TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES.

DURHAM, N. C. Feb. 16, 1901. Rev. G. H. Detwiler, of Gastonia, is conducting a series of religious services at the Park this week. Mr. Detwiler is a member of the Western North Carolina Conference, and is a man of great power and originality. The meetings have been well attended, and great interest is manifested. Mr. Detwiler has made many friends during his stay at the Park.

It has been decided to postpone the civic celebration until later in the spring or in the fall. An interesting program has been arranged, and a distinguished speaker has been secured to deliver the address on this occasion. Announcements will be made later.

Dr. Edwin Mims is away from the college to fill engagements to lecture at Greensboro Female College, and at Centenary church, Winston.

The Literary Societies have elected the following officers for commencement: Chief marshal, Earl W. Webb, Morehead; Chief manager, J. H. Ormond, Ormondsville. The assistants have not yet been selected.

The Archive for February is out. The table of contents is: The Spectator, by Wm. H. Wannamaker; The Man Without the Hoe (poem) by H. H. North; Bill Arp, by D. M. Newson; Tennyson and the Queen, by H. A. Lambeth; The Mountain Girl (poem), by E. C. Perrow; The Soap Dragon, by F. D. Swindell, Jr.

Had Undergone the Torture of the Witness Stand.

"Durn them lawyers, don't they tear a man up?" said a man who had passed the ordeal of the witness stand. "They wound me all up and mixed me till I didn't know what I was talking about, but shoo, I was as cool as a cucumber compared to an old man I saw. He was shook up so that when he got through he couldn't have told his own name. When he got kinder straight again he made but one remark, which was to the effect that before he'd go up there again somebody would have to go through the exercise of a long foot race."—Greensboro Telegram.

FOR IMPEACHMENT.

Craig Resolution Adopted.

The resolution introduced in the House by Representative Craig, of Buncombe, for the impeachment of Chief Justice Furches and Associate Justice Douglas, of the Supreme Court, was voted on in the House today. Discussions on the resolution have occupied the House for the last three or four days. The result of the vote was 62 for the resolution to 33 against it. The matter will now go to the Senate for trial and that body will have to say whether or not the judges shall be impeached.

Marriage License.

Register of Deeds Moore issued license to the following couples last week:

DIED IN CHURCH.

Mrs. Henrietta Williams Sudden ly Summoned From Earth.

Sunday was a beautiful day, such a day as would incline all devout hearts to desire to worship Almighty God and praise Him for the blessings vouchsafed to His children. Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, was here to conduct the services in St. Paul's Episcopal church, and Mrs. Henrietta Williams, though in feeble health, felt inclined to attend the morning prayer in the church so dear to her and of which she had long been a most faithful member. She reached the church a few minutes to 11 o'clock, just before time for the service to begin, and upon taking her seat turned to speak to a friend, remarking that she rode to the church, but felt greatly fatigued. Scarcely had the words passed her lips when her head fell back and she began gasping. Persons sitting near quickly caught her to prevent her falling. In a few moments she had passed away peacefully, and apparently without the slightest pain of death.

It was decided not to remove the body from the church to her late residence, so the casket was taken there and the body remained in the church until the hour for the funeral this afternoon.

Mrs. Williams was the widow of the late Dr. Richard Williams. She was in her 69th year, and for the last two or three years had been in feeble health. She was an earnest christian and lived a sweet, pure life in the service of the Master. She was kind and generous, always ready and willing to do what she could in ministering to others. Her sudden death was a shock to the community and filled many hearts with deep sorrow.

Six children survive her. These are Mrs. Elizabeth Swindel, Capt. Richard Williams, Miss Adelaide Williams and Mrs. W. H. Long, of Greenville, and Mrs. W. M. Buss and Mr. J. E. Williams, of Raleigh. They all, together with the sorrowing relatives, have the sympathy of the community in their great grief.

No services were held in the Episcopal church Sunday, but at 10 o'clock this morning a special communion was administered by Rev. N. Harding. At this service he made some beautiful remarks upon the life of the deceased.

The funeral took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, the services conducted by Rev. N. Harding and his son, Rev. F. H. Harding. The pall bearers were Messrs. A. L. Blow, Henry Harding, J. B. Cherry, J. M. Reuss, W. B. Wilson and I. A. Sugg.

Know a Lot After The Paper is Out.

