GENERAL ASSEMBLY

What The Law Makers are Doing.

FRIDAY.
SENATE.

In the Senate the several committees were announced.

In the committee appointments announced by the President of the Senate, Senator James is chairman of the privileges and elections committee, and a member of the judiciary committee.

The principal measure introduced was to increase the Governor's salary. A bill to increase the salary to $4,000 passed.

HOUSE.

The following are some of the new bills introduced:

By Wright of Rowan—An act to have the Bible taught in the public schools of the State.

By Allen of Wayne—An act to expedite the trial of civil actions and for other purposes.

By Connor of Wilson—An act to employ a stenographer and typewriter for the clerk of the Supreme Court.

By Hayes of Chatham—An act to prevent kidnapping and to secure to parents the custody of their children.

By Owen of Sampson—An act to regulate the cost of claim and delivery.

By Wright of Rowan—An act to remove the disabilities of married women.

By Reinhardt of Lincoln—An act for the relief of the State Hospital at Morganton.

By Daughtridge of Edgecombe—
An act to authorize the town of Rocky Mount to issue bonds for the establishment of an electric light plant, a sewerage system for other purposes.

By Simms of Wake—An act to appropriate $250,000 for the benefit of the public schools.

Colored Minister Dead.

W. H. Furkins, a colored minister and shoe maker, died here this morning. He was the preacher who took such interest in Elijah Joyner, the Dongola murderer who was hanged last year, and who prepared a history of his life. He was a member of the colored Odd Fellows and that lodge will bury him tomorrow.

We haven't said anything about our town in a long time because we have been so busy we couldn't get an opportunity for anything.
Be that as it may, our town is still here and just as live, prosperous and successful as any in North Carolina and just so long as we are able to kick, the public shall hear the blast of our trumpet.

THE MAN WHO DOESN'T AD- VERTISE.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead
That to himself he hath not said,
"My trade of late is getting bad,
I'll try another ten-inch ad."
If such there be, go mark him well,
For him no bank account shall swell—
No angel watch the golden stair
To welcome home a millionaire.

To such a man the noisy din
Of traffic may not enter in,
For bargain hunters by the score
Shall pass nor heed his dingy door;
For tho' his sign is on the wall
And on some barnyard gate a scrawl,
No people who have cash and sense,
Go prancing round to read the fence.

The man who never asks for trade
By local line or ad displayed
Cares more for rest than worldly gain,
And patronage but gives him pain;
Tread lightly, friends, let no rude sound
Disturb his solitude profound.
Here let him live in calm repose,
Unsought except by men he owes,

And when he dies, go plant him deep,
That naught may break his dreamless sleep,
Where no rude clamor may dispel
The quiet that he loved so well,
And that the world may know its loss,
Place on his grave a wreath of moss,
And on his stone above, "here lies
A chump who wouldn't advertise."
—Lewis Monthly.

SATURDAY JANUARY 12, 1901.

The New York Journal began its existence some years ago by imitating the World. The World has returned the compliment of late by imitating the Journal. Now each says the other is a fool. This seems almost comprehensive enough to fill the bill.

One of the early bills introduced in the Legislature is to abolish the law of two years ago that makes abandonment for one year grounds for divorce. Since that law was passed the divorce mill has ground so rapidly in North Carolina that the evil has become most glaring. It should never have become a law and the sooner it can be repealed the better. The Bible legalizes but one cause for divorce, and that is law enough on the subject.

Last Tuesday two little colored children were fighting at their home on Mr. W. L. Kennedy's place, near Falling Creek. Susan Pool, an aunt of one of the children, tried to stop the fight and in the excitement of the moment, struck her niece, Pearl Pool, on the head with an iron fire poker. The girl was in an unconscious condition most of the time after she was hurt. Her parents, however, did not think the case serious until yesterday evening, when they summoned Dr. Ray Pollock. It was too late then to do any good as the child died within a minute or two after the doctor reached the house.—Kinston Free Press.

The Philadelphia Record observes that "the fighting strength of an army is largely a question of fitness," and that "to fight men must be properly fed, accoutered and provided with the requisites of strength and mobility." All of which dicta are negatived by the history of the armies of the Confederacy, the soldiers of which fought like demons, on empty stomachs.—Charlotte Observer.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11th.

Mr. McKinley has the grip, and if he is half as badly frightened as the leaders of his party are he is not to be envied. It isn't Mr. McKinley's present condition that has frightened the republicans, but the possibilities it calls to their minds. When Teddy was given the second place on the ticket it was not with any idea that he would ever be President. That is why even Mr. McKinley's slight illness alarms them. They know the grip is treacherous.

Some of the Senators worked themselves up into quite an angry mood during the debate on the "canteen" amendment of the Army bill which has been before the Senate all the week, and unparliamentary language has several times been used. It is a tempest in a teapot, which has been encouraged because the men responsible for the bill would rather have the "canteen" than the big standing army talked about. The Senate voted against the "canteen".

