OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Legislature Assembling with Hon. Walter Moore as Speaker of the House.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Jan. 7, 1901.

As these lines are written preparations are being made for the opening of the session of the new General Assembly, a session that will be fraught with much interest to the people of our State.

As heretofore indicated in these letters, Hon. Walter Moore will be the new presiding officer of the House, while Lieutenant-Governor Reynolds will preside over the Senate until the qualification of his successor, Lieut.-Gov.-elect Turner, one week after the assembling of the Legislature.

Each branch of the new General Assembly will have most admirable and well equipped presiding officers. Mr. Turner is a veteran in the Senate. He is one of the best parliamentarians in the State, of ripe judgment and valuable experience. Mr. Moore is one of the brightest and ablest men in North Carolina, and as a member of the last Legislature was recognized as such, soon making his way to the very front rank of its leaders. On several occasions he was called upon to preside over the House, and the splendid manner in which he performed that duty was marked. Even then—two years ago—the writer (in reporting the proceedings of the House) heard it remarked by a number of legislators that "Walter Moore is the man for Speaker next time." The suggestion met with such a general and hearty reception that the writ-ter has ever since been anticipating his selection by a practically unanimous demand from the party.

SPEAKER MOORE FOR SENATOR.

Mr. Moore is regarded by those who know him well and are familiar with his worth and ability as one of the "coming men" of North Carolina, and the demands upon him by his party are not likely to end with his selection as Speaker.

I was talking to one of the longest-headed politicians in the State today—a man who has served in Congress and held a number of high offices—and he volunteered this suggestion:

"If I was today forced to pick the probable winner of the Democratic caucus nominee for U. S.

Senator two years hence, I should select Walter Moore as the man having probably the best chance of any Democrat in Western North Carolina—if he measures up to his opportunities, I will add."

The suggestion struck me so forcibly, especially the qualified portion of the sentence, that my "nose for news" prevents me from suppressing so good a thing. Mr.
Moore's friends will doubtless all tell you that he will "measure up to his opportunities," if by that is meant the faithful and brilliant discharge of his public duties. At the very least it may be said that if he enters the race, he will set a great pace for any man who hopes to distance him.

MINOR MENTION.

Speakers at the "Emancipation Day" celebration here last week declared the belief that in the end the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment will work beneficial results for the negro race. Quite a number of thoughtful colored men had previously expressed the same opinion to me, adding that it would "remove many incompetents from politics and spur many young darkies to secure an education," etc.

Raleigh is to have a new hotel, with all modern improvements and quite "cityfied," to be conducted on the European plan. The new structure will be erected in the very heart of the city, opposite city hall.

Officials of the Southern Cotton Spinners' Association still decline to take the public into their confidence antecedent their fight with the northern commission men who handle their products, but it is pretty certain that they are maturing plans now to accomplish their demand for lower commissions.

Our N. C. "drummer evangelist," W. P. Fife, appears to be making a success of his work in Texas.

The first child was received at the new Methodist Orphanage last Saturday.

Raleigh Aldermen have adopted the anti-spitting ordinance, already in force in Asheville and Charlotte and many up-to-date cities.

Five of the Raleigh saloons last week closed business and did not apply for new licenses to sell liquor.
It is said that most if not all of them quit the business as a result of the preaching of evangelist Geo.

Stuart here a short while ago.
The number of saloons in Raleigh and Wake county so far during the year number less than half those of a few years ago. It is a most significant fact. There are now only 22.

It is estimated that fully a half million dollars more than at present available through the regular channels will be required to meet the expenses of the State government annually—that is if the proper common school facilities are provided and adequate provision made for the care of the insane and other unfortunate wards of the Commonwealth. Where is it to come from?

SUPERIOR COURT.

posed of up to Noon Today.

The case against W. H. Mizelle on the charge of poisoning his wife was set for Tuesday of next week and a special venire of one hundred ordered.

Ex-Gov. Brogden Dead.

Ex-Gov. Curtis H. Brogden died Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at his home, about a mile and a half from Goldsboro, aged 84 years.

He represented his county in the legislature before the war.

The Goldsboro Argus says: "He was elected lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket with Gov.
Tod R. Caldwell, and succeeded to the governor's chair on the death of the latter. Subsequently he represented the district in congress. He never married. He was at one time quite wealthy, but lost nearly everything on personal security for his party conferees. He was honest in all his dealings and of upright life."

A Large Hog.

