Your Pardon

We have an apology to make in connection with our goods but its on the score of prices. They are so low we feel almost ashamed to quote them. Come let us whisper the prices in your ear. They are so low you cannot hear them from the outside. Few pieces of New White Goods just arrived.

Yours to please,

Quality and Price.

As a punishment should fit a crime, so in year round merchandising should fit price. A fair minded and reasonable trading public expect this. They have a right to expect it. Money is often hard earned, and should be given a chance to do full duty when it is spent. Kindly match your dollars against our merchandising and note in the wear and tear how anxious this store is to serve you with truest economy,

GREAT EASTERN RAILROAD,
The Road Will Be Built.

Mr. L. V. Morrill, one of the prime movers in the Great Eastern Railroad, was in Greenville today and THE REFLECTOR had a talk with him about the construction of the road. He said the recent reports published in some papers that the enterprise had been abandoned are untrue and misleading. On the contrary Mr. Lynch, the President of the road, is now in New York making arrangements for carrying on the work, and he wrote Mr. Morrill a letter a day or two ago that satisfactory arrangements had been made and the work of construction would be resumed in a short while and carried on to completion.

Mr. Morrill stated further that the route of the road this side of Snow Hill had not been definitely settled upon. Several surveys have been made, but before deciding which route to take the company will consider well the natural advantages of each, the probable amount of traffic each will afford, and the inducement offered. All these points will have to be considered together. He also said that where any community takes stock in the road, not a dollar of such stock subscribed will be asked for until the road is completed.

THE REFLECTOR believes that Greenville ought to have this road. We cannot say what inducements can be offered here in the way of taking stock, but we do know on the points of natural advantages and the amount of traffic, the route by Greenville would be better for the road than any other. Yet our people should not wait for these facts alone to bring the road to Greenville. They should offer some inducements as well. If this is done Greenville stands a good chance of getting the road.

Tobacco for the Veterans.

The Blackwell Durham Tobacco Company contributed for the comfort of the Confederate veterans at their reunion at Memphis, Tenn., 2,000 pounds of smoking tobacco, 10,000 pipes and 10,000 boxes of matches.

The tobacco alone is worth 60 cents per pound, jobbing rates. The 2,000 pounds means 16,000 rations.

This contribution follows a contribution of 14,000 rations of chewing tobacco from the Continental Tobacco Company.

These supplies come through the commissary committee, and the tobacco and pipes will be furnished free to the veterans in addition to 10,000 meals per day free.—Ex.

Mr. Jno. S. Harris, the well known produce merchant at Front street market house, has announced his purpose to enter suit against the city of Wilmington for $5,000 damages. He states that he will allege in his complaint that he obtained license to sell produce from his store and that he was arrested by a policeman for a refusal to move a cart from in front of his place. He was carried before the Mayor and dismissed, hence the suit for false arrest and injury to his business.—Wilmington Star.

Good Schools and Good Roads.

We have declared many times before that good roads and good schools are the two great needs of our people. It must rejoice the heart of every loyal North Carolinian to see hope for these ripening into reality. Never before in the State's history has there been such interest in these two lines of permanent progress. Especially has the news from the May elections all over the State on graded schools been gratifying. On every hand we are hearing and reading of more schools more books, more libraries—all of which means a freer, greater, and more enlightened people.—Gastonia Gazette.

Albert Mix, of Binghamton, N. Y., killed himself Tuesday because he had lost his false teeth and lacked money to get another set.

Cost of Traveling on Bad Roads.

An illustration of the comparative cost of hauling over good and bad roads is furnished by C. E. Ashburne, Jr., in the Louisville Courier Journal. The incident came under his own observation, and the roads were in Kentucky. He says:

"A machine weighing 16,000 pounds was drawn four miles on the Brock turnpike, a macadamized road. It required four mules (4,000 pounds to a mule) and one and one-half hours of time, at a cost of fifteen cents per mule per hour, or a total cost for four miles of ninety cents.

"After traveling four miles on macadamized turnpike the route lay a little less than 2,000 feet (less than two fifths of a mile) on a dirt road. To travel this 2,000 feet it was necessary to use ten of the best mules and seven men; and with this force it took nine hours to complete the journey. The cost was $9.80, at which rate four miles would have cost $208.08; or, in other words, $208.08 is absolutely thrown away for want of a macadamized road."

Greenville Welcomes Him.

