Food for Thought.

The following, taken from an exchange, is as full of hard horse sense as an egg is of meat and ought to be read and prayed over by every citizen:

"These are hard times. We let our timber rot and buy fencing. We throw our ashes and grease away and buy soap. We raise yellow dogs and buy hogs. We let our manure go to waste and buy commercial fertilizer on tick. We send our boys out with a $40 gun and a $10 dog to hunt five cent birds. We oppose every plan to upbuild our town and wonder why we fail to prosper. Some one kick us.

The burglar believes in taking matters into his own hands.

Marriage Licenses.

The first week in January Register of Deeds Moore issued marriage licenses to the following couples:

Sidney Daniel and Maggie Hyman.

J. W. Whitfield and Annie Hathoway.

John D. Williams and Cordelia Dixon.

Hooker Harris and Laura Cooper

There are now 28 life insurance companies doing business in the State and 87 fire companies, 7 of the former and 4 of the latter having withdrawn in 1899 after the enactment of the Craig law, requiring domestication. The revenue this last year to the State was $83,000, whereas in previous years it was only $84,000. It must be remembered that the companies, 11 in number, which as above stated, withdrew from the State, used to yield it $12,000 revenue. The Legislature did a wise thing when it established the insurance department, as it yields $9,000 more annually than ever before.

Mr. Woodward, who has made such a deplorable record as mayor of Atlanta, was one of the steadiest fellows going before he took to politics. After his election he developed a tremendous thirst, and from a staunch, stunday, and steady artisan became a constantly fuddled chief executive.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Jan. 5.

To make a cheap stock fence get our two foot hog fence at 6 cents per yard and put two strans of barbed wire on top. We can supply you with barbed wire. Winterville Wire Fence Co.

We read in the REFLECTOR of a mighty moving in Greenville. We would say our folks have moved some too:

F. O. Cox has moved into his new residence. C. A. Fair now occupies the old home of F. O. Cox; M. G. Bryan is living in the A. G. Cox house; A. D. Cox has moved to the house recently occupied by F. A. Nobles; H. F. Keel has moved his family here and can be found in the McLawhorn house recently occupied by M. G. Bryan. Where C. A. Fair once called home is now the residence of W. S. Highsmith.

In spite of Christmas and the holiday stir we still have a large lot of wire fence on hand. Winterville Wire Fence Co.

There will be several other changes in homes during the coming week and to those faces and count noses will be a difficult task for a few days.

When you arrange your garden you had best get our chicken and rabbit proof wire fence 5 feet high at 12 1/2 cents per yard. Winterville wire Fence Co.

Blaney Harper, of Black Jack, and Miss Sarah Cooper, of Roper City, have been visiting the family of J. W. Harper this week.

Miss Mollie Bryan, who has been away spending the holidays returned home last night.

Best grade farm fence with barbed wire at bottom 10 cents per yard. Winterville Wire Fence Co.

Prof. G. E. Linebery, who has been spending the holidays near Ashpole, his old home, returned on the train Thursday night.

Leonard Hamilton has moved bag and baggage to Grangers. The places that knew him once will soon know him again. Mark it down, Eh!

Jerry Nichols has accepted a position with the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., as has also W. S. Highsmith and two sons.

There has been lots of building here for the past six months and the indications are there will be many more buildings erected within a very short space of time. Our money men are fully awake and none with a more progressive spirit can be found anywhere.

A. G. Cox is still paying the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

Honor Roll.

The following names were on the roll of honor in Mrs. Minnie Manning's school in District No. 4 for the month of December:

Boys—Walter Forbes, Coy Forbes, Ben Manniug, Allen Moye, Raymond Stokes.

Reasonable and Right.

If our prices are reasonable then they are bound to be right. If our merchandise is right then it is bound to be reasonably priced. Fair pricing is a basic principle in this store. To buy the right thing at the reasonable price is better, far better and more economical than the wrong thing at most any old price. The poorly priced is meanly made, got a wrong twist in it somewhere, you can't depend upon it.

