Don't Even Support Themselves.

There are 15,000 people in Burke outside of Morganton, 2,000 in town; yet the 15,000 in the county don't feed the 1,000 in town. They don't feed themselves. The Herald finds men in Morganton eating beans from McDowell, potatoes from Catawba, butter from Pennsylvania, corn from the West, meat from Chicago and St. Louis. They are feeding their stock on hay fetched from Richmond. Add to this the heavy drain for our clothing, and the wonder is that Burke is not in one big poor house. At a conservative estimate, more than a half million dollars goes out of Burke count every year in clean cash for things that ought to be raised on the rich bottoms of the Catawba, John's, Linville, Lower Creek and other streams, not to speak of our fertile uplands. All this vast amount of money should be kept at home. The salvation of our country is in its farms. The wholesale destruction of our timber is only a tub to the whale, and will leave us poorer in the end. There is nothing—worse than nothing in tan bark. Some time ago a farmer in the county, cut a magnificent shade tree worth $100 to his place, and got $6 for the bark. There is a little profit in cutting and hauling wood, and too often it is done at the neglect of the farm. All this must end some time, and leave our children poorer than we are.—Morganton Herald.

A General Nuisance and How to Stop It.

The board of aldermen of Greensboro have passed an ordinance imposing a fine of $5 for loitering in front of church doors in that town. This is intended to reach the young sports who hang around to stare at the girls.

The churches of this city need similar protection. It is very annoying for ladies, with or without escorts to pass through this "masculine gauntlet" and it is a nuisance and it should be stopped. There is hardly a church in any town in the State but is called upon to endure this imposition. No gentleman would give offense to a lady. Where they persist in so doing by congregating at the church doors, the example of the Greensboro aldermen should be followed and there is no reason to doubt its effectiveness in stopping this nuisance.—Winston Republican.

Graded School Carried.

At the time THE REFLECTOR went to press the election had progressed far enough to show that the graded school had been carried. There were 258 voters registered in the district. Up to 4 o'clock 155 had voted, 142 being for school and 13 against school. There may be many others to vote before the polls close who will increase the majority for school. All who do not vote at all will be counted against school, but a majority over all has been cast for school.

THE REFLECTOR is gratified at the result of the graded school election, and we are glad that, notwithstanding the opposition and objection raised, a good majority has voted for the school. The people feel the need of a good school and they voted for the measure.

A Newspaper's Assets.

A newspaper is primarily a business enterprise, says the Fresno (Cal.) Republican. Its function is to gather and print news, and sell it to whomsoever will buy. Yet a newspaper is universally regarded as having a responsibility in the community that belongs to no other business, when other business men are non-committal on a public question, for fear it will hurt their business to take sides, the newspaper—whose business is more responsive to the fluctuations of popularity than any other enterprise—must nevertheless take the first and largest responsibility of utterance upon itself. If other business men do not keep their goods clean they lose custom, but do not particularly harm anybody but themselves. If a newspaper does not keep its news clean it gains business, but corrupts the community, and is held responsible therefore. Whether the public takes its newspaper seriously or lightly, it always regards them as more than a business, as a forum whose opportunity for publicity may be used for good or evil.

Mrs. Harris, of Atlanta, celebrated her 83rd birthday by laying aside her spectacles, which she had used for forty years, on the discovery that she could see without them as well as she ever did in her life, and better than she could with the specks.—Wilmington Star.

The best time to do a thing is when you first think of it.

Every man thinks there is an opening anywhere for any business.

One of the papers of the State in its enthusiasm for public schools has appealed to the teachers to teach one month this summer free of charge in order to lengthen the school term. This proposition, it is stated, has met the approval of the State Superintendent of schools. The Mount Olive Advertiser in referring to this matter makes the point that if the State Superintendent really endorses the proposition he should set the ball rolling by giving the amount of his salary for one month to the public schools. The point is well taken. The public school teachers of North Carolina are the poorest paid labor in the State, and to ask them to teach a month without receiving a cent for the service is the most unreasonable proposition we have heard for some time. For students and others who expect to become teachers but have never had any actual experience we think the proposition a good one, as the experience they would get would be of great value to them; but for those who make teaching a profession the proposition is very unreasonable. Let those who advocate this show their sincerity and good faith by giving a month's salary to the cause.—Rich Square Times.

