THE PRESIDENT WORSE.

His Condition Alarming and the Worst Feared.

Thursday night President McKinley's condition took an alarming change for the worse and now there are the gravest apprehensions of the result. The following bulletins were given out this morning:

Buffalo, Sept. 13, 3:30 A. M.—An alarming change for the worse has taken place in the President's condition. Senator Hanna, Vice-President Roosevelt, members of the Cabinet and relatives were hastily summoned to his bedside. Two emergency operations were performed.

Buffalo, 3:40 A. M.—Secretary Cartleyou says prepare for the worst. President McKinley is still conscious but sinking rapidly.

Buffalo, 9:30 A. M.—Physicians worked constantly over the President up to an hour ago, when his heart responded to their treatment and he rallied slowly. He is now in a forced sleep from exhaustion and in extreme danger of the end.

Buffalo, 9 A. M.—The President's condition causes the gravest apprehension of the worst.

Buffalo, noon—At this hour it is not thought the President can live four hours.

About one o'clock the President was thought to be dying, but just before going to press it was reported that Senator Hanna still expressed the hope that he would pull through. The doctors, however, have no hope whatever.

Undergoing Repairs.

After making her trip Thursday the steamer Myers went on the ways at Washington for repairs and will not be up again until Monday. The steamer Edgcombe is on the run in place of the Myers, but that steamer takes no passengers.

Dangerous.

A negro girl in charge of two small white children had them in a buggy driving through Evans street Thursday afternoon. The street was crowded with vehicles and the girl drove into and locked wheels with a wagon. She seemed to have no idea about diving, and was noticed trying to back the horse and clucking the animal forward at the same time. The result was quite a mix up and a narrow escape from accident.

He Knows too Much.

We can tell a circus man as far as we can see him," says the editor of The Atchison Globe. "He has a sort of careless air that cannot be mistaken. We can also tell married women from unmarried women; we don't know why, but we can do it. Put one married woman in a crowd of a hundred girls, and we can pick her out. Or put one girl with a crowd of a hundred married women, all about the same age, and we can pick her out. We'll bet on it. Another thing we can do. We can tell the time at any hour of the day or night; if we awaken at night, we can tell exactly what time it is. We don't know why we can do it, but we can."

A writer in the Southern Farm Magazine, Dr. J. A. Killebrew, makes some strong points against mortgaging farms and shows conclusively why the farmers of the South are now prospering more than the farmers of the West. He says that immediately after the Civil War farmers in the West could easily borrow money at 7 and 8 per cent. while the farmers in the South were without credit and seemed ruined. The Western farmers borrowed money and reveled in luxuries while the Southern farmers struggled with poverty, the farmers in the South were forced to depend on themselves, and being forced to depend on themselves they became independent. As a result Dr. Killebrew says: "The farms in the South are in the main free of mortgages; the farmers are generally out of debt. What they control is their own and they are dependent upon no capitalist or bank to furnish them with the means to gain a subsistence."—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

It takes a pretty sharp fellow to flatter successfully.

Goat Runaway

There was an amusing run away on Third street, near the Court House, Thursday afternoon. A small negro boy had a goat hitched to a cart and for some reason left the goat standing on the street. The goat took advantage of the situation and let out at full speed. No damage was done but the run was quite amusing.

There are some things which seem household necessities in the United States for which there is no market whatever in France or Southern Europe. One of these is the range with a hot water back, another is the refrigerator and a third is the rocking chair. Americans living abroad often want these articles so badly that they even send home for them, but among the French there is no demand for them whatever, and American manufacturers only waste time in trying to create a market for them.

It doesn't take an agriculturist to raise a row.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1901.

The Charlotte Observer learns that it is pronounced "Tcholgosh" or "Shoalgosh". Either of these is as bad as the original, Czolgosz. You will just have to call it what you please and throw a brick at it.

A man out in Wyoming who was said to have expressed sympathy for the assassin Czolgosz, was tarred and feathered and ridden out of town on a rail, with the injunction that if he returned he would be lynched.

United States Senator Wellington, of Maryland, who because of a personal dislike for President McKinley made disparaging remarks about his attempted assassination, has been expelled from the Union League of Maryland of which he was a member.

