QUICKER MAIL.

Something Greenville Should Consider.

There is now a morning train on the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad from Goldsboro to Morehead City. This train passes Kinston at 8:28 A. M., and the Atlantic Coast Line train coming this way leaves Kinston at 7:50 A. M. While these two trains lack only 38 minutes of making connection, those few minutes represent nearly a whole days' travel to reach points that could be made in an hour or two if that gap was removed.

This train that leaves Goldsboro eastward early in the morning has connection with the fast mail from the north and mails from the west. If that train connected with the Greenville train at Kinston, our people would get the benefit of these mails several hours in advance of what we now get. For instance, Raleigh papers that now come at 7 P. M. could reach here by 9 A. M., and passenger travel could be equally quickened.

And as THE REFLECTOR sees it, this gap could be filled and the connection made so easily without either of the railroads being inconvenienced. Just let the A. & N. C. train leave Goldsboro, say, 20 minutes earlier than at present, and the A. C. L. train leave Kinston 20 minutes later, and the thing is done, with two minutes thrown in for transfer.

Do our people grasp this and see the benefit such connection would be to Greenville? If they do, we believe it can be secured if the proper steps are taken and the matter brought in on official way through the proper channel to the attention of the officials of the two railroads in question. The thing is worth asking for.

GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C. Dec. 15, 1900.

J. C. Griffin and J. C. Gaskins went on a business trip to Kinston Wednesday.

Miss Lillie Smith, of Vanceboro, is visiting friends here.

The Big Four, of Goldsboro, came down Wednesday to make music for a dance given by the young men of this place.

Sam Bayner, of Washington, is here with a drove of horses and mules.

Mrs. C. L. Rountree, formerly of this place but now of Kelford, is visiting relatives here.

J. R. Rose is at Dudley on a visit to friends and relatives and is relieved by Mr. Mayo, of Ayden.

N. S. Fulford was here Thursday and left on the morning train.

Have you a Library? If not, why not have one now at my introductory price and terms. You can own Dickens, Scott, Irving, Balzac, E. P. Roe, Nations of World, U. Dictionary, Encyclopedias, and 40 other standard works at a low price and on easy terms. Ask to see samples. A card will fetch them. The first 25 sets will go at the regular price, and one dollar on delivery of complete work and one dollar per month. Drop me a card and let me show you something nice for Xmas.

J. GLENN SMITH,
Special Representative.

Harry Lindley's Company came in this morning to give a performance tonight for the benefit of the Osceola Band.

The Well Dressed Man

Attracts your attention wherever you meet him. He is numerous in Greenville this fall, and we take considerable of the credit for this condition of affairs. Ask the man if we are not entitled to this honor. Never before in the history of this establishment have we carried such a complete assortment of as we have this fall. Our customers tell us this, and they are certainly competent to judge. We have everything that is the rage in New York, and a visit to our establishment will give you a complete knowledge of all that is new and "Chic" in the fashionable world. In regard to our prices: We know that you will not utter a word of complaint. Drop in when you have a little time, we want to see you.

"The Real Thing."

Reasonable and Right.

If our prices are reasonable then they are bound to be right. If our merchandise is right then it is bound to be reasonably priced. Fair pricing is a basic principle in this store. To buy the right thing at the reasonable price is better, far better and more economical than the wrong thing at most any old price. The poorly priced is meanly made, got a wrong twist in it somewhere, you can't depend upon it.

When you want good dry goods you don't want to be shown makeshifts apologies for good dry goods. We cannot too strongly emphasize the goodness, the reasonableness of the following items:

MEN & LADIES' VESTS.

Some right good values in Winter Wear. Heavy Fleece-Lined Vests for Men & Ladies 25c

HOSIERY.

A big markdown in hosiery. They were 15c now 10c, 20 now 15, 25 now 20.

CAPES AND JACKETS.

We come to the front with special lots of nobby garments at prices that would be suicidal earlier in the season, and yet wearing time has just begun. They have been reduced from $4.00 to $2.75, 5.00 to 3.25, 6.00 to 4.00, 7.00 to 5.00, 8.00 to 6.00. These jackets are new.

SHOES! SHOES!!

Shoes for men and ladies. We will cut the price more than half to push out some of these goods. They were $1.00 now 60c, 1.25 now 70c, $1.50 now 90c, 1.75 now 1.00, 2.00 now 1.20.

KID GLOVES.