The Business Union of America, West Indies, and Canada will be in session at Concord, N. C., from July 4 to July 7, as an international and industrial association. This is an organization of colored men having representatives in the Northern as well as the Southern States. The gathering will discuss the best methods to encourage and maintain industry, thrift, and morality among the negroes.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20.

Notwithstanding the failure of the experiment of placing the Federal patronage of the state of South Carolina, at the disposal of Senator McLaurin, with the hope of building up a white administration party in that state, there are reasons for the belief that the experiment is to be extended to other Southern States. In fact, it is known that men, who have formerly been active in the Democratic party in several other Southern states, have been sounded to ascertain whether they would be willing to assume the role that McLaurin is playing in South Carolina in their respective states. The responses have not, so far, been satisfactory, but the sounding is still going on, and men will doubtless be found; but outside of administration circles, nobody really expects any serious inroads to be made upon Southern democracy, by these experiments, but they will result in one thing that will be satisfactory to the white people of the South, and that will be the abolition of the "nigger" Federal officials.

Evidently some of the men who have grown rich by putting the screws on the United States government, when they had advanced knowledge of the intention of the government to buy something, have been giving the owners of the land in the vicinity of Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, where a naval station of the first class is to be established, some pointers. The naval board which considered the location of the station on Pearl Harbor has been ordered to resume its sittings in Washington, to consider a communication from Capt. J. F. Merry, Commander of the naval Coaling Station at Honolulu. Capt. Merry has informed the Naval Department that the price of land around Pearly Harbor has been raised to such an extent that the $150,000, appropriated by Congress, as the limit to be paid for the site, will not buy the land originally chosen, and that some changes will have to be made in the plans.

The latest officials to discover that an extensive European trip, at public expense, was a necessary part of his official duties, is Mr. O. P. Austin, the Hanna-made statistician of the U. S. Treasury. He says he is going to study the statistics of European governments, but everybody knows that he can only get access to the published statistics, and that they could be had in Washington as easily as in the countries that publish them.

Nearly all of the prominent officials in Washington, attended the funeral of Mrs. Gage, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, which was held this morning at Secretary Gage's house. The remains were taken to Chicago.

Wonderful Beauty of the Completed Work.

Color, Sculpture, Electricity, Fountains, Flowers and Festive Architecture—The Most Beautiful Exposition Ever Created—A Triumph of Artistic Endeavor—A Mammoth Show in Which the Practical Side is as Well Cared For as the Artistic Features.

BUFFALO, May 20.—The dedication of the Pan-American Exposition today was performed in a manner befitting the great occasion, a large attendance testifying to the widespread interest in the mammoth enterprise. Fully 300,000 people were on hand to take part DIRECTOR GENERAL WILLIAM I. BUCHANAN. In the grand event. The day was made a civic holiday, and there was a general outpouring of people from cities and towns within 200 miles of Buffalo, both in the United States and Canada, by way of the 20 or more great lines of railway which center in this city. The city was astir at an early hour to witness or participate in the programme. Mr. Louis L. Babcock was chief marshal, and the programme consisted of parades, ceremonies in the Temple of Music and special outdoor features. There were two separate and distinct parades—an Exposition parade and a concessionaires' parade, leaving the City Hall at 10 a. m.

The Exposition parade consisted of the United States troops in this city, the Mexican National Band, a detachment of all arms of the Mexican army and other foreign troops in the city, the Fourth Brigade, N. G. S. N. Y., all under the command of General S. M. Welch, escorting carriages containing the Exposition officials and their specially invited guests.

The parade of the concessionaires was participated in by all the concessionaires. It was accompanied by 15 bands and was two miles in length, showing the wonderful features and interesting people of the Midway.

