OUR KALEIGH LETTER

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH N. C., Jan. 28, 1901.

As the people of North Carolina are so greatly and closely interested in several bills now pending in the General Assembly, I cannot do better than to devote this letter almost entirely thereto.

Five of the most important measures of legislation proposed are still pending, though two of them will probably be disposed of this week. All of these bills originated in the Senate and will therefore first be considered in the "upper house."

I refer to the Aycock bill pending for State adoption of a uniform series of school books; the Reform school bill; the Brown bill to prohibit the sale (not manufacture) of cigarettes in North Carolina; the Ward "anti-trust bill," and the Henderson bill pending for alimony (at discretion of trial Judge) in cases of absolute divorce. Each of these measures is of great importance to the people of the entire State.

The Aycock bill is probably the most important of all, for a uniform series of school-books, through State adoption, is one of the great needs of our people, because it means cheaper school-books and avoids the necessity of purchasing different books when children change from one school to another.

The system provided by the machinery of the bill for selecting and contracting for these books (through a State commission, with the Governor at its head and the Supt. of Public Instruction as its Secretary), will open the doors of competition to all, and the "book trust" will therefore not be able to control the supply.

BILL DON'T SUIT BOOK TRUST.

The Johnson Publishing Co., of Richmond and other independent school-book firms, have stated through their attorneys, to the legislative committee on education, that they are satisfied with the Aycock bill and would be glad to see it made a law—although it is not exactly what they would have suggested.

The attorneys of the University Publishing Co., and the American Book Co., both of New York, and which some claim are the leaders in the "trust," opposed the Aycock bill at a joint meeting of the two legislative committees held Thursday night—a meeting that lasted till one o'clock a. m. Friday morning. The bill is now in the hands of a sub-committee and will be reported back to the full committee tomorrow (Tuesday) evening. The bill will be reported favorably to the Senate this week. Judge Counor will seek to amend it by exempting graded schools of the towns from its provisions, but it is doubtful whether the committee will take that course.

The Reform school bill introduced by Senator Broughton of Wake is still in the hands of the Senate Committee on Penal and Charitable Institutions. It will be reported favorably, after being amended in several particulars, later on. During the past week the two committees held a joint meeting and were addressed eloquently and argumentatively by advocates of the measure, including the president of the Reformatory Association, the president of the W. C. T. U., the Secretary of the State Board of Charities, U. S. Commissioner Nichols and others.

WHAT STOPPED THE CIGARETTE BILL.

That is the presentation of the predicament, as stated, not by me, but by one of the best Democrats and best lawyers in North Carolina, of the committee. "That would be the result if we enforced the law after passing it, as far as had the power," he added. Such lawyers as John S. Henderson, Senators Woodard and Vann and Morrison and justice and others hold similar views.

It was the recognition of the above conditions and prospects that caused the Brown anti-cigarette bill to be deferred and re-committed after being set for the special order for last Wednesday.

As Senator Brown said to the writer, we do not want to cripple our home industrial plants, not even a cigarette manufactory, when we know that it will only issue to the advantage and benefit and increased prosperity of foreign competitors who can send their goods here (in the "original package" under the Interstate commerce laws) and sell them with impunity and immunity from any State law we may pass.

The fight against trusts should be made in Congress by our national legislators, who alone can grapple with these industrial and financial giants, so many of whom are enriching themselves by crushing out smaller industries and small capitalists. This is the view given expression to by W. J. Bryan not long ago.

ALIMONY AFTER ABSOLUTE DIVORCE.

The bill now pending in the Senate (made the special order for Wednesday next at 12 o'clock) by ex-Congressman John S. Henderson, providing for alimony to the wife after granting of divorce a vinculo matrimonii, or absolute divorce (in the discretion of the trial judge, if he thinks the divorced woman deserves it), is an important departure from the present law, and all past laws in this State. But it prevails in a number of States now, by recent enactment, as asked for by Senator Henderson. It elicited a warm debate last Friday, and will be discussed again Wednesday. The vote on its passage will be close.

Silent Sufferers.

In many human bosoms an ocean of trouble is rolling and tossing its billows in fiercest fury, forcing its spray out at times through the eyelids in briniest tears; but so bravely and so silent and so uncomplainingly is it borne that no one dreams of the trials that are surging and roaring in the hidden depths within. That beautiful calm of fortitude, which mantles the brow in such lovely serenity, and that soft mild light of cheerfulness, falling like sunbeams from Heaven and playing over the features in such a glimmering sheen of beauteous lustre, would seem to whisper that all is peace and rest within the grief reefed caves of feeling. But, not so. We can't dive through the shining surface and see the rocks on the bottom, against which the waters strike and foam and surge and seethe in all their terrible fury. No, that is hid, and it is given unto the heart alone to know and feel its throes and its agonies. Many a smiling face beams over a heart whose brightest dream is broken and whose sunlight has gone out forever, even as a brilliant sky sometimes droops its iridescent beams of radiance above a dark and sobbing and moaning sea.—Orange, Va. Observer.

