WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May 1,
Now that the season for making cotton planters is over the A. G. Cox Mfg Co., will devote their time to the manufacture of tobacco flues, wagons, carts, back and cart saddles. When in need of any of these articles it will be advantageous to see them before looking elsewhere.

Miss Dora Dawson, of Littlefield, who spent several days here last week visiting, returned home Sunday evening.

The preparation being made by the Hunsucker Carriage Co., in enlarging and refitting their factory and the energy and push displayed by them as well as the first class work turned out can possibly have but one result—success.

Mesdames J. B. Galloway and W. H. Galloway, of Grimesland, spent Saturday here visiting their children, who are students in the Winterville High School.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., will make a specialty of tobacco flues during the season. Their flues will be of the best material and sold as cheap as circumstances will possibly admit.

Miss Mittie Garris, of Ayden, spent Saturday and Sunday with the Misses Wesson.

Miss Mamie Buck after spending several days visiting the family of J. W. Harper returned to her home in Ayden Monday.

Claude Chapman, of Calico, was here a short while yesterday.

Mack Hearne and Jesse Speight passed through yesterday on their way to Ayden.

Mrs. Neta Simmons, of near Dover, came in on Monday's train. She will spend the summer with relatives near here.

G. R. Dixon and little Annie Nelson went down the road Saturday night to spend Sunday with friends and returned Monday.

Miss Mattie Jackson, of Littlefield, spent several days visiting at the home of A. G. Cox during the past week and returned home Monday.

L. L. Kittrell is having a new coat of paint put on his residence.

Mrs. F. O. Cox and Miss Annie Stox went to Greenville yesterday just to see the town.

E. B. McLawhorn, of this place, who has the contract for building the steamboat wharf at Greenville, left for that place yesterday to begin work.

R. H. Hunsucker went to the capital city Tuesday.

Truck Injured By Frost.

Wilmington, April 29.—There was a severe frost along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad this morning, extending down to Wilmington. It was severe enough to kill all tender vegetation. Strawberries are hurt, the blooms being killed. Some of the truck farmers were in town to-day buying seed to re-plant. Frost at this date is remarkable; in fact, it beats all records.

RECEPTION.

Of The King's Daughters.

The reception in the opera house Tuesday night given by the home circles of The Kings Daughters to the delegates and visitors, was a very delightful feature of the convention here. A large number of our people were present to meet the delegates and enjoy occasion. They were entertained for an hour with a musical programme that was of a high order.

The Osceola Band gave several fine selections among them being "The Holy City" which was superbly rendered. All their pieces were heartily applauded. Mr. Eberhardt gave two beautiful cornet solos accompanied by Miss Bruce Forbes on the piano. Mr. Eberhardt and Miss Della Forbes also gave a cornet and violin duet. Mrs. J. B. Cherry and Miss Bruce Forbes sang solos. Mrs. Cherry responded to an encore.

After the music there was mingling together socially while refreshments were served. It was an enjoyable evening.

Albriton-Hardy.

Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the brides father, Mr. Isaac Hardy, Mr. J. C. Albriton and Miss Mary Hardy were married by Rev. H. M. Eure.

Immediately after the ceremony they came to the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. N. E. Anderson, in Greenville, where the wedding supper was served and a reception held.

THE REFLECTOR joins in extending best wishes to them.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1901.

Dr. Parkhurst, the great New York preacher who recently made a trip South and spent some days in North Carolina, talked to his congregation last Sunday about the negro North and South. Here is his version of the difference: "The Southern white man dislikes the negro, and owns up to it, while the white man in the North dislikes the negro, and lies about it." The Doctor seems to have seen enough of the situation to know what he is talking about.

Dr. Parkhurst closed by the following general reference to present condition among Southern people:

"The South does not altogether love us, but no one there hates us nearly as it would be perfectly natural for them to hate us. They are all glad that slavery is done. They are all glad that they are in the Union. They all glory in the flag, even while in tender bereavement they lay flowers upon the graves of the Confederate dead. We belong to them and they belong to us, and every deed of kindness wisely rendered, every word of sympathetic interest prudently spoken, every new commercial relation and every interchange of hospitalities discreetly arranged will be so much contribution to that perfect readjustment of relations which shall make for the enrichment of our common history.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

Delivered by Mrs. A. L. Blow to The King's Daughters.

