GRIFFIN-FOLEY.

Pretty Home Wedding.

At 8:30 o'clock this morning at the home of Mrs. Mary Foley, mother of the bride, in the presence of a few friends, Mr. E. E. Griffin and Miss Julia Foley were married, the ceremony being performed by Father George, of New Bern. The Italian band played the wedding march as the couple entered the parlor.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple drove to the depot and took the morning train for Iver, Va., to spend a few days with relatives of the bridegroom. From there they will visit Baltimore and other cities before returning to Greenville.

The bride is one of our most charming young ladies and exceedingly popular with every one. Since the location of the telephone exchange here she has served as day operator in the central office.

Mr. Griffin has been engaged in the jewelry business here for some years and has met with much success. He has a large circle of friends and is held in high esteem.

The couple received many handsome bridal presents, and have best wishes for a happy wedded life.

A kiss can't be described by the tongue, but it can be expressed by the lips.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Proceedings of February Meeting.

The County Commissioners met on the first Monday, the full Board being present.

The usual outside pauper orders were issued, and claims for current expenses allowed.

J. L. Speight was granted license to retail liquor one mile from the town of Bethel.

C. O. H. Laughinghouse, Superintendent of Health, and J. B. Cherry, Treasurer, presented their monthly reports, which were placed on file.

R. H. Coggins, Constable of Belvoir township, presented his official bond, with R. B. Cotten, J. R. Corey and E. W. Faithful as sureties, which was accepted.

J. B. Bullock, Elias Cox, W. J. Laughinghouse, Fred Cannon and Laurence Barrett were exempted from poll tax for 1900.

The following were added to the pauper list to receive the amount stated per month: Margaret Corbett $1, Rhoda Joyner $1, Sarah Hodges $1.50, J. H. Spain $2.50, Mary Spain $1.50, John Godley $1.50, Jane Whitehurst $1.

Windsor Joyner was released from payment of taxes on $20 in Farmville township.

The land of A. B. Galloway, in Chicod township, was reduced in valuation from $4,000 to $400, the same being an error.

Lands of Henry White in Swift Creek township was reduced from 300 acres, valued at $467, to 100 acres, valued at $156.

L. H. Smith, Sr., of Swift Creek, was released from taxes on $687 personal property erroneously charged.

Robert Newton, Constable of Falkland township, renewed his bond.

Mrs. M. J. Stanley was released from taxes on $2,000 bank stock in South Carolina.

It is reported from Atchison Kan., that one of the jointkeepers of that town has procured 100 live rats which he has confined in one corner of his barroom. He has completed his arrangements for the reception of Mrs. Nation by removing from the room every chair, table and other elevated structure on which she might climb when the rats shall be let loose. Why he should have gone to this trouble and expense when one wee mouse would have answered his purpose is hard to understand.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Feb. 6.

Our "items" for the last few weeks have been on the wirey edge and having answered their purpose, we will in the future devote our space to happenings and things in general, especially to things in general. And Wood hope they may not prove too stale-y, were it not for the fact that some of our friends might term us too pre-Cox-ious in such an aspiration. Anyway we shall do our level best.

1,000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

On last Sunday many people were seen wending their way through our town. Upon inquiring where so many were going we were informed to the marriage of Mr. Henry Beddard. Later we were told when they arrived, they found the would-be groom at home, but could not be seen, as door, lock and key obstructed the way, and the bride-elect, too, was missing. There are many conjectures, but no one knows. Alas! Alas!

1,000 good second growth white oak spokes wanted by A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

W. H. Stocks brought two cart loads of cotton seed here Monday, both of which weighed exactly the same, to a pound. Returning home he brought two other loads, one of which weighed exactly the same as the first two, 1,776 pounds. This was gross weight including horse, cart and seed.

Don't forget the Winterville Wire Fence when you are in need of a good fence.

Mrs. C. A. Fair is on a visit to her parents in Emmitsburg, Md. Before her return she will visit the northern markets and purchase her spring millinery. The ladies may hold themselves in readiness, for a rare treat awaits them upon her arrival.