"It is mighty queer," says the Scranton Gazette, "how some people will rear up in their hind feet and paw the air when some item of news happens to be a little off on facts; yet these same people would not tell you the item if you asked for it before the paper was printed. There are some people from whom you could not draw a local with a cork screw—they absolutely don't know any news. But after the paper comes out they will say that you are misinformed about some local happening and wonder why you can't get things straight.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1901.

Will Mrs. Nation's hatchet live as long in history as George Washington's?

The Orange, Va., Observer is twenty years old. It is a very bright paper, and we believe as widely quoted from as any country paper published. May it live long to make its observations.

There is blood in the moon around Charlotte and Raleigh. For sometime in the latter place the News & Observer and Post have been seeing how many hard things they could say about each other, and now the Raleigh and Charlotte Observer are throwing torpedoes at each other. The boys ought to consider that they are not doing themselves or anybody else any good by such controversy.

At Winfield, Kans., Wednesday, a mob of 200 men and women armed with axes, revolvers and shot guns, totally demolished Schmidt's saloon, the finest in the city. Emma Denny received a pistol ball in her face and was slightly hurt. Rev. Charles Lowther prevented Charles Schmidt from entering the place by striking him with an axe, inflicting a scalp wound. As he fell to the ground Henry Schmidt made a gun play in defense of his brother that nearly cost him his life. One of the crusaders, following up the preacher's attack, had raised an axe to strike Henry Schmidt when a companion wrested the weapon from his hands. For a time serious trouble seemed likely.

The newspapers are not getting relief fast at the hands of this Legislature, yet they will be expected to support these same fellows again provided they can get the nomination.—Durham Herald.

Of course. The average newspaper has been subservient to politicians so long that they cannot realize that it is their duty to assert their independence. The politician is not only not any help to a self-respecting newspaper but many of them are a positive dead-weight to it, and why any editor should consider himself under obligations to a politician is past finding out. The obligation is all on the other side. So far as The Landmark is concerned it has always been independent of politicians and in this particular it has hoisted the standard of independence and announced to oppose those politicians who have refused to give the newspapers a just and fair libel law. But so far as we have seen not another newspaper has rolled to the standard.—Statesville Landmark.

ATTRACTIVE EXHIBIT.

That of Foods and Their Accessories, Including Pan-American Spices.

A very dainty pamphlet has been issued by the Division of Foods and Their Accessories of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. The food work at the Pan-American comes under the general department of Horticulture, Forestry and Food Products, of which Mr. Frederic W. Taylor is superintendent. Mr. G. Edward Fuller, as assistant superintendent, has entire charge of the Division of Foods and Their Accessories, and he has prepared himself for unusual work in this line by special travel and study such as no one else probably ever undertook with the same object. This pamphlet calls the attention of 'jobbers of teas, coffees and spices and all dealers in food products generally and their accessories to the interesting, useful and educational work in their lines of business which is going on for the Pan-American Exposition of 1901.

The assistant superintendent, Mr. Fuller, says: "In the far east there are foods and condiments of which we are almost utterly ignorant here, and one of the aims of the food exhibit will be to educate the people of the western hemisphere to the cultivation of the products which flourish in the east. It will be my aim to show how simple and profitable it would be, for instance, to grow in the West Indies what is grown in the East Indies. The climate and soil conditions are remarkably similar, and the conditions are favorable.

"The best proof obtainable or desirable that the soil and the climate of the West Indies is as favorable as that of the East Indies for the production of spices is already available. The products now received from the West Indies are not equalled by those from any other section of the world. At the present time they grow better allspice, ginger and red pepper there than anywhere else on the globe, and the vanilla bean, which is queen of spices, as the nutmeg is king, is found nowhere in the world in such perfection as in Mexico. The coffee grown in Mexico has a flavor obtainable in no other coffee, not even the Mocha or Java surpassing it. Emperor William of Germany appreciates that fact, and all of the coffee used in the royal household is sent from our nearby republic. Venezuelan cacao, from which chocolate is made, is superior to the East Indian product.

"With the view of massing together in one effective, instructive and useful exhibit the economic plants, vines and trees of tropical Pan-America which produce teas, coffees, spices and kindred things, it has been decided to appropriate considerable space at the

SEAL OF PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Pan-American Exposition for their display on a scale never before attempted. To show this interesting collection to the best advantage an attractive conservatory has been provided, while a museum, as an annex to this, will contain finished products as well as rare and curious articles to illustrate a variety of features under the head of 'Foods and Their Accessories.'

"It is a fact well known to experts in exhibition matters that a scattered display of special articles loses force, while a condensed exhibit of a line of things pertaining to a specific subject becomes educational. Now, as the object is to increase the production and promote the consumption of the things called for, much trouble and expense is justified in making this collection unique and unparalleled.

