WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May 4, The Hunsucker Carriage Co. received an order from another State last Wednesday night for a car load of buggies. We are free to admit when this firm first began business here we were somewhat dubious as to its success. By applying themselves strictly to business principles and adhering closely to honesty and truth at the same time constructing their buggies of the very best material, employing only the most skilled labor, their attainment in meeting the public favor has been most wonderful. Every day almost shipments are made from their mammoth factory and we bespeak the not far distant day when they will rank as one of the largest concerns of its kind in our fair sunny Southland.

The employers and employees of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. were highly in hopes after the cotton planter making season was over that they might have a little resting spell. But there seems to be no "rest for weary." We can discern no abatement to the stream of orders constantly coming in from every source for the various kinds of articles they manufacture and to say the gentlemen composing this firm are much elated over the prospects of the present and the future is only to utter a most profound truth.

Claud Cox, while on his way home from Greenville yesterday, was kicked by a mule he was driving. Mr. Cox's underlip was cut badly and several teeth were knocked out. It is indeed fortunate that his injuries were not more serious.

Charles Harper, of Black Jack, spent Monday night with his son, J. W. Harper. Miss Sue Harper, his sister, who has been living here quite a long while returned home with him Tuesday morning to remain several months.

Miss Bessie Chapman, of Calico, an old pupil of our school, accompanied by John Lancaster, came up to see her brother, Simeon, who is attending school here.

Miss Annie Speight, of Renston, spent the day here yesterday visiting Miss Mollie Bryan.

B. F. Manning and W. B. Wingate attended the reunion of the old soldiers at Washington yesterday. They haven't got back yet! It's hardly expected you know!

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cory, of near here, died yesterday. It will be buried in the family burial ground tomorrow.

Cousin Bob Little went to Greenville Wednesday. What for? We don't know.

Miss Effie Smith, of near Greenville, who has been visiting Misses Effie and Hattie Kittrell for several days, returned home on this morning's train.

James Allen Mills, of Black Jack, one of our good old time farmers was here Friday and the good old hams and shoulders he sold to B. F., was a caution to ye Western pork buyers. And he got the solid cash, too, and in his smoke house at home he has plenty more. Such as he never asks for Mrs. C. A. Fair has been rushed almost to death for the past four weeks and says her sales in hats, insertions, silks, notions, &c., have gone far beyond her expectations. She also says she has a fine line of up-to-date walking hats and baby caps that she will sell cheaper than they can be bought in the county. Give her a call and be convinced.

Base Ball.

Friday's ball games in the Virginia and Carolina League give Raleigh the lead in the standing of the clubs. Wilmington and Norfolk were the only teams that could play, the score being Wilmington 3, Norfolk 1. Rain prevented the other games.

An elaborate program has been arranged for that occasions and very handsome invitations sent out. THE REFLECTOR acknowledges receipt of one.

People who think that Americans are money grabbers do not realize the thousands of pitiful catch pennies that are the universal rule abroad. WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.

Well, the Hanna banner has been raised, and the Hanna boom for the republican nomination for President in 1904, is on the road. It will strike many as having been very fittingly started in London, from whence Hanna's two administrations as brevet-President has been so strongly endorsed. Senator Hanna was in Washington when Perry Heath's London interview launching the boom was published. He denies being a candidate for President, but he does it so jovially that everybody can see that he is tickled almost to death with the idea. No one who knows the relations between Perry Heath and Hanna and those between Hanna and Mr. McKinley will believe that the Heath interview was a surprise to either of other two men, and there is little doubt that the full power of the administration, through the army of Federal office holders, will be exercised to push the Hanna boom along and make his nomination possible, unless the republican press attacks it so viciously that its impracticability will be made plain. That is what democrats fear. No democrat has been found since the boom was started, who does not sincerely hope that Hanna will get the nomination. Democrats wish him to get it, not only because they think he would be easy to beat but because they would enjoy beating him more than any other man that could possibly be nominated. The Heath interview is in reality a feeler the republican pulse, especially of the editorial pulse. So that it depends on how it is received by the republican editors whether the Hanna boom will be withdrawn or pushed.

