TOWN MATTERS.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen had a busy session at their meeting Thursday night and transacted a large amount of work.

The regular order of business was suspended to give a hearing to some gentlemen waiting to bring matters before the Board.

L. I. Moore, President of the Greenville Banking & Trust Company, stated that this bank had started business the first of April, and asked that they not be required to pay the license tax on banks for the entire fiscal year from last July but only for the prorata part of the year that the bank had been in existence. This was granted and the Tax Collector so instructed.

J. L. Fleming appeared before the Board in behalf of E. W. Pace & Co., asking that a license tax be levied on musical slot machines and that they be allowed to operate in the town. A motion was made that the license tax on such machines be $1,000 per week for each machine used in the town. Aldermen Hart, Parker and Tunstall voted for the license and Aldermen White Patrick and Cobb voted against it making a tie vote which Mayor Moye decided by casting his vote for the license.

E. B. Ficklen requested the Board to allow the construction of a railroad side track on the street between his factory and the factory of the American Tobacco Co., so that cars can reach his factory. The matter was referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

The Finance Committee reported $3,027.33 in the treasury.

The Street Committee made report of the work done in their department during the past month, as did also the Lights and Wells Committee.

The Market House Committee reported the market in good condition.

The White Cemetery Committee reported the cemetery in good condition.

RESOLUTIONS.

Adopted by the Pitt county Medical Society at their annual meeting held in Greenville on Monday April 2 1901:

It is painful to realize that the insatiate Archer, Death, invaded our ranks on the 18th day of December last and took from among us Dr. Charles James O'Hagan, one venerable in years and faithful service, and for so long a time an honor and ornament to our noble profession. Having chosen medicine for his life work in early manhood he zealously devoted himself to its study and practice, which in due season brought him signal success and distinction and gave him a fixed place in the respect and confidence of his fellow-men. He gained a professional eminence and reputation that we may well consider with pride and profit. It may be true that in most cases "oblivion treads quickly upon the heels of death;" but in the departure of this distinguished physician and honorable man, possessed of qualities and virtues above and beyond the ordinary, his name will be spoken and praised through many future years and the recollections of his useful life be fondly treasured in memory's precious casket. His native powers, strengthened and enriched by culture and learning, his versatile talents, his sense of humor and sparkling wit, gave him an attractive and interesting personality and won him friends and admirers in any circle or company. He lived to an honorable old age when the light of his life which had shone with clearness throughout a long career, suddenly flickered and faded away, and he was gathered to his final home "like a shock of corn cometh in his season."

We your committee selected to submit this brief testimonial in respect to his memory, cannot overlook the profound sorrow which filled so many hearts at the announcement of his death, and bowing in humble submission to the Divine Will that called our venerable and distinguished brother hence, we can never fail to cherish the value and usefulness of his life on earth.

Resolved, That in the death of Dr. C. J. O'Hagan the medical profession has lost one of its ablest and most distinguished members, whose wisdom and skill, training and experience, gave him an exalted rank wherever known.

Resolved, That in addition to his professional merits and reputation, as an individual and citizen his loss is keenly felt by a large circle of friends and acquaintances who appreciated the high order of his abilities, his scholarly attainments, his inborn honesty, his social traits; his true generosity and unflinching kindnesses.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that copies be also furnished our home papers with the request to publish the same.

W. H. BAGWELL,
B. T. COX,
E. A. MOYE, JR. } Committee.

Fourth Ward—Registrar W. L. Brown. Judges of Election J. G. Bowling and T. E. Hooker. Voting place Five Points.

Fifth Ward—Registrar J. C. Lanier. Judges of Election H. C. Ormond and R. A. Tyson. Voting place Farmers' Warehouse.

FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1901.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

How the System is Growing.

Mr. Wm. A. Barr, the special agent of the postal service who is here looking into the rural free delivery routes proposed for Pitt county gives THE REFLECTOR some interesting information regarding the service.

The first appropriation ($10,000) was made by Congress in 1895, to test the system as an experiment. It proved such a success and became so popular that the appropriation has at present increased to $1,750,000 and for the fiscal year beginning July 1st, 1901, it is $3,500,000. About 4,000 routes are now in operation in the United States serving about 3,000,000 people and there are fully 10,000 applications for additional routes now on file with the Postoffice Department.

The carriers are appointed by the Postoffice Department at a salary of $500 a year and are under bond for $1,000. Appointments are for no specified time, but during good behavior and satisfactory attention to duty. The carriers sell postage stamps, stamped envelopes, postal cards and newspaper wrappers, and register letters and receive applications for money orders. They are also allowed to act as agents for newspapers, magazines and other legitimate publications, and to carry passengers and unmailable packages the contents of which are legitimate.

Four routes will be laid out with Greenville as the delivery point, each carrier making a daily collection and delivery, Sunday excepted. The patrons of each route will be required to select one of fourteen standard boxes, but not more than one pattern of box is allowed on a route. The boxes range in price from $1 to $3.50, and are built of substantial metal that will last a lifetime.

Route No. 1 as laid out will be as follows. From Greenville along the river road to R. J. Little's gun house, thence to Smith's school house, thence along the Stantonsburg road to Joyner's store, thence to T. A. Nichols' corner, thence to W. A. Pollard's new store, thence to Standard postoffice (Baliards X Roads), thence along the old plank road to Greenville. Distance of route 22 1/2 miles.

