WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., March 2.

Rufus Tripp, of near here lost his dwelling and all contents by fire last Saturday. It was accidental and there was no insurance. It is a great loss to Mr. Tripp as he is a young man just starting out in life.

1000 good cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

George Kittrell is off in the eastern part of the State in the interest of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. If he is as successful as usual he will bring in a large number of orders.

The Winterville Wire Fence Co. are doing a fine business now. Their fencing is not only the best and most durable but is the cheapest. The farmers are rapidly learning this fact, hence the large orders which are constantly coming in.

10,000 good second growth white oak spokes wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

T. O. Dail and Heber Sugg, of Lizzie, were here Thursday. Mr. Dail when he left took three brand new huggies from the Hunsucker Carriage Co's., shops along with him.

It is supprisingly strange how every enterprise in Winterville succeeds. Whether it is owing to the unusual thrift and energy displayed or the strictly good morals of our people we are unable to say but that we are fortunate goes beyond question.

Brasco Bell, who has been teaching school near here for the past few months left for Grindool, his home, yesterday morning.

Be sure when in need of good substantial cheap fencing to patronize the Winterville Wire Fence Co. and you will never have cause for regret.

Prof. Middleton, of Cary, was the guest of Prof. G. E. Linebury last Thursday night.

The remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Nelson were carried to Littlefield Wednesday for burial.

Deputy Sheriff Leon Tucker, of Greenville, was here Wednesday for purpose of laying off a public road a short distance in the country.

The town is crowded every day with wagons and carts after fertilizers "B. F." is one bus 7 man.

There will be services in the Missionary Baptist church to-morrow and to-morrow night conducted by Rev. J. K. Faulkner, pastor.

Misses Daisy and Eva Cox, who were visiting at the Boarding house have returned to their homes.

Mack Hearne, of Greenville, spent a short while here yesterday.

Mr. Dusenberry, alias Billie Burch, of your city called to see us yesterday. He brought us something nice to read. Billie is a pretty boy and never forgets his friends.

Misses Annie Stox and Mabel Stox spent yesterday in Greenville.

A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

"A pensive wife," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "is better than an expensive one"

SPRING NECKWEAR BEAUTY

IS IN FULL BLOOM.

The great trans-atlantic liners that came across the water last week brought to us neckwear fresh from the sunny shores of the old country.

SPRING NECKWEAR

in profusion may be seen almost anywhere, but the quality we show today cannot be found anywhere else at the price

50c

Even we never saw such elegance for so little money. Designs and colorings entirely new. Get a look at the new styles. No other store ever offered qualities as good as these for less than one dollar and we could probably get that for these neckties too if we should ask it, but the price is 50c.

Advertising "All the Time."

There are some business men who recognize the value of newspaper advertising, but who do not consider it necessary to advertise all the time. A New York merchant has told the editor of Information (an advertising periodical) that according to his experience "new readers for advertising are made every day by the changing conditions of life—by its births, sickness and deaths; that all the persons who are interested in a given time, and that to become a successful advertiser one must advertise day by day, year in and year out."—Philadelphia Record.

A very singular and probably fatal accident occurred at Salisbury Monday. A Painter named Fraley was at work in a house. Fire broke out among his open paint kegs on the floor. With his clothing ablaze he dashed out and tried to enter a house in which there were several ladies. They threw water on him and made him roll in the snow. His body was so terribly burned that blood poured from the open veins

The newspaper is only one of the business agencies of the city. It can do much in combining and unifying the effort for advancing industry and commercial prosperity, but not all that is necessary. It is only when all the business agencies pull together that great communities move irresistibly forward to the attainment of beneficial improvement.—Philadelphia Record.

SMALLPOX.

Some Cases In This County.

Several cases of smallpox have made their appearance in the Farmville section of Pitt county. While it is a bad thing to have in our borders, it is hardly more than could have been expected with such an epidemic of it only a short distance away over in Greene county. Dr. Charles Laughinghouse, County Superintendent of Health, has been out to investigate the matter, and found six cases among colored people living on the land of Mr. J. A. Flanagan, near Farmville. The Secretary of the State Board of Health was promptly advised of the matter and his action is awaited.

Now that the disease is in the county, it is not worth while for people to go to losing their heads over it. The thing to do is to take such steps as will prevent its spreading, and the safest thing in this direction is vaccination. We believe it would be wise for the County Commissioners to order compulsory vaccination, and let the Commissioners and Aldermen of the town confer together as to the best means of effecting this.

No doubt compulsory vaccination would meet with some opposition, but if the people who object to being vaccinated would look over into Greene county and note how the disease has developed through neglect, no further argument should be necessary. It is better to prevent the disease than to try to stamp it out after it gets a firm hold.

Upon leaving his home for the theological seminary at Alexandria, Va., Phillips Brooks wrote in his note book these words: As we pass from experience to some experiment, from a tried to an untried scene of life, it is as when we turn to a new page in a book we have never read before, but whose author we know and love and trust to give us on every page words of counsel and purity and strengthening virtue." We are constantly entering on new, untried paths but if God is acknowledged in all our ways He is our guide. "We know not the way before us, but well do we know our guide."

Burglars are supposed to have killed May Peterson, a servant girl, who was found mysteriously murdered in the house of John S. Collins, Omaha, Neb.

Superior Court will begin Monday for the trial of civil cases. As many of the lawyers are away it is not thought the court will amount to much.

I will be in Greenville through next week with a full line of designs for tombstones, monuments and iron fencing. Designs can be seen at store of Z. V. Johnston. T. J. SUGG.

Wellington Eagle, foreman tuner for the Cabel Piano Company, of Richmond, will be here for a few days doing work in his line. Orders can be left at Wooten's drug store. See announcement.

Safe Crackers in Lincolnton.

Lincolnton, Feb. 28.—For the first time in its history Lincolnton has been visited by professional cracksmen. At an early hour this morning the stores of R. F. Beal & Co. and H. S. Robinson were entered and the safe in each was blown open by explosives. Both stores are situated near the public square and are within a few hundred feet of the court house. The explosives were heard by a few people, who thought they were the discharges of a gun.

The loss sustained by R. F. Beal & Co. is about $300 in cash. No notes or papers were taken from their safe. Mr. Robinson's loss is more serious, being about $1,250 in cash and $3,000 in notes. In addition to this $160 in cash and $4,000 in notes belonging to Mr. George Cauble, which was deposited in Mr. Robinson's safe, was taken.

After committing the two robberies, the burglars stole a lever car from the Carolina & Northwestern Railroad and made their escape, going west, towards Newton.

A phone message from Conover says two men have been arrested at that point. Hopes are entertained that they are the Lincolnton burglars. The robberies were particularly bold and every indication points to their having been committed by professionals of skill.

The prohibition movement is greater in this legislature than in any of its predecessors. The counties of Bladen, Pender, Duplin, Sampson, Madison and two or three others have thus far been given absolute prohibition, while other bills are on the way. A great step in the direction of absolute prohibition is also taken by the State in its regulation of registered whiskey distilleries; that is, the State will say where they shall or shall not be located. It is estimated that by the time the legislature adjourns there will be prohibition in almost one-third of the counties in the State.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep,"
but, like many proverbs, that will not stand.
Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally.
Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire.
These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1900.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month.
A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended.
I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.
