WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April 3.
A SUGGESTION TO FARMERS.

Owing to the extreme scarcity of labor we would advise all farmers to arrange their tobacco rows so every eighth row will be five feet wide, and by so doing you can use a tobacco truck and thus house your tobacco with much less labor and cost. There were some trucks used in certain sections last season for housing tobacco, and we find in every section where the truck was used there will be a great demand for them this season, and orders for several hundred trucks have already been placed and many more will doubtless come in yet. If you will lay out your rows as stated above it will take no extra manure and but little more land, and if you do not, use the truck you can tote your tobacco along the wide row much better, and if you are scarce of help you can use a truck. We are going to be headquarters for tobacco trucks of best style. A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

The sociable given at the home of Dr. Cox last Friday evening was voted a success in every particular and was very much enjoyed by all who were present. The one given by Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kittrell in honor of their two charming daughters, Misses Effie and Hattie, was never excelled and the delighted and highly honored guests on that occasion will never tire in their praise of an event so pleasantly afforded them.

John T. Robey, who has been away in the Philippines fighting for Uncle Sam or President McKinley, he doesn't know which, arrived home yesterday after an absence of two and a half years. Everyone had for him a warm greeting, for everybody likes Robey.

Miss Lexie Daughtry, of Greenville, who has been visiting Miss Minnie Clinard at the home of Dr. B. T. Cox returned to her home Monday morning.

Miss Rosa Cox after spending a few days, most pleasantly, visiting friends at Littlefield has returned home to the delight of her many friends.

Capt. W. W. Carroway, of Kingston, the representative of Lenoir in the recent legislature, spent Saturday here and bought a large quantity of wire fencing before he left. He is certainly a genial, whole souled gentleman and his visit was very much appreciated by us all.

Elder W. L. Bilbro, of Ayden, spent Monday here visiting friends.

A great number of our people are attending court in Greenville this week more through curiosity than anything else, for they rarely have any business in court themselves.

Very many from here attended preaching at Rountree's last Sunday. The carry-me all with its dashing pair and the four of the inner circle cut a mighty swell that day.

Fine prospects for peaches. The trees are just looking lovely. How would a nice, luscious, rosy cheek fellow go. Hey?

A. G. Cox who attended the union of the Neuse Baptist association at LaGrange returned Sunday, and reports a pleasant time as well as a very successful meeting.

B. F. Manning & Co., have just received a fine assortment of straw hats which they are very anxious to dispose of at extremely low prices. Some of them are beauties. Call and see them.

A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash for cotton seed.

"A monopoly is like a baby," says the Manayunk Philosopher "Men are opposed to either on general principles until they get one of their own."

BETHEL ITEMS

BETHEL, N. C., April, 2 1901.

B. W. Mosley, of Greenville, spent Monday and Tuesday in this place.

Dr. R. J. Grimes spent Tuesday in Greenville on business.

J. W. Thomas returned from the northern markets Friday.

Prof. Z. D. McWhorter held services in the M. E. church Sunday morning and night.

In the list of important enterprises that will contribute to the commercial standing of this community none will deserve higher commendation than the Bethel Gin & Co., which was organized a few days ago. M. O. Blount was elected Secretary and Treasurer. We learn that they will have a capacity of 40 bales per day and that some other manufacturing interest will be added after the ginning season. We hope them good luck.

Mrs. M. O. Blount has returned from Baltimore where she has been for several days selecting her spring and summer millinery.

Miss Jennie Hudgnis, of Baltimore, has accepted a position as a milliner for Blount & Bro of this place.

C. H. James has moved his desk factory to Smithfield.

We are sorry to hear that Robert Staton and little Johnnie Vainright are quite sick.

Mrs. Mary Knight and Mrs. J. D. Blount returned to Rocky Mount Monday. They spent several days here visiting friends.

Charlie James, of this place, will leave Wednesday for Smithfield.

W. J. Whitehurst made a flying trip over to Stokes Monday.

W. J. Rollins, of Greenville, spent Monday in this place on business.

Mr. Frank Corbett Drowned.

About 9 o'clock this morning as one of the steamers was coming in about to make fast to the wharf, the body of a white man floated up from the bottom of the river. The body was dragged out and Chief of Police J. T. Smith was notified. The officer went down to investigate, and the body proved to be Mr. Frank Corbett, a white man about 40 years of age, of Falkland township.

Mr. Corbett came to Greenville Tuesday and it was noticed that he became intoxicated. He did not return home in the evening, but after night went to the house of Rosa Manning, a woman of ill repute, who lives near the wharf. His coat was found at her house this morning. When interrogated the woman stated that Mr. Corbett was at her house early Tuesday night, and left about 8:30 o'clock saying he would return in a few minutes, but did not go back.

In a small purse in one of Mr. Corbett's pockets was found $2.15 in cash. His father was notified at Falkland of the finding of the body.

The Coroner, Dr. Laughinghouse held an inquest this afternoon, but failed to disclose any evidence of foul play. It is supposed that Mr. Corbett walked into the river unawares when he left the woman's house.

The school law enacted by the recent Legislature provides for only two public examinations of teachers each year. These examinations will be held the second Thursdays of July and October. There will be no public examination in April of this year. The new law does not prohibit County Superintendents holding private examinations at any time, charging a fee of one dollar for same.

Know that strength is yours in proportion to your progress, enough for each day, be it mental, physical or spiritual. Realize that there is a reward for every labor, rest after every task, and rise for every faculty developed. Your reward may not be what you expect; probably it will be much better. The power which comes from trying is more than worth the effort. —Adelaide Keen, in the April Ladies' Home Journal.

