TOWN MATTERS.

Meeting of Board Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met Thursday night in regular monthly session.

A. J. Griffin was unanimously re-elected Chief of the Fire Department.

A committee was appointed to confer with Hope Fire Co. at the next meeting of the Company relative to compensation for the engineer and other matters that had been recommended by the firemen.

The Red Hawk Fire Co. was allowed to increase its membership to 35.

S. P. Humphrey was refunded the taxes on a lot valued at $500 listed through his error.

The finance committee reported $3,040.28 in the treasury.

The different standing committees had no reports of interest to make at this meeting.

The Tax Collector, Chief and Assistant Police made their reports of collections made during the past month.

Accounts amounting to $637.05 were allowed and orders for same issued.

Another Curious Egg.

Sometime ago Mr. E. B. Ficklen brought THE REFLECTOR the largest hen egg on record. Mat Duke took the opposite extreme and brought us the smallest one. Now Mr. D. D. Overton brings us another that he says is "betwixt and between" in size, but gets there on shape. This egg looks like the hen might have been trying to lay two at the time and got them mixed up.

In honor of the 75th birthday of The Youth's Companion the publishers have issued a handsome "75th Birthday Souvenir." It contains a series of striking maps and suggestive facts, showing the vast growth of the nation and of the nation's foremost family weekly since the day in April, 1827, which saw the first number of the first volume of The Youth's Companion come from the press.

North Carolina is a State of small cities. After a long and honored existence—being one of the original thirteen—the State has not yet gathered 21,000 persons under one municipal government. Though the State has a population of 1,617,947 and 347 incorporated places, only thirty-five of these have a population of more than 2,000. Of these twenty-three have less than 5,000 inhabitants, six more than 5,000, but less than 10,000. Wilmington leads with 20,976. Charlotte comes next with 18,091; then follow Asheville, 14,694; Raleigh, 13,693; Greensboro, 10,035 and Winston, 10,008. Though the State has increased in population 218,197 in the last ten years, it has been quite evenly distributed, and there is no strong tendency of the growth of a large city.—New York Herald.

How Butchers Did It.

More than half a century ago a group of merchants, while lunching in a little old fashioned bar-room at the corner of Market and Monroe streets, left their tables to view a parade of prize live stock which was passing by the tavern. In those days the leading butchers of the city used to advertise their beef during the holiday seasons by marching their selected cattle, just before slaughter, through the city's principal streets. The butcher's advertisement announced that the decorated animals would be carved up into juicy steaks on the following day.—New York Telegraph.

A Greenville, N. C., preacher answered The Norfolk Landmark's enquiry: "Why do a rabbit wobble its nose" by saying: "Because it has no tail to wobble." This answer would have satisfied any real genuine seeker after truth, but The Landmark re-asserts its ever contentious spirit by the rejoinder that "tails do not wobble or wobble; they wag." The Landmark may as well admit that it is cornered and not try to wiggle or wriggle out of its dilemma by waggishness.—Charlotte Observer.

The Buckeye Match Company, with $200,000 capital, has been organized at Akron, O., to fight the Trust.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

The first shipment of new cabbage this season was made from New Bern Wednesday.

Rev. J. E. Hutson, of Richmond, is conducting a meeting in the Baptist church at Washington.

Mayor A. M. Powell has been renominated by the Democrats of Raleigh as candidate for mayor.

A servant jumped from the third story window of a burning residence, at Winston, and was fatally injured.

Raleigh held a primary election Tuesday to nominate city officers, and says one trial of the innovation is enough.

An old colored woman at Wilmington, who claimed to have lived in three centuries, was burned to death Thursday afternoon.

The distinguished journalist, Henry Watterson, of Kentucky, will lecture at the North Carolina University on the 23rd inst.

Our Washington correspondent advises us that the postoffice in that town was today moved into new and commodious quarters, affording a great improvement over the former location.

We have heard of a peculiar happening at Dover. The other afternoon a hog promenade into Mr. W. A. Wilson's kitchen and was strangled to death on slops. Next!—Kinston Free Press.

President Winston, of the Agricultural and Mechanical college, will deliver an address in Philadelphia, April 13, before the American Academy of Political and Social Science on "Relations Between Whites and Blacks in the South."

