WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May 25.
The closing exercises of the Winterville High School passed off as pleasantly and successfully as could be desired. Every feature was a success. The sermon of Rev. Mr. Jenkins on Thursday night was specially adapted to the occasion and displayed much though worthy of consideration. The address of Mr. Simms is commended by every one and left an impression upon the minds of all who heard him that will prove both beneficial and lasting. The exercises by the children showed much care and painstaking on the part of their teachers. Indeed the whole was a complete success and the prospects for the coming session are bright indeed.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the school all the teachers employed during the past session were engaged for the next term and it was decided to add two more to the faculty. The enrollment for the term was 152, of whom 39 were boarding pupils. This is gratifying for the first session. The new dormitory will be completed before the opening of the next session so that many more pupils can be accommodated.

For the past few days our town has been crowded to overflowing with visitors in attendance upon the commencement and we are glad to note everyone expresses themselves as highly pleased with their visit.

On last Wednesday there were two marriages here. At 4 p. m. Mr. Enos Dail and Miss Julia Grimsley were united in marriage at the home of J. F. Harrington, Eld. C. L. Little officiating. At 8:30 p. m. Squire G. W. Parker performed the ceremony that united for life W. B. Wingate and Mrs. Mary Braxton.

Editors King and Whichard have been in attendance upon the commencement and left for their homes this morning.

There have been so many here for the past few days that we will not in justice to all make any special mention. Suffice it that lovely maiden and youth were on every hand. The older one's too were here and each seemed to vie with the other in adding pleasure to the occasion. We had a large and nice crowd.

[It was our pleasure to be present at the concert Friday night with which the commencement came to a close, and we were deeply impressed with the excellence of the exercises. The music, recitations and declamations were all splendid, reflecting credit upon both teachers and pupils. The school building is admirably arranged and well furnished, and Winterville may well be proud of such a school.

Before leaving Winterville we also had an opportunity of going through the mammoth manufacturing establishments there and were astonished at the magnitude of the work going on. It is no wonder that Winterville attracts such attention all over the country.

The End of the Century Club.

On Tuesday afternoon the members of the Book Club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. E. A. Moye, Jr. After the business was disposed of Mrs. W. F. Harding read a delightful and entertaining paper on the famous women of China.

The guessing contest was in the form of a musical romance, the answers to the questions being the name of some familiar song. Miss Woolford added much to the pleasure and knowledge of the contestants by playing the accompaniments to some of the songs. Miss Mary Moye answered the largest number of questions and won the prize.

After partaking of elegant refreshments, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. W. F. Harding on June 4th.

Cup Changers Wrecked.

Southampton, Eng., May 22.—In the trial races between Shamrock I and II, Shamrock II collapsed in a squall and is a complete wreck.

The yacht is both unfit for further racing and is a complete loss.

Shamrock I is also badly wrecked.

This blasts all hopes of Sir Thomas Lipton's contesting for the America cup this year.

King Edward was on the Shamrock. He was on deck and narrowly escaped death. The topmast, mainmast and bowsprit were broken off short. The topmast was carried and the mainmast followed.

Spoiling Cooks and Farmers by Educating (?) Negroes.

The negroes and the State would be mutually benefited if a large part of the money now expended upon the educating of the negroes was used to make them skilled farm laborers and good cooks.—Charlottesville Progress.

One excellent way to accomplish those desirable purposes is to quit catching them when young with the idea of making classical scholars of them. We spoil both the cook and the farmer and do not acquire a scholar. Yet, it must be admitted that the Southern States have been educating the negroes to worthiness, and even to crime, in that way.—Newport News Herald.

The press rules this land. There is no shadow of doubt about that. We hear about the influence of this man or that man, but his influence consists in how much he can influence the press or some section of it. The power that the press exercises is not heralded with a blast of trumpets. It comes quietly, unnoticed, unthought of. But the silent forces are the powerful ones. The editorial responsibility is greater than that of any other calling, and the aggregate responsibility of the press of this country is greater than that of all the other professions combined. Whatever, comes, comes through its influence.—Greensboro Telegram.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Thin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1900.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it. Mrs. MARY E. COOLEY.

Honors for Miss Patrick.

This morning THE REFLECTOR received a telegram from Gilmore Ward Bryant, Director of the Southern Conservatory of Music, at Durham stating that Miss Bessie Patrick had passed the Southern Conservatory examinations before the board of examiners, making a grade of 99. This is most gratifying to Miss Patrick's host of friends here at home, and all congratulate her upon attaining such high distinction.

Horse Killed.

This morning a colored boy was riding a horse belonging to Sam Allen. When about to turn the corner of the court house square, on Third and Evans streets, the horse stumbled and fell sideways on an iron post that had been placed at the corner to protect the tree. This post, which was an old buggy axle, stuck through the horse's body, going in one shoulder and coming out at the other. The animal had to be shot to end its suffering.

The Stomach of Man is subject to a dozen such common but painful afflictions as cramps, cholera morbus, and dysentery, that, by neglect, may be made chronic and dangerous. The best, handiest surest, and quickest remedy is Pain-Killer, a medicine which has been tried for more than a half of a century and never failed to give relief. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Going!
Going!
Gone!!

Going!

to advertise sometime in the future will not bring business to you today.

Going!!

to wait until times get better means the missing of many dollars that would come to you now for the asking.

Gone!!!

will be your opportunities if you neglect this important matter and let your more enterprising competitor get ahead of you and stay ahead. Don't wait.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
