Wake Up, Lazy Bones.

Do something; the most important principle in life is a pursuit. Without a pursuit no one can ever be really happy and hold a proper rank in society. The humble wood-sawyer is a better member of society than the fop without brains or employment. Yet many young men of our great cities strive for the distinction awarded to fools. They are content to exist on the products of other hands, and are, in truth, little better than bare-faced rogues. They live on ill-gotten spoils, go on tick, lie and cheat, rather than pursue a calling which would render them useful to themselves and mankind generally. None can be happy without employment, mental or physical. The idler is a fit candidate for the penitentiary or gallows.—Ex.

Be sure you are right and then—be certain that you're true.
You can take a lazy man to task but you can't make him work.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April 24.

The Hunsucker Carriage Co., are arranging their factory so it will be one of the neatest and most convenient factories we know of. While their building is being reconstructed, they offer special bargains on a few buggies, and you had best come at once.

Several of our people attended the closing exercises of Miss Daisy Carman's school, at Tucker's school house, on last Friday night. They report a good time. The exercises were exceptionally fine, scarcely an error could be detected from beginning to end. Several pieces were left out on account of the bad weather. The thoroughness of the pupils prove Miss Daisy to be one of our most competent, teachers, and, with such at the head of our schools Pitt county will be second to none in the State from an educational point of view.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., has added one of the best grist mills to their plant. This makes three mills in their plant and they hope to be very prompt in accommodating their customers.

Mrs. Sarah Dawson, of Littlefield, has been in town several days on business and visiting friends. Miss Bessie Barnhill, of near Grindool, is visiting her sister, Miss Leckie, who is a student here.

Some say it is dull for business, but orders for Hunsucker buggies keep coming right in.

Miss Sudie Smith, of Hanrahan, is here on a visit to her cousins, Misses Sudie Beddard and Dora Cox.

F. M. Dail, of Lizzie, and Josiah Sugg, of Snow Hill, were here Saturday. They carried away with them a nice buggy from the Hunsucker carriage factory.

For cotton seed meal, see A. G. Cox.

A. A. Forbes, of Greenville, was here on a business trip yesterday.

Miss Mollie Bryan, who has been teaching school at Hanrahan, came home last Monday, but left yesterday on the train to visit relatives in Bethel.

J. B. White and J. F. King, of Greenville, stopped a short while yesterday on their way home.

Work on the dormitory for the Winterville High School has commenced. The ground has been prepared, the material for building placed in position and the contractor and workmen will arrive on this morning train. The building will be two stories high with 9 rooms below and 12 above.

An indictment in a case to be tried in Galveston, Texas charges that the defendant entered a church where a religious service was in progress and "did then and there unlawfully and willfully, by loud and vociferous talking and by other noise (to wit, kicking a joint of stovepipe) disturb the congregation."

It's a wise child that doesn't ask questions.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1901.

The papers of the last few days have told of horrible wreck and disaster wrought by the floods and storms. In almost every section of the country these disasters have occurred. Bridges have been wrecked, houses washed away, and in many instances almost entire towns submerged. The destruction to property has been enormous, and even many lives have been a prey of the torrents.

During the past 20 years this State has expended for white schools and school buildings $7,310,764, and for negro schools and school buildings $4,091,139. Then it has expended for the pay of county superintendents and for various other objects common to both races $3,823,564. The total is, therefore, $15,225,668. Yet more, the State has expended $102,000 for negro normal schools, beginning with $2,000 a year while now the amount is $14,000 annually. It must be borne in mind that while negroes pay only 5 per cent of the amount expended as above given they receive 44 per cent the whites 56 per. An official makes the positive statement that nowhere else on earth has one race done so much for another.—Raleigh correspondent Charlotte Observer.

Very properly the clergy in various parts of the country are paying some attention to social card playing. A non sensational preacher in New York the other day astonished his congregation by saying that he knew of some of his lady members who played cards just as gamblers do—with a jack-pot, chips and other "accessories," adding that the habit was formed at social gatherings where prizes were played for. Yesterday Dr. Smith touched on the practice and put his foot down on it, though without any feeling whatever. To "abstain from the very appearance of evil." This is an excellent plan to follow. There may not be any more social card playing in Greensboro than formerly—but we rather think there is—but the papers have been telling on them," and it creates more notoriety, so after all, if it is to be stamped out, looks like the papers—perhaps unintentionally!—have done some measure of good.—Greensboro Record.