The Ladies of Bethel Give Thanks.

We the undersigned mothers of Bethel and surrounding community and members W. C. T. U. wish to express our most sincere gratitude to the Honorable Board of County Commissioners for refusing to grant license for the sale of intoxicating liquors within one mile of our little town.

We feel that our homes are now safer, that our community will be happier and more prosperous, that we now have a better opportunity for raising boys and girls who will be a blessing to the country.

Again we say we thank you, and we earnestly pray that in the future, you will help us keep from our community that which tends to the destruction of the peace and prosperity of our homes and fire sides.

Respectfully,
Mrs. M. O. Blount, Mrs. W. H. Britton, Mrs. H. W. A. Martin, Mrs. S. T. Carson, Mrs. R. J. Grimes, Mrs. W. J. Whitehurst, Mrs. Z. D. McWhorter and others.

BAY STATE AT BUFFALO.

Fine Historical Exhibit Will Be Made by Massachusetts.

The historic Commonwealth of Massachusetts will have a most interesting exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo.

It is being collected through the cooperation of various societies, such as the Sons of the Revolution, Daughters of the Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Revolution, the Society of the War of 1812 and kindred organizations. The chairman of the Massachusetts Pan-American commission, Mr. Walter Gillman Page, is a leading spirit in these societies and is anxious that the wealth of historic material possessed by Massachusetts should be adequately represented at the Pan-American Exposition.

The matter of a building has not yet been definitely decided, but it is probable that the old Providence House, which was one of the historic buildings of Boston, will be reproduced as a home for Massachusetts exhibits at the Exposition in Buffalo. This building was typical in its style of the old fashioned Boston architecture and, in addition, possessed a special interest from its historic associations. It formerly stood on the Washington street end of Providence court, partly on the site of what is now Clark's Tavern.

One of the members of the Massachusetts commission to the Paris Exposition, who recently returned from the French fair, secured there about 450 valuable exhibits, which will be transferred to the Pan-American at Buffalo. Ex-Mayor Frederick Fosdick of Fitchburg and City Treasurer E. T. Tift of Springfield returned recently from a visit of a few days in Buffalo very enthusiastic over the prospects for the success of the Exposition and are anxious to have the good old Bay State well represented there.

Buildings Going Up.

The magnificent buildings which are to house the exhibits of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo next summer are fast progressing toward completion and will soon be ready for the collections which are on the way from all quarters of the American continent. The scene upon the grounds of the Exposition, in the northern part of the city, including part of the famous Delaware Park, is a busy one, and every day sees some definite progress made in the construction work. Conditions have been very favorable to rapid work, and the Pan-American Exposition bids fair to break the record in the matter of swift construction of Exposition buildings and their entire completion before the time arrives to open the gates to the general public.

Connecticut at Pan-American.

The state of Connecticut is getting together a large display that will represent her farm, fruit and dairy interests at the Pan-American Exposition next year. Benjamin H. Lee of Hartford is the commissioner in charge of the work, and he is assisted by a committee composed of N. S. Platt, chairman, New Haven; Professor C. S. Phelps, secretary, agricultural station, Storrs; J. A. Dubon, Poquonock; Professor A. G. Gulley, agricultural college, Storrs; E. H. Jenkins, agricultural station, New Haven; J. B. Noble, dairy commissioner, Hartford; B. C. Patterson, master of state grange, Torrington.

HUMAN SACRIFICES.

MODERN RELIGIOUS FANATICS WHO BELIEVE IN THEM.

Many Peculiar Sects in the Old World, Particularly in Russia, Whose Members Kill and Crucify That Salvation May Be Attained.

That human sacrifices have been made even in the nineteenth century, and by professing Christians, too, is brought out by The American Journal of Sociology in a striking article.

The Convulsionists, a sect existing in Paris about 1760, were wont to crucify members of their order, in emulation of the crucifixion of the Saviour, in the belief that the souls of the surviving members would be saved by the sacrifices of their fellows. In 1817 the "Paschellians," an Austrian sect, murdered a man, his wife and daughter under the delusion that the trio, who refused to go with the fanatics, were possessed of the devil. On the following day they crucified one of their own number, a girl of 19 years, who had suffered herself for the death, in imitation of the death of the Saviour, in order to save the souls of her fellow believers.