Mrs. John Galloway, of Grimesland, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting her son and daughter who are attending the Winterville High School.

Mrs. B. F. Patrick, of Greenville, spent a couple of days here last week visiting, to the delight of a host of friends.

After a brief illness Miss Lucy Galloway has resumed her studies at the College. We are glad to learn she has entirely recovered.

Mr. H. F. Keel, of our town, and Mrs. Henry Cox, of Greenville, were married in the last named place last Tuesday, and immediately came here where they will reside. Our people extend Mrs. Keel a cordial welcome.

Mr. W. J. Tripp and Miss Mattie Jarrell were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on last Wednesday. Their many friends extend warmest congratulations.

Mrs. Edward Best and two children have been spending several days with the Misses Messon.

A. G. Cox is paying the highest prices for cotton seed.

No architect has risen in his profession from planning castles in the air.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1901.

Pictures of the legislators are getting in the Raleigh papers. But the libel bill has got through and possibly the editors fear no danger now.

The Register of Deeds of Wake county died recently, and Mr. J. J. Bernard, a Greenville boy, who has long lived in Raleigh, was appointed to the position.

The Henderson Evening Herald has suspended publication after an existence of ten months. The reason given is lack of patronage.

Unless Greenville does some thing in the way of making improvements, can you see any future for the town beyond its present standing? This is a point to be considered by those who protest against improvements.

His Half Dollar Came Back.

Twenty-five years ago, while working in the blacksmith shop of J. W. Shetter, at Stroughton, Wis., Harvey Hawman, ex-chief of police of Sioux City, stamped the letters, "J. W. S.," his employer's initials, on a half dollar.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4th.

Democrats and Republicans, by mutual consent, called the legislative game today long enough to participate in doing honor to the memory of that grand old Virginian, John Marshall, by attending the joint session of Congress held in the hall of the House, and taking part in the interesting exercises of the Centennial celebration of the appointment of John Marshall to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the U. S.

The republicans will this week try to hold night sessions of the Senate to force the Subsidy bill through. The opponents of the bill are not particularly opposed to night sessions, but they insist that at all sessions when this bill is being considered a quorum should be present.

Mr. McKinley signed the Army bill Saturday, and the hunt for the thirteen hundred odd commissions it places at his disposal, is now in full cry, and he is already finding it several times worse than the grip. Gen. Miles has been promised the Lieutenant-General ship.

Senator Gallinger made some ugly charges in support of his resolution for a Joint Congressional Committee to investigate special on legislation. He said that under the present practice a pension bureau had been established under the dome of the Capitol, and pension attorneys, he believed for pay, advised clients that it was easier to get pensions through Congressional action through the pension bureau.

No speech made by a democrat at this session has attracted more attention than the appeal of Representative Lanham, of Texas, for harmony in the democratic party. By way of emphasizing his willingness to receive with open arms those democrats who left the regular organization during the last two national campaigns, he inserted this verse in his speech:

"Return, O wandering return,
And seek an injured party's grace
Forsake the sins that made you mourn,
And drove you from its fond embrace!
Come home! Come home!
O prodigal child, come home."

Senator Turner, whose speech against the Ship Subsidy bill was alluded to by Senator Frye, as "very amusing, and as showing "dense ignorance" gave Mr. Frye a scoring that he will not soon forget. He compelled him to admit "that there might be errors" in some of his figures as to the working of the bill, and then said that Mr. Frye had a vicious job on his conscience and could not afford to laugh at anybody, and that he had laughed showed that he would laugh in a graveyard at midnight; that the man who had charge of a crime and was pushing a steal, had no reason to laugh at anybody. He referred to Mr. Frye as a "gudgeon smelling around in the mud for food and accepting the decayed with the good." During the latter part of the speech Mr. Frye became so angry that he left the Senate Chamber and did not return until Mr. Turner finished.

Couldn't the higher education of girls be applied to the hired girls. The people who speak of "vulgar trade" are often the ones who don't pay their bills.