What Sort of an April.

According to the Memoranda kept by the Weather Bureau in Raleigh during the past fourteen years, the average month of April is as follows:

The mean or normal temperature, 59 degrees; the warmest month was that of 1896 an average of 64 degrees; the coldest month was that of 1898, with an average of 56 degrees; the highest temperature was 95 degrees on April 18, 1896; the lowest temperature was 30 degrees on April 6, 1868; average date on which first "killing" frost occurred in autumn, November 7st; average date on which last "killing" frost occurred in spring, April 18th.

Precipitation (rain and melted snow), the average for the month, 3.34 inches; average number of days with .01 of an inch or more, 9; the greatest monthly precipitation was 1.40 inches in 1893; the greatest amount of precipitation recorded in any 24 consecutive hours was 2.50 inches on April 7th, 1899; the greatest amount of snowfall in any 24 consecutive hours (record extending to winter of 1886 only was 3.5 inches on April 4th, 1899.

The average number of clear days, 13; partly cloudy days, 9; cloudy days, 8.

The prevailing winds have been from the southwest; the highest velocity of the wind was 45 miles from the northwest on April 7th, 1889.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1901.

We understand that those opposed to the bond issue are hard at work against it on the quiet. Surely those who want to see Greenville prosper cannot remain indifferent and allow the measure to be defeated just for want of interest.

If the bond issue is defeated Tuesday it will be a blow to the progress of the town from which it will take a long time to recover. Almost the entire country is watching Greenville to see what the town will do at this election. There are capitalists who have indicated a desire to make investments here, but if the bond issue is defeated they will pass us by. On the other hand if the bonds are carried, you will see Greenville prosper in the next year or two as never before.

This country of ours is great on scandals, especially with regard to affairs of government. According to an Associated Press dispatch of a day or two ago from Manila, interested in the capture and fate of Aguinaldo is well nigh overshadowed by sensational developments present and prospective, of frauds in the Commissary Department. It is not known how widely these extend, but enough is known to justify the belief that they are far reaching. The quartermaster of the department of Southern Luzon, together with seven commissary sergeants, several civilian clerks a prominent Government contractor, a hotel man and a number of other persons have been arrested as being implicated in the fraud. It does seem a remarkable thing that in all such cases there must be a scandal before the work is completed. We had our scandal in Cuba and our scandal in Manila, and so it must be, it would seem, wherever public officials are entrusted with the extraordinary expenditure of Government funds. May not the Populists and Socialists learn some valuable lessons from these things? If the Government cannot carry on a little business in Cuba and the Philippines without corruption on the part of those entrusted with the work, what might we reasonably expect if the Government should undertake to carry on the business of the country generally? The less the Government meddles with business the less money it handles, the better it will be for the people.—Greensboro Record.

The United States Steel Corporation takes out an amended charter in New Jersey with capital stock of $1,100,000,000.

How To Get Rich.

Truckers in Eastern North Carolina this season have received as much as sixty cents a bunch for asparagus. A Florida gentleman, who has purchased land near Fayetteville, will put it in celery, and says celery will grow in that climate in profusion and of superior quality. The trucking industry, an industry practically unknown twenty years ago, has come to be one of the greatest in Eastern North Carolina, and it is as yet not half developed. It has not only brought wealth to some, comfort to many, and given an uplift in prosperity to those sections that have gone largely and wisely into truck farming, but it has brought into the State a desirable class of population. State Senator Brown who established a colony at Chadbourn, was enabled to interest Northern farmers by showing the handsome profits made in growing berries and truck for Northern markets. They have succeeded and brought their friends to live in North Carolina, and a beginning has just been made in development of the trucking business of Eastern North Carolina.

North Carolina cannot get rich except by making things to sell to people who live in other States. Trucking and fishing are destined to make Eastern North Carolina rich. Much of it is already a garden, with improved shipping facilities, and land devoted to the cultivation of cotton, which pays very little, will be devoted to growing strawberries and early vegetables for market, thus giving larger returns for investment and labor.—News and Observer.

Wireless Telegraphy.