Delegates, friends and you the loved and honored representative of our mother circle, Mrs. Davis, we, "The King's Daughters" of Greenville, to say that we extend to you our heart-felt greetings; that we welcome you to our town to our homes, to our hearts, would but feebly express our feelings. We are indeed filled with a deep joy and appreciation of the high privilege of coming in touch, of meeting face to face, with most any of our co-workers, members of our Father's household, some of you strangers yet all sisters, with one father, one purpose and one inheritance.

We realize that you are here, not simply to gratify our anticipated joy of having you come, but you wanted to come, for a renewal of our vows of love to God and service to man. That by united prayer and zeal we might accomplish much to hasten the coming of His Kingdom. But more than this you have come because there once dwelt on earth a great unselfish heart, a boundless love, which spent itself on the poor, the humble, the homeless, the out cast, the heart broken and the wanderer. It is in His name and for His sake that you are here. No cause is greater than this, to which we have pledged ourselves, may we not forget to preserve the dignity and magnitude of our high calling.

Let us enter upon the session before us with our hearts filled with Christian charity. May only the best way to do the best work for God and humanity, claim our every thought. Let neither personality or prejudice have any part in our decisions. Let the sunlight of service illumine our faces and with the simplicity and trust of little children open our hearts to be filled with wisdom and inspiration from our Father, that will guide us in all our deliberations, while the earnest silent prayer that ascends from every heart, should be, Lord what would Thou have us do?

And then with joy we realize the wide, wide field for service, the vast comprehensiveness of the work of our order. The importance and emphasis it gives to little things that no act, be it ever so lowly, is ever lost when done "In His Name" and for His sake. The privilege of doing great, conspicuous deeds is limited to a very few, but it is the conscientious care of the little things of our daily tasks which is the outcome of the good. By a faithful discharge of each duty realizing it as a part of the work He assigned us we glorify the commonplace and exact all of life into divine honor and service.

It perhaps seemed only a little thing fifteen years ago to the ten women whose hearts were filled with love for God and their fellow-men to meet together and pledge themselves to reconsecrate their lives more fully to one service of the Master and send out an appeal, to every heart that beat a responsive throb to join them in this work of love. This act—this determination on the part of this little group of women was the foundation of our Mother circle "The Central Council." It was this small gathering that laid the corner stone of our great order of The King's Daughters and Sons. This spirit of service has traversed seas and mountains, to distant continents and islands until now, nearly every nation of the earth are wearers of the silver cross, thus including a great army of thousands and tens of thousands who are willing to testify to the joy of Christian service, and that the Christ life means "Not to be Ministered Unto, but to Minister."

Let each of us have a clear and comprehensive understanding of the principles and essential spirit of our order. We know that its vital meaning is to quicken spiritual life and stimulate Christian activities. That the work first commences in our own hearts, then manifests itself in our daily lives, in our homes, in the church to which we belong, in the community in which we live. It arrogates to itself no creative qualities, it boasts of no new thought, but to engage with renewed zeal in the work already begun.

We know what the silver cross has meant in our own lives as individuals, we know the quickening and blessing that has come through its influence to great religious movements bearing fruit in a hundred forms of philanthropy and auxiliary to nearly every department of the church of God.

But let us not rest on its laurels, which should be only an inspiration for braver deeds, for future conquests, but push onward with ardor born of a deathless love to greater victory to yet untried fields of labor realizing that He has given each of us some talent, some capacity, some opportunity for service "In His Name." May we not spend months and years in aimless longing after gifts with which He did not see fit to endow us, but rather by constant and daily exercise strengthen and develop the one talent that it may bring forth fruit meet for the harvest.

One wide field for helpful service in which each of us can enlist is to be touched with real compassion and tenderness for the misfortunes and adversities of others, not only among our associates and friends, but for the sorrowing, the heart broken of every class of human society—even to the humblest and most degraded. This world my friends is very hungry for Christ like kindness, for the angel of human sympathy. The universal need and yearning for other hearts to be touched by our infirmities is often found among the rich and opulent as well as the poor and oppressed. Then let us not forget

"To comfort one another
For the way is often dreary
And the feet are often weary
And the heart is very sad
There is heavy burden bearing
When it seems that none are caring
And we halt forget that ever we were glad."

"Comfort one another
With the hand clasp close and tender
With the sweetest love can render
And the looks of friendly eyes,
Do not wait with grace unspoken
While life's daily bread is broken
Gentle speech is oft like manna from the skies."

This office of comforter, this helpful ministry, seems peculiarly fitted for us women.

