WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April 6.
A SUGGESTION TO FARMERS.

Owing to the extreme scarcity of labor we would advise all farmers to arrange their tobacco rows so every eighth row will be five feet wide, and by so doing you can use a tobacco truck and thus house your tobacco with much less labor and cost. There were some trucks used in certain sections last season for housing tobacco, and we find in every section where the truck was used there will be a great demand for them this season, and orders for several hundred trucks have already been placed and many more will doubtless come in yet. If you will lay out your rows as stated above it will take no extra manure and but little more land, and if you do not use the truck you can tote your tobacco along the wide row much better, and if you are scarce of help you can use a truck. We are going to be headquarters for tobacco trucks of best style.

Mr. B. D. Evans Dead.

Friday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock Mr. Barnabas D. Evans died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. L. H. Pender, in West Greenville. He was in his 83rd year, and was one of the best men we ever knew. He was an earnest christian, zealous in the service of the Savior, and bright in the hope of the future that lies beyond the grave. All who knew him held him in highest regard.

Barnabas D. Evans was born at Easton, Pa., Feb. 12th, 1819. He went to Petersburg, Va., in 1850, and was married in that city Sept. 23rd, 1854, to Miss Annie F. Thompson, daughter of Rev. Robert Thompson. They had only two children, both of whom are now living and are Mrs. H. B. Sledge, of Tarboro, and Mrs. L. H. Pender, of Greenville. The widow also survives him.

Mr. Evans moved to Tarboro in 1836, and three years later 1839, came to Greenville and since that time made his home here. He joined the Presbyterian church when a young man and was a Ruling Elder in Tabo street church of Petersburg. He was made a Ruling Elder in the church here when it was first organized, which position he held until his death.

The burial will take place Sunday afternoon in Cherry Hill Cemetery, the service being held at 5 o'clock in the Presbyterian church.

The pall bearers will be Messrs. W. R. Parker, E. B. Ficklen, A. B. Ellington, J. L. Wooten, W. B. Wilson and J. B. Moore.

ADVANTAGES OF JENSON.

JENSON, FLA., April 1st, 1901.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

As several friends have asked me for a full description of Jenson since I arrived here on February 12th, I will give a description through your columns as best I can.

With an abundant supply of money most any place can be made attractive for the moment, but when it comes to permanent investment for remuneration, that brings up another question. Jenson has all the advantages that nature can supply, such as locality, conveniences, healthfulness, climate and remunerative soil. Tourists who are only hunting localities where they can spend the most money in a given length of time might succeed better elsewhere. But for comfort and enjoyment Jenson is naturally one of the most desirable points in the south.

We have a hotel here fully equipped with all the latest improvements conveniences and comforts that one could desire, located only a few steps from Indian river—or more properly, an arm of the ocean—which has a reputation almost as far as civilization extends for its majestic scenery and water glistening with billions of shining stars produced from phosphorus rays.

We ship hundreds of thousands dollars worth of fish to all parts of the country every season.

Jenson is only two miles from the ocean beach, where bathing is delightful and recuperative to health. It is but a short distance to Santa Lucia inlet which is the anglers paradise, and catching fish becomes monotonous, except to those who never tire of the sport of pulling in blue fish, sea bass and trout. The surrounding woods has a bountiful supply of game such as deer, turkey, wild cats and now and then a bear for the accommodation of those who are fond of more solid sports, and a climate nobody would change if they could.

For a winter home for those who are in feeble health or who do not like to play freeze-out in a colder climate, and wish to enjoy the sports of fishing, hunting, sailing and rowing in perpetual spring time, they can find no place that would please them like Jenson.

As a point for investment I ask the public through THE REFLECTOR to come and investigate for themselves. We have no newspaper in town to show up our maps, or painted stakes through the forest to point out our streets.

We have almost an unbroken field of pineapples for miles, with cottages dotted along the river front, where seven years ago the whole country was almost a wilderness. This change was brought from the products of the soil, and not from outside capital. For instance, the hotel here which cost over $12,000, was built with money from the local products.

As evidence of Jenson's central point for the pineapple industry, the Indian River and Lake Worth pineapple growers association has headquarters at this place.

We have church facilities and a flourishing school conducted by one of the most cultivated and refined ladies that can be found in the profession.

ALLEN B. KITTRELL.

SATURDAY APRIL 6, 1901.

No doubt the latest official scandal in the Philippines will prove highly edifying to the benighted heathen whom we are teaching to walk in the straight and narrow path of official rectitude.

A Chicago girl has been sued for the return of her engagement presents. She says she doesn't want the old things, anyway, but she wouldn't return them to the mean old man for anything now.

Will General MacArthur now apologize to Editor Rice, whom he expelled from Manila for exposing the scandals which have now become so marked that the Government has been forced to make numerous arrests on account of them?

