SATURDAY FEBRUARY 16, 1901.

Mrs. Nation is now travelling around the country. It is not likely, however, that she will find another Kansas, search as she may.

Three years ago the United States army was 30,000 men, today it is 100,000, showing an increase of about 25,000 a year. How large will it be in another three years?

No cyclone has struck Kansas for a long time. Western cyclones evidently know enough to keep out places where they will meet with as much competition as they will in Kansas at present.

Germany spends $194,000,000 in round numbers annually for her army and navy; England is spending $238,000,000 for her present war, Russia spends and even $200,000,000 a year; but the United States appropriates this year $253,000,000 for a naval and military establishment far smaller than that of any of these countries. Explanations would certainly seem to be in order.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15th.

Senator Hanna is the maddest man in Washington. He knows that the Ship subsidy bill is dead for this session, but refuses to allow the corpse to be buried, and is indulging in with all sorts of threats of what he is going to do to get even with those republican Senators who declined to help him jam the bill down the throats of the majority. Senator Spooner who has been classed as one of the republicans who would prefer seeing the Subsidy bill fail, but would vote for it if a vote was reached, publicly put himself on record this week by saying: "I am against this bill, but as it is in no danger of becoming a law, I see no need in working up useless fears," and Senator Elkins, who has been classed as a supporter of the bill, said: "The Subsidy bill is dead. There can be no question about it now. I might say that it died a-borning." Senator Jones, of Arkansas, to whom no little of the credit for killing the vicious bill is due, said of its present status: "The republicans know themselves that it would be impossible to get the measure through at this session, and hence their indifference. The bill is dead." One of Hanna's threats is that the River and Harbor bill shall fail, but whether he can make it stick remains to be seen. Representative Bell, of Colorado, a member of the committee on Appropriations made a telling speech against the unprecedented extravagance of the present Congress. in which he said it was time for the people to become alarmed at the rapid increase in public expenditures, which had grown in a single decade from $4.75 per capita to more than $10 per capita. He said that Congress had become so callous to vast increase in appropriations that it was considered almost disreputable to call attention to the extravagance of the government. Representative Cochran, of Mo., made a speech along similar lines.

Doubtless the reason why some of the republican Senators are not actively supporting the Ship Subsidy bill is that they have heard from some of their constituents and they wrote something like the editor of a Michigan republican paper did to his Washington correspondent who had sent him some favorable comment on the attempt to pass the bill—"We don't want more such gush. We are not running an administration paper but a republican paper from an honorable standpoint. There is no more damnable steal before Congress than the Subsidy, and we will bet you a new suit of clothes that it will never become a law."

Just before the House passed the Army appropriation bill carrying a little less than $118,000,000 Representative McCollan, of New York, in a short speech presented some figures that are worthy of the country's most thoughtful consideration. He stated that the annual cost of each soldier to the U. S. excluding pensions, would be $1,288, and including pensions $2,288, while the annual cost of each German soldier, including pensions and the expenses of past wars, was only $227, and that of each French soldier, including pensions and the cost of the Franco-Prussian war, was only $232. He said the total cost of our army would soon reach $300,000,000 a year, to say nothing of the expenses of the navy, which is now more than $100,000,000.

The sugar trust scored another profitable triumph when Secretary Gage ordered a retaliatory duty of nearly one cent a pound placed on Russian sugar, that, too, in the face of the rather clearly implied threat of the Russian government that it would meet such action on the part of this government by putting the maximum tariff on all American goods. The short-sightedness of this policy on the part of the administration is made plain by the figures of our trade with Russia. Russia sells us annually about $300,000 worth of sugar, while American exports to Russia are nearly $30,000,000. Protests from great business interests are pouring into Washington against Secretary Gage's action.

At Home.

One of the most delightful social features of the week was the entertainment given to "The Young People's Club" by Mrs. Edward Bancroft Ficklen, on Wednesday evening from 9 to 12. The occasion was the return of her sister, Miss Pattie Skinner, after an absence of some weeks. Mrs. Ficklen, handsomely attired, received the young people in her usually easy and charming manner, in the parlors at the Macon House.

