The End of the Century Club.

On Tuesday the Club was most charmingly entertained by Mrs. J.
 L. Fleming at Hotel Mason. The meeting was called to order by the president and business of importance transacted. Members were urgently requested to mark with pen and ink when the magazines and books are received and passed, as failure to do so will subject them to a fine.

After the business was disposed of the hostess distributed papers composed of questions the answers to them being the names of flowers.
 The result of the contest was a tie between Miss Woolford and Mrs.
 Ficklen and was drawn by the latter.

After partaking of delightful refreshments the Club adjourned to meet at Cottdale on April 9th.

ANOTHER FACTORY.

Will Make Sash, Doors And Blinds.

About a week ago THE REFLEC-TOR stated that some good news had been promised it relative to manufacturing enterprises for Greenville. We are able to give this news today, the facts being furnished us by Mr. F. M. Hodges, the secretary of the new organization.

A company has been organized to build and operate a sash, door and blind factory, with a paid in capital of $8,000, privilege to increase to $30,000. Those taking stock in the factory have held a few meetings to talk over the matter. Friday night they held a meeting at which organization was effected. The following officers were elected: President—J. G. Moyer.
 Secretary—F. M. Hodges.
 Treasurer—J. L. Little.
 Directors—J. A. Andrews, C.
 S. Carr, J. R. Moore, R. W. King,
 C. B. West.

Several committees were appointed, one to select site, and one on constitution and by-laws and charter.

There is a good opening in Greenville for such a factory as this, and the men are in it who will carry it to success. We hope it will be quickly followed by other enterprises.

Jefferson Hotel Burned.

Friday night the Jefferson hotel at Richmond was destroyed by fire. All the guests were saved but there were several narrow escapes. The fire originated in the blanket room on the fourth floor and is thought to have been caused by a defective flue. The Jefferson was the finest hotel in the South and was the pride of Richmond. Its destruction is a great misfortune.

You are never quite conscious of how many disagreeable lodgers there are in that many chambered mansion you call your "self" until anger or envy or hate knocks at the door—and presto! out come trooping such a lot of unhappy creatures—rancor and uncharit-ableness, and suspicion, and all unkindness, a perfect army of enemies to peace and happiness.—

 April Ladies' Home Journal.

DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., March 30.
 A SUGGESTION TO FARMERS.
 Owing to the extreme scarcity of labor we would advise all farmers to arrange their tobacco rows so every eighth row will be five feet wide, and by so doing you can use a tobacco truck and thus house your tobacco with much less labor and cost. There were some trucks used in certain sections last season for housing tobacco, and we find in every section where the truck was used there will be a great demand for them this season, and orders for several hundred trucks have already been placed and many more will doubtless come in yet.
 If you will lay out your rows as stated above it will take no extra manure and but little more land, and if you do not use the truck you can tote your tobacco along the wide row much better, and if you are scarce of help you can use a truck. We are going to be headquarters for tobacco trucks of best style. A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

A cyclone has struck us. We can neither think, manufacture nor do we know of anything to write about. These are dull times in the old town and were it not for the many pretty girls and gallant lads that crowd our streets morning and evening, we would sigh for pastures new, as it is, we want to stay here a little while longer.
 The girls can't spare us.

Since the boys have removed many of the stumps and had a general cleaning up, the appearance of the college ground is very much improved. There is more to be done yet boys if you intend to make it what it ought and should be.

The oldest man in the county, we suppose, live but a short distance from here. He is Mr. Green Letchworth and is 92 years of age.
 He is still a lively old gentleman.
 He has lived to see his descendants of the fifth generation.

The popularity of the Winterville Wire Fence is steadily growing. During the past week large quantities of fencing have been sold in this and adjoining counties.

Rev. J. K. Faulkner is absent in attendance upon the union meeting of the Neuse Baptist association, which met in LaGrange yesterday. Mr. Faulkner was expected to preach the opening sermon.

There are more pretty girls in and around Winterville than any other two places of its size in the world.

Mrs. Dr. C. A. Blount, of near Renston, was here yesterday on a shopping tour.

Misses Mary Fleming and Lissie Overton, of Stokes, are visiting the family of B. A. Highsmith.

Mrs. Hardy Stokes, of near Grimesland, is on a visit to Mrs.
 J. D. Cox.

Mrs. A. D. Cox and Miss Annie Stox left this morning for La Grange, to attend the Union meeting now in session at that place.

A. G. Cox is still paying highest cash price for cotton seed.

Josh Manning, who went home on business the first of week, has returned and resumed his studies at the college.

SATURDAY MARCH 30, 1901.

Now that the impeachment trial has become a thing of the past about the only interest the public feel in it is to know how the Senators voted. They may want to remember that sometime in the future. Five articles were voted on separately, the vote on the first one being as follows:

Guilty—Alexander, Arrington, Aycock, Bray, Broughton, Burroughs, Calvert, Foy, Gudger, James, Justice, Lindsay, McNeill, Miller, of Pamlico; Morrison, Morton, Scott, Smith, Speight, Thomas, Travis, Vann, Ward, Warren, Webb, Woodard—27.