In 1823 the leader of a Pietistic circle in Switzerland, after having dispatched her sister, who gave her life as a means of saving the souls of her relatives, was crucified by her followers at her own command in order that she might die, rise again after three days and restore to life the sister she had slain. In 1865 two mothers, adherents of the "Holy Men," slew their sick children, believing them to be victims of demoniacal possession. In 1875 a Hungarian miller, belonging to the "Nazarenes," killed his son as an offering for his own sins after the fashion of Abraham. In 1870, in Irkutsk, Russia, one of the "Schismatics" convinced himself by prayer and fasting and much Scripture reading that to save his soul he must be crucified. Accordingly he attempted self crucifixion and succeeded so far as the circumstances of the case would permit.

In 1830, in the government of Perm, Russia, a peasant killed his child as an offering for sin and buried the body in an art hill. Likewise, in the government of Vladimir, another peasant killed both his children in due Abrahamic form, and while the babies bled under the father's knife the devout mother celebrated the service by reading aloud selected portions of the twenty-second chapter of Genesis. In 1854, in the government of Tambov, Russia, a peasant, convinced that to save his soul a man must have a sin to repent of, killed a neighbor with an ax in order to satisfy this highly imperative condition.

It is a part of the creed of the "Wanderers," a Russian sect, that anti-Christ rules in high places there and that accordingly good men must have naught to do with governmental affairs of any sort. In conformity with this belief a man murdered in various ingenious ways 25 men, women and children, including his own wife and babies, in order to free them from the danger of losing their souls by suffering the contaminating contact of the government census taker. This occurred in 1897.

The "Deniers," another quite interesting Russian sect, believe that evil taints all earthly good and that the only escape is death. In 1825 60 of these men, strong in the faith, after having murdered their wives and children, permitted themselves to be put to death, one by one, by their leaders. The "Scourgers," who also form a widespread and influential sect in Russia, in obedience to the behests of their "saviors," are in the habit of indulging in human sacrifices, cannibalistic feasts, erotic dances and other lewd procedures as an extremely efficacious method of keeping the hand of evil from off their immortal souls. So the "Muckers" of Konigsberg and the celebrants of the black mass in Paris afford further examples of the use of a ritual of erotism, coupled with a practice of the most abandoned and obscene behavior, to promote the eternal welfare of the soul.

She Had Read About It.

One day a boy was missing from a schoolroom in one of the up town public school buildings. The teacher looked around and failed to see the familiar face.

"Does any pupil know why Tommy McGregor isn't in school today?" she inquired.

There was no answer. The teacher repeated the query. Then a little girl slowly lifted her hand.

"Please, ma'am," she said, "I know. 'And why does he stay away, Mary?'"

"Please, ma'am, it's 'cause he's got 'measles inside.'"

Mary had read the contagious disease card that was tacked on the front of the house.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Truly Happy.

"Of course the only truly happy man is the man who devotes his life to doing good for others," said the corn fed philosopher. "That is the only occupation a man can engage in in which people will let him have his own way."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Foundation of Woman.

A small boy in the mission Sunday school of Bishop Fallows' church propounded an entirely new theory of creation last Sunday.

"Who made man?" asked the teacher, beginning as in the good old days when orthodox used catechisms. "God," was the prompt reply. "And how did he make him?" "Out of dust, ma'am; nothing but dust."

"And who made woman?" "God made her, too, ma'am."

"How?" The small boy hesitated and then replied cheerfully. "He caused a deep sleep to fall upon man and then took out his backbone and made the woman."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

A New Arabic Notation.

There is a city magistrate living up town who is possibly raising a mathematical prodigy in the person of his 3 or 4 year old daughter. She has only recently begun to attend the kindergarten and yet meditates changes in the system of enumeration now in vogue which, while startling, are certainly suggestive. When asked the other day to count, she hesitated some and then lisped: "None, some, one, two, free, fore."—New York Times.

Too Much Sugar.

Dr. Patchen of New York says, "If every living person were to diminish by 90 per cent the amount of sugar he now consumes and maintain its use at this standard, in less than one generation the number of physicians now practicing would be diminished by one-half, and two-thirds of the present number of drug stores would be closed."

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables

OUR STORE GROWING.

What has made our store such a busy place? What we advertise we do. The throngs that daily fill the store is the very best evidence that we rather understate than otherwise the remarkable value we have to sell.

Our Popular Store.

We leave it to you if there is not a snap, vim or go, about this business not perceptible in any other business in Greenville. It is no secret. The "old fog" dry goods and clothiers are sleeping, waiting for you to come in and pay them their 50 per cent. profit. Will you do it? Or will you trade with a live, hustling, progressive concern that is working like a Trojan and making your dollar buy two dollars worth. We have doubled the business since we are in our new building already, and now want to tripple it.