An ingenious game was the feature of entertainment for the evening, and was enjoyed by every one with unusual zest. Many of the papers displayed remarkable brightness, and caused much interest and amusement. Miss May Whaley and Mr. J. D. Garden were the successful contestants for the prize awarded by the judges, for the best display of wit and humor.

This feature of the game over, the guests were conducted into the dining room, where the table had been beautifully decorated with softly burning candelabra, cut glass and silver, and when the guests were seated with Mr. and Mrs. Ficklen at the head of the table, and her beautiful sister, with a bevy of charming girls and their handsome escorts, chaperoned by Mrs. Gov. Jarvis and Dr. Zeno Brown, at the foot of the table, the scene was one long to be remembered.

Delightful refreshments served in faultless style, held the guests as though by a charmed spell for the remainder of the evening, when with reluctant hearts, they bade adieu to their charming host and hostess.

Dr. Richard H. Lewis, secretary of the State board of health, says that the smallpox in Caswell county had been practically stamped out by compulsory vaccination in the infected district and that the same sort of vaccination had been ordered in the part of Greene county in which the disease is prevailing.

Happy old age

Many women who have enjoyed good health all their life begin to fade when they reach the age of forty-four. They grow nervous and irritable and suffer with sick-headaches. Their livers are torpid, their digestion is impaired and their bowels are irregular. They are experiencing the "change of life." And it is not strange that the cessation of the menstrual habit after thirty years operation should disturb the system and tax the strongest constitution.
This trying period has no terror for a woman who uses Wine of Cardui. It builds up her strength and prepares her for the ordeal. When the change of life is not safely passed, a woman quickly becomes an invalid. Slumbering disease germs are given increased activity and they appear in aggravated form. If you take Wine of Cardui regularly when approaching the change of life you will be assured better health than you have ever enjoyed before.
A happy old age and restful calm will be your reward. Mrs. Campbell was cured after suffering three years with "change of life." Thadford's Black-Draught, the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui, assimilates with it perfectly, curing digestive liver and kidney affections, and throwing impurities and disease germs out of the system. Both working together make a well and happy woman.

WINE OF CARDUI

YOUNG, Laurens Co., S. C., Sept. 22, 1899.

I have recommended your Wine of Cardui and Thadford's Black-Draught to be. I have been suffering three years with the "change of life," and I did not get anything that would do me any good until I tried your medicine. I give thanks to Wine of Cardui and you, for it relieved me. Mrs. D. H. CAMPBELL.

INHUMAN MOTHER.

Murders Her New Born Babe.

A horrible crime occurred at Williamston Friday afternoon. A colored man returning from his work was attracted by the cries of a baby as he reached the outskirts of the town. Upon investigation he found a new born, half-negro baby behind a fence. The baby was in a dying condition, with its head mashed, an arm broken, and other injuries inflicted by a club that was left lying near the scene.

The child was placed in charge of a physician and lived about one hour after being found.

The County Coroner went to investigate the case and the woman who had given birth to the child was found and placed in jail. The woman's mother was also arrested and put in jail charged with being accessory to the crime.

Golden Truths.

Christ is God's best argument for the truth of Christianity.

Good company and good conversation are the sinews of virtue.

If God were to smile upon the man who hates his brother, devils would soon be happy.

He who carves his own fortune should use the chisel of truth and the mallet of definite purpose.

A little gain in patience today, a little more trust tomorrow—that's the way a Christian life grows.

If, in some modern churches, the woman should "keep silence," there would be a stillness that could be felt.

Not as men of science, not as critics, not as philosophers, but as little children, shall we enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Treasurer Worth estimates that if the proposed revenue act is adopted by the legislature the receipts will exceed the State's expenditures $275,000, even after allowing for an additional $100,000 for schools and $38,000 more for pensions.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Feb. 16.

A gentleman came down on the afternoon train yesterday and being zealously polite in assisting an old lady off the train, and also in finding her friends, simply got left and he had to tap the grit from here to Ayden. Politeness to old ladies is very nice and never before have we heard of its being carried to the extreme. He was a gentleman, if he did have to walk.

man in his day, once said. "Be sure you are right then go ahead." So say we, to all who are in need of fencing that will prove good, durable and lasting, at the time the cheapest, get in the road that leads to the Winterville Wire Fence Factory, then surely you will be right.