Trade has not, to a satisfactory extent, followed our flag into the Philippines, if boots and shoes may be considered fairly representative of other articles of commerce. Although it is a fact generally admitted, both at home and abroad, that American shoes are the best and cheapest in the world, an official statement from the War Department shows that both Spain and Germany sold many more boots and shoes in the Philippines last year than the United States—the exact figures being Spain, $74,183; Germany $50,241, the U. S. $7,832. Mr. McKinley's contention is that we took and intend to keep the Philippines solely for commercial reasons. In view of the tremendous amount of cash we have put and are putting into the Philippines it would seem that our trade ought to make a better showing than it does in boots and shoes to leave Mr. McKinley's contention any standing at all.

The statement has been very positively made in Washington this week by those who are believed to speak for the administration that Minister Conger will not be allowed to return to China, and that his resignation will be accepted at the expiration of his present leave of absence. It is said that the administration regards his published interviews on matters pertaining to China and the articles published over his signature as decidedly undiplomatic, and that no longer has the support of the administration in his effort to get the republican nomination for governor of Iowa. Men who have been disposed to be friendly to Conger are thoroughly disgusted with his throwing bouquets at the Chinese Minister to the U. S., who did more than any other man to discredit Conger's reports from Pekin in the early days of the Chinese negotiations.

Fraternal Revivals.

The recent gatherings of membership to the fraternal organizations of Greenville is almost equal to a revival. The odd Fellows are having applications faster than they can be initiated without holding frequent special meetings for degree work. The Masons and Knights of Pythias are also receiving new members at every meeting. No town the size of this can show better working orders than Greenville.

Could anything be more pitiful than the attempt of a Christian Science mother in Nebraska to raise from the dead her three children who had lain in their graves for years? This poor deluded creature, stretching her hands forth and calling upon her little ones to come to her, had to be removed from the cemetery by force and conveyed to a hospital for the insane. There may be no legal responsibility attaching to the promotion of beliefs so contrary to invariable and irrepealable natural laws and to such unhappy incidents, but there is a terrible moral responsibility. The persons who pursue faith cure healing as a money making business cannot be deemed blameless.—Philadelphia Record.

What a Wonderful Discovery is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer! It not only cures the ills of the human family, but is also the sure remedy for horses and cattle. It has never been known to fail in a cure of the worst cases of colic and for sprains, galls, etc., it never fails—try it once. Directions accompany each bottle. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer. Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Going!
Going!
Gone!!

Going!

to advertise sometime in the future will not bring business to you today.

Going!!

to wait until times get better means the missing of many dollars that would come to you now for the asking.

Gone!!!

will be your opportunities if you neglect this important matter and let your more enterprising competitor get ahead of you and stay ahead. Don't wait.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.

Happy old age

Many women who have enjoyed good health all their life begin to fade when they reach the age of forty-four. They grow nervous and irritable and suffer with sick-headaches. Their livers are torpid, their digestion is impaired and their bowels are irregular. They are experiencing the "change of life." And it is not strange that the cessation of the menstrual habit after thirty years operation should disturb the system and tax the strongest constitution. This trying period has no terror for a woman who uses Wine of Cardui. It builds up her strength and prepares her for the ordeal. When the change of life is not safely passed, a woman quickly becomes an invalid. Slumbering disease germs are given increased activity and they appear in aggravated form. If you take Wine of Cardui regularly when approaching the change of life you will be assured better health than you have ever enjoyed before. A happy old age and restful calm will be your reward. Mrs. Campbell was cured after suffering three years with "change of life." Theford's Black-Draught, the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui, assimilates with it perfectly, curing digestive, liver and kidney affections, and throwing impurities and disease germs out of the system. Both working together make a well and happy woman.

WINE OF CARDUI

Youngs, Laurens Co., S. C., Sept. 22, 1898.

I have recommended your Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught to be. I have been suffering three years with the "change of life," and I did not get anything that would do me any good until I tried your medicines. I give thanks to Wine of Cardui and you, for it relieved me. Mrs. D. H. CAMPBELL.
