Occasional rain tonight and Friday.

SOME OF THE MOVERS.

There Are More to Follow Soon.

Among those who have been changing their places of business since the new year came in, we can so far locate the following:

Ormond & Carr are in the Alfred Forbes store.

J. A. Brady has moved into the corner store of his building.

Ed Jolley has moved into the store vacated by Ormond & Carr.

J. S. Smith has moved into the store vacated by J. A. Brady.

J. H. Cox has moved into one of the Bernard buildings.

O. Hooker has moved into the store formerly occupied by E. L. Clark.

J. A. Andrews has moved the residue of his stock down below five Points.

Mrs. M. A. Leggett has moved to Farmville.

Kings Weekly is in the store formerly occupied by J. S. Smith.

The Whole Truth.

The man who sends away from home to buy things which the merchants of his own town have to sell, and seeks to excuse himself with the plea that he can buy goods cheaper elsewhere knocks a prop out from under the community in which he hopes to earn a livelihood, and, perhaps, accumulate a fortune. Such a man is wandering off after false gods. The chances are that after he has settled freight bills and other incidental expenses the things he bought away from home cost him more than he would have had to pay for exactly similar articles kept by local merchants. And, besides, he has set a bad example for his neighbors and done himself an injury, because he is crippling his town, his own business interests have not escaped. A dozen men of this stripe will do more injury to a community than six of the biggest growlers and kickers on earth.—Red Springs Hustler.

Is The Peach Blight State Wide?

The Fayetteville Observer says "Before the war fine peaches were grown in Cumberland; we have seen none since."

Except at a few places, such as the Van Lindley Nurseries, we believe the same can be said as to the entire State. Why is it?

The Horse apple flourished, certainly throughout this central section "before the war," but has become extinct. No superior, if its equal, for good vinegar or "apple-jack," has been introduced.

Among peaches we remember as a friend of our youth what was called the Indian peach, large, meaty, juicy, dark red skin and meat yellow with red tinge. We saw a few some years ago, but they came from Georgia.

We mourn the departure of these friends of our boyhood days.—Raleigh Post.

Military Company.

The Greenville Light Infantry will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Important business. Every member must be present. 2-2t. R. L. CARR, Capt.

BLACK JACK ITEMS

BLACK JACK, N. C., Jan. 2.
Abram Dixon returned Saturday from Washington where he had been to visit his many friends and attend the marriage of Miss Maggie Highson to Mr. Bob Cotten.

Frank Mayo, after spending the holidays with his uncle, W. L. Clark, returned to his home near Conetoe Thursday.

We are glad to have Henry Wynne with us again after spending the holidays with his parents near Grindool.

Miss Sarah Cooper accompanied by her brother, Arthur, and Clarence Spruil came in Friday to visit the family of Robert Dixon.

Miss Minnie Dixon has been visiting Miss Lucy White during the holidays.

We are glad to state that Linier Dixon who got his hand hurt severely with a cannon cracker on Christmas eve is improving rapidly.

Christmas was as lively as ever known around Black Jack.

A. O. Clark left Thursday for Bethel where he will attend school. Amos is a jolly old boy and we regret to lose him.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

You might as well take things as they come, for if you don't they will take you as they go.

A woman's way of treating the Chinese situation is about like her way of catching a chicken.

Every woman has one cushion that is too nice to use, but is meant to hide a spot on the sofa.

When the average man proposes the girl has to fight between being happy and being mad because he didn't do it sooner.

The women have an idea that when one of them refuses a man he goes out and gets drunk to drown his sorrow. Nine times out of ten he is only celebrating.

It is not rash to predict that during the new century every want which the world can supply will be made known through the advertising columns of the newspapers. Already a Chicago preacher has advertised for a congregation, and it has come to him; and a Mrs. Benjamin, of Long Island, advertised recently in a city newspaper for the sweetheart of her youth, found him and was married to him.

As the variety in advertising shall grow the greater will be the number who will habitually read advertisements.

Growth of the Odd Fellows.

Grand Secretary B. H. Woodell, of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, says there are now 120 lodges, a gain of 5 percent with 7,000 members, a gain of 65 percent in 13 months. This is a remarkable increase. The Masons during the year gained five lodges and 800 members. The gain of both organizations, as will be seen, is in addition to old lodges.

In a few days the legislature will convene. We hope their deliberations will be mixed well with good common sense and that no unnecessary legislation will be gone unto, as there is plenty that should be done that is necessary and imperative.—Graham Gleaner.

A Gift Of $20,000.

Goldsboro, N. C., Jan. 1.—It was given out privately today, but upon trustworthy authority, that the will of the late Chief Justice W. T. Faircloth contains a clause giving twenty thousand dollars to the Baptist Female University in Raleigh. It was not stated whether the gift is to be applied to some special purpose or to go into the general fund of the institution.

Assuming in the absence of information to the contrary, that Judge Faircloth's bequest is an unconditional gift to the college, it is understood that it will be available for extinguishment of the college debt. It was stated at the Baptist Tabernacle watch-night service Monday night that there was a debt of $45,000 hanging over the college. If Judge Faircloth's benefaction may be used for reducing this incumbrance it will lift nearly one half of the incumbrance at once and make the task of completing the good work one of comparative ease to the Baptist people of the State, who will feel encouraged to make a supreme effort to clear the college of debt before the meeting of the State convention next December. Indeed it would not be surprising should the entire debt be wiped out before commencement. The Baptists are determined to get rid of the incumbrance, and they know no such word as to fail when they make up their minds to do anything.—Raleigh Post.

John Wanamaker's new periodical, "Everybody's Magazine," has as its leading serial a story of colonial life in North Carolina, "Joscelyn Cheshire," of which Mrs. Sarah Beaumont Kennedy, of Memphis, Tenn., a sister of Mrs. F. A. Olds, of Raleigh, is the author. The first installments appeared in the Christmas number.

