Sued A Delinquent.

Our readers are familiar with the Dispatch-Watford case, whereby the latter received this paper for over four years and nine months and when a bill was presented him, declared he had not subscribed for the paper. A few weeks ago we entered suit against Mr. Watford for his subscription. We secured judgment against him for amount due us and the same has been recorded in the clerk's office. The finale of the entire matter will end this week when we have the sheriff to lay off his homestead and secure an order to sell Mr. Watford's land. The original bill of $4.85 has already nearly doubled itself by the addition of costs, but as Postmaster Watford isn't putting up much of a kick and doesn't seem to be in a hurry to settle his indebtedness with us we ought to be, and are, entirely satisfied with the proceedings so far as they have gone.—Lexington Dispatch.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

Wilmington has adopted an anti-spitting on the sidewalks ordinance, the penalty being $1.

Durham and Tarboro have both had mad dogs in the last day or two. In the former place a mad dog badly bit one of the Herald carrier boys.

Andrew Carnegie, the philanthropist, has offered to give $20,000 to establish a public library in Charlotte if the city will furnish a site and agree to support a library at a cost of $2,500 year.

G. R. Taylor, of Greene county, had the misfortune to have an arm broken this morning as he was leaving Kinston for his home. His horse was trying to run away and Mr. Taylor finding that he could not manage the animal, jumped from his buggy and fell on his left arm, breaking it a little above the wrist.—Kinston Free Press.

Observations.

A gentleman is told by his deeds, a parvenue by his "breaks."

By refusing to listen to secrets one is saved unlimited trouble.

A brainy woman loves deeply and long, equally she hates deeply and wide.

Even a shrewd woman may err and be deceived—once whereupon she becomes a subtle one, and dangerous.

The sweetheart of a poor man delights in little social sacrifices—if she is a sweetheart.

The smarter the woman, the more cleverly she handles the ball of scandal.

To be beautiful and wise is not common, but to be neat and loyal is possible to all women.

A man of the world may treat his equal cavalierly, but he never will those dependent upon him.

Courtesy is to man what daintiness is to woman—a beautiful thing to be known by.

When a woman is popular with men she is astounded to find any who lack polish and gallantry toward her.

Woman is a conundrum that man never gives up.

The schools of correspondence apparently only have male teachers.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., March 16.

Winterville is now lit up by electricity, has a fine water supply and is prospecting for another factory. Indeed the signs of general improvement and wonderful growth greet us on every hand. Come along Greenville.

An amusing sight on our streets the other day was "B. F." giving Frankie a free ride on his back. When our most excellent Chief of Police, who weighs a little less than 240, was placed on the back of Frankie, imagine the scene. It was a tableaux.

1000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Mrs. A. G. Cox, who has been visiting friends and relatives near Littlefield, for the past several days, returned yesterday. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Jackson, who will spend several days visiting here.

Mrs. F. O. Cox is continually receiving calls for "Balm of Figs" from women who will gladly testify as to its worth.

Editor H. T. King, of King's Weekly, was here last Saturday.

Rev. J. N. Booth, of Greenville, stopped over a short while Wednesday in the interest of THE REFLECTOR. Judging from the large number of copies of the that paper which came in on the next train, he must have done a nice business.

Rev. John Baird, colored, has the nicest residence in Little Africa, a suburb of this place.

10,000 second growth white oak spokes wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

W. F. Burch, of your town, was with us yesterday.

Herbert White, of Greenville, was here again Thursday. He is doing a fine business in the insurance line among our people.

John Fulford, of Washington, spent the day here Thursday and left on the evening train.

One of the new stores is about completed and the other is on a fair way. When they are finished they will present a very nice appearance.

J. F. Harrington and R. H. Hunsucker went to Grimesland Wednesday and came back all right.

How does Great Uncle sound? That's me.

Jim Greene says Louise McLawhorn's farm has got the smallpox. A case for vaccination, call in the doctor.