The cream of a book is not obtained by skimming. In cooking, as in singing, a great deal depends on the range. A fool can make money, but it takes a wise man to spend it.

Crazy North Carolina Man in Philadelphia.

Thirteen policemen were held at bay for more than four hours yesterday by James L. Harold, the night watchman of Boothby's restaurant, on Vine street, above Eighth, after he had gone insane and shot Robert Pleasants, a colored employe. He was only captured after a desperate battle in a dark room, and Billy Mack, the fat engineer of the establishment, gave a remarkable display of nerve in leading in the capture of the mad desperado.

At the station he said he was Jas. L. Harold, 34 years old, and that he came a year ago from Connoho, Martin county, North Carolina. He is a slim, cadaverous man, with sandy mustache and looks like a typical cracker.

He said that he had left his home because he had shot his brother, John R. Harold, in a quarrel over the estate of his father. He was employed nine months ago at Boothby's. Two weeks ago he began to act strangely and was always on the alert for officers. Up to two weeks ago he had lived at No. 29 North Sixth street.—Philadelphia Record.

The Well Dressed Girl.

White holds first rank this summer, as it did last, for children, young girls and young women, and for older ones also when combined with black.

White lawn graduation gowns this year are trimmed with dainty hemstitched or lace trimmed ruffles upon the skirts, the waists being tucked and hemmed, with embroidered or lace insertion set in.

White and colored wash silk shirt waists made like ordinary cotton ones will be much worn this season.

Wide sashes of soft ribbon ends as belts and ending with long ends coming to the edges of the skirts, are to be used with summer gowns.

Collars are made from two to three inches deep and over foundations that may be bought in all sizes. As a rule the collar is made of the dress material and trimmed as the waist is.

Many of the parasols this season are of striped silk in white colors, and many others are of plain black and dark shades. The sticks are long, and as a rule are less ornate, than they were a year ago.—May Ladies' Home Journal.

Governor Aycock as a Cook.

Friends of Governor Aycock recognize in him a man equal to any emergency but few of them perhaps are aware that to his other accomplishment he adds that of being a good cook. The Fremont Visitor gives this:

We called Sunday afternoon to see Hon. B. F. Aycock, who so ably represented this district in the last Legislature, and were glad to find his condition greatly improved. His brother, Gov. C. B. Aycock, was at his bedside, where he remained for several days. There is nothing formal or foppish about our Governor. When we left the house the Governor had his coat off and was in the kitchen preparing a delicate dish of soup for the sick man, unwilling to intrust so important a matter to less skillful hands. We have long known C. B. Aycock as one of the ablest lawyers in the State, a platform speaker without a peer, and are proud to recognize him as Governor; but we had not known before of his no less honorable accomplishment, if done well, that of cook. All honor to any man who has the heart in him to feel for a brother as this little incident shows Governor Aycock's love for his brother.

To The Point.

Avarice is the result of abundance rather than want.

The wise man makes dollars from the fool's want of sense.

Women often confess little faults for the purpose of hiding big ones.

The man who breaks a promise can easily make another just as good.

Cleanliness may not be next to godliness, but it's a good life preserver.

A man in a position to do good and learn something useful is in his proper place.

A man of few words and many deeds is like a garden of many vegetables and few weeds.

The man who isn't willing to practice what he preaches should give up preaching and go in for politics.

Narrow-minded people are like narrow-necked bottles; the less they have in them the more noise they make in getting it out.

A man who probably speaks by the back says it is far easier to get a mother-in-law in the house than it is to get her out again.—Chicago News.

Twenty-four of the leading bankers professional men and merchants of Richland, Mo., have entered into an agreement to parade in shirt-waists on May 1, when they will march through the principal streets. At night they will give an entertainment and supper to introduce the shirtwaist as a substitute for the "swallow tail" and Tuxedo.

There was a struggle between clouds and sunshine today, with the latter getting a little best of it.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

Fair tonight; Thursday fair, warmer, fresh west to north winds.

A STEP AT THE TIME.

Begin With the Shorter Ones and They Get Longer.

The cold weather did not hold back the grass much.

The Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias is in session at Greensboro.

Regular prayer meeting service in the Methodist church tonight.

Today did not make a great deal of improvement in the weather.

FOR RENT.—One room in the house where I reside.
W. F. HARDING.

Hop Lee, the Chinaman, has closed his laundry here and departed.

