GENERAL ASSEMBLY

What The Law Makers are Doing.

MONDAY, 14th.

The Senate gave way to allow the electoral college of the State to meet in its hall, and did not transact very much business. The bills introduced were mainly local in character.

HOUSE.

The most interesting matter before the House was the Senate bill to increase the Governor's salary from $3,000 to $4,000. The matter brought out much discussion and it finely passed by a vote of 52 to 55.

Following are some of the bills introduced.

Stewart of Harnett: An act to make the offense of bastardy a misdemeanor, punishable at the discretion of the court.

Ellen of Nash: An act to abolish fences in Nash county.

Williams, directing the keeper of the Capitol to unfurl the national flag at the dome of the capitol.

Baldwin: An act to extend the time for registering grants and cure certain defective registrations.

The following will be the aides-decamp on Governor Aycock's staff: Joseph E. Robison, of Goldsboro; John S. Cunningham, of Person county; Joseph B. Pollock, of Kinston, and Harper Erwin, of Durham.

Why Not Act?

Sometime ago THE REFLECTOR called attention to a difference of only 38 minutes between the morning train from Goldsboro via Kinston, and the morning train from Kinston via Greenville, and suggested that schedules could be slightly changed and these trains made to connect if proper steps were taken to secure it. Notwithstanding the importance of such a connection, no one seems to be interested in it. Why not take some official action and bring the matter before the railroad authorities.

Prayer meetings in the Baptist and Methodist churches, and at the home of Mr. T. E. Hooker tonight.

Reception to Veterans.

Singletary Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will observe Lee's birthday, Saturday, 19th, by giving a reception to the Confederate veterans of the town and county, and serving them with refreshments. The reception will be held in the armory of the Greenville Light Infantry (Brady's Hall) from 3 to 5 o'clock and from 8 to 10 o'clock, p. m. The early hours will be for the convenience of veterans from the country so as to give them the opportunity of returning home before night if they desire to do so. All Confederate veterans are invited.

The President of the Chapter earnestly requests every member to meet at the armory promptly at 10 o'clock Saturday morning to assist in arranging for the reception.

Small Fire.

About ten o'clock this morning on what is known as the Henry Edmonds property, on Second street, a kitchen was destroyed by fire. The kitchen was used by some of the market people as a room for cooking barbecue, and it was while the cooking was going on that the house caught fire. The loss did not amount much. No other property was damaged. The firemen were out, but there was little for them to do.

Advice to Colored Emigrants.

Rev. S. P. W. Drew, pastor of St. Stephen's Baptist Church, New York city, and president of the Lincoln National Employment Bureau, 75 Fleet Place, Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived in the city yesterday and is engaged in interesting the pastors of all the Wilmington congregations, both white and colored, in a general meeting which will be held either at St. Luke's or St. Stephen's colored church in this city on Tuesday night, January 22d, in the interest of colored people contemplating removal to the North in general and New York city in particular. Rev. Drew sees an impending danger to the race in wholesale immigration of his people to the larger cities and will lecture upon its non-adviseability. He has enlisted the sympathies of a number of the white ministers of the city and they are expected to be present and make a few remarks on the subject in hand.—Wilmington Star.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Jan. 16. Misses Annie Lee Staley, Nannie D. Wood and Rosa Cox spent last Saturday in Greenville, and it is very gratifying to your scribe to hear they are most favorably impressed with his old home. While we are an adopted son and a highly favored citizen of a new home, the tender ties that bind to the old homestead causes a gentle feeling of appreciation to creep over us when we hear the old place mentioned in terms of commendation and praise, especially by critics so thoroughly competent to judge.

1000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

During our visit to Greenville Tuesday, the first in seven months, we had the pleasure of meeting "Gld Joe" Evans, a sincere friend of the old by gone days, and the pleasant recollections of the happy past crowded themselves so vividly upon our imagination during this meeting with him, and others equally sincere, we imagined ourselves young again. This visit will at least be with us for some time to come, and the hope that we may meet them again at an distant date is our sincerest wish.