Dr. William Cobb Whitfield and wife, of Quinerly, spent the day here yesterday.

J. Harper and family and Miss Susan Harper are visiting in the neighborhood of Grimesland.

A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash price for cotton seed.

One of the very best things the present Legislature did was to pass a law for the establishment of a library in any country school district that desires it. The act provides that whenever any school district shall raise ten dollars that the Board of Education shall contribute ten dollars and the State will contribute ten dollars making thirty dollars, which will buy a very nice library.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15.

Mr. McKinley has squally times ahead on the Isthmian canal question. The patronage he has at his disposal is keeping Republican Senators and Representatives from publicly talking now, but that will not hold good long. He is accused of having acted in bad faith, in order to prevent the Senate passing the Nicaragua Canal bill, by withholding semi-official knowledge he had before the adjournment of Congress that the British government had decided to reject the amended Hay-Pauncefote treaty. And worse yet, he is accused of standing in with the ring that is trying to unload the Panama Canal on this government. The last accusation seems hard to believe, but circumstantial evidence is in its favor. Whatever may have been his object—preventing the passing of the Nicaragua Canal bill is the only logical one—he did withhold until the present week the rejection of the treaty from the public. The rejection was not officially handed to Secretary Hay by the British Ambassador until early in the present week, but Secretary Hay admits that the administration knew of it before Congress adjourned. Mr. McKinley's future troubles are not likely to be lessened by his having instructed Secretary Hay, who was so completely bamboozled by Lord Pauncefote in the old treaty, to open negotiations for a new one. It is among the probabilities that the Isthmian Canal question will split the Republican party in the near future, probably during the next session of Congress.

Some idea of the progress of American invention, which is such an important factor in our prosperity, may be obtained from the fact that a single firm of Washington patent lawyers, C. A. Snow & Co., have procured for their clients more than 22,000 patents.

Mr. William J. Bryan passed through Washington this week, on his way home from New York, where he went to get pointers for the betterment of his newspaper plant. He declined to be interviewed on politics, but said of the late ex-President Harrison: "He was always respected by his political opponents as a clean, conscientious and able statesman. Those who differed from him could criticize his politics, but they could not attack his motives. His conduct after retiring from office was such as to strengthen his hold upon public esteem. The death of such a man is a distinct loss to the country."

Hon. Martin Maginnis paid this high compliment to Montana's new democratic Senator: "The State of Montana could not have settled upon a more suitable man to represent it than Paris Gibson. Mr. Gibson is a man of fine parts and a staunch Democrat. He has been the best sort of a Democrat all his life. He is now nearly seventy years of age, but is robust and hearty, and in the full vigor of his mind. He will make, in my opinion, as good a Senator as the Commonwealth of Montana has ever had."

It seems to be the general opinion in Washington that the failure of the Republican legislature of Delaware to elect two Senators will result in restoring that State to the Democratic column. Speaking of that failure a well known business man of Wilmington, who was in Washington this week, said: "The people of Delaware have become resigned. They have been for a considerable period of time with only one Senator in Congress and I suppose they can get along for awhile without any. I think that Delaware has learned what it has to expect from the Republicans and will be found in the Democratic column the next time it has an opportunity."

Senator Depew is known as a smiling conciliator rather than a fighter, but if his own words are to be depended upon he is likely to figure as a fighter if the announced intention of Mr. McKinley to appoint Col. Sanger, of New York, Assistant Secretary of War in spite of the protests of Senators Platt and Depew, be carried out. Speaking of threats of what the administration would do if he opposed the confirmation of the nomination of Col. Sanger, which have been heard in administration circles, Mr. Depew said: "If a fight is to be declared against me in this matter I will be prepared for it, and I will fight it to the bitter end. I do not intend to sacrifice my constitutional right or responsibility through fear of losing favor with those in authority." There are reasons for the belief that Senators Platt and Depew are merely making a big bluff for the purpose of landing some appointments and that they have no idea of making a fight on Sanger.

Had Him There.