The largest hog ever seen in Greenville was exhibited today on the square in front of the court house by Messrs. W. H. and J. R.
Rives, of Belvoir township. They are selling guesses at the gross weight of the hog and the person making the best guess will be given the hog. The porker looks like he will crowd 1,000 pounds.

Reasonable and Right

If our prices are reasonable then they are bound to be right. If our merchandise is right then it is bound to be reasonably priced.
Fair pricing is a basic principle in this store. To buy the right thing at the reasonable price is better, far better and more economical than the wrong thing at most any old price. The poorly priced is meanly made, got a wrong twist in it somewhere, you can't depend upon it.

shown makeshifts apologies for good dry goods. We cannot too strongly emphasize the goodness, the reasonableness of TUESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1901.

The General Assembly meets tomorrow and everybody will be looking to the happenings in Raleigh.

Judge Fuchres has been appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to succeed the late Justice Faircloth. The plan did not work for Gov. Russell to get the place.

Our townsman, Hon. Thomas J. Jarvis, is now the only surviving ex-Governor in the State. There will be another when Gov. elect Aycock succeeds Gov. Russell next week.

The South and the Old Century.

One hundred years ago the South, spurred by revolutionary invention, set up an agricultural ruler. In a short time King Cotton became an absolute monarch, dominating the South economically, politically and socially. Attempts to limit the imperial power by paying court to commerce and manufactures, in a measure successful, were frustrated for a time by the consequences of the King's exercise of political influence. Clinging in defeat almost of necessity to the King which had made defeat possible the South, mindful of early hopes and efforts, gradually loosened the hold of the tyrant, and at the beginning of a new century is developing democratic balance of the powers of agriculture, manufactures and trade in which the dethroned monarch will hold an honored and influential, but not a dominating place. Southern agriculture is to realize its greatest possibilities in diversifying its energies, putting forth its best efforts to provide a living at home, and devoting its surplus strength to the money crop, whether that be cotton, tobacco, rice or fruit. It will grind its own wheat and corn, fatten its own cattle, and slaughter its own hogs. At the same time it will encourage the building of cotton mills and lumber mills, iron foundries and steel plants, the opening of mines of phosphate, coal, iron, lead and zinc, the extension of railroads and the development of trade relations with foreign parts in the certain knowledge that thereby the opportunities of the farmer will be vastly enhanced.—Southern Farm Magazine.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7th.

Senator Jones, of Arkansas has offered a resolution providing for an investigation by the Senate Committee on Military Affairs of the charges of crookedness in connection with a combine of officials to control the Philippine output of hemp, made by Maj. E. L. Hawkes, against Col. Heistand, and some other prominent officials. In a few remarks on the necessity for the investigation, Senator Jones says: "The ex-Army Officer (Maj. Hawkes) has been removed from the public service, as the newspapers state, and as it is stated by one of the Secretaries, on account of his being guilty of some bad conduct. The rumors are that the other man was as guilty as he was in connection with those things. If it is true that the man who remains in the public service is equally as guilty as the man who was removed, the facts ought to be known. If there has been any infamous conduct of that sort, it should be understood." In a letter to Secretary Root, Maj. Hawkes says of his charges: "I will simply say they are true, or Adj. Gen. Corbin, Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn, Gov. Allen, and Judge Boyd mistake the facts as to their connection with the proposed hemp company."

Representative Williams, of Mississippi, came very near voicing the sentiments of conservative members of the House, regardless of politics when he said, in a short speech on the resolution offered by Representative Olmsted, of Pennsylvania, providing for an investigation of the Southern states, which had constitutionally or otherwise restricted suffrage, with a view to cutting down their representation a resolution which seemed to have no other excuse than a desire for a little notoriety for its author, as it was promptly disowned by the republican leaders—which for a time threatened to throw the House into a protracted and bitter political discussion, but was afterwards quietly sent to its death in the pigeon-holes of the Census Committee: "There is no man who loves American civilization, who is not glad in his heart that by Constitutional and legal methods, analogous to those adopted in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and other states, the South has solved this troublesome and almost unsolvable problem."

It remained for two republicans to break the harmony which has characterized the proceedings of this session of Congress, by calling each other such pet names as criminal and "petfogger." The men were Hopkins, of Illinois, author of the Committee Reapportionment bill, which takes away one of Maine's representative and one electoral vote, and Littlefield, of Maine, who has made a specialty of throwing firebrands among republican combustibles ever since he entered Congress, who is supporting the Burleigh re-apportionment bill which reduces the representation of no state, and which is being strongly supported in the House and may knock out the committee bill. Acting Speaker Dalzell had a hard time getting Hopkins and Littlefield to order, while the House seemed really to enjoy the wrangling, the first of the session.

