The stabbing of his old father to death by a young negro in Macon, Ga. the other day, because the man would not support him, shows the tendency of the young negroes toward idleness. Only this week we heard a negro boy, nearly grown, say that he wasn't going to do any work this week because he had worked three days last week. There is no need for any man in this section to be idle for lack of work. Any one who desires to work can get employment at living wages. Idleness begets crime, and because of voluntary idleness the jails and penitentiaries are filled.

About 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, at his home on Washington street, Mr. J. B. Johnson died after a long illness. For several years past he had been in poor health, and lately was confined to his home almost entirely.

Mr. Johnson was among Greenville's oldest citizens, being born here October 29th, 1829, making him in his 72nd year at the time of his death. Prior to the war and for sometime after he was a prominent merchant here, but of late years had been engaged in no business. He leaves a widow and one son, the latter Mr. J. B. Johnson, Jr., of Chicago.

He was an active Mason and will be buried with Masonic honors by Greenville Lodge. The interment will take place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Episcopal cemetery.

The Judge has many trying experiences.

THE FIREMEN.

Interesting Meeting Monday Night.

Hope Fire Company had the most interesting meeting Monday night that it has had in a long time. It must be said, however, that this larger interest than usual was not caused by the presence of any property owners who are not members of the company, though there are many in the town who ought to have been there to show their interest, if nothing more.

The attendance of members was good, very few failing to answer roll call. Mayor J. G. Moye was present and made them a nice talk which they appreciated. He is one of the few who always show the an interest in the firemen and does everything he can to promote the company. He was unanimously elected an honorary member.

One application for membership was handed in. There should be many others at the next meeting.

A committee was appointed to wait upon the Board of Aldermen and make some recommendations in behalf of the company.

It coming under the jurisdiction of Hope Fire Company to recommend a Chief of the fire department to the Board of Aldermen for election, the company by unanimous vote requested Capt. A. J. Griffin, who recently resigned, to permit them to send in his name for re-election. Capt. Griffin made some explanation relative to his resignation, and seeing the company so desirous for his continuance as Chief he consented to their request.

University Notes.

CHAPEL HILL, March 9, 1901.

Thursday evening in Gerrard Hall Prof. M. C. S. Noble delivered a lecture in the Faculty series on "Fort Fisher and the Southern Blockade during the Civil War." Prof. Noble has given quite a little study and thought to the subject and so his lecture was one full of interest.

This year for the first time there will be published an Annual by the students representing in a general way the University. The name is to be "Yackety Yack," taken from one of the college yells. Its board of editors have been selected from the two literary societies and the Greek letter fraternities.

Chancellor J. H. Kirkland, of Vanderbilt University, spent Friday here, the guest of Dr. Baskerville.

I. F. Harris, of the Class of 1900, left on Wednesday to take a position in the Chemical Experiment Station at New Haven, Conn. He has been pursuing a graduate course here.

Lamp Egg.

Monday Mr. W. J. Laughinghouse brought THE REFLECTOR a peculiar egg that he found in his yard. He called it a lamp egg with a wick, and that is about the best name that could be given it. The shell is soft and has a string-like projection an inch or two long on one end. Stand the egg up on the other end and it looks very much like a lamp with the wick sticking up.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 1901.

The Weather Bureau recently denounced the ground hog as a fakir, declaring that he was right only once in five times. How much oftener does the Bureau hit it even predictions for one day ahead, to say nothing of those for six weeks to come.

Congress was in session for just 197 days, counting both sessions. In that time, nearly 15,000 bills were introduced in the House, of which nearly 1,600 became laws. Of those 1,250 were private acts. mostly pensions bills, only 45 being of public interest.

There is wailing and gnashing of teeth from east to west, from the torrid south to the frozen north—the River and Harbor bill has failed—talked to death by Senator—now Ex-Senator Carter of Montana. Incidentally, the expensiveness of Congress has been reduced by fifty million dollars.

Don't Kick or Knock.

If your neighbor is prosperous let him prosper. Don't grunt, growl or grumble. Say a good word for him, and let it go at that. Don't be a knocker. Your turn will come. No one man is the whole show. If you see the town is moving along, feel good about it. Help things along. Shove a little. Push. Try and get a little of the benefit yourself. Don't stand around like a chilly old cadaver. Don't waste your time feeling sore because some other fellow has a little more sand and sense than you have. Do a little hustling yourself. Don't be a knocker. If you say a good word say it like a prince. If you are full of bile and feel disposed to say something mean keep your mouth shut. Don't be a knocker. No man ever gets rich or happy minding everybody's business but his own. No man ever helped himself up permanently by knocking his neighbor down. Give up a kind word. Give it liberally. It won't cost you a cent; you may want one yourself some day. You may have thousands today, and next day be without the price of a shave. So don't be a knocker. You can't afford it. It won't pay. There is nothing in it. If you want to throw something at somebody, throw cologne. Or roses. Don't throw brickbats. Or mud. Don't be a knocker. If you must kick, go around the barn and take a kick at yourself. For you are the man that needs kicking. But don't be a knocker.—Ex.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.