"It is intended to make the exhibit of red peppers the finest and most extensive collection ever made, with the object of demonstrating by special exhibit connected with the 'accessories of food' that Pan-America can produce all the red peppers consumed in Pan-America. It is perhaps only known to experts that vast quantities of red peppers are imported from Europe, Asia and Africa every year because Pan-Americans are not actively alive to their own interest in this important matter."

One of Many Enthusiasts.

Joe Mitchell Chapple, editor of The National Magazine, published at Boston, was in Buffalo recently and became much interested in the Exposition. On his return to Boston he wrote to an official of the Exposition as follows: "I was indeed sorry not to have seen you when in Buffalo, but I did see the Exposition and was astonished beyond measure. I wish that you would send on anything that you think might be of interest to our readers and make it as attractive as possible, and I shall keep on hammering away at the Expo-

His Anxiety Ended.

Little Jack prays every night for all the different members of his family. His father had been away at one time for a short journey, and that night Jack was praying for him as usual. "Bless papa and take care of him," he was beginning as usual when suddenly he raised his head and listened. "Never mind about it now, Lord," ended the little fellow. "I hear him down in the hall."

THE STATE'S INDUSTRIES.

A Wonderful Growth Along Many Lines in Twenty Years.

The manufacturing industries of North Carolina until 1890 were limited, but since that time the spindles and looms for the manufacture of cotton and woolen fabrics have been largely increased, tobacco factories have been established and enlarged and the culture of silkworms has occasioned the establishment of a silkmaking industry.

In 1896 the number of cotton mills in the state was 167, looms 25,000 and spindles approximately 1,000,000. Over 15,000 persons were employed in these mills, and the capital invested was over $15,000,000. There was a noteworthy advance during 1899 in cotton manufacturing. New plants put into operation numbered 28 and new spindles 230,168, with an estimated capitalization of $8,000,000.

The tobacco industry has greatly prospered in recent years. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1899, there were 20 manufacturers of tobacco, 38 of cigars, and the combined output in the calendar year 1898 was 8,482,148 cigars, 20,940,896 pounds of plug tobacco, 12,041 pounds of fine cut, 9,230,870 pounds of smoking and 48,552 pounds of snuff. The tobacco factories in 1898 gave employment to 16,900 men, 9,700 women and 5,000 children.

The increase in the lumber product of 1899 over that of 1898 was estimated at 30 per cent. Eighteen new lumber companies were organized last year, with a total capital of $502,000. Nine furniture factories, with a total capital of $100,000, were also added. In 1897 the output of 323 lumber mills aggregated $4,558,280 for the year.

The fisheries of North Carolina are an important industry. In 1895 the number of men regularly employed in this industry approximated 8,000 and the boats and vessels about 2,500. The value of the products is nearly equally divided between sea and river products. The shad and herring fisheries are the most important of any state, and the greater portion of the catch is made in and about the Albemarle sound. Oysters are abundant, the area of the public grounds exceeding 20,000 acres and the natural beds nearly 5,000 acres. Legislative protection has been thrown around the oyster and fishery interests, and the laws are rigidly enforced.

The Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo next year will offer to the people of this state an opportunity for showing their resources that will prove of greater value than any exposition has ever before presented. The state is now better than ever prepared to make a great showing, and the wonderful resources of the state can be presented to millions of people who are near to us and more likely to become one of us if properly impressed with the advantages we offer, who could not have been reached through any other exposition.

End of The Century Club.

At the home of the President,
Mrs. Harry Skinner, the Book
Club held its semi-monthly meeting on Tuesday last.

After the regular business of the Club was concluded the discussion relative to the purchase of new books was resumed and the secretary was advised to order the following: Unleaved Bread, The Old Gentleman of the Black Stock, Helbeck of Bannisdale, The Redemption of David Carson, The Reign of Leon, Alice of Old Vincennes, one other Magazine, Everybody's magazine was also subscribed to.

The subject for the afternoon
—Famous Women of South America, in which many interesting facts
relative to life in South America were given—was most delightfully and entertainingly handled by Mrs. Jarvis.

The hostes then furnished an interesting guessing contest in which the prize, a very dainty picture, was won by Mrs. Fleming.

After most thorough enjoyment of the good things provided by the hostes, the Club adjourned to meet with the Secretary, Mrs. Fordyce
Harding, on Tuesday, February
the twenty-sixth.