The Graham Tribune says Miss Sallie Ray left that town Monday night for Bisbee, Arizona, where she will marry Col. J. M. McCoy. The couple had never met but the match was arranged through correspondence and exchange of photographs.

THE WHOLE TRUTH AGAIN.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

In an issue of THE DAILY REFLECTOR last week, you copied an article from the Red Springs Hustler headed "The Whole Truth." I take no issue with the article, in fact I endorse it. But there is another fact that you do not notice. Would it look better while we poor people are here to stay with families to support, that merchants have local pride enough to give us employment before sending off to get stangers to fill places that home folks could fill as well, and often better? I would walk the length of this town to trade with a man that I knew rather than to trade with a man I had never seen before. I am not out of a position or any of my family, but seeing so many good, worthy salesmen who are on the street, with nothing to do, who were raised behind the counter, prompts me to write this. Let Greenville be for Greenville, Pitt countians for Pitt county and North Carolinians for North Carolina first last and all the time, everything else being equal. X.

Selling Eggs By Weight.

In a recent bulletin of the North Carolina experiment station a very strong argument is made in favor of selling eggs by weight instead of by count. A number of eggs laid by different hens were weighed, the result showing that there was fully 100 per cent. difference between the largest eggs and the smallest; nevertheless they all fetch the same price in the market. If small eggs are worth 1 cent each, then it would seem to be only rational and reasonable that an egg twice as heavy should sell for twice as much money. The food value of the egg depends upon its size and weight, but its market value depends merely upon its being an egg. The number scheme of selling eggs is unfair to both the consumer and producer; the consumer must pay just as much for a dozen small eggs as would be charged for an equal number of large ones weighing twice as much, and the of fine, large eggs can get no more for them than if they were small and inferior. If they were sold by weight each party would get justice every time.—Savannah News.

Call to see W. T. Lee & Co's. Laces, Hamburgs, Swisses, All-overs, &c. 1-8-2t.

When you want hardware of any kind call on Ormond & Carr in their new quarters in the Alfred Forbes store.

We are now in the Alfred Forbes store, lately occupied by J. C. Cobb & Son, where you can find a full line of hardware. ORMOND & CARR.

NOTICE.—My office is now in the new store of J. S. Smith, between C. T. Munford and J. A. Brady, where any one having business with me can find me. 1-3-2w. G. E. HARRIS.

H. C. Hooker takes space today to tell you that he is in new quarters and that all his clothing will be closed out at cost to make room for a larger stock of dry goods and for millinery which he will add. This is a chance to get clothing cheap.

TO WOOD BUYERS.—If you want your wood split fine say so when you give your order and it will be filled accordingly. My pine wood is green but when split fine will season in a very short time. If you will let me know exactly what you want I will please you and save you money. O. L. JOYNER.

Suffrage Denied No Man in the South.

It is not clear that the provisions of the fourteenth amendment forbid the limitations which the Southern States have put upon the right of suffrage. Under the constitutions of Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina and South Carolina suffrage is not denied to any citizen in the State. Qualifications are required which are within the reach of any citizen, and if he shall fail to accept the conditions requiring him to be able to read and write, he is excluded by his own act and not by the act of the State.

There is not a black man in one of those States who could not qualify himself for suffrage within a year, and very many Republicans are in hearty accord with restrictive laws which require voters to have some measure of intelligence to enable them to exercise the rights of sovereign citizens. It is quite probable that the question may never reach the dignity of either legal or political determination, as the leaders of the Republican party wisely assume that when suffrage is within reach of all by simply qualifying themselves to read their own ballots there can be no infraction of the supreme law of the republic.—Philadelphia Times.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

OUR STORE GROWING.

What has made our store such a busy place? What we advertise we do. The throngs that daily fill the store is the very best evidence that we rather understate than otherwise the remarkable value we have to sell.

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old foggy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to tripple it.

Holiday Goods.

The Occasional Advertiser.

The man who advertises only once in a while does not get a full value of his advertising. Neither he nor his business ever benefits from the cumulative value of publicity. His each announcement may bear some fruit in proportion to its individual value, but one absorbs nothing of the good wrought by the other. His firm name is not kept constantly before the people. It is not unremittingly impressed upon consumers. Hence he is in a measure new advertiser every time he advertises. —Greensboro Record