What will be the outcome of the injunction started against the officials of the town to prevent the sale of the bonds for improvements, of course cannot be told yet. It will stop the matter where it is until the injunction is settled. This may be at the hearing before Judge Bryan on the 30th, or it may take a long litigation through the courts. If the town shall lose the contemplated improvements it will be a set back to her progress that is to be regretted. Greenville needs water works, electric lights and sewerage and cannot get them any too soon.

How soon there comes a change from joy to sorrow! Yesterday the country was rejoicing over the rapid improvement of the President and the hope of his early recovery, even his own jovial disposition asserting itself in conversation with the friends about him. But today, almost as suddenly as was the first announcement of his assassination, came the sorrowful news that there was an alarming change for the worse, followed by later announcement that he was dying. Before these lines are read the end may have come and the Nation be mourning the death of a President.

No, Maude, dear; a person seldom gets a medal for being a meddler.

The armless wonder of museum fame has to be handy with his feet.

THE BOND INJUNCTION.

The Notice and Complaint in the Case.

Below THE REFLECTOR gives copies of the notice and complaint in the bond injunction proceedings as served on Mayor W. H. Long. Pitt County—In Superior Court. S. T. Hooker and others vs.

The Town of Greenville.
This cause coming on to be heard at Chambers before His Honor O. H. Allen, Judge, and it appearing to the Court the plaintiff is entitled to relief.

It is considered, ordered and adjudged, that the defendant appear before His Honor H. R. Bryan, Judge of the Third Judicial District in the town of New Berne, on Monday, September 30th, 1901, and show cause why an injunction should not be granted in this cause as prayed for by the plaintiff.

It is further considered and adjudged by the Court that upon the execution of a bond in the sum of two hundred dollars payable to the defendant and to be approved by the Clerk and filed in the cause, and conditioned upon the payment to the defendant of all such costs and damages as they may sustain by the wrongful issuance of the restraining order, that the Mayor, the Board of Aldermen and all officials of the said town by whatsoever name called, and each of them, their agents and attorneys are hereby restrained and enjoined from issuing, selling, delivering, or in any way disposing of any of the bonds mentioned in the complaint filed in this action, or attempting to collect the tax levied to pay interest on said bonds until the further orders of the Court.

O. H. ALLEN,
Judge 5th Dist.

Pitt County—In Superior Court.
S. T. Hooker and others

vs.
The Town of Greenville,

The plaintiff complaining of the defendant alleges,

1. That he is a citizen and tax payer of the said town of Greenville.

2. That by an Act of the Legislature of 1901, the said Town was authorized and empowered, through its properly constituted authority and upon certain conditions therein required, to issue interest bearing coupon bonds to the amount of $75,000.00, provided a majority of the qualified voters, of said Town should so vote—

3. That he is informed and believes that at the election called to ascertain the wishes of the qualified voters of said Town that a majority of the qualified voters of said Town did not vote—

4. That he is informed and believes that the new Registration under which said Election was held was not in accordance with the Election Law of the State governing such Election, nor in accordance with the Act under which said Election was held.

5. That there is no provision made in said Act for the payment of the principal of said Bonds when they mature.

6. That the sale of the said Bonds are not properly guarded in said Act, no direction as to whom the money derived from the sale of said Bonds shall be paid and no person legally authorized to receive the same and in such uncertainty it would be dangerous to the interest of the tax payers of said Town to permit their sale.

7. That said Act authorizes the Board of Alderman of said Town, if Graded Schools shall be established in said Town, to turn over $5,000.00 of the proceeds from the sale of said Bonds to the directors of said Graded Schools to be used in the erection of suitable buildings for said Schools, that no graded schools have been established in said Town, but the plaintiff is informed and believes that if a sale of said Bonds is permitted that the said Board of Aldermen will turn over said $5,000.00 to an illegally constituted Graded School district in disregard of the spirit and meaning of said Act and thus unlawfully divert a part of said fund.

8. That the Act of the Legislature authorizing the issuing of said Bonds requires the Board of Aldermen each year, at the same time other taxes are levied to levy a sufficient tax on the taxable polls, taxable property and other taxable subjects to pay the interest of said Bonds, and the plaintiff is informed and believes that no such levy has been made as is required by said Act, and that the levy that was attempted to be made is void.