Washington, April 3.—Willis L. Moore, chief of the Weather Bureau, has returned from an inspection of the wireless telegraphy stations on the Virginia and North Carolina coast, and has reported to Secretary Wilson the results of his observations. He found that the experimental work is progressing satisfactorily between Hatteras and Cape Henry, where elaborate plans have been laid out for important experiments. At Cape Henry an excellent plant has been established for the physical and mechanical development and investigation of the fundamental principles of wireless telegraphy. Signals are exchanged daily between these two stations, and messages can be transmitted at any time, though there is no necessity for exchange of messages as yet. These two stations are forty-seven miles apart, with no land between them, and the course is regarded as an ideal one for the experiments. It is intended to keep this section for experimental and research work, which will be prosecuted vigorously throughout next summer. The next great problem to be solved, according to Chief Moore, is the differentiation of the wireless messages, so that the messages sent shall be read only by the stations for which they are intended, and not interfered with by the crossing of messages for other stations.

The United States Navy Department will exhibit at Buffalo an eight by twenty foot map of the world, on which will be placed 307 miniature lead models representing the war fleets of all nations and their location from day to day.

The Democratic papers of North Carolina are to be commended for their conservative comments on the result of the impeachment trial. With but few exceptions they accepted the result in a most proper spirit. Those papers, which opposed impeachment, as well as those which advocated it, now realize that everything possible should be done for Democratic harmony and unity.

The Republicans cannot make any political capital or "campaign thunder" out of the impeachment proceedings. If either party was influenced by politics or partisan considerations it was the Republican and not the Democratic. In the House the Republicans voted solidly against impeachment, while the Democrats divided. And so in the Senate the Republicans voted solidly for acquittal, while the Democrats rose above party and politics, and the Republicans did not!—Pittsboro Record.

PERTAINS TO PEOPLE.

Those Coming and Going These Spring Days.

G. M. Tucker returned to Norfolk today.

Miss Geneva Gardner left this morning for Bethel.

J. C. Caddell, of Raleigh, spent
Thursday night here.

Dr. W. W. Dawson returned to Grifton Thursday evening.

W. T. Lipscomb returned Thursday evening from Virginia.

Presiding Elder F. A. Bishop left this morning for Elm City.

Wiley Brown returned from Baltimore Thursday evening.

Mrs. D. D. Gardner left this morning to visit relatives at Hamilton.

Mrs. W. T. Hunter returned Thursday evening from a visit to Tarboro.

Miss Ida Tucker, of Plymeth, came in Thursday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. W. A. Bowen.

Mrs. Judge H. G. Connor, of Wilson, is spending some time with Mrs. R. R. Cotten, at Cotton-dale.

J. J. Laughinghouse, Jr. left this morning for Norfolk to take a position with the Tucker wholesale hat house.

Will Greer, of Baltimore, came in this morning. The police did not have to pull him for peddling potatoes without license.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hardee, of Greene county, passed through this morning going to Norfolk where they will spend sometime.

Stop It.

The public is putting in some loud complaint about the way porters, hack drivers, draymen and loafers crowd around in everybody's way when the passenger train comes in. The town authorities are going to abate the nuisance.

Mr. Evans Critically Ill.

Mr. B. D. Evans, one of our oldest citizens who has been in feeble health for sometime, now lies critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. H. Pender, in West Greenville. It is not thought he can last but a few hours. Mrs.
Pender is also very sick.

Easter Egg Hunt.

The children of the Baptist Sunbeam Society and infant class of the Sunday school will be given an Easter egg hunt on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. N. Booth. All are asked to be present and participate in the hunt. The Sunbeams will also take their mite barrels with them.

Sends Money out of Town to Get Puffed.

Oxford has a write-up in the Baltimore Sun for which, we suppose paid handsomely. The same write-up in the Public Ledger would have cost the town less money and would have accomplished more good. Of course it is none of our business where or how the people of the town spend their money, but this advice costs them nothing.—Durham Herald.

Cheapest and Best.

"Ye who listen with credulity to the whispers of fancy and pursue with eagerness the phantoms of hope, who expect that the promises of today will be fulfilled by tomorrow, listen:" In most towns there are two or more gentlemen who speculate in cotton. Now these two or more are advised to get together and "flip a copper" for expected margins and stop paying the New York fellow ten dollars on each contract to flip it for them.
That's all, that's all!—Rocky Mount Motor.