Kid gloves for ladies and misses. These are the best grade always $1 they will go the next ten days at 79c, all sizes and all colors.

CLOTHING.

SATURDAY DECEMBER 15, 1900.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 14th.

Teddy's gall is by no means a new thing, but his latest exhibition in that line staggered the old-timers around the Capitol. It was a sort of advance notice that Teddy's idea of the Vice-Presidency would not square with the fifth wheel notion which has heretofore prevailed, and of innovations to come which promise good "copy" for the correspondents, if not calmness and peace for the Senate. A New York lawyer, a Mr. Holls, appeared at the Capitol this week and began to industrially button-hole republican Senators. The Senators, probably because of their shame and disgust, would not at first tell what the man's object was, but it soon leaked out that he was the personal representative of Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, Vice President to be probably the first ambassador ever sent to the Senate under the same circumstances and that in the name of Teddy he was asking Senators to defeat the ratification of the amended Hay Panncefote treaty. The visit of Mr. Holls probably changed no votes, but it afforded much amusement, specially to the democrats.

Senator Clay made a long and vigorous speech against the Ship Subsidy bill. It fairly bristled with unanswerable reasons why the bill ought to be defeated. Among others, that would take from the Treasury $2,000,000 a year for twenty years to be donated to a few ship owners, which he declared to be a scheme by which "one man's business is to be heavily taxed in order to advance and make more profitable the private business of another citizen." He said in answer to one of the principle claims made by the supporters of the bill: "How those who favor this measure can maintain that the farmers and producers of this country are the principle beneficiaries of this bill passes my comprehension. I am not surprised that at the hearings before the committee not a single farmer or producer appeared to advocate the passage of the bill; and I am not surprised that the ship owners alone monopolized the time of the committee in pointing out great benefits that would accrue to the country from the passage of the bill. An analysis of the bill will demonstrate that they alone are the beneficiaries of this legislation." In conclusion, Mr. Clay said: The principle purpose of the bill is not to increase the merchant marine, but, on the contrary, to make a large donation to and greatly enhance the fortunes of the ship owners of the U. S. enhance in the foreign trade.

The celebration of the centennial of Washington as the Capital of the U. S. was very enjoyable to those who had tickets to the White House where the governors were received by the President and some addresses delivered, or the hall of the House of Representatives, where a joint session of Congress was held and historical addresses delivered by Senators Hoar, Daniel and McComas, and Representative Richardson, of Tenn., and Payne, of N. Y., or to the big evening reception in the Concoran Gallery of Art; but for the ticketless individual there was only the military parade, under Gen. Miles, which might have been considered a big thing in some places, but was quite ordinary for Washington.

THE WINNERS.

The Best Guesses on the Census.

In June THE REFLECTOR offered two prizes for the best guesses at the population of Greenville—one being a years subscription to our daily edition to the subscriber making the nearest correct guess, and the other being a years subscription to the semi-weekly edition to the subscriber making the nearest correct guess. There was much guessing, but the result had to be reserved until the census returns were made public.

The official figures of the census recently announced place the population within the corporate limits of Greenville at 2565. The nearest guess at these figures by one of our daily subscribers was 2762, made by Mr. E. G. Flanagan, of Greenville, and the nearest by a semi-weekly subscriber was 2610, made by Mr. R. P. Davis, of Newport News, Va. The highest guess was 4005, made by Mr. J. A. Brady, of Greenville.

Every guess made was above the mark, showing that every one believed Greenville to have a larger population than the town is credited with. And since the census figures were announced we have not heard a person express any confidence in their correctness.

The report of Mr. C. H. Mebane to the next Legislature will show a number of interesting and significant facts, say the Raleigh Observer. The total amount of taxes paid by whites for education during the years 1899-1900 is $1,096,386.12. The amount paid by negroes for the same time is $147,955.10. Taking the three items, negro teachers salaries, negro school buildings, and holding negro institutes, the negroes received $468,101.66. In these three items alone which by no means include all the expense, the negro race has received over three times as much as it paid in. The total amount collected for education during the two years 1899-1900, by the State is $1,923,317.50. The total expenditures for the same were $1,882,384.75.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 21.
I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.
MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

OUR STORE GROWING.

What has made our store such a busy place? What we advertise we do. The throngs that daily fill the store is the very best evidence that we rather understate than otherwise the remarkable value we have to sell.

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old foggy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to triple it.
