriations just because there was a lot of money in treasury, and now Mr. McKinley is using all his power to drive objecting republican Senators into the support of one of the most extravagant appropriations ever before Congress, that for ship subsidies, which will put millions into the pockets of the already rich owners of the fast mail and passenger steamship and next to nothing in the pockets of those who own the slow freighters which carry our manufactures and products.

The debt we always pay are those we owe to ourselves.

Sheriff Wooten sprung a little sensation among some of our merchants this morning. The American Tobacco Co. has started a "coupon" or "gift enterprise" in connection with their brands of cigarettes. They advertise that for the return of five of the cigarette box fronts a package of cigarettes will be given free. Section 16 of the revenue act, passed by the legislature of 1899, says: "On any gift enterprise; or any person or establishment offering any article for sale, and proposing to present purchasers with any gift or prize as an inducement to purchase, $20." To this must be added $20 for the county, making a tax of $40. Sheriff Wooten notified the merchants who handle the American Tobacco Co's goods, that as he understood the law, they would have to pay this tax. The matter is now being investigated.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 28.
I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.
Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

WINE OF CARDUI

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

We have taken great care in growing the most improved bright tobacco seed—the White Stem Orinoco, the Broad Leaf Orinoco are the most reliable tobacco ever grown in any section. Every man in the east, who cultivated this kind will average from 2 to 5 per cent more than any other kind. Mr. Sam Mumford, at Ayden, says that his Orinoco will bring fifty dollars more per acre than any other kind grown on same land. Martin county people are growing Orinoco and coining money. You will find these seed for sale at Dr. Wooten's and Dr. Bryan's Drug stores and at some store in each section of the county at 25 cents per package.