10,000 good white oak spokes of second growth wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

Good news is always interesting and the good people of Pitt county must be pleased to realize that one of the most progressive and useful firms in Eastern Carolina is the A. G. Cox Mfg Co. They are the immediate cause of thousands of dollars coming among us, and the prospect for many to reap a rich harvest from this enterprise is most gratifying indeed. The A. G. Cox Mfg Co. are headquarters for all that is conducive to the happiness of the farmer, mechanic and merchant. In fact all brought under the benign influence of their progressive spirit feel its effects and readily realize that there is among us an undertaking that is both beneficial and invigorating. Pitt county can well congratulate itself that there is such an element to advance the interest and promote the welfare of all by whom it is immediately surrounded, and we feel special pride in being able to state this as a fact that is uncontrovertible and indisputable.

Not To Be Interfered With.

The most novel marriage recorded recently was that of a young suitor in Lexington, Ky., who when the wedding hour arrived, found that while he was about securing the licenses his sweetheart broke out with smallpox. This did not stop him. He secured a preacher and two witnesses who stood at the window on the outside and he took his place beside the bride on the inside, the ceremony being performed through an open window.—Stanley Enterprise.

Attention Soldiers.

The Greenville Light Infantry will meet in the armory Friday afternoon, 18th, at 2:30 o'clock. Every member is ordered to be present. R. L. CARR, Captain.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1901.

D. E. Olmsted, a retired merchant of Williamsport, Pa., didn't propose to have any lawyers fencing over his will. It consisted of two short sentences thus: "This is my last will. I leave all my property to my wife and make her my executrix." It would take two or three Philadelphia lawyers to get up a legal fracas over the meaning of that.—Wilmington Star.

Editors Who Got Plums.

The editors fared well at the hands of the Senate. Mr. Henry A. London, editor of the Chatham Record, was elected President pro tem of the Senate; Mr. A. J. Maxwell, editor of the Rockingham Anglo-Saxon, chief clerk; Mr. M. L. Shipman, editor of the Hendersonville Hustler, Calendar clerk; Mr. Walter L. Cohoon, who was formerly connected with the Raleigh Post, Reading clerk, and Mr. Yancey Kerr, editor of the Caswell Democrat, Assistant Engrossing clerk. That was doing the handsome thing by the quill-drivers.—News and Observer.

SEEN AND HEARD IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, N. C. Jan. 15, 1901
The steamer Goldsboro, (built by Wm. M. Chauncy, for some parties at Goldsboro) was out on a trial trip on Friday 11th inst. She performed well, and will be on the Neuse in a day or two.

Mr. Russell, late of Michigan, who has bought an interest in the Wheaton Lumber Co., has located in our town. Their place of business is at lower Goose Creek on Goose Creek Island.

We expect the knitting mill to start up in a very short time, as the machinery is being put in position.

We are sorry to note the continued and serious illness of Mr. J. W. Campbell.

We are talking railroad again, and we are going to have it here at once, or sooner,—if those behind the project wish to come badly enough to overcome all obstacles and come volens volens. The project is, and will perhaps be carried out, to extend the Rea- noke R. R. & Steamer Co.'s road from Pinetown, and the other way to Plymouth or Mackey's Ferry. The road is narrow gauge, and I do not see any big thing in it for the builders, but hope it may come at any rate.

Times are quiet and dull, and we are plaining and trying to make a living without work, the more popular plan (next to buying and not paying) is going into the grocery business.

Freeman & Hodges Lumber Co. are operating the Washington Planing Mill.

ENDORSED BY DEPEW.

SAYS THE "PAN-AM." WILL SURPASS THE PARIS FAIR.

Tells Chairman J. N. Scatterd the Half Has Not Been Told of the Grandeur and Beauty of the Exposition at Buffalo.

"Scatterd, you did not praise it half enough."

So spoke the distinguished statesman and famous after dinner orator, Senator Chauncey M. Depew, as he stood in the center of the grounds of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo and gazed upon the beautiful structures surrounding him on every side and now approaching completion.