Senator Hanna's project for making the Senate a one-man body, by the adoption of Reed rules, has been postponed but by no means abandoned. The kicking was so vigorous at even the mention of the project that it was apparent to Mr. Hanna that the Senate would be kept in extra session all summer, with no certainty of success in the end, if the attempt were made to put the project through at this time. So it was decided to let it go over to the regular session, and to spend the recess in pulling wires to make voters for it. The adjournment of the extra session of the Senate was hurried to prevent the growth of sentiment in favor of a reorganization of the committee, which would have deprived a number of Senators of some of the patronage they now control.

Although the published news from Cuba indicates much kicking against the conditions laid down by Congress for the withdrawal of American authority, members of the administration, claim to have secret information which causes them to expect an early acceptance of the conditions by the Cubans. The rumored intention of the administration to send more troops to Cuba is strongly denied in official circles.

Other seekers after official plums are saying unprintable things about the greed of ex-Senators, who are going after all the desirable places and landing them, too. Ex-Senator Carter's appointment as Commissioner of the St. Louis exposition has been officially announced, and three other ex-Senators—Lindsay, Thurston and McBride—are understood to have been promised places on the same commission.

Tom Carter's appointment, which carries $5,000 a year for three years, with not very much work to do, was his reward for having, at the request of Mr. McKinley, talked the River and Harbor bill to death in his last Senatorial hours. Senators are recalling the statement of Senator Hanna, regarded at the time as a bluff, that unless the Ship subsidy bill was passed, the River and Harbor Bill should not.

A proud record in their line is that of C. A. Snow & Co., the Washington Patent Lawyers, who have procured more than 22,000 patents for inventors—many of them for inventions that have played important parts in the industrial progress of the past quarter century.

Senator Morgan, who told some plain and bitter truths about British influence having been used to make republican opposition to the Nicaragua Canal, in his speech advocating his resolution, declaring the Clayton-Bulwer treaty abrogated, says he has received personal assurances from a sufficient number of Senators, to make him certain that his resolution will be adopted at the regular session of Congress and that the Nicaragua Canal bill will be passed whether the administration changes its attitude towards the project or not.

Ex-Senator Pfeffer has turned up in Washington, and it is said that he is after an office, as a reward for his having abandoned the Populists and helped the Republicans to carry Kansas last fall.

Jacob Barnes, colored, living in Edgecombe county, is 85 years of age; he has never voted and never owned a dog.—Rocky Mount Motor.

A lawyer in a court room may call a man liar, scoundrel, villain or a thief and no one makes a complaint when court adjourns. If a newspaper prints such a reflection on a man's character there is a libel suit or a dead editor. This is owing to the fact that people believe what an editor says and what the black-guard lawyer says cuts no figure.—Mount Olive Advertiser.

VACCINATION NOTICE.

At a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the town of Greenville, held on Monday night, March 4th, the following ordinance was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has been made to appear to the Board from representations by the members of the medical profession, and from other good and satisfactory sources that smallpox, a contagious or infectious disease is now prevailing in the neighboring county of Greene, and that it has made its appearance in several well developed cases in this county near the town of Farmville, and this Board being desirous to prevent its appearance in Greenville, and in order to protect the health and lives of its citizens and to protect the commercial interests of the town and believing that vaccination is one of the great means to prevent the spread of the disease,

It is therefore ordered by the Board that all residents of the town of Greenville who have not been vaccinated or who should be revaccinated shall appear before the Superintendent of Health for Pitt County on or before the 12th day of the present month and when deemed by him necessary shall have themselves and their families vaccinated or revaccinated as the case may be.

Any person failing to submit themselves and families to be vaccinated shall upon conviction before the Mayor be fined five dollars.

And to the end that this order may be fully complied with it shall be the duty of the Chief of Police in connection with the Superintendent of Health of Pitt County to visit each and every family in the town and see that this order is carried into effect.

I shall see that this ordinance is strictly enforced and carried out to the letter, and to this end all citizens of the town are asked to comply with its requirements.

One day last week, Mr. Henry Faison, who resides near this place was indisposed and his wife volunteered to oversee the planting of potatoes. A negro boy refused to perform his duty in a proper manner, whereupon Mrs. Faison corrected him. The mother of the boy became incensed and attacked Mrs. Faison in a most brutal manner, injuring her very severely. Before the news of the assault became known to the neighbors, the colored family took their departure for Sampson county; but we have been informed that the Regulators followed them and before the next morning, administered a lesson they will not forget.—Mount Olive Advertiser.