An Irishman over in Indiana called upon a physician and informed him his wife was sick and required medical aid. The M. D. was willing to give his attention to the case, but desired the man to pay in advance or enter into an agreement to pay when his services were no longer required.

"An' ye'll kill or cure for twenty dollars?" said Pat.

"Yes."

Pat was satisfied, and left the M. D. to perform the contract. The woman died, and in due time he presented his bill.

Pat looked at it a moment, and then asked:

"An' did yez cure her?"

"No," answered the physician.

"An' did yez kill her?"

This was a poser, and the M. D. discovered that Pat had caught him. This bill, at last accounts, had not been paid.—Boyce's Monthly.

It is said that Charles M. Schwab, who will be manager of the United States Steel corporation, the Morgan-Rockefeller, is to receive a salary of $1,000,000 a year for five years. If the business pans out all right he will probably strike 'em for higher wages when his time is up. This is doing pretty well for a chap who started as a grocery clerk at $2.50 a week, and afterwards worked for Andrew Carnegie at a dollar a day. Schwab is no slouch.—Wilmington Star.

Experiments are being made at Sandy Hook with a new explosive that some fellow concocted which sends a projectile through seven-inch steel armor as if it was a slab of cheese. The particular claim for it is that the projectile doesn't explode until it passes through the plate where it bursts and tears things to pieces.—Wilmington Star.

Nice Work.

Mr. W. S. Atkins, manager of the Greenville Knitting Mills, brought THE REFLECTOR some sample suits of the underwear they are making. These mills are turning out as excellent quality of work as is made by any mill in the country and find ready sale for the product. The enterprise is a credit to Greenville.

Second thoughts may be best, but they are sometimes more expensive.

The average woman can run up a bill without in the least getting out of breath about it.

H. C. HOOKER.

Happy old age

Many women who have enjoyed good health all their life begin to fade when they reach the age of forty-four. They grow nervous and irritable and suffer with sick headaches. Their livers are torpid, their digestion is impaired and their bowels are irregular. They are experiencing the "change of life." And it is not strange that the cessation of the menstrual habit after thirty years operation should disturb the system and tax the strongest constitution. This trying period has no terror for a woman who uses Wine of Cardui. It builds up her strength and prepares her for the ordeal. When the change of life is not safely passed, a woman quickly becomes an invalid. Slumbering disease germs are given increased activity and they appear in aggravated form. If you take Wine of Cardui regularly when approaching the change of life you will be assured better health than you have ever enjoyed before. A happy old age and restful calm will be your reward. Mrs. Campbell was cured after suffering three years with "change of life." Theodor's Black-Draught, the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui, assimilates with it perfectly, curing digestive liver and kidney affections, and throwing impurities and disease germs out of the system. Both working together make a well and happy woman.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Yours, Laurens Co., S. C., Sept. 22, 1899.

I have recommended your Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught to several of my lady friends, and I can say they are what you recommend them to be. I have been suffering three years with the "change of life," and I did not get anything that would do me any good until I tried your medicines. I give thanks to Wine of Cardui and you, for it relieved me. Mrs. D. H. CAMPBELL.

Something Lacking.

Miss S.—(With animation) "Just think of all the pictures taken with a Kodak!" and how few are really developed!"

Mr. D.—(Who has just caught the word Kodak) "Yes ma'm, there is always something lacking about Kodak pictures."

Saw It Again.

This was the day for the second appearance of the ground hog. According to the tradition he first comes out on Candlemas day and if he sees his shadow goes back in his hole and remains forty days. He then comes out the second time and if he sees his shadow goes back in retirement for ten days more. Today was somewhat of a mixture, at times cloudy and then fair, so we may infer that he went back in his hole to give the weather another whack at us for ten days.

Masquerade.

The little folks had a very pleasant masquerade party in the Farmers' warehouse Friday night. The following participated:

Ethel Cheek, flower girl.
Helen Forbes, advertisement.
Margaret Skinner, Queen of hearts.