No fine sentiment alone can accomplish this, but to have a heart of real love which will manifest itself towards every one in a spirit of kind thoughtfulness and patient gentleness. That sweet and tender patience we learn beside cradles and dying beds. Thus we women without money or brilliant gift can do much to sweeten the bitter waters of this world's misery.

Now in conclusion I feel that must again welcome you in the name of many of our town who are not wearers of the silver cross, but are co-working with us in our labor of love. They greet you as representatives of an order whose highest ideal is to follow in the steps of the lonely Nazarine. As an order which has stretched forth its hands to the suffering and oppressed in all conditions of human misery. That has found homes for the homeless, hospitals for the diseased and opened kindergartens for the children of the poor.

That has secured the lost and erring, clothed the naked, visited the sick and the prisoner, fed the hungry and given even the cup of cold water "In His Name."

And now may our silent petition be for the Infinite Spirit of love so to fill our hearts that each day will be one more chapter in a life of beautiful service, which will go on, and on giving courage, strength and hope, radiating brightness, joy and peace while illumined by higher perception we repeat with new meaning the words of our hymn:

"May ours be the willing hands
That work to show
Ours be the loving hearts,
That cross to bear
True Daughters of The King
New songs our lips shall sing
Faint hearts and sorrowing,
These are our care.

Lonely be our tasks or grand
Serve we the same
Bring by thine own right hand
Praise from our shame
If but some soul in pain
Look up and smile again
No deed can be in vain
Wrought "In His Name."

A handsome yacht came up from Washington, this afternoon, with a party of young people on a pleasure trip. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. McEwan and Misses Mary Taylor, Sallie Bette Taylor, Helen Moore, Lillian Bonner, Annie Carrow and Melissa Morton.

The Board of Aldermen will meet tomorrow night in regular business session.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. With her whole being undergoing a change, the seeds of female troubles are sown. Little menstrual disorders, if neglected at the time, will follow the woman all her life and grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are robbing homes and filling graveyards, proves this. Yet, irregular and painful menstruation are often permitted to go on, sapping the life and energy, while Wine of Cardui, the positive relief for these ills, is on the shelf of every drug store. Wine of Cardui helps the maiden sustain the shock of puberty by inducing a painless and natural menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui is an emmenagogue of great power, and works wonders in strengthening the delicate and sensitive female organs. Many young women owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. No woman should give up hope until she has given Wine of Cardui a trial. If thousands have secured relief through it, why not you?

WINE OF CARDUI

Tully, N.Y., Feb. 24, 1898.
I have suffered untold pain of menstrual periods for a long time; was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything; in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui with Black-Dracraft when needed and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me.

Early Closing.

To get some concerted action in the matter a list was taken among the merchants of the town to ascertain how many of them would agree to close their stores at 7:30 o'clock p. m. (except Saturday) from May 1st to August 1st. The following signed the list:

E. E. Griffin, Greenville Supply Co., Bicks and Wilkinson, Misses Erwin, C. S. Forbes, W. B. Brown, Pulley & Bowen, Z. V. Johnson & Co., Ormond & Carr, Greene & Brown, J. A. Andrews, A. J. Griffin, Mrs. L. Griffin, J. R. Corey, W. T. Lee & Co., Mrs. M. D. Higgs, Frank Wilson, J. B. Cherry & Co., Baker & Hart, J. B. White, A. H. Taft & Co.

The grocers and druggists are not included in those waited upon. It might also be stated that C. T. Manford is out of town, but his salesmen say he will no doubt close with the others.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

Twelfth Annual Convention.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The convention met at 4 o'clock devotional exercises conducted by Rev. H. M. Bare.

The discussions of the State Secretary's address at the morning session was continued by Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Davis. The latter explained with much feeling the first object of the order, which is the spiritual development of the members.

It was decided to hold a memorial service to Mrs. Sweet Thursday morning.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The convention met at 10 o'clock devotional exercises conducted by Rev. N. M. Watson, prayer by Rev. J. N. Booth.

A feature of the morning session was the excellent paper read Mrs. E. E. Cotten on the power of motherhood to develop spiritual life. Mrs. Davis made a most interesting talk along the same line.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Cotten for her paper.

Several of the circles represented made report of the work they are doing. These were commented upon and commended by Mrs. Davis.

Tonight there will be addresses by Rev. N. M. Watson and by Mrs. Davis.
