WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., March 6.

The boys of the Vance Literary Society of the Winterville High School will give a public debate at the Academy, on Friday night, March 8th, 1901. All are cordially invited to attend.

If suffering women knew how easily they could be relieved, they would delay no longer, but write Mrs. F. O. Cox, branch office manager, Winterville, N. C., at once for a few samples of the wonderful remedy "Balm of Figs" worth 50c.

1000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. The tramp preacher with the white umbrella gave us a call last Saturday. After delivering his sermon he moved on toward Greenville without so much as even taking up a collection. Strange.

Hunsucker Carriage Co. made a shipment of a car load of buggies yesterday.

10,000 good second growth white oak spokes wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Greenville fighting for water works and general improvements on one side of us and Ayden for prohibition on the other side leaves us calmly serene. We get all we want and still we grow. They need enterprise.

C. H. Lancaster, living just a short distance from here, is seriously ill with pneumonia. Grave fears are felt as to his recovery.

A. G. Cox has cotton seed meal he will exchange either for cotton seed or the cash.

Mrs. H. L. Hamilton, of Grifton, who has been on a visit to friends here for the past few days, left on the train Monday evening for her home.

Dave Cooper, who has been quite sick for some time, is himself again.

Miss Carrie Wesson is sick with the grippe.

Rev. J. K. Faulkner left Monday for Kinston to spend the week with his son.

A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash price for cotton seed.

Died.

On Saturday, March 2nd, 1901, the Angel of Death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moye and took therefrom Mrs. Mary Edwards, mother of Mrs. Moye. Mrs. Edwards had lived to a ripe old age, being at the time of her death 77 years old. She had been in feeble health for quite a long time and recently suffered a paralytic stroke from which she never recovered, but quietly and peacefully she yielded her life to God who gave it, whom she loved and trusted. In her early life she became member of the Methodist church and held membership with the church at Greenville at the time of her death, having lived here for several years and until the death of her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Moye, in 1894. She leaves a number of children, grand children and great-grand children, and many friends, who mourn her departure, but the sweet consoling thought is theirs, that their loss is her gain, that she has gone to join the angelic hosts above and is now at rest. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1901.

The apprehended trouble over Senator F. M. Simmons, of North Carolina, taking his seat in the United States Senate, did not materialize. He was duly sworn in on Monday without the slightest objection being raised by anyone. Twenty-eight new Senators were inducted into office that day, the oath being administered to them by Vice-President Roosevelt.

Violet Plants For Sale.

The Daughters of The Confederacy, at Kittrell, N. C., offer at $1.00 per one hundred, delivered free any where, the best blooming and bedding varieties of Violets. Lower in quantities.

These plants can be set at any time from September 1st to June 1st. Cold weather does not harm them, therefore, they can be safely planted even in mid-winter.

These Violets are the easiest of all plants to live and grow. They make beautiful borders for walks, flower beds, etc., remaining green through the most intense heat and drought of summer and the severest cold of winter. Even on soil which grass cannot survive the Violets thrive and beautify. They will also do well in the shade.

Planted a foot or a foot and a half apart along walks, etc., they soon form a solid emerald border; or, in a yard or plat in which grass dies out in summer these Violet plants can be set a foot and a half apart each and will cover the whole place and last for years.

They are such luxuriant bloomers that during the chief blooming period they are a mass of radiant purple. They afford blooms during the whole winter except in the severest spells, and with a little protection with leaves of straw will bloom freely even then.

These violets are sold to raise a fund to mark the graves of Confederate soldiers buried at Kittrell.

At any time from April to November a large basket of roses, of largest and finest varieties, will be sent by express, safely packed in damp moss, for $1.00. Gives of entertainments can thus obtain a profusion of really magnificent roses for a very small sum and at the same time aid a good cause.

Then And Now.

The Kinston Free Press says: Webster's Weekly seems to be surprised at the action of ex-Gov. Jarvis in defending Judges Furches and Douglas from impeachment. The Weekly shows up the Governor as being rather inconsistent in this impeachment business. In the campaign of 1894 the Weekly quoted Gov. Jarvis as saying he had as soon think of putting Breckinridge, the libertine, at the head of a female college as to put Furches on a non-partisan supreme court. Now, Gov. Jarvis gives the following certificate of character to Judges Furches and Douglas:

"While I differ with them in the ruling they made, and agree with Justices Clark and Montgomery, still I believe they thought they were right and that they acted honestly. I have known them for many years, and while I have never agreed with them in politics, I have always regarded them as honest, upright men. My opinion of them has not changed, although I have often differed with them in their decisions."