Senator Depew had come to Buffalo to deliver an address. His first desire on arrival in the city was to be driven to the grounds of the Exposition. The remark quoted above was addressed to Chairman John N. Scatterd of the executive committee of the Exposition, who had told Senator Depew of the progress made in the building of the Exposition when they had met in Europe last summer. Mr. Scatterd had dwelt long and eloquently upon the success which had attended the organization and construction of the Exposition, and "Our Chauncey's" expectations were high. Nevertheless anticipations are not equal to realization.

Looking upon the scene before him from the sight of the grand Triumphal Bridge, he saw to his right the stately proportions of the United States Government buildings, to the left, across the spacious Esplanade, the charming architectural effects of the Graphic Arts, Horticultural and Mines buildings, while the vast Machinery and Transportation building, now almost complete, was seen in the background to the left. Opposite it, across the Court of Fountains, was the Manufactures and Liberal Arts building, and the Electric Tower could be seen rising skyward in the distance at the far end of the vast court, with the towers and minarets of other buildings outlined against the horizon. As Mr. Depew took in this impressive scene the exclamation burst from his lips that the half had not been told.

Later in the day the popular orator addressed an audience which filled to overflowing Buffalo's great Convention hall. In the opening lines of his speech the speaker declared: "Six weeks ago I was at the Universal Exposition at Paris. Today I went through the grounds where your Pan-American Exposition is to be held. I felt that Buffalo is going to do at least twice as well as Paris."

Latin-American and Pan-American.

The press of the various countries of Latin-America show a cordial interest in the Pan-American Exposition. It is recognized that their co-operation is essential to the end that the Exposition may adequately represent the progress of all the states and countries of this hemisphere. As a rule the editors of newspapers and other publications in the countries to the south of the United States display a very favorable attitude toward the enterprise. B. B. Lopez, editor and proprietor of La Correspondencia de Porto Rico, has become so enthusiastic over the Exposition that he writes to the Press Department that he is about to come to Buffalo to see for himself the progress made in the development of the Exposition. He will be accompanied by his family. Many other editors of the Latin-American press have also announced their intention to attend the Exposition, and inquiries are pouring in from these countries regarding steambath and railroad routes. Many editors and correspondents from Central and South American countries have already visited the Exposition grounds.

Wisconsin's Building.

Commissioners from Wisconsin, who have charge of the exhibits from that state at the Pan-American Exposition, have selected a site for the State building. About 20 acres have been set apart on the eastern side of the Exposition grounds for state and foreign buildings. The site chosen for the Wisconsin building is nearly opposite the large buildings of the National governments just south of one of the mirror lakes and south of the Ohio building. It will overlook the Esplanade, with its wonderful fountains and gardens, and a number of the large buildings will be in full view. The Wisconsin commission are Willard A. Van Bunt and George B. Burrows of Madison. B. E. Edwards of LaCrosse, Charles Reynolds of Sturgeon Bay and George H. Yule of Kenosha. Wisconsin will spend $25,000 on her building and exhibits at Buffalo.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables on

OUR STORE GROWING.

What has made our store such a busy place? What we advertise we do. The throngs that daily fill the store is the very best evidence that we rather understate than otherwise the remarkable value we have to sell.

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old fogy" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to triple it.

Holiday Goods.

Over 2 car loads of fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents. The entire store presents a big Bazaar. Everything you can think of is right here. And the Armon's Epigrams.

"I have a little religion, but no politics. I am a plain business man."

"No general can fight his battles alone. He must depend upon his lieutenants, and his success depends upon his ability to select the right man for the right place."

How much am I worth! Ask my wife."

"Most men talk too much. Much of my success has been due to keeping my mouth shut."

"The young man, who wants to marry happily, should pick out a good mother and marry one of her daughters—any one will do."

"Good men are cheap."

"There is no such thing as luck."

"Capital can do nothing without brains to direct it."

"This is the country of the young."

"An American boy counts one long before his time to vote."

Tom Watson, of Georgia, is thrifty. He isn't in politics now, but is working at his profession, writing books, and looking after his farms, of which he owns half a dozen or more, containing in all about eleven thousand acres, out of which he makes $10,000 a year. Sensible man to get out of Pop-politics.—Wilmington Star.