The ceremonies at the grounds consisted, first, of a grand flight of carrier pigeons freed on the Esplanade and conveying the news of the dedication of the Exposition to the world. The invited guests then proceeded to the Temple of Music, where the following programme was carried out under the direction of the Hon. John G. Milburn, president of the Pan-American Exposition:

Music by the Seventy-first Regiment Band, under the direction of Professor Fandull.

Opening prayer by the Right Rev. C. H. Fowler, bishop of the M. E. church.

Address by his honor Conrad Diehl, mayor of the city of Buffalo.

Poem written for the occasion by Robert Cameron Rogers.

"Salve Libertas," Sturm, by Buffalo Orpheus and Orchestra, John Lund conductor.

Address by the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, vice president of the United States.

Music.

Address by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts.

Poem written for the occasion by Frederic Almy.

Address by the Hon. Timothy L. Woodruff, lieutenant governor of the State of New York.

"America," by band, Orpheus and audience.

kites with flags and a tandem of yacht or ship kites.

At the close of the ceremonies in the Temple of Music there was a great display of day fireworks, including a grand salute of 125 aerial guns fired from steel mortars, the ascent of 27 large 12 foot gas balloons, each lettered with the name of one of the Pan-American countries and carrying the flag of the country; salute to the states, 46 mammoth cannon report rockets, one for each state of the Union, fired simultaneously; magnificent display of Japanese daylight fireworks, released in midair from Japanese bombs; oriental kite display, exhibiting 150 kites, from which will be displayed Pan-American flags and the New York State flag; daylight bomb cloud shells, setting free American and Pan-American flags, with souvenirs of the dedication day; simultaneous discharge of 1,000 small gas balloons, sent up in triplets, each bearing a souvenir of the dedication day; grand American salute, consisting of 500 large gun cotton rockets.

The completed Exposition is a distinct triumph in countless ways. Never before has there been such an effort put forth to produce rich decorative effects. These are to be seen in the symmetrical arrangement of the buildings around spacious courts, the glow of color upon all the buildings, the play of fountains and cascades, the profusion of blossoming flowers, the generous use of intricate molded ornaments upon the buildings, the great number of sculptured groups by famous American sculptors and at night the softly diffused yet brilliant lighting effects produced by means of more than 300,000 incandescent electric lamps upon buildings and throughout the grounds.

The grounds of the Exposition comprise some 350 acres, very accessible by steam and electric lines from all parts of Buffalo. When it is recalled that it was only the 4th day of last June that the first piece of timber was raised aloft as the beginning of what is now a magnificent Exposition city, one can but marvel at the executive force which has brought this work to its present state of completeness.

The cost of the Exposition as it now appears is approximately $10,000,000, exclusive of exhibits. Of this sum the Midway represents an expenditure of about $3,000,000. Nothing seems to have been forgotten in perfecting the plan, and there is every convenience for the visitor and an abundance for him to examine and enjoy. The admission price is the same as usual at exhibitions, half a dollar, but it entitles one to a full day at the most beautiful festival of the kind that has ever been brought into existence. No pen will be so presumptuous as to attempt to describe the architectural and color beauty of the Pan-American Exposition. It is a magnificent, an extravagant, dream brought to a harmonious and beautiful realization. The triumph of the architect, the colorist, the landscape architect, the sculptor and the electrician is complete.

There are about 150 buildings in the Exposition plot, of all sizes and descriptions, and an abundance for every one to see, no matter how long his stay is to remain. The most novel exhibits perhaps are to be found in the Electricity building, for in that particular science world been made within the last few years. Notably among these is the transformer plant, where 5,000 horsepower is received from Niagara Falls by cable at a pressure of 11,000 volts and stepped down to 1,800 volts. This power is used for lighting the vast Exposition area. A daylight brilliancy will pervade the Exposition until 11 o'clock each night. The exhibit of Street Railway appliances is also of a very complete and interesting character. The exhibit made by Thomas A. Edison, showing the development of many of his important inventions, constitutes another attractive feature. Demonstrations are to be made of Wireless Telegraphy and the X Rays. In the center of the Machinery and Transportation building is a working exhibit of a large number of Pumping Engines. These supply the water for the various fountain features of the Exposition. Among these water displays is a cascade in the southern face of the Electric Tower, from which there is a flow of 35,000 gallons of water per minute, making a beautiful veil-like cataract 70 feet high. Upon this cataract electric lights of many colors will be thrown from an invisible source, producing an enchanting picture.

