A NARROW ESCAPE.

Boy Saved by a Railroad Hand.

A little son Night Policeman W. H. McGowan narrowly escaped being killed Friday afternoon. The game of base ball between the Washington and Greenville boys was being played at the old ball ground in the Munford field near where the railroad passes. The little boy, who is only about six years old, went out to see the game. The Greenville Light Infantry went out to the same field for drill, and when the soldiers marched up the little boy became frightened and started running towards home, crying as he went. Just as he was crossing the railroad track a hand car came along and only missed running over him by a hair's breadth. The presence of mind of one of the men on the car was all that saved the child. This man taking in the danger at a glance leaned over the front of the car and pushed him off the track just as the car was about to strike him. If he had been a second later the little boy would probably have been killed.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April 20. A SUGGESTION TO FARMERS.

Owing to the extreme scarcity of labor we would advise all farmers to arrange their tobacco rows so every eighth row will be five feet wide, and by so doing you can use a tobacco truck and thus house your tobacco with much less labor and cost. There were some trucks used in certain sections last season for housing tobacco, and we find in every section where the truck was used there will be a great demand for them this season, and orders for several hundred trucks have already been placed and many more will doubtless come in yet. If you will lay out your rows as stated above it will take no extra manure and but little more land, and if you do not use the truck you can tote your tobacco along the wide row much better, and if you are scarce of help you can use a truck. We are going to be headquarters for tobacco trucks of best style. A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

W. T. Lipscomb, of Greenville, was here a short while yesterday.

E. G. Dixon, a machinist from Kinston, who has been here for the past week or ten days working for Moye & Kittrell, left for his home Thursday evening.

R. G. Chapman, of Calico, spent Thursday night here visiting his son, who is a student in the Winterville High School.

R. H. Hunsucker, who has been away visiting relatives near Southern Pines, returned Thursday evening.

Rev. J. K. Faulkner came home from his trip to Ayden, Thursday morning. He will fill his regular appointment here Sunday morning and night.

J. R. Johnson has received his handsome new soda fountain and during the warm season will be pleased to serve his friends and the public with all the nicest cool drinks that can be found anywhere, he says.

W. J. Wyatt left for Raleigh yesterday to spend a few days visiting relatives.

Hon. Johnson Nichols spent

Thursday night here as the guest of J. E. Greene, and on other business.

B. F. Manning & Co., have just received a nice line of shoes which are now open for the inspection and criticism of the public. If you buy you get a bargain, if you don't, why you are out in the cold, that's all.

Henry Hardee, of Norfolk, was seen on our streets yesterday.

J. Luke Jackson left on yesterday's train for Kinston where he will remain until Monday visiting his parents.

During the season, thus far, the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. have sold between 2,000 and 2,500 Cotton Planters. How many we don't know. Will give you amount of their sales at end of season. This beside an immense number of wagons, carts, back bands and cart saddles, has made for them a busy time.

They say "the early bird catches the worm" and we are afraid the farmer who has planted his cotton this early in the season, will catch the beautiful grass. Right many are through planting.

A. G. Cox pays the highest cash price for cotton seed.

How To Help Others.

Did you ever think how many people you could help and bless in a single day, if you would only set yourself deliberately to trying? There are a thousand and one little things, the doing of which would cost you no serious effort, and at the same time prove serviceable to somebody else. The mere habit of speaking a kind word as you pass has great possibilities in it. We have often seen a sad face brighten at the sound of a cherry voice.

There are some men whose very presence is an inspiration. They carry a wholesome atmosphere with them wherever they go. Contact with them, though it be only brief and casual, is a quickening force. And there are other men whose influence is as disheartening as a drizzly day or an East wind. To look at them is to suffer a reduction of intellectual and spiritual vigor.

Another Prisoner Escapes.

Sometime during Friday night a colored prisoner named Jim Wooten, waiting trial for petty larceny, escaped from jail. A hole cut through the brick wall and a blanket suspended from the bars of the second story window told the tale of how the escape was made. A three-cornered file was found near the hole. Wooten was in the second story of the jail and with the file he cut a hole through the wall just beneath the window sill. He then tied a blanket to the window, crawled through the hole and swung himself down to the ground.

New York Methodists do not want women admitted to the conference sessions. "Woman," said Rev. Dr. Buckley at a recent meeting of the Conference, "is unfit to take on legislative functions. I refer you to the awful exhibition made by women of themselves at the last meeting of the Daughters of the Revolution in Washington, and of the dreadful controversy existing between the women of the World's Fair."

SATURDAY APRIL 20, 1901.

The seasons seem to be all out of harmony and you cannot take former records as any precedent about the coming of spring weather. You will just have to wait until it comes, even if it is a long time about it.

In the last few years there have been a number of prisoners to escape from Pitt county jail, enough to convince any one that the jail is not safe. Criminals have found this out, and when they get in jail, they take advantage of it. The jail is so exposed from the outside that any one can go to the windows and talk to the prisoners or give them tools with which to break out. It would be wise if the County Commissioners would have a high wall built around the jail and allow no one to go in to see the prisoners unless accompanied by an officer.

Band Stand.