All Americans will welcome the news, if true, that Aguinaldo has given up the hopeless fight and sworn allegiance to the United States. Even those who believe that our institutions are imperiled by the acquisition of the Philippines against the will of their inhabitants, cannot but rejoice if the lamentable record of blood is to come to an end.

Maj. W. H. Martin, the man who stole some $10,000 or $12,000 while he was a clerk in ex-State Treasurer Worth's office, has been sentenced to ten years imprisonment. The speedy trial and sentence that has followed the discovery of his crime are commendable. Yet it was noticeable in reading the proceedings of the trial that, notwithstanding Martin had confessed his crime, there were lawyers who went before the court and condoned for his stealing and tried to make a hero of the thief. Any criminal is entitled to legitimate defense, but the methods often used by lawyers and some of their public utterances has a tendency to encourage rather than diminish crime. Take the recent Charlotte gambling case and this stealing case for examples.

Governor Aycock has appointed two more of the new judges provided for in the act increasing the number of superior court judges to sixteen. Geo. A. Jones, of Franklin, was appointed judge for the sixteenth district and Francis D. Winston of Windsor, appointed for the second district.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.

Mr. McKinley and Boss Hanna have again had their heads together over Ohio politics. They don't like the returns from the municipal elections in the State, and they specially dislike the election of Tom. L. Johnson to be mayor of Cleveland. They recognize that Mr. Johnson's successful re-entry into politics means trouble and a lot of it for the republican machine in Ohio, and that it may turn out also to be a factor in the national political arena, as it is an open secret that Mr. Johnson only became a candidate for mayor as a stepping stone to a nomination for something higher. They believe that Mr. Johnson will be a central figure in the State campaign this year, whether he becomes the democratic candidate for governor or the democratic candidate to succeed Senator Foraker, and they fear him and his known personal popularity in the State. And they are not alone in fearing him. Col. W. O. Telford, of Columbus, which also elected a democratic mayor, who is a republican and has something of a reputation as an expert on the currents of Ohio politics, and who is now in Washington, said: "Mayor-elect Johnson will start with an advantage now for higher places. He is very clearly in line for the democratic nomination for governor this year. Nobody believes that he can carry the State, but he may make trouble in the legislature. And if he can even reduce Gov. Nash's majority for a re-election to a small figure he will be a powerful factor in the democratic National Convention. He surely is a vote-getter."

Again Pierpont Morgan! That man seems determined to control everything in sight and a lot of things not in sight. While officials deny the story that Mr. Morgan, during his recent visit to Mr. McKinley, offered to buy out the Panama Canal Co. and complete the canal, giving the United States government any concessions it might desire as to the control of the canal in time of war, with private capital without cost to this government, provided, that Mr. McKinley would pledge this government to kill the product for the construction of a canal over the Nicaragua route, it is generally believed in Washington that Mr. Morgan did make some such offer to Mr. McKinley and further that it is being considered. The story is plausible, and if true would explain much of the mysterious opposition to the Nicaragua Canal bill which constantly crept out in unexpected places while the late Congress was in session. It is known that Mr. Morgan's relations are close with the big railroad interests that opposed Nicaragua Canal legislation, as well as with the capitalists who compose the so-called American Panama Canal Co., which is believed to have been organized for purely speculation purposes. Another thing that adds to the plausibility of the story is that the State Department, in its negotiations with the Colombian president of the Panama Canal Co., clearly shows its recognition of the possibility of the Panama canal passing under American control. Since it was started by De Lesseps the Panama Canal Co., has been not one swindle, but a series of gigantic swindles, which have made rascals millionaires and thousands of honest French investors paupers. With that record open to all it is not conceivable that the American people will ever endorse any connection of this government under any circumstances or conditions with the Panama Canal Co.

The administration has once more revived the story that the Sultan of Turkey is about to pay those long-standing American missionary claims. Like all its predecessors, the new story says that this time payment is cocksure, owing to the cleverness with which our diplomats have got the Sultan hound Common decency until it can announce that these claims have been paid. It has allowed itself to be bluffed and bamboozled by the Sultan to an extent that has made this government the laughing stock of the diplomatic world.

Questions for Women

Do you have periodical pains? Do you have frequent headaches? Are you nervous? Are you continually exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are suffering from ills which Wine of Cardui cures. Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Wine of Cardui insures freedom from female diseases. At each recurring menstrual period, if care be not taken, slight ailments will appear. Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion start disorders which are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition and render it invulnerable to disease. The medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. Wine of Cardui costs only $1. Test this remedy, which is endorsed by 1,000,000 cured women.

WINE OF CARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899.

I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui.

Four Convicted.

After a trial of three days, four of the negroes were convicted of breaking in the store of Mr. J. C. Gaskins, at Grifton. It will be remembered that this is the case that the negroes were hunted down and located by blood hounds that were trained and sold by Mr. W. C. Hines. The arrest and conviction of the negroes was largely due to the work of the dogs.