The $60,000,000 River and Harbor bill was taken up by the House and after a comparatively short debate passed without serious opposition.

Representative Champ Clark thus paid his respects to the I-am-better-than-thou element: "Yes, the mugwumps or jugwumps, as Sam Jones calls them, these fine-haired people who are too good to discharge their political duties. They stay at home in idleness and the hoodlum discharges not only his own political duty, but that of the fine haired citizen."

Senator Morgan's credentials for his fifth consecutive term were this week filed by Senator Pettus. Senator Morgan is one of the ablest men of a body that has many able members, and one of the reasons for his prominence was well stated by the late Senator Davis when he said of Senator Morgan in a debate "His memory and capacity to assimilate and store away all subjects are marvelous to contemplate."

The House by a majority of 63 knocked out the committee Reapportionment bill and passed the Burleigh bill, which adds 29 members to the House making the total membership after March 3, 1903, 386, the additional members being apportioned to 18 states, on a ratio of 194,182 of population for each Representative.

Over $62,000,000 was donated and bequeathed for public purposes by residents of the United States during the year 1900. Nearly $35,000,000, or considerably more than one-half of the above named sum, went to universities, colleges and other educational institutions. Of the remaining $27,000,000 a little more than half went to charities, while nearly $9,000,000 was given to churches. The sum of $5,000,000 was divided about evenly between museums, art galleries and libraries.

Working the Head of the Family.

It's a wise boy who knows how to work his father, and in this precious age most boys are wise. Louis' father works in Omaha, but Louis himself lives with his grandma in western Nebraska. Like most boys do, Louis writes to his fond father only when he wants money or something new in wearing apparel. Last week he wrote, enumerating a number of articles he needed. Among other things he wrote:

"Please send me some stockings. You better send bicycle stockings because they last longer than the other kind. Are you going to send me a bicycle on my birthday to wear with my bicycle stockings?"—Omaha World-Herald.

The Obstacle.

Oldhamme—Young man, have an ideal. Have an ideal, I say, and hug it to your bosom at all times and places. Youngdogge—She won't let me.—Harper's Bazar.

The Better Man.

A safe man is often better for the long pull than the brilliant man. The latter flashes and is gone, while the other stands by you.

INTUITION.

How does it know—this tiny hidden thing—
With its wilderness of tangled grass,
The hour when summer's languid footsteps pass
And southward flying birds are on the wing,
While earth is dumb with August's silencing?

How does it know the time for purplish haze
Or guess the wondrous transformation scene
Which sets the field and forest all ablaze?
Yet, in shrill notes, from drowsy ways of dawn,
Breaking the spell that passing summer sways,
The cricket first proclaims the autumn days.
—Henry Cleveland Wood in Ainslie's Magazine.

FREAKS IN LUNCH ORDERS.

Waiter Calls Attention to the Imitative Habit Among Patrons.

One of the amusing things to be noticed at the lunch counters is the habit of imitation. If the man on the end studies the bill of fare and then orders a ham sandwich, pumpkin pie and a glass of milk, all his neighbors are likely to duplicate his order, and soon there will be a whole row eating exactly the same things. Sometimes this similarity of appetite causes serious embarrassment. This is invariably the case if the occupants of the high chairs shift about the same time and the men on the end have numerous chances to set examples for 20 or 30 patrons. Then the pumpkin pie or sandwiches are sure to give out before the noon hour is past.

"It's funny how lazy people are," said one of the waiters at a downtown lunch place. "There are lots of men who won't look at a bill of fare, and they just stare over the counter and ask for anything that comes into their heads if they don't happen to see another fellow eating just what they want. If we have something sort of out of the ordinary, like fried oysters, something that can be written on the card in ink, so it will make a good impression on the public, it's a losing investment if the fellow on the end near the door happens to pick it out. Then every one that passes him sees the oysters, and soon there is a regular chorus of yells for oysters. There ain't a patron that wants corn beef hash or cold cabbage.

"People are just like sheep or geese. They like to follow a leader if it's in nothing but eating. I've seen big worded articles about thoughts and ideas being catching or contagious. Any philosopher who has a chance to wait on a lunch counter would believe in that theory. Ideas are as catching as the measles, and don't you forget it."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

OUR STORE GROWING.
What has made our store such a busy place? What we advertise we do. The throngs that daily fill the store is the very best evidence that we rather understate than otherwise the remarkable value we have to sell.

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old fog" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to triple it.

Holiday Goods.

Over 2 car loads of fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents. The entire store presents a big Bazaar. Everything you can think of is right here. And the

The Superintendent of Education for the State of South Carolina shows in his annual report that while more money is appropriated for the education of the whites than for the blacks there are more blacks than whites in attendance at the public schools. There are 155,602 colored children attending the schools, for which there was appropriated $202,171, this being at the rate of $1.30 a pupil. There are at the schools 126,895 white pupils, for whom there was spent $700,540, or $5.54 a pupil.