Thanks.

The Greenville REFLECTOR has moved into new quarters, having purchased a two-story corner brick building. We congratulate Bro. Whichard over his evident prosperity and hope that it may be increased many fold.—Kinston Free Press.

Happy New Year.

Reasonable and Right.

If our prices are reasonable, then they are bound to be right. If our merchandise is right then it is bound to be reasonably priced. Fair pricing is a basic principle in this store. To buy the right thing at the reasonable price is better, far better and more economical than the wrong thing at most any old price. The poorly priced is meanly made, got a wrong twist in it somewhere, you can't depend upon it.

When you want good dry goods you don't want to be shown makeshifts apologies for good dry goods. We cannot too strongly emphasize the goodness, the reasonableness of the following items:

MEN & LADIES' VESTS.

Some right good values in Winter Wear. Heavy Fleece-Lined Vests for Men & Ladies 25c

HOSIERY.

A big markdown in hosiery. They were 15c now 10c, 20 now 15, 25 now 20.

CAPES AND JACKETS.

We come to the front with special lots of nobby garments at prices that would be suicidal earlier in the season, and yet wearing time has just begun. They have been reduced from $4.00 to $2.75, 5.00 to 3.25, 6.00 to 4.00, 7.00 to 5.00, 8.00 to 6.00. These jackets are new.

SHOES! SHOES!!

Shoes for men and ladies. We will cut the price more than half to push out some of these goods. They were $1.00 now 60c, 1.25 now 70c, $1.50 now 90c, 1.75 now 1.00, 2.00 now 1.20.

KID GLOVES.

Kid gloves for ladies and misses. These are the best grade always $1 they will go the next ten days at 79c, all sizes and all colors.

CLOTHING.

Men and youth's clothing will go for the next few days at hal price.

Youths were $4.00 now $2.25, 5.00 now 3.00, 6.00 now 4.00
Mens were $4.00 now $2.25, 5.00 now 3.25, 6.00 now 4.25, 7.00 now 5.00, 8.00 now 6.00

THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1901.

Since the death of Chief Justice W. T. Faircloth there has been much speculation as to who will succeed him. The Raleigh Post says it is more than probable that Governor Russell will become Chief Justice. The plan is for him to resign as Governor and let Lieut. Gov. Reynolds take his place for the unexpired term and then the latter appoint Gov. Russell as Chief Justice. There being but a few more days before the Governors change there is a possibility of doubt if such an appointment would hold good, but if this doubt is removed, the above will doubtless be the programme.

Had to be Married Over

The Landmark told in its last issue of the marriage of Mr. Zeb Vance White and Miss Sallie Patterson, which took place in Stony Point church last Wednesday afternoon. There is an interesting story connected with this marriage which is a good joke on the contracting parties and the officiating minister, Rev. M. A. Smith of Statesville.

Mr. White, the groom, lives at Sloan's, in Alexander county, while his bride, Miss Patterson, lived in Iredell. The marriage license was bought in Iredell and according to the statutes in such cases made and provided, it was necessary to perform the ceremony in Iredell. But the ceremony was performed in Stony Point church which is in Alexander county, and nobody thought about the difficulty in regard to the marriage license until the ceremony was over and the bridal party, Mr. Smith and others were on the train enroute to Statesville. Then the dilemma was discovered by somebody and to make matters straight Mr. Smith performed the ceremony a second time--this time at Statesville depot--and they went on their way to Richmond.

It was a good joke all's well that ends well.—Statesville Landmark.

A Fat Job

The job of Delegate to Congress from Hawaii has special charms. The salary is $5,000 a year, with 20 cents a mile for mileage. From Honolulu to Washington is a distance of 5,000 miles, which means $2,000 additional for the Delegate, although you can travel between the two cities for $200. Delegate Wilcox is entirely satisfied now with annexation.—Springfield Republican.

MOVED.—I am now in my new store between C. T. Munford and J. A. Brady. Most of my old stock was disposed of before moving and I am putting in practically a new stock. Thanking my many friends for their patronage in the past, I invite them to call at my new store when they want nice, fresh groceries. J. S. SMITH.

Farm Wages.

About the most difficult job the reporter has undertaken is what wages will be paid this year for farm labor.

A score or more of farmers have been interrogated, electing the statement that it was presumed that the wages of last year would prevail. Nearly every one stated that while agreements had been made with labor for the year, the exact wage had not been named, but the neighborhood prices would be paid.

One farmer said that a dollar or two a month more, he heard, had been offered. "But," he said, "such prices, in my opinion, would be excessive. While cotton is now higher than it was this time last year, with favorable season this year what is to keep the price above 8 cents? I don't claim to be a prophet, but I do not see how a cotton planter can expect to realize more than 8 cents, if so much. If farmers could be assured of the present prices holding through another crop, they would cheerfully increase wages, but this is not the case and I do not intend to increase unless my neighbors force me, and then we all will be doing a losing business.—Tarboro South-erner.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

Four Car Loads of Merchandise Bought

Our Popular Store

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old fog" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to triple it.

Holiday Goods.

Over 2 car loads of fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents. The entire store presents a big Bazaar. Everything you can think of is right here. And the Three Crazy at Once.

Winston Salem, N. C., Jan. 1.—

Mr. John Greenwood and daughter, members of one of Surry county's best families, were carried to the Morganton Hospital tonight.

Four men had them in charge. Mr. Greenwood and two of his daughters became violently insane at the same hour a few days ago.

The elder daughter died from the attack. The other two have since been raving maniacs at times it is necessary to restrain them by force from killing some one. The two physicians attending them are of the opinion that their insanity is caused by religious excitements.