R. O. Jeffress has made Greenville his home to the regret of many people here. Several years ago he came here to engage in the tobacco business, and was eminently successful. The higher prices paid for cotton and higher prospective ones, so curtailed the area of the leaf that Mr. Jeffress concluded to seek wider fields. While no one can blame him, it is to be regretted that he should move need be, for he was a good citizen, enterprising, energetic and useful. The Southerner can, with utmost sincerity congratulate the Middle City on the Tar.—Tarboro Southerner.

THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1901.

On June 11th a Southern Industrial Convention will be held in Philadelphia. This convention will be attended by prominent representatives of all the Southern States and the South's progress and advantages along all lines will be shown. For several days past The North American, one of Philadelphia's leading papers, has been publishing special editions for the Southern States, with splendid illustrations and articles giving a forecast of what the Industrial Convention is to be. The issue of the 29th contained a large picture of the North Carolina Industrial College at Greensboro and a portrait of Dr. Charles D. McIver, President of the college, together with a strong article giving the educational conditions in North Carolina, and especially outlining Greensboro's activity as an educational and commercial center. These special editions of The North American are doing much good, and the Southern Industrial Convention will no doubt prove of immense benefit to the entire South.

The ward conventions to nominate candidates for Aldermen to serve the town for the next fiscal year will be held Friday night. THE REFLECTOR feels like saying that the present administration has been the best and most progressive Greenville has had. Besides giving the town faithful, conservative and honest management of all affairs, this administration inaugurated the movement and performed the preliminary work for issuing the bonds by which Greenville is to be provided with such public improvements as have been long needed, and this movement will stand as a monument to their credit. Whether any or all of the present Aldermen are to be continued in office, or whether new men are to succeed them, is for the citizens themselves to decide in their conventions. Be this as it may, only good, competent men should be selected, men who are in favor of the improvements and who will see that they are pushed on to completion, and who will protect the interest of the town. It is not a time now for Greenville to take any backward steps, and the work started should be carried on. Much depends on the next Board of Aldermen.

Governor Aycock has appointed W. H. Neal, of Laurinburg, Superior Court Judge in the Eighth Judicial District, and L. D. Robinson, of Wadesboro, Solicitor.

Recent Rain and Subsequent Floods do Irreparable Damage

Washington, D. C. May 28.—The telegraphic crop report issued weekly by the Department of Agriculture says today: Virginia—Much damage done by washing rains and flood water to low-lands wheat, corn, oats and rye; loss irreparable, excepting corn, which can be replanted. Highland wheat, oats and corn doing well; considerable tobacco transplanted; pastures and grasses improving; wheat heading, apples falling.

North Carolina—Minor features of crop condition this week overshadowed by the immense damage done to land and crops, by heavy rain fall and subsequent floods; unusually large areas of lowlands in corn and cotton submerged and some of the finest wheat in the west destroyed. Uplands badly washed. Stands of cotton and corn injured. Uninjured crops doing well but very grassy; farm work stopped; fruit dropping considerably.

Alabama—Rain fall ample, cotton much improved, most of replanted up, stands fairly good, chopping well advanced; corn, wheat, oats, gardens and minor crops improved; much late planted up but worms quite damaging; oat harvest progressing, indicating fair yields; only peach prospects bright, some early ripening.

Georgia—Land and crop badly washed in north section by recent heavy rains, marked improvement in middle and southern sections; crops growing vigorously; fall oats and wheat being harvested in southern sections, with good yields; corn and cotton variable in condition, but general outlook more favorable in southern portion than elsewhere; peaches shedding badly, output below earlier expectations indicated early varieties ripening in southern portion.

One Useful Fly.

Flies are so seldom heroic that the story of how one of the "pesky thing" saved for a Cincinnati business man his wallet and diamond stud is in many ways remarkable.

The time was early Thursday morning and the place was a smoking car of a Louisville & Nashville train which stood at the Tenth street station ready for the run to Cincinnati. The fly was dozing on the bald spot of the Cincinnati merchant's head. The man, who had been attending the races, was also tired and sound asleep. In his inside coat pocket was his wallet, containing all of his money. On his shirtfront a diamond glistened.

Suddenly the fly was aroused. He saw a man's hand working at the shirt stud. Not a moment was to be lost. The fly danced over the sleeping man's cheek in a vain endeavor to arouse him. The merchant only turned. The fly galloped over his chin and did a "stunt" in his ear. No response. In desperation he began a slow march up and down the nose of the man asleep. The merchant clutched wildly, struck the wrist of the pick-pocket and the next instant was awake. The burglar ran from the smoker and disappeared in the darkness.