Mr. Barr is going over other routes today and will give them to us for publication latter.

The rural delivery service is secured for Pitt county through the efforts of Congressman John H. Small.

The Southern Express Company handled 425 crates of strawberries Wednesday along the Coast Line. —Wilmington Messenger.

A citizen of Owosso, Mich., recently complained to City Assessor Laverock that his property was assessed at an extravagantly high figure. He declared that if Mr. Laverock could sell the property at the valuation named the latter could have a commission of two per cent. In less than two hours the City Assessor had sold a fine residence and two business blocks which belonged to the dissatisfied citizen, who thereupon tried to back out of the agreement. Mr. Laverock declares that he will have his commission, which amounts to $400, if he shall have to sue for it.

Meet Tonight.

All members of Patient Circle of The King's Daughters are requested to meet with Mrs. Davis at 8 o'clock this evening at the home of Mrs. J. B. Cherry. All parties wishing to join the order will also be welcomed.

"Ads" Create Wants.

The newspaper advertisements of an establishment not only attract customers who might otherwise go elsewhere, but they create wants. Persons who have never used a particular article are often induced to purchase it by seeing it well advertised. The importance of newspaper advertising in stimulating sales and manufactures has never been fully appreciated, but it is undeniably great.—Philadelphia Record.

Silence may be brought; consequently silence is gold.

It's the rough edges of the world that sharpen a man's wits.

No, Maude, dear; it isn't necessary to have a green deck of cards for a Pat hand.

Lots of people who talk about getting their reward in heaven will be disappointed.

The problem of how to live on $10 a week isn't so difficult as the problem of how to get the ten.

LIST YOUR TAXES.

Notice is hereby given that I will attend at the court House during the month of June for the purpose of listing the taxes for town of Greenville for the year 1901. All persons liable for tax will come forward and list, or they will be indicted for a misdemeanor. May 1st 1901.

FOR RENT.—One room in the house where I reside.

W. F. HARDING.

The highest praise has been given me by those to whom I have sold the Standard Sewing Machine. S. M. SCHULTZ.

There is hardly a likelihood that any musical slot machines will be operated in Greenville. A license tax of $1,000 a week is a little bit more "music" than they can play to.

SPRING TIME HAS COME AT LAST.—And with it the flies and mosquitoes. They are very annoying and should be kept out of the house, especially kitchen, diningroom, nursery, and sitting-room. Wire doors and windows will do it. See Hodges & Johnston, or Ormond & Carr and place your order. First come, first served. Our time in this business is limited, so delay not to make your wives and children comfortable during the long hot days before us. Wire doors and windows will do it.

MERIT WILL TELL. This is shown by the steady increase in my business. I make shipments to the Wilmington Steam Laundry every Wednesday morning and return Saturday night. Best work guaranteed. I have this day bought out the laundry that was left on hand in the Chinese laundry. All persons having laundry with them will call on me within the next 15 days, otherwise it will be sold for charges. Terms cash.

FRANK E. SKINNER, Agt. This April 26, 1901.

Greensboro Congregation Annoyed.

The board of Alberman of Greensboro has passed an ordinance prohibiting loitering in front of churches. This is done to break the young men of that town of the habit of standing in front of the churches and making "goo goo" eyes at the college girls when they come out of church. The habit is regarded as impolite in Greensboro. Hereafter any young man found loitering in front of a church in that town will be fined $5. Rather expensive gaze for the boys. —Wilmington Dispatch.

The statement is officially sent out from Washington that there will be forty-two beet sugar plants put in operation in this country next fall.

Train Robbers Sentenced.

Macon, Ga., May 1.—O. W. Chesnutt, of Jacksonville, and "Cliff" Jordan, of Macon, charged with robbing an express car on the Central of Georgia railroad, pleaded guilty today and were sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. The robbery occurred last Thursday night.

The young folks nowadays miss a great pleasure in not celebrating the first day of May, as their ancestors used to do. Our older readers can remember what a delightful occasion the first of May used to be, and with what great pleasure they danced around the May pole and crowned the "Queen of May." It was an old custom brought from "Merrie England" that we regret has not been continued.—Pittsboro Record.

Dwelling Burned.

The old Jesse Stancill residence owned by W. A. Williams, near Conetoe, was burned Tuesday. It caught from a fire in the yard about 30 yards or more distant where clothes were being washed. A whirlwind passed along and carried the fire to the building and fanned it into flames so that it burned to the ground despite the efforts to put it out. The loss is estimated at $1000, and is a serious one to Mr. Williams.—Tarboro Southerner.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

Twelfth Annual Convention.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Convention called to order at 4 o'clock.

The following officers were announced elected for the nex year:

State Secretary, Mrs. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Henderson.

Executive Committee, Mrs. Henry Perry, Henderson; Mrs. Jos. Blake, of Raleigh; Mrs. Hamlin Smith, Raleigh; Mrs. J. B. Cherry, Greenville; Mrs. N. M. Watson, Chapel Hill.

Raleigh was chosen as the next place of meeting.

An interesting memorial service was held to Mrs. J. M. Sweet, who was for three years State Secretary of the convention.

Thursday night a consecration service was held. An address was delivered by Rev. F. H. Harding on Christian service, and Mrs. Davis followed with a talk on Discipleship. This service was one of much spirituality and earnestness and will be long remembered.

Greenville was glad to have The King's Daughters meet here and our people derived much pleasure and benefit from the services.