Names of Battleships.

In compliance with the law which provides that certain classes of vessels of the navy shall be named for States of the Union thirty-one States are now represented on the navy list, as follows: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire (by the Kearsarge), New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Most of these are sonorous names, well adapted for designating fighting ships. Nevertheless, the scheme of nomenclature adopted by Congress is responsible for some misfits. Dakota would be a good enough name for a battleship, but South Dakota and West Virginia are simply ridiculous. State names containing the prefixes North, South, New or West might well be shorn of the surplusage. Jersey would sound better than New Jersey, and where the omission, as in the case of the two Carolinas, Dakotas and Virginias, would lead to duplication the States might be represented (as is New Hampshire) by a famous name in their local history or geography.—Philadelphia Record.

Like a Household Word.

"If day in and day out the public have the name of any article pressed conspicuously upon their attention," says an authority on advertising, "that name is unconsciously fixed in the mind like a household word." This statement is as applicable to the name of a business man as it is to the name of a marketable commodity. The merchant who keeps his name on the tip of everybody's tongue by advertising regularly in the newspapers is the one whom people will seek out when they have purchases to make.—Philadelphia Record.

Physic beats faith in curing sickness because it has the inside track.

MUNFORD'S BIG NEW STORE.

Well may the good people of Greenville and surrounding country be thankful and proud of their Big Store and the wonderful bargains that come from that great institution. For the third time this season has the buyer been north, picking and scouring the New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets and quickly snapped up all the "Juicy Plums." This was securing a leading manufacturer's fall shipment of fine clothing for men and boys intended for a clothier in Galveston, Tex., but which was countermanded on account of the flood. The result is, we can offer mens and boys highest grade clothing at just one-half the old time clothier's price. They will be ready and placed on the tables

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. With her whole being undergoing a change, the seeds of female troubles are sown.
Little menstrual disorders, if neglected at the time, will follow the woman all her life and grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are robbing homes and filling grave-yards, proves this. Yet, irregular and painful menstruation are often permitted to go on, sapping the life and energy, while Wine of Cardui, the positive relief for these ills, is on the shelf of every drug store. Wine of Cardui helps the maiden sustain the shock of puberty by inducing a painless and natural menstrual flow.
When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Wine of Cardui is an empanage of great power, and works wonders in strengthening the delicate and sensitive female organs. Many young women owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. No woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. If thousands have secured relief through it, why not you?

WINE OF CARDUI

Tully, Kas., Feb. 24, 1899.
I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time; was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything. In fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui with Black-Draught when needed and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me.

The Cotton Mill as a Promoter of Population.

During the past few days The Observer has printed some interesting information about North Carolina towns and counties from the reports of the recent census.
There has been an increase in the population of all the counties in the State except ten, since 1890.
In some instances the increase has been remarkably large, and it is worth noting that in each county that shows a marked increase, there has been a development of the cotton milling industry in the past ten years. Gaston, Cabarrus, Stanly, Durham, Mecklenburg, Guilford and Rutherford are notable instances. The power of cotton mills to build up communities is evidenced in a most convincing way by the census reports.
What the cotton mill has done for Albemarle may be taken as an instance. In 1890 that place had a population of only 248. This had increased in 1900 to 1,382. Concord, which is officially recorded as a city, increased in ten years from 4,339 to 7,910, and Greensboro from 3,317 to 10,035. Henrietta, not in existence in 1890, now has a population of 1,250. Gastonia sprang from 1,033 to 4,610; Graham from 991 to 2,052; Norwood from 159 to 663; Bessemer City from 0 to 1,100; China Grove from 174 to 887, etc. These are only a few instances—the list could be considerably extended. A number of the smaller towns show losses, but there are no cotton mills near them. In the matter of holding their own, it is a tie between Harrisville and Holly Springs.
Each had one more inhabitant in 1900 than it had in 1890. Another tie is between Rolesville and Woodland, each with a gain of 5, while Ringwood and Magnolia tie
on 6.—Charlotte Observer.