It does seem to us that in the above contrast Gov. Jarvis seems to be rather inconsistent. The Weekly adds:

"And now it has come to pass that this same Furches, whose rank partisanship in 1894 rendered him in Gov. Jarvis' estimation, as unfit for judicial position as Breckinridge's immorality made him unfit for the presidency of a female college, has been arraigned for having acted the partisan on the bench, and lo and behold! his chief counsel and trump card before the Senate is Gov. Jarvis! Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard his spots? No, but a greater wonder—Furches can, with two Republican associates, nullify the work of the legislature and defy the constitution, and the legislature be afraid to dissolve until the August election lest the amendment and the election law be destroyed by these judges, and yet Gov. Jarvis would have us believe that there was not even a tinge of partisanship in all their cruel work of nullifying the will of the people of North Carolina."

Swallowed $1,000 Diamond.

Chicago, March 2.—Fatally wounded, William Tate, a negro, dies at the County Jail Hospital with a $1,000 diamond stud in his stomach. He was shot this morning by Patrolman Frederick Bush while fleeing from the victim of his robbery, Anderson.

Anderson is a wealthy saloon-keeper. He alighted from a South Side elevated train at the Twenty second street and was assaulted by the negro, who struck him with a billy. The robber snatched the diamond from Anderson's shirt front and made an effort to seize a fine watch, worth $500, with a $75 chain. The negro succeeded in getting only part of the chain. To Anderson's yells for assistance Bush responded. He fired two shots at the bandit. One struck Tate in the back of the head and he fell. The portion of the chain was found in his pocket, but the diamond had been swallowed he admitted when the jail physicians told him he was about to die. Anderson will ask for an autopsy when Tate dies.

An Uneven Contest.

"They had a lively boxing match at Splinter's the other night."

"How was that?"

"Splinter came home late, and as he passed through the hall his wife's tallest palm touched him on the cheek Splinter was in an excited condition and thought it was somebody's fingers. So he struck out wildly with both fists and succeeded in knocking over two palms and severely bumping his own head."

"But why do you call it a boxing match?"

"Because Splinter put up his knuckles against his wife's palms."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

VACCINATION NOTICE.

At a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the town of Greenville, held on Monday night, March 4th, the following ordinance was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has been made to appear to the Board from representations by the members of the medical profession, and from other good and satisfactory sources that smallpox, a contagious or infectious disease is now prevailing in the neighboring county of Greene, and that it has made its appearance in several well developed cases in this county near the town of Farmville, and this Board being desirous to prevent its appearance in Greenville, and in order to protect the health and lives of its citizens and to protect the commercial interests of the town and believing that vaccination is one of the great means to prevent the spread of the disease,

It is therefore ordered by the Board that all residents of the town of Greenville who have not been vaccinated or who should be revaccinated shall appear before the Superintendent of Health for Pitt County on or before the 12th day of the present month and when deemed by him necessary shall have themselves and their families vaccinated or revaccinated as the case may be.

Any person failing to submit themselves and families to be vaccinated shall upon conviction before the Mayor be fined five dollars.

And to the end that this order may be fully complied with it shall be the duty of the Chief of Police in connection with the Superintendent of Health of Pitt County to visit each and every family in the town and see that this order is carried into effect.

I shall see that this ordinance is strictly enforced and carried out to the letter, and to this end all citizens of the town are asked to comply with its requirements.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. With her whole being undergoing a change, the seeds of female troubles are sown.
Little menstrual disorders, if neglected at the time, will follow the woman all her life and grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are robbing homes and filling grave-yards, proves this. Yet, irregular and painful menstruation are often permitted to go on, sapping the life and energy, while Wine of Cardui, the positive relief for these ills, is on the shelf of every drug store. Wine of Cardui helps the maiden sustain the shock of puberty by inducing a painless and natural menstrual flow.
When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Wine of Cardui is an emmenagogue of great power,
and works wonders in strengthening the delicate and sensitive female organs. Many young women owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. No woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. If thousands have secured relief through it, why not you?

WINE OF CARDUI

Tully, Kas., Feb. 24, 1890.
I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time; was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything; in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui with Black-Draught when needed and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me.