Not guilty—Brown, Buchanan, Candler, Crisp, Currie, Dula, Foushee, Glenn, Henderson, Leak, London, Long, Marshall, McAlister, McIntosh, McIntyre, Michael, Miller, of Cladwell; Pinnix, Robeson, Stikeleather, Stringfield, Sugg—23.

Democrats voting not guilty were Brown, Currie, Foushee, Glenn, Henderson, Leak, London, Long, McAlister, McIntyre, Stringfield, and Sugg.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.

More crookedness in Cuba! Only a little matter of $40,000, but the doubt as to who got it is giving some prominent friends of the administration a bad case of shivers. A stockholder of the Havana Gas-light Co. has filed charges saying that a person of influence had collected $40,000 from that company for securing a 50 per cent reduction in the tariff bill on crude petroleum used for the manufacture of illuminating gas. The War Department is said to be investigating the charge. There are some sensational stories going around about this case, which may or may not be true, and there are some known facts. About the first of the present month the President issued an order reducing the tariff on crude petroleum, to be used exclusively for making illuminating gas in Cuba, from $1.40 per 100 kilos to 70 cents, and the order was officially promulgated in Havana on the 18th inst. That order was issued on the recommendation of Gov. Leonard Wood, endorsed by Secretary Root. There the known facts end. Gen. Wood, of course, should be able to give the explanation he has been asked to make by the War Department that reduction, and gas company stockholders should be made to tell to whom the $40,000 was paid. Meanwhile there are naturally rumors as well as fears that Neeley's stealing of Cuban postal funds may be petty larceny compared with other crooked financial work over there by Americans.

What to do with Aguinaldo, now that he has been captured, is greatly puzzling the administration.

There has been so much humbug about various acts of the McKinley administration that it was a little difficult for Mr. McKinley to do anything in that line striking enough to cause more than passing comment, but the bit of humbugger attached to filling the vacancy on the Civil Service Commission caused by the recent death of Commissioner Brewer was a corker. Of course, it has long ago been made apparent that the professed admiration for civil service reform by the administration was cant and hypocrisy of the worst sort, but nobody supposed for an instant that Mr. McKinley would appoint a Civil Service Commissioner who had a public record showing him to be in favor of killing the Civil Service Commission. Well, that is precisely what Mr. McKinley did. Ex-Representative W. A. Rodenberg, of East St. Louis, Ill., who was this week appointed Civil Service Commissioner, on the 17th of February, 1900, only little more than a year ago, voted, in the House, against making an appropriation for the Civil Service Commission, with the full knowledge that the appropriation was to be refused, if the necessary votes could be secured, for the purpose of killing the Civil Service Commission and the law under which it acts. Now, Mr. Rodenberg is a Civil Service Commissioner and unless the Senate should refuse to confirm his nomination, which is not likely, will draw $3,500 a year salary and a liberal allowance for expenses during the remainder of the McKinley regime; and he has had the nerve to say in a published interview that he had always been a friend of civil service reform. Such humbug is disgusting.

While Mr. McKinley is racking his brains to try to satisfy the demands of the Republican bosses for patronage, American interests in China are in a fair way to suffer. According to late advices from Peking, the other powers are considering the advisability of quietly pushing the United States out of the Chinese question by ignoring it in future negotiations. If the United States should be pushed out of the Chinese diplomatic door what would become of the "open door" to American trade in China? Mr. McKinley may find the filling of a few offices a more important question than this is, but when he hears from the American people he will discover what a mistake he has made, but unfortunately that discovery will not restore the American trade with China, which is now, in the opinion of those most competent to judge, in jeopardy.

The recent agreement entered into by a large number of the cotton manufacturers of North Carolina has attracted much attention. In commendation of the agreement, Gunton's Magazine says: "This is the most remarkable thing of its kind that ever occurred. Individual employers have voluntarily reduced the hours of labor and otherwise improved the conditions of their laborers, but never before did manufacturers organize to bring about a general shortening of the hours of labor, restriction of the employment of children and compulsory education for working children. If the above is true, to the manufacturers of North Carolina belongs the honor of initiating such a wise and beneficent policy among employers. * * * *"

In proposing voluntarily to adopt a ten-hour system, North Carolina manufacturers are taking the position of the real leaders of social progress in the South."—Winston Sentinel.

The missionary meetings in the Methodist church, for the past three nights, have been very interesting. A series of revival meetings will begin Sunday and continue through the coming week.

$5.00 FIVE DOLLARS REWARD.—For evidence that will convict the thief that stole my Hyacinths last night, one was a large white one. The one that stole them would steal anything else he could get his hands on. J. J. CHERRY.

Special Term.

Governor Aycock has ordered a special term of court for Pitt county, beginning Monday, May 13th, and continuing two weeks. Judge W. A. Hoke has been assigned to hold this special term. It is for the trial of civil causes only, and is to take the place of the March term that could not be held.

The Greenville REFLECTOR says: The esteemed Charlotte Observer has been propounding the question, "why do a rabbit wobble its nose?" A Greenville preacher says it is "because it has no tail to wobble." This is respectfully referred to The Observer with the request to send the prize down this way.

This was not our question, but was inately submitted by The Norfolk Ladmark. The Greenville preacher's answer is a squelcher and is respectfully referred to our Norfolk contemporary.—Charlotte Observer.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1899.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.