Holiday Goods.

Over 2 car loads of fancy goods suitable for Christmas presents. The entire store presents a big Bazaar. Everything you can think of is right here. And the

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

If trouble you would borrow, you must be fond of sorrow.

There is a solace for every sorrow, and a wrinkle for every worry.

'Tis money that makes the man go—into robbing banks and post-offices.

In printing kisses you don't need any for general circulation—the edition is limited.

Some people talk until they wear holes in their tongues and then they haven't said anything.

An Outrage.

Some people are thoughtless enough to play pranks on people over the telephone. The other day some one 'phoned up to the knitting mill and asked for one of the young lady operatives. The young lady went to the 'phone and was told that her mother had been taken suddenly ill and was at the point of death. As might have been expected, the message greatly alarmed her and she ran all the way home only to find out that she was the victim of a joke. The young lady was almost prostrated from exhaustion and excitement the message caused. It was an outrage and the perpetrator should be ashamed of it.

Talks on China.

Dr. G. W. Greene, a missionary to China who recently returned and is spending a while at his old home in this State, visited Greenville and conducted two services in the Baptist church here Sunday. In the morning he talked interestingly on China's need of the Gospel. At night he spoke of the causes that brought on the "Boxer" war. A man just from the scene can speak interestingly on the subject, and one cannot hear Dr. Green without having sympathy aroused for the Chinese in the encroachments made upon their territory by other nations.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor J. G. Moye has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

Andrew James, reckless and fast driving, fined $1 and cost, $3.85.

Samuel Coward, drunk and down, fined one penny and costs, $2.21.

Washington Hayes and Joseph Thompson, riotous and disorderly assault and vulgar and profane language, fined one penny and cost each $2.79.

Redmond Forbes, riotous disorderly and being drunk, fined $1 and costs, $3.40.

If ever there were a time when we needed to think of what we can have without money, it is now. We think so much about money. We talk so much about money. We say we can do nothing without money. That is not so. We can be saints without money; we can have peace of conscience, peace with God, joy in God, we can have Heaven without money.—Margaret Bottom in the February Ladies' Home Journal.

COTTON WEAVERS FOR PITT COUNTY.

Following is a copy of the bill introduced in the General Assembly by Hon. W. J. Nichols, one of the representatives from this county:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do Enact:

Sect. 1. That on the first Monday of the month following the ratification of this act, the board of commissioners of the county of Pitt may elect cotton weighers for the county as follows: one for the town of Winterville; one for the town of Ayden; one for the town of Grifton; one for the town of Grimesland; one for the town of Farmville; one for the town of Falkland; one for the town of Bethel; and one for the town of Pictolous.

Sect. 2. That the cotton weighers elected as above provided shall hold their offices for a term of one year from the date of their election.

Sect. 3. That annually thereafter on the first Monday in April cotton Weighers may be elected for the towns above named by the board of commissioners of Pitt county.

Sect. 4. That the cotton weighers elected as above provided for, before they shall be allowed to act as cotton weighers shall give a good and sufficient bond in the sum of five hundred dollars each, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties as cotton weighers: the said bond to be approved by the board of county commissioners and when approved filed in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt county; and the said cotton weighers before entering upon their duties, shall make and subscribe an oath before some person qualified to administer oaths to faithfully, fairly and impartially weigh all cotton brought to them, and to perform all other duties of cotton weighers in the same manner, and any cotton weigher accused and convicted of any fraud or unfairness in weighing or making unfair deductions from the weight shall be preemptively removed from office by the board of commissioners.

Sect. 5. Any other person, other than the aforesaid cotton weighers, who shall weigh any bale of cotton, offered for sale in any of said towns shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished in the discretion of the court.

Sect. 9. The cotton weighers provided for in this act shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of ten cents for each bale of cotton weighed. Five cents of which sum is to be paid by the buyer and five cents by the seller, and each buyer of baled cotton shall retain from the price of said cotton the sum of five cents to be paid to the cotton weigher above provided for as the seller's part of the compensation due said weighers for each bale weighed, and the sum of ten cents shall be paid by the buyer of said cotton to the cotton weighers; five cents for himself and five cents for the seller or owner.

Sect. 7. The board of county commissioners are empowered to fill all vacancies in the cotton weighers offices occasioned by death resignations, removal or otherwise.

Sect. 7. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sect. 9. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

[Senator F. G. James introduced a bill providing for the appointment of a weigher for Greenville, which we suppose is the reason Mr. Nichols does not place this town in his bill.—Ed.]
