WEATHER BULLETIN.

Rain tonight; Wednesday probably fair except rain in northeast portion, fresh easterly winds.

The English Love Flowers.

"Everybody in England, except the wretchedly poor, will have flowers," says Nelje Blanchau in Everybody's Magazine. "More than that, the people will have gardens even in the heart of the city. Dismal rows of brick walls, numbered at regular intervals to indicate the possession of the space by distinct families, may frown forbiddingly upon the street; but enter one of these houses, look out of a bark window, and nine times out of ten a garden will smile up at you. Such a garden, extending the entire length of the brick row, will be jointly possessed by all the occupants. Many similar oases in the desert of city life one comes upon in the most unexpected corners. Small open squares and large driving parks, alike adorned by landscape architects who certainly understand their charming business, do much to cultivate the public taste, while increasing the healthfulness of body and mind of the people. We Americans have not, as a rule, learned to sacrifice some less important things, if necessary, in order to have these so-called luxuries. A small plot of neatly cultivated garden, growing plants for her drawing-room and window-boxes, fresh flowers for the dinner-table—these are among the necessities of life even to the English housekeeper of small means, whose other expenditures may be counted with an economy amounting almost to parsimony when judged by lavish American standard."

President Winston, of the A. and M. College has been invited by the American Academy of Political and Social Science of Philadelphia to deliver an address on the race question before that aggregation of thinkers upon sociological subjects. As the head of a college that relies more on its work than on its talk, it is to be hoped that the Professor will advise his audience, that what the race question needs is the application of more common sense and less agitation, to solve it properly.—Charlotte News.

Ice Goes Up.

A number of the smaller consumers of ice, including saloon and soda fountain men, who have no contracts for future delivery, are complaining in view of the advent of the Spring and Summer season of an increase in the price of ice. While the amount is small, perhaps not over 15 cents per hundred on retail orders, and the extra expense is hardly noticeable, the consumers are beginning to complain and say they see no warrant on the part of the factories for any increase whatever. The new schedule as a whole may be preferable when it comes to the trade at large, but the small consumers cannot resist the temptation to register a "kick."—Wilmington Star.

The governor has pardoned two convicts, William Cox, of Anson county, convicted in 1898 of larceny, and William Alexander, of Mecklenburg county, who was convicted of burglarly in 1889 and sentenced to be hanged. The death penalty was commuted to life imprisonment. In granting this pardon Gov. Aycock gave the following reasons: This defendant is pardoned upon the petition of Capt. S. B. Alexander and other citizens of Mecklenburg county. Defendant was never bright, and it is believed was persuaded into the commission of the crime by his associates.

In the Review of Reviews for April Mr. Kenyon L. Butterfield describes an important effort in Michigan—known as the "Hesperia Movement"—to bring the teachers and the patrons of rural schools into closer association and co-operation. In the same number of the Review Prof. L. H. Bailey tells what has been done in New York State to stimulate interest in nature-study among both teachers and pupils of rural schools. Both articles are full of encouragement to all who have the betterment of these schools at heart.

With Joe Jefferson Out Fishing.

Joseph Jefferson, the actor, recently took one of the contributors of The Ladies' Home Journal with him on one of his famous fishing trips on the coast of Florida, and the story of the trip, with photographs of the actor at his favorite sport, will shortly be given in the magazine.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2, 1901.

Rev. John Jasper, the veteran colored preacher of Richmond, whose sermon on "The Sun Do Move," made him famous, is dead.

Maj. Martin, the clerk under ex-State Treasurer Worth, is showing up much worse than was at first thought. The expert accountant who has been going through the books finds that the shortage will come nearer to $12,000 than $4,000, the amount first stated.

A peculiar express robbery is reported. A package said to contain $5,000 was sent by a bank in Columbia S. C., to a bank in New York. When delivered to the latter bank they found that the package contained only a lot of brown paper. The matter is being investigated.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Resident Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 1.

Mr. McKinley has had an over supply of white elephants on his hands for sometime. Consequently he is not disposed to feel extra thankful to Gen. Fred Funston for adding two more, by capturing Aguinaldo. The Funston white elephant had to be provided for at once in order to avoid trouble in the political menagerie. There being nothing in sight lower than a Brigadier General's commission in the regular army, the members of the Kansas Congressional Delegation who happened to be in Washington made a break for the White House and demanded that for Funston. Mr. McKinley jollied them up and sent them away without making any promises other than that he would do something for Funston. At a cabinet meeting, Mr. McKinley mentioned what had been demanded for Funston, and Secretary Root made sneering remarks about yellow soldiering and circus business in the army, and ended by saying he was opposed to making Funston a Brigadier General of regulars.