The fly, like all true heroes, did not await to receive the thanks of the man whom he had befriended, but flew away.—Louisville Courier Journal

When young folks make up their minds to get married, "love will find a way." The Troy Examiner furnishes proof of this observation in this incident: Robert Mason and Martha, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Alex. Hunsucker, of Wadeville, were married last week. The father of the bride says his name was forged to the note to Register Allen giving his consent to the marriage, and the girl now says she wrote it herself, but we do not suppose anybody will go to the penitentiary for this forgery."

A Burglar Epidemic.

Portland, Maine, Tuesday, 28.—A burglar epidemic prevails here. Burglars today blew open the safe in the Maine Central passenger station at Woodford's early this morning. As there was less than a dollar in the safe the burglars left empty handed.

The Cumberland Mills postoffice was also visited by burglars today, and the safe and building wrecked. Stamps and money were taken to the amount of three hundred and fifty dollars.

The Andover postoffice was also blown up by burglars this morning. Postage stamps and money to the amount of a thousand dollars were taken. The postoffice building, a one story structure, was badly wrecked.

The Best Time to Answer a Letter.

The best time to answer a letter is while you are under its spell, and before your interest in it has grown cold. Home letters should be regular. The glow and impulse of love, stimulated anew, will be responsively stirred, if the reply is not too long deferred. I am always sorry for families who suffer the lines of communication between them to weaken or rust because of carelessness in writing, and many a time my heart has ached for the disappointment visible in an old face, when some young Jean or Molly, whose letter is wistfully anticipated, has forgotten to send it at the right time.

PERTAINS TO PEOPLE

Those Coming and Going These Spring Days.

J. D. Garden went to Raleigh today.

H. B. Hardy, of Raleigh left this morning.

J. S. Joyner, of Baltimore, left this morning.

W. C. Bartles, of Wilson, left this morning.

Miss Helen Bunn, of Henderson, is visiting here.

L. V. Morrill, of Snow Hill, came over Wednesday.

J. A. Crews, agent of the Wilmington Messenger, came in this morning.

Base Ball.

Wednesday's games of ball dropped Raleigh down to fourth place in the column and moves Norfolk up to third. Wilmington yet keeps the lead with Newport News second. Following are the games.

At Richmond: Wilmington 6, Richmond 5.

At Newport News: Portsmouth 5, Newport News 9.

At Norfolk: Raleigh 3, Norfolk 5.

"Skurston Scrap."

Two of the colored men expecting to go on the excursion to Washington today, had a scrap at the wharf just before the boat left. It seems that Alonzo Daniel made some remarks to the wife of Manuel Peyton which the latter resented. Daniel drew a pistol but before he could use it Peyton closed in and took the pistol away from him. Daniel had loaded up well with weapons in preparation for the trip, so as soon as he was deprived of the pistol he dived into another pocket, pulled out a knife and cut Peyton. By this time others interfered and stopped the fight.

Afternoon Party.

Wednesday afternoon a pleasant party was had at the home of Mr. B. E. Patrick, just south of town. The following were present to enjoy the occasion:

B. E. Patrick and Miss Dot Flanagan.

Major I. Fleming and Miss Bertha Patrick.

S. D. King and Miss Emily Higgs.

Leslie Newton and Miss Lottie Blow.

J. B. Higgs and Miss Sophia Jarvis.

David James and Miss Irma Cobb.

T. J. Moore and Miss Nell Skinner.

A Little Girl Dead.

Artimissa Stokes, aged seven years, a little daughter of Mr. W. G. Stokes, a few miles from Greenville, died this morning.

It is with regret we hear of the death of this little girl, sweet and pure, a lovely character and devoted to her Sunday school. She was a member of the Sunday school at Forbes' school house. We always found her punctual and attentive. "To know her was to love her", but this morning her sweet spirit went back to God who gave it. A sweet life not ended but gone to live forever in the haven of rest. Our hearts go out in sympathy to the family and friends.

W. T. LEE.

The citizens of Greenville voted for graded schools Tuesday of last week and received a handsome majority of votes for schools. We think they have done the right thing. Every town as large as Greenville should have graded schools.—Ayden Baptist.

The Way to Prosperity.

A successful man once said this was his

Motto:

Early to bed, early to rise, hustle like thunder and advertise.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