The Carolina Cafe served Chocolate ice cream today, and it was excellent.

Prayer meeting in the Baptist church tonight conducted by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale.

Just as sure as summer comes this year the shirt waist is going to be the thing for both sexes.

There are many good things ahead of Greenville if our people rightly use their opportunities.

The highest praise has been given me by those to whom I have sold the Standard Sewing Machine.
S. M. SCHULTZ.

Higgs Bros. have moved their old warehouse near the depot out on Dickinson avenue and are having it enlarged.

We learn from the Ayden Free Will Baptist that Mr. B. S. Sheppard is very ill, and there is little hope of his recovery.

The Christian church prayer meeting will be held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. T. E. Hooker, on Dickinson avenue.

Ayden Lodge I. O. O. F. will have anniversary exercises Friday night, 26th. Dr. D. L. James, of Greenville, will deliver the address.

Hop Lee has left Greenville and turned over a portion of the laundry to J. L. Starkey & Bro. Parties to whom this laundry belongs can get it by presenting ticket. Nothing delivered without ticket.

Attempt to Rob a Bank.

Wincassett, Maine, April 23.—An attempt was made today to rob the First National Bank vaults, and the bank's interior was badly damaged by a heavy explosion which shook the entire town. The robbers fled without booty, leaving their tools behind.

Put in Her Grave Alive.

Richmond, April 22.—Particulars of the most remarkable case of being buried alive have just reached here from Christianburg, Montgomery county, Va. The victim was Mrs. J. H. Vaiden, a young mother who was buried last Sunday week.

The neighbors, being suspicious, the body of Mrs. Vaiden was disinterred. Upon opening the coffin there was incontestable evidence that she had moved after the coffin was closed.

The case developed so many startling phases that Vaiden was arrested and placed in jail without being allowed bail. Much testimony was introduced during the investigation and a large part of it was unfavorable to Vaiden. His own niece made the most damaging case against him. She testified that he was heartless in his treatment of his wife.

Other testimony went to show that Mrs. Vaiden's body was warm when placed in the coffin, and that she was perspiring so much that her clothing was damp. This testimony was convincing to those who heard it that Mrs. Vaiden had been buried alive.

A Fity Million Grab.

New York, April 23.—The Evening World exposes an alleged fifty million dollars grab by which Legislators would hand over New York's entire western river front to the Pennsylvania Railroad for a belt line, tunnels, bridges and viaducts.

They are What You Make Them.

Once upon a time there was said to be a man moving from one section of the country to another. One night while camping near a farm house, the gentleman went out to chat him awhile. The man who was moving said that he was glad to get away from his old neighborhood—that he had the meanest neighbors in the world. His visitor replied, "They will be just that sort where you are going."

Soon, another man from the same neighborhood camped at the same place and had the same visitor. He remarked that he was sorry to leave his old neighborhood, for he had the best neighbors in the world. "You need not trouble yourself about that," said the other, "you will have just as kind neighbors where you are going."

The End of the Century Club.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather there were not many members present at the Book Club on Tuesday evening, but never before were they more delightfully entertained than on this occasion by their charming and attractive hostess, Mrs. Charles O'H. Laughhouse. The meeting was called to order by the president and the usual routine of business transacted.

Mrs. R. W. King read a very interesting essay on "The Famous Women of Greece," among the number were Lydia, Aspasia and Helen of Troy.

After delightful refreshments were served a literary guessing contest was an added intellectual feast. The papers consisted of questions, the answers to which were the names of well known magazines. Mrs. Harry Skinner was the successful contestant.

The Club adjourned to meet with Mrs. R. W. King on May 7th, 3 o'clock p. m.

A suit for damages against the proprietor of Sherry's restaurant has just brought to light the fact that at Sherry's, Delmonico's, the Waldorf and other leading restaurants in New York, though the waiters are paid salaries of only about $30 a month, their earnings are from $350 to $450 in "tips." Those who have "money to burn" have a right to squander it on waiters, but as a result of this tipping nuisance many people are kept away from first-class restaurants who might otherwise afford to dine in them often.—Macon, Ga. Telegraph.

Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhoea, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

WINE OF CARDUI

Townsend, Ga., May 18, 1899.

I have been in bad health with falling of the womb, weak back, nervousness and heart palpitation. At monthly periods I would be in bed suffering great pain. Lately I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and they have brought me wonderful relief. I have no pain, and do not stop work at the monthly period.
