OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Some Financial Nuts the Legislature Will Be Called Upon to Crack Next Month.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Dec. 10, 1900. The most important and difficult question that will confront the General Assembly, to convene four weeks hence, will be the financial one—the adjustment of expenses within the limit of the receipts, so as to properly and adequately meet the running expenses of the State government out of the revenues derived annually from taxation.

There is not only urgent necessity for better provision for the two hospitals for the insane, but the Democratic party stands pledged to largely increase the educational appropriation, so as to provide better and longer terms for the public schools. There are other subjects of expense that will demand larger appropriations than at present, but it is not the purpose to go into these matters in detail at this time.

An examination of the State Treasurer's figures shows that the amount of revenue annually derived by the State is not sufficient to meet the present current expenses; that for 1899 the sale of some investment bonds alone avoided a deficit, while for the past year there is an actual deficit of several thousands of dollars in the revenue as compared with receipts from all sources. Either the tax rate must be increased or new sources of revenue discovered, and in either case the exercise of much care and rare good judgment will be necessary. Several political doctors are already offering their advice and advertising their opinions as to how the job should be executed, and as usual the doctors differ.

ONE OF THE "PLANS."

Some advance the proposition that the white schools can secure at least fifty per cent. more money than at present by changing the law so as to give to the white schools all the money derived for that purpose by the taxation of white people's property, and to the negro schools the money raised for school purposes by taxation of the property of negroes only—therefore, they argue, it is not necessary to increase taxes to provide better and longer schools for white children. A bill of this character was introduced in the Legislature two years ago by Representative Julian of Rowan, but it died in the committee room.

Others, who do not wholly favor this proposition, say that the appropriations for colored normal schools and others for the "higher education" of negroes should be lopped off entirely, but that a limited common school education for the negro children should be provided for by the whites taxing themselves for the purpose, as here tofore—and so it goes. The Legislature must settle all these things and it is no easy job.

The people may count themselves fortunate in having so many good and true and intelligent men in the new Legislature to look out for the State's interest in this emergency.

BAPTIST CAPTURED RALEIGH.

The 70th annual convention of North Carolina Baptists, which has been in session here since last Thursday night, brought together the biggest convention and the greatest crowd of Baptists in the history of the convention. There were 350 accredited delegates present at the opening session, and each delegate seemed to be accompanied by two or more of his family. The B. Y. P. U., whose meetings by one day antedated the Convention proper, were largely attended, and on Friday there were probably over a thousand visiting Baptist here—distributed all over Raleigh, in the homes of Raleigh families whose guests they have been.

For the tenth time Rev. Dr. R. H. Marsh, of Oxford was elected President. The other officers elected were: Vice-Presidents—C. S. Vann, Edenton; T. M. Honeycutt, Sparta; Dr. A. E. Covington, Wadesboro; Secretary—N. B. Broughton, Raleigh. Assistant Secretary—Hight C. Moore, Newbern. Treasurer—Walter Durham, Raleigh. Auditor—J. B. Martin, Raleigh. Trustees—W. C. Tyree, Durham; C. M. Cook, Louisburg; Livingston Johnston, Greensboro; T. H. Briggs, Raleigh; L. R. Mills, Wake Forest.

Rev. Livingston Johnston, of Greensboro, was elected Corresponding Secretary by the Baptist Convention to succeed Rev. J. E. White. He will begin his duties January 1. The Convention endorsed the Reformatory for young criminals proposition, and that looking to shorter hours for factory operatives and less employment of "child labor."

Have Your Eyes Examined.

Dr. H. Mayer, the celebrated oculist from the Imperial and Royal University of Vienna, Austria, is stopping for several days at Hotel Macon, where he examines all defects of the eyes free of charge. Dr. Mayer gives consultation in six languages. The Norfolk Virginian says:

"Dr. H. Mayer, the oculist, has during his twelve month's stay in our city successfully treated the eyes of hundreds of our best people and his practice is continually increasing."

The Washington, N. C. Gazette-Messenger rays:

"Dr. H. Mayer, Oculist, who has been here for the past month left for Greenville yesterday. While here the Doctor did a fine business and made many friends. He is an expert in his profession. We commend him to the eye sufferers of our sister town."

Thirteen hundred operators on the Santa Fe railroad have quit work on a strike.

The Well Dressed Man

Reasonable and Right.

If our prices are reasonable then they are bound to be right. If our merchandise is right then it is bound to be reasonably priced. Fair pricing is a basic principle in this store. ## Religion Of The Boycott.

"Therefore, Resolved, that we will cordially co-operate with the Sunday League of America in its efforts to preserve the duty of the Christian Sabbath by using our influence to promote its observance by discouraging the reading of Sunday mail and Sunday papers, Sunday travel, and the use of the holy day for pleasurable diversions.