A five year old boy has been found in Ellenboro, Rutherford county, in this State, who is nearly all head. The head does all the growing, while the rest of the boy is nothing but skin and bone. Head and all his weight is said to be 65 pounds. They allow 15 pounds for body, legs and arms and credit the head with the rest. With a fifty pound head on such frail support it is not surprising that the boy should find it too heavy to carry around and prefer to spend his time lying down. —Greensboro Record.

Trial of Judges Cost Over $8000

The impeachment trial of the Supreme Court judges has cost the State $8,062.20 exclusive of the cost of printing the daily record and the bound volume of the proceedings of the trial.

There were five attorneys appearing for the board of managers. Mr. Cyrus B. Watson, of Winston, Gen. T. F. Davidson, of Asheville, and Maj. W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, received $600 each. Mr. J. H. Pou and Mr. C. M. Busbee, of Raleigh, each received $400.

The members of the court, the senators, drew $3,632. The amount paid clerks, stenographers and employees was $772.60. Witnesses for the prosecution were paid $193.10, and those for the respondents $355.50. The nine managers on the part of the House of Representatives were paid $509.

These are the total items of expenditure with the exception of the printing and the expense of this item can not be stated with any degree of accuracy. It is said that the proceedings will not require but one volume, and if this is true, the printing bill will not be a very large one. —Raleigh Post.

Muscular Judiciary.
Wilmington, N. C., April 1.—Another sensational personal encounter, the third in a week, occurred yesterday afternoon at the Orten House, the leading hotel in this city. The participants were Judge E. K. Bryan, of the Eastern North Carolina Criminal Circuit, W. W. Williamson of Philadelphia, traveling man. Williamson claimed that Judge Bryan was staring at Mrs. Williamson in an offensive manner. Judge Bryan claims that at his wife's suggestion he was looking at the very pretty waist Mrs. Williamson was wearing. He was not conciliatory in his manner when Williamson asked for an explanation, and the Philadelphia man let fly a blow which brought blood from the Judge's nose. Judge Bryan gave blow for blow, and was getting decidedly the best of the encounter when spectators separated the men. Williamson left today, and no warrants having been sworn out it is presumed that the matter is at an end. Save for the endless gossip in the streets about the occurrence.

Registration.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, from 2 o'clock p. m. to sunset, the registration books will be open at the polling places in the different wards to register voters for the bond election. The places are as follows:

- First ward—At colored Odd Fellows Hall on Front street. J. B. Jarvis, Registrar.
 - Second ward—At Clark office on corner of Third and Greene streets. J. N. Booth, Registrar.
 - Third ward—At Court House. L. W. Lawrence, Registrar.
 - Fourth ward—At Marcellus Moore store on Five Points. W. L. Brown, Registrar.
 - Fifth ward—At Farmers Warehouse on Dickinson avenue. A. A. Forbes, Registrar.
- The poll holders will meet with the registrars at these places Saturday afternoon to pass upon challenges. The election will be held Tuesday, 9th, at the same places.

There is a farmer in Pennsylvania who is running away from oil wells, but they persist in following him up. Some time ago oil was struck on his farm and soon there were a dozen or more wells bored. Oil was found in all of them, but it spoiled his farm for farming purposes because it was all eat up with roads getting to and from the wells. The $1,400 a month royalty he got didn't quite reconcile him to that, so he bought another farm about thirty miles away where the oil had been found and he thought he would be safe. But he gave a fellow permission to bore, and the result was a big gusher. Now he is afraid he will have to move again. —Wilmington Star.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. With her whole being undergoing a change, the seeds of female troubles are sown. Little menstrual disorders, if neglected at the time, will follow the woman all her life and grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are robbing homes and filling graveyards, proves this. Yet, irregular and painful menstruation are often permitted to go on, sapping the life and energy, while Wine of Cardui, the positive relief for these ills, is on the shelf of every drug store. Wine of Cardui helps the maiden sustain the shock of puberty by inducing a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Wine of Cardui is an emmenagogue of great power, and works wonders in strengthening the delicate and sensitive female organs. Many young women owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. No woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. If thousands have secured relief through it, why not you?

WINE OF CARDUI

Tully, Kas., Feb. 24, 1893.
I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time; was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything; in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui with Black-Draught when needed and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me.

Horse Drowned.

Mr. Calvin Joyner, of Beavor Dam township, had a narrow escape from drowning Tuesday. He was riding in a cart along the road, and upon reaching the creek at Pine Logging his horse became frightened at the swollen stream and jumped off the bridge into the creek. The cart and Mr. Joyner were both pulled overboard after the horse. The horse was drowned and Mr. Joyner got out of the creek only after a hard struggle.

Superior Court.

The following cases have been disposed of since last report:

Heber Harris, burglary, guilt of larceny.

Drew H. Hinson, W. B. Burnett and Knapp Burnett, affray. Hinson pleads guilty. W. B. Burnett and Knapp Burnett not guilty.

Meekin Weathington, assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty, judgment that the defendant be imprisoned 3 months in the county jail.

Found Horse and Buggy.

Mr. D. E. House, whose horse and buggy was taken Monday night from the stables on his farm, near House station. Jim Burbanks, colored, was the party who took them, and the circumstances under which the theft was made are out of the ordinary. Burbanks was before J. G. Moye Monday for having an affray and was bound over to Superior court. He did not want to face the latter court, so after night jumped his bond and skipped the town. Going by Mr. Houses farm he took the horse and buggy to facilitate his flight, and drove to Knights station, on the Norfolk & Carolina railroad, where he took the early train for Norfolk.

When passing near Bethel Burbanks stopped at the house of another colored man, whom he knew and told the latter what he had done. He also told this man he would put a tag on the horse and buggy and leave them at Knights station and asked him to send Mr. House word. The man sent word over here to Mr. House as requested, and the horse and buggy were found just as Burbanks had stated.