Adjutant General Corbin marshaled the "pull" of the officers of the regular army that will be jumped by Funston's promotion to try to head off the appointment, and failing in that to try to have it knocked out in the Senate. Meanwhile Mr. McKinley had his ear to the ground. He heard the public demand that Funston be made a Brigadier for capturing Aguinaldo, and he proceeded to do it, considering it wiser to brave the onslaught of the army "push" than to refuse to bend to public opinion, even though that public opinion might be of the hysterical sort, which would shortly become indifferent to its present idol. That disposed of the Funston white elephant. Aguinaldo will be more difficult to dispose of. His case is talked over at every Cabinet meeting, but no sort of an agreement has yet been reached as to what will be done with him.

Those having fat army contracts as well as those who are after commissions in the army, are becoming alarmed. They fear that the capture of Aguinaldo and the reported surrender of many of his officers and men will arouse public opinion in this country to such an extent that the administration will have to stop recruiting for the army before the 100,000 men authorized by Congress have been enlisted, which would lessen the profits of the contractors and lessen the number of commissions to be issued. That it would also lessen the enormous expenses of this government they care nothing about. They belong to the class "patriots" who are nothing for the burdens of the people so long as they are being personally benefited. It is said that friends of these sharks who are in the Philippines, have been warned by cable to do everything in their power to prevent the reports sent to Washington being too peaceable until the army has been recruited up to the limit. Then they won't care, as there will be no way of reducing the army, except through natural causes, until the expiration of the enlistments. It has been given out at the White House that the army will not be recruited to the full authorized strength, if the reports from the Philippines justify a curtailment.

After much wrangling, Mr. McKinley has announced the appointments for the St. Louis Exposition Commission. They follow: Ex-Senators Thurston, Carter, McBride and Lindsay—three republicans and one McKinley democrat; Ex-Representative Allen, of Miss., and Glynn, of N. Y., and P. D. Scott, of Arkansas, F. A. Betts, of Conn., and John F. Miller, of Indiana.

Some idea of the way this government was robbed in the purchase of vessels at the outbreak of the war with Spain may be gathered from the fact that the transport Terry, for which $150,000 was paid, has just been advertised for sale at an upset price of $40,000, and not a single bid was received. When bought by the government, this steamer was an old excursion boat on Long Island Sound, under the name Hartford.

BEAUTIFUL BUFFALO.

Vice President Porter Briefly Describes the Exposition City.

I have been spending several weeks in Buffalo, the city which will next year offer for the delight and uplifting of all mankind, the great Pan-American Exposition. I am sure my fellow citizens of North Carolina who are not already familiar with Buffalo will be interested in knowing a few of the facts that I have gathered while here.

Buffalo is situated on Lake Erie and Niagara river, in the western part of the state of New York. We are struck with wonder and amazement when we consider the magnitude of Buffalo. It is the tenth city in population in the United States. The area of the city limits is 42 square miles, and the city proper extends some distance beyond these limits. It is said to contain nearly 400,000 inhabitants. These figures are from official sources. It has nearly 340 miles of paved streets, 1,900 acres of parks, 17 miles of park driveway, the largest four depot in the world, largest lumber market in the world, 600 miles of steam railway tracks within the city limits, 26 railways, 250 passenger trains every day, more than one every six minutes; 140 miles electric street railway, 3,000 manufacturing, employing 75,000 hands; 50 grain elevators. Buffalo's park system is unsurpassed by any in the world. You can ride for hours in your carriage over park drives and parkways without a single jolt. The majority of the streets and boulevards are paved with asphalt and are as smooth as a floor. Buffalo is truly the cleanest and finest city in the United States, or at least, the finest I have ever visited. The Public Library of Buffalo is very fine. It contains 120,000 books, besides the Reference Library, which contains 60,000 books. Buffalo has 187 churches, as follows: Roman Catholic, 39; Methodist, 27; Baptist, 17 and 6 missions; Presbyterian, 16; Lutheran, 11; Evangelical, 5; Evangelical Reformed, 6; German Evangelical, 12; Jewish, 3; Congregational, 7; Universalist, 2; Unitarian, 2; United Brethren, 1; Disciples, 4; Floating Missions, 1; Canal Street Missions, 2; Adventist, 1; Spiritualist, 1. The church edifices are large and imposing. Buffalo also has some very fine cemeteries. Forest Lawn Cemetery contains at least 640 acres and has some imposing monuments. The residence portion of the city is neat and clean, with many beautiful and artistic homes.

The work on the buildings at the Pan-American grounds is progressing very fast and beyond question will be completed in ample time for the Exposition. The great Niagara Falls are within 21 miles of the city—only a few minutes' ride from the business center and the Exposition grounds, and one can have a choice of either steam or electric cars for conveyance to the great attraction. These attractions will naturally bring to Buffalo during the Exposition vast throngs of people, and we will be very fortunate indeed to have an opportunity to display our products and resources here during that time. We cannot afford to let this opportunity slip by. It is said that the North Carolina exhibit is the second best exhibit of any state at the Paris Exposition, but we can improve on that even.

I appeal to every good citizen and lover of North Carolina to kindly give us his aid and influence in this important matter. W. F. PORTER, Vice President for North Carolina, Pan-American Exposition.