9. That he is informed and believes that the Board of Aldermen of said Town have agreed and contracted to sell, and are preparing to deliver said Bonds at a price far below their real value, and at a great loss to the tax payers of said Town, and that said sale was made without proper advertisement.

10. That the plaintiff has caused a summons to be issued against said defendant returnable to the October Term of Pitt Superior Court.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment.

1. That the Mayor, Board of Aldermen and officials of said Town be perpetually enjoined and restrained from issuing, selling or in other wise disposing of said Bonds or any part thereof.

2. That the tax collector or other office of said Town be enjoined and restrained from collecting any part of the special tax attempted part to be levied for the purpose of paying the interest on said Bonds.

3. For such other and further relief as plaintiff may be entitled, and for costs. F. G. JAMES,

Att'y for plaintiff.

S. T. Hooker, plaintiff above named, being duly sworn deposes and says, that the facts set forth in the foregoing complaint are true of his own knowledge, except those matters and things stated on information and belief and those he believes true. S. T. HOOKER.

Let us tell you about

Our Ready Made Garments.

They are a great convenience—so easy to come in and buy a skirt ready to put right on. Then they have such a nice set too, provided you buy the right make, and this is the kind we claim to have.

Rainy Day and Dress Skirts

We are showing have that correct stylish hang, peculiar to high class tailored garments. The many expressions of satisfaction with the beauty and comparative cheapness of our skirts is very gratifying and more than repays us for the labor and thought expended in our efforts to bring together a comprehensive showing of ready-to-wear apparel in up-to-date effects. Come to see them.

ASTHMA CURE FREE.

Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief & Permanent Cure in all Cases SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. Wells, of Villa, Ridge, Ill., says: "Your bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

We want to send to every sufferer a trial treatment of Asthmalene, similar to the one that cured Mr. Wells. We'll send it by mail post-paid, absolutely Free of Charge, to any sufferer who will write for it, even on a postal. Never mind, though you are despairing, however bad your case. Asthmalene will relieve and cure. The worse your case, the more glad we are to send it. Do not delay, write at once, addressing Dr. Taft Bros' Medicine Co., 79 East 130th St., N. Y. City. Sold by all Druggists.

Ward-Lucas.

On Thursday at the home of Mr. Silas Lucas, in Wilson, his daughter, Miss Emma, was married to Mr. N. E. Ward, of Greenville. They came here on the evening train and are making their home at Hotel Bertha. Mr. Ward recently came here to go in business. He and his bride are cordially welcomed to Greenville.

Elegant Store.

Standing on the corner of Evans and Fourth streets in general conversation with an observing gentleman, he said, "Isn't that an elegant store over there?" pointing towards Frank Wilson's. That store would be a credit to a city, both the design and finish of the building, and the selection and arrangement of the stock it contains.

His Name Pronounced "Choalgosh."

Since the attempted assassination of President McKinley every newspaper reader in the country has been trying to learn the proper pronunciation of the surname of Leon Czolgosz, the man who shot him. Many will recall that there was a similar interest and the same difficulty in pronouncing the name of Guiteau who assassinated President Garfield.

It seems that the letter z in Polish is pronounced much like our h, for Mr. William H. M. Doyas, official interpreter of Polish and Bohemian languages in the United States immigration office at Baltimore, and himself a Pole by birth says that the would-be assassin's name should be pronounced "Choalgosh."

"The word is derived from a Polish verb," said Mr. Doyas, "which means to drag or creep or crawl. Used as a noun. It means a creeping, crawling thing, such as a snake. In the present instance the name seems most appropriate." —Charlotte News.

A Coffeyville (Kan.) woman has brought suit against five joint-keepers for $10,000 damages on the ground that they sold liquor to her 32-year old son against her protest. She alleges that during the past three years her son was drunk on 816 days so drunk that she had to take care of him. On the remaining 285 days he was only partly sober. The mother demands $4020—or $5 a day—for her services in caring for her son 810 days, and the remainder of the $10,000 sued for is compensation for the loss of her son's support, etc.

If you put a sign on the fence or tree or side of the house people must go to it to read it, hence few read it.

SEND YOUR SIGN TO

the people by putting it in