When you want good dry goods you don't want to be shown makeshift apologies for good dry goods. We cannot too strongly emphasize the goodness, the reasonableness of the following items:

MEN & LADIES' VESTS.

Some right good values in Winter Wear. Heavy Fleece-Lined Vests for Men & Ladies 25c

HOSIERY.

A big markdown in hosiery. They were 15c now 10c, 20 now 15, 25 now 20.

CAPES AND JACKETS.

We come to the front with special lots of nobby garments at prices that would be suicidal earlier in the season, and yet wearing time has just begun. They have been reduced from $4.00 to $2.75, 5.00 to 3.25, 6.00 to 4.00, 7.00 to 5.00, 8.00 to 6.00. These jackets are new.

SHOES! SHOES!!

Shoes for men and ladies. We will cut the price more than half to push out some of these goods. They were $1.00 now 60c, 1.25 now 70c, $1.50 now 90c, 1.75 now 1.00, 2.00 now 1.20.

KID GLOVES.

Kid gloves for ladies and misses. These are the best grade always $1 they will go the next ten days at 79c, all sizes and all colors.

CLOTHING.

Men and youth's clothing will go for the next few days at hal price. — Youths were $4.00 now $2.25, 5.00 now 3.00, 6.00 now 4.00. Mens were $4.00 now $2.25, 5.00 now 3.25, 6.00 now 4.25, 7.00 now 5.00, 8.00 now 6.00.

MONDAY, JANUARY 7, 1901.

The Secretary of War has submitted to Congress an additional deficiency estimate of $3,000,000 for army subsistence, caused chiefly by the heavy demands made by the forces in China and the Philippines.

The Citizen says that one house in Asheville which has but nine rooms is occupied by 13 families and each family averages two or more children, making 52 persons in the house. There are also 18 dogs and nine cats, two horses three cows attached to the premises.

There are ten factories in Michigan for making sugar of sugar beets. The output for 1900 is estimated at 25,000 tons, or 48,000,000 pounds of refined sugar. The factories have used about 250,000 tons of beets, for which the farmers have obtained probably $1,000,000. In order to encourage the industry the State of Michigan pays a small bounty upon production to the refiners.

The publishers of The Cleveland World observed the advent of the new century [by issuing a paper purporting to give the news of January 1, 2001. The phonetic system of spelling is used throughout this alleged Twenty-first Century journal, and among the leading news articles are an account of the opening of communication with Mars; a story of the robbery of an air ship express by bandits who froze the messenger to death with liquid air; a description of the execution of a "murder" by vaporization, and a recital of the discovery in the ruins of abandoned Cincinnati of several barrels containing a curious, foul smelling liquid labeled beer. Minor items chronicle the intention of "Madame Sara Heartburn" to make a farewell tour of America, the death of a woman who once rocked George Washington to sleep in his cradle, and the fall of a workman from the ninety-sixth floor of an office building.

STOCK LAW.

Contributed.]

There has been considerable agitation in regard to the stock law for Farmville, Falkland, a portion of Beaver Dam and Greenville townships, and I find that there is a majority of the white people in this territory who are in favor of the stock law. But in order to authenticate my petition, and to thoroughly demonstrate to the legislature which is now assembling that the people really need this law for this territory, it has been suggested to me, and I now insist that the white people in Falkland, Farmville, a portion of Beaver Dam and Greenville hold primaries on the 23rd day of January at their respective voting places for the purpose of settling this matter to say the law shall come or to say the law shall not come.

I have a very valuable petition I think for this territory and am willing to have it published if necessary in order to show the people that the law is really an absolute necessity. No legislature of justice can ignore my petition and if the people want the law passed I ask them to assemble on the above appointed day and ratify my work. The citizens of each township are to organize at 2 o'clock P. M. get the consensus of opinion pro and con and then appoint one or more delegates to go to Raleigh with my petition and bill for the stock law. After the 23rd day of January I shall either give up my petition or destroy it.