Nobody is interested in the building of a band stand, if we can judge from the fact that no one has given in his name for a subscription since the last year's list of subscribers was published a few days ago. If the stand is built the Osceola Band will hold its practices on it when summer nights come, and in this way the people of the town can get the benefit of their excellent music. Here is the list published over again. Do you want to add your name?

The anti-gambling act of the late Legislature is creating an excitement in some of our towns, wherein it now appears that there have been regular gambling dens. Heretofore there seems to have been little or no effort made to suppress gambling in many of our towns, but this new law is stirring up the gamblers greatly. The officers of any town, who do not report all gambling that can be discovered, will be liable to severe penalties.—Pittsboro Record.

A measure which has just become a law in New York State makes the funeral expenses of a deceased person payable from his estate before any other debts. Not only is the new law a boon to undertakers, but it may have some effect in encouraging reasonable simplicity of funeral display.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.

Denials having been rendered ridiculous by press dispatches from Manila giving names and details, War Department officials now confess that there have been extensive frauds in the commissary branch of the army in the Philippines, and announce with a flourish of honesty and virtue that an official investigation is now being made with a view to the exposure and punishment of all those who have been guilty of wrong-doing. This announcement would have carried more weight with the disinterested public had it not been accompanied by another saying that the conduct of the investigation had been placed in the hands of Adjutant General Corbin. Gen. Miles is commander of the army, and as such should have directed that investigation, and if the truth and the whole truth, regardless of whose toes might be trod on, had been sought, it would have been allowed to remain in his hands where it properly belonged—he had proven his fearlessness in uncovering fraud in the embalmed beef cases. But if the object of the investigation be to whitewash the guilty officers who have republican political pull, and to make scapegoats of those who have not, the choice of Gen. Corbin to direct it was wise. He has a record of political partisanship never equalled by any holder of a major general's commission in the U. S. Army, and there have been some radical partisans in the army, too, while Gen. Miles has never been a partisan and is suspected of believing in democratic principles. Major George B. Davis, one of the officers said to be implicated in the frauds, is now in Washington on sick leave. He has been connected with the commissary branch of the army for several years, and was regarded as Gen. Egan's right hand man when he was Commissary General. Major Davis was at the War Department this week and was questioned by Commissary General Weston. He denied the charged cabled from Manila that the books of Evans & Co. government contractors shows that sums of money had been paid to him and other officers; also that he had any knowledge of wrong-doing on the part of either officers or contractors and announced his willingness to return to Manila at once and assist in the investigation. He might be able to render valuable assistance in the whitewashing.

Mayor Carter Harrison, of Chicago, whose third election to that office has caused his name to be more or less talked of in connection with national politics, spent the most of this week in Washington quietly resting. Asked the blunt question, whether he had any intention of entering the national political arena, Mr. Harrison, replied; "I am not fooling with national politics. It is enough for me now to attend to my duties in Chicago." When asked what the Illinois legislature was likely to do, Mr. Harrison said: The republicans in that body have done almost nothing outside of a discussion of apportionment bills. They have a quarrel among themselves over the subject, and I should not be surprised if the legislature adjourned without passing any measure for apportionment."

That the Philippines must necessarily be a large and continuous source of expense to the United States has been evident from the day Spain goldbricked us into becoming their owners. A board of naval officers, under orders from Secretary Long, are now engaged in preparing plans for a $5,000,000 naval station, which is to have Every republican President from Grant to McKinley has had dreams of establishing a respectable white republican party in the South, but every effort to make the dream a reality has miserably failed. For that reason Mr. McKinley's effort in that line, in South Carolina, is more amusing than alarming to Southern Democrats. Senator McLaurin, who has been for all practical purposes an administration Senator for several years, although he only actually withdrew from the democratic caucus just before the adjournment of the last session of Congress, is expected to act as Mr. McKinley's assistant in the present attempt to turn the dream into a reality. The first open move was the appointment of John G. Carpers, a gold democrat, to succeed a republican as U. S. District Attorney for S. C. The next is awaited with more or less curiosity.

FOR MOTHERS.

The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering. Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

Clarkson, Ark., July 25, 1899.
After my baby was born I took the whites and falling of the womb, and was in a very dangerous condition. I read one of your home treatment books, and commenced to treat myself with Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I am thankful for what the medicine did for me, and I am now in better health than I have been for a long time.

Change of Captains.

Capt. R. L. Carr recently tendered his resignation as Captain of the Greenville Light Infantry, and Capt J. T. Smith has been elected to succeed him. Capt. Smith was in command of the former company here when it enlisted for the Spanish-American war.

Base Ball.

The Washington and Greenville boys played a game of ball here Friday afternoon and another this morning. The first game was won by Greenville in a score of 12 to 4, and the second was won by Wash-ington in a score of 3 to 2. The second game was a very pretty one. The visitors returned home on the boat today.

Early Closing.

In past years our merchants have, about the first of May, commenced closing their stores early in the evening. Last year, that there might be concerted action in the matter, a list was taken around for the signatures of all who would close early. We have not heard the matter discussed any this season, but as the first of May is drawing near we call attention to it. If any of the merchants think a list should be carried around again for signatures, THE REFLECTOR is at their service to let it be known. It is not worth while to argue the benefit both to merchants and salesmen that closing the stores early in the evening during the summer months would bring.