F. O. SWINDELL, Chmn.
A. P. TYER.

The above resolution was introduced in the Methodist Conference yesterday and debated upon at length. There is more to come for the matter was carried over until Monday for further discussion. Bishop Morrison wishes to speak on it. Some of the remarks were strong, as a few samples will show.

Bishop Morrison said that the Sunday papers are dropped at the doors of church members with announcements of Sunday services in order to beguile them into reading the news and that the papers will positively force it on them if they can.

Dr. J. C. Kilgo said that no Sunday trains paid to be run. He advocated boycotting every paper that publishes a Sunday issue, every enterprise that violates the Sabbath. He said for church members to cut down their patronages on these right along and wage an aggressive warfare.

Rev. D. H. Tuttle said that trustees, officials and members of the Church should be disciplined if they violate the resolution by riding on the Sunday train. For one he was ready to wage this war fare even if it decreased the membership of the church as it undoubtedly would.

Rev. N. M. Journey, and others spoke. Some one said that "courting" should not be permitted on the Sabbath day. The discussion was continued after adjournment. The opinion was expressed that the resolution would pass Monday and the boycott officially declared.

Bishop Morrison said that the question was asked whether a man should ride on a Sunday train to see his dying wife. He said that a man who would not would be "less than a man." Yet the Bishop did not say that no means of reaching a dying wife would be a bad thing. For once his logic had the springhalt.

When the A. & N. C. Sunday train was first put on there was objection raised in this city and a petition was sent to the President from Centenary Sunday School against it. Three of the signers rode on the next Sunday train, a negro excursion train at that.

Stress was laid upon a certain clam bake and fish fry given at Morehead City by a Sunday excursion train. It was admitted that only nine white people went, showing that the public condemned it. Why try to make point where there is no point? The affair was condemned at the time by people who went to church.

Today there will be many people who will reach New Bern by train to attend services from a distance. A number of people, presumably church people and good, have applied to the A. & N. C. railroad for a special train to carry them home after the night meetings. Where these numerous meetings will be held will be told the people in today's Sunday Journal, otherwise many would not know where to go. The request has been granted by the railroad company.

The question has been heard from members of the conference, "can we get our Sunday mail today?" Echo answers, "yes." Inquiry at the hotels reveals the fact that meals will be served as usual today, with the usual compensation, and that "cold vicuals" will not be enforced.

People who cannot keep up to the conditions of tonao are going to fall by the wayside. It is the world and not the sun that "do move." It is many centuries since under the blue sky of Palestine, a man was stoned to death for picking up some sticks on the Sabbath day with which to build a fire. A greater than any of these hat said, "the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath."—New Bern Journal, 9th.

THE REFLECTOR believes the Conference is right in going on record and insisting on a stricter observance of the Sabbath. If the tendency of the times continues there would soon be little difference between Sunday and week days.

Railroad Taxation Case

The railroad companies last week concluded their side of the testimony in the increased assessment case, which hearing has been in progress off and on for nearly a year, and now the corporation commissions (defendent) will have its inning, and attempt to justify the $10,000,000 additional levy. The next sitting of Master Shepard will be on the 18th instant in Raleigh. The counsel for the railroad companies claim that they have proved that private property is not assessed at more than two-thirds to three-fourths actual value, and therefore property of corporations should be assessed accordingly.

If that is all so then the assessment of all taxable property in North Carolina at its true value would increase the revenues of the State from 25 to 33 per cent., and our legislative Solons (who will so soon be called upon to do some lively hustling to increase receipts) will probably treasure this little suggestion up in their "thinkers" for a few weeks. It may come in handy later on.

It is now said that certain roosters up in Chicago have formed an egg and chicken trust and advanced the prices on these necessaries of life enormously. This is what can be called a fowl proceeding without a violation of the proprieties or subjecting one to a liability for damages. And it seems that the hens in this neighborhood have either joined or sold out to the trust, for their product on this market have recently advanced from 33 to 50 cents. We still insist there is no salvation until we get a law which will prevent one from selling out or selling to a combination of any sort. We do not know eggs actly how to form a law that will reach the hens, but we might try to catch the rooster and pullet.—Raleigh Post.

Dr. E. H. Sugg Dead.

The people of Greene county were shocked yesterday when it was learned that Dr. F. H. Sugg, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sugg, was, dead, notwithstanding that his death had been expected for some time.

He died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, of dropsy. He was 33 years of age.

The funeral took place this afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. W. Robinson, pastor of the Methodist church. The remains were buried at the Episcopal cemetery in Snow Hill this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Dr. Sugg was like by all who knew him. He had hosts of warm friends in Greene, Lenoir and Wayne counties.—Kinston Free Press, 10th.

The official vote of the State of Washington shows a majority of 12,617 for McKinley over Bryan.