The territory to be enclosed is something as follows: Beginning at Jim Cobb's (stock law gate on plank road) running down plank road to the terminus of New road near George Crawford's tobacco barn, thence up said road to Beaver Dam swamp, thence straight across woods to road near Heading Branch, thence to Greenville gate on same road, thence with present stock law line to river thence up said river touching Edgecombe, Wilson and Greene counties.

My petition calls for such a line and is highly necessary for the people to meet on the appointed day, and by their action let me know what to do with it, to either send it with the proper bill to the Legislature or burn it and say nothing more about it. WATT PARKER.

Life a Century Ago.

One hundred years ago a man could not take a ride on a steamboat.

He could not go from Washington to New York in a few hours.

He had never seen an electric light or dreamed of an electric car.

He could not send a telegram.

He couldn't talk through the telephone and he had never heard of the "hello" girl.

He could not ride a bicycle.

He could not call in a stenographer and dictate a letter.

He had never received a typewritten communication.

He had never heard of the germ theory or worried over bacilli and bacteria.

He never looked pleasant before a photographer or had his picture taken.

He never heard a phonograph talk or saw a kinetoscope turn out a prize fight.

He never saw through a Webster's Unabridged Dictionary with the aid of a roentgen ray.

He had never taken a ride in an elevator.

He had never imagined such a thing as a typesetting machine or a typewriter.

He had never used anything but a wooden plough.

He had never seen his wife using a sewing machine.

He had never struck a match on his pants or anything else.

He couldn't take an anesthetic and have his leg cut off without feeling it.

He had never purchased a ten-cent magazine which would have been regarded as a miracle of art.

He could not buy a paper for a cent and learn everything that had happened the day before all over the world.

He had never seen a McCormick reaper or a self-binding harvester.

He had never crossed an iron bridge.

In short, there were several things that he could not do and several things he did not know.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

A Century of Progress.

The mere figures of the growth of this country stagger the understanding.

In one hundred years, while the population of the world has doubled, the population of the United States has increased fourteen-fold. The wealth has increased fifty-fold.

In 1800 the largest fortune in the United States was $250,000. Today there are several fortunes of more than $200,000,000. In 1800 the settled area consisted of 305,708 square miles. Today it is over 2,000,000 square miles.

The centre of population has moved from a position east of Baltimore to a point well within Indiana.

Only 4 percent of the people lived in cities one hundred years ago. Today the proportion is over thirty out of every hundred of population.

Our Agriculture, which amounted to a hundred millions a hundred years ago, is now rapidly approaching $3,000,000,000 a year, and the value of the farms of the country is almost $15,000,000,000.

We have more than forty branches of manufacture which each turns out annually, more than $50,000,000 worth of products; and of the forty, five turn out over $400,000,000 each.

Our metallic products are approaching the $300,000,000 mark, and the other mineral products are nearly $400,000,000 per year.

Our foreign commerce of exports and imports has a total of almost $2,000,000 annually.

In our banks of all kinds is a capital of something like $8,000,000,000.

Thus the story goes—a record of millions becoming billions, and a story of increase beyond romance.—Saturday Evening Post.

W. L. Brown, representing the Aetna Life Insurance Co., through J. D. Boushall, state agent at Raleigh, on Saturday paid the heirs of the late Dr. C. J. O'Hagan $5,286 insurance on his life in that company. This settlement in less than three weeks after death of the insured shows the promptness and reliability of such old companies as the Aetna.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

Four Car Loads of Merchandise Bought

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old foggy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to tripple it.

A Business "Don't".

A writer in Printers' Ink whose business it is to give disinterested advice to advertisers has this to say: "Don't sit down and wait for the coming of a busier season, but hunt around the store for good things that you can offer at bargain prices and tell about it in your newspaper. You may not have to employ extra clerks to take care of the increased trade, but it will keep your present force busy and give you a profit."