One of the most imposing buildings of the Exposition is the great Stadium. This is more than 60 feet high and is so large as to inclose a quarter mile track. The seats are arranged in the form of a vast amphitheater, and the capacity is sufficient for 12,000 spectators. This is to be the scene of very interesting events daily throughout the Exposition.

The Midway is said to be the greatest that has ever been organized for any exposition. The Midway proper is 3,000 feet long, thus giving more than a mile of frontage upon this singular thoroughfare. There are about 40 shows, every one of them possessing special merit and selected from a large number offered. There has been great rivalry among show people to secure space upon the Midway, and it has been allotted with great care and with the positive assurance that every feature would be of a character to command popular interest.

It may be said of the whole Exposition that in every department it is a complete yet complete presentation of Twentieth Century civilization of the Western World.

Cheating Self by Poor Work.

It is not a question of cheating an employer; it is a question of cheating yourself when you do poor work. The employer is not injured half as much as you are by half done work. It may be a loss of a few dollars to him, but to you it is loss of character and self respect, loss of manhood or womanhood.—Success.

A young man of Bloomdale, Ohio, got himself into trouble by an over-partiality for red hair. When he met a red haired girl he could not resist the temptation to swipesome of that hair. But he went into another town where they did not know of his hankering for that kind of hair, yanked some from the locks of a young woman he met, and got himself into the calaboose.—Wilmington Star.

Card of Thanks.

I take this method of returning my heartfelt thanks to the people of Greenville for their many acts of kindness during the recent sickness and death of my wife. There was such kindness and sympathy shown I feel this public acknowledgement and expression of appreciation is due them.

T. L. HANCOCK.

The South Most Favorable for Investment.

No section of the country today offers better inducements to capital than the new South, with its fertile lands and vast mineral resources of coal and iron and oil. Wonderful progress has been made in its development in the last ten years, but the limit of its capacity for production can only be guessed at from what is now known of its material wealth.—Philadelphia North American.

Education and Success.

We are amazed at the statement made by Prof. M. C. S. Noble, of the University, in delivering the diplomas to the members of the graduating class of the graded school at this city last Friday night that out of every 10,000 men who do not go to college one rises or attains reputation, while out of every 40 college men one man achieves success. This indicates, said the speaker, that the college man is 250 times better off than the man who has not received a college education. The figures are eloquent, and as Prof. Noble is careful in his statements we may not doubt their substantial accuracy. They should stimulate every boy to get an education if possible, and every father to exert every means in his power, including the exercises of self-denial, to educate his sons if they will consent to be educated. The failure of a professional man, in particular, to have enjoyed the benefits of an education at college is well nigh deadly, and to a man in any of the higher vocations of life it is a fearful handicap. This is increasingly the case as population increases, civilization advances and competition grows sharper. It is trite to say that a young man can begin life with no capital so certain to stay with him and to be so useful to him as a finished education, but it is eminently true, and the older the world grows the more emphatic becomes the truth.—Charlotte Observer.

Now that tax listing time is about to begin a number of our exchanges are calling attention to the fact that it is well for persons who own notes, bonds, mortgages or other solvent credits, as these are commonly called, to know that if such solvent credits are not listed for taxation they are not "recoverable by action at law or suit in equity before any of the courts in this State until they have been listed and the taxes paid thereon."

Some people are proud of the fact that they are not proud.

Going!

to advertise sometime in the future will not bring business to you today.

Going!!

to wait until times get better means the missing of many dollars that would come to you now for the asking.

Gone!!!

will be your opportunities if you neglect this important matter and let your more enterprising competitor get ahead of you and stay ahead. Don't wait.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
