TROUBLE ON TOBACCO ROW.

Much Bad Feeling Aroused.

The controversy in the Tobacco Board of Trade over the trial of Mr. W. T. Lipscomb, of the Liberty Warehouse, on the charge of drumming, which is against the rule and agreement of all the Eastern markets and punishable by a $500 fine, has caused much hard feeling among the tobacco men here and even some blood shed. On Tuesday, there was a small scrap or two growing out of the matter, and on Wednesday night there occurred a more serious affray.

This latter fight occurred about 9 o'clock near Five Points. We do not know how many were engaged in the conflict, but Mr. E. O. Jeffress, of the Jeffress Warehouse, Mr. G. J. Woodward, one of his bookkeepers, and Mr. A. M. Perry, auctioneer of the Liberty Warehouse, were each considerably hurt, the two former being cut and the latter being beat on the head. They all had to go in the hands of the doctors to have their wounds dressed.

The trouble is to be regretted and everybody will be glad when it is over.

The Wilmington Star reports Bladen county farmer as saying the crops this year in that county are practically a complete failure. He attributes that condition much to the heavy rains of the past spring and summer, large portions of Bladen county having been inundated during much of the season.

Marriage may be a failure without bankruptcy.

A fat woman never realizes how fat she really is.

A woman never quarrels with herself unless as a last resource.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings In North Carolina.

A Building and Loan Association has been organized at Kinston.

The tax books of Cumberland county show an increase in valuation of half million this year over last year.

In his official report, the State Veterinarian says the disease that recently killed so many horses in Hyde and other eastern counties, was staggers.

Five boys, ranging in age from 8 to 16 years, have been arrested in Raleigh for breaking in stores. The boys had committed several robberies.

One lady stood the examination for embalming before the State board of examiners at Raleigh, a few days ago. There were thirty five applicants for license before the board.

The prohibition people of the the town of Dickson, Tenn., have struck on an original way to get rid of the saloon. There is only one in that town, and they have opened an opposition beverage dispensary where drinks of all sorts are sold at cost. When they drive the other fellow out they will shut up shop.—Wilmington Star.

North Carolina Day.

The State superintendent of public instruction has designated Monday, October 14th, as "North Carolina Day" in the public schools of the State, and the subject for discussion: "The First Anglo-Saxon Settlement in America," which of course is that at Roanoke Island.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1901.

The stock holders of the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad have re-elected Mr. James A. Bryan President. The road has prospered under his administration.

Without undertaking to discuss the merits of the case at all, THE REFLECTOR would say that the controversy that has for some days been agitating the Tobacco Board of Trade is working injury to the market.

Miss Mabel Duke, daughter of Mr. J. B. Duke, of Durham, left home Sunday with her sweetheart, Mr. H. R. Goodall, of Richmond, and went to Raleigh where they were married. It is intimated that parental forgiveness may be very slow materializing, but as the young lady is worth something like $50,000 in her own name she and the young man may be able to get along.

Mention might be made of many things done by the late president during his official life that illustrated his high Christian character and ought to embalm his name in the memory of the nation. Not the least of these was his reverence for the Lord's Day. Before all the people he set a Godly example about how to spend it. He threw the full weight of his great influence in behalf of a Scriptural Sabbath. When all the eyes of the millions of American citizens were upon him in his long itinerary across the country, they saw his train stop on Sunday, and their Christian chief a devout worshipper in a Lord's House on His Day. He let his light shine. It is no wonder he should have been sent to the lower house of Congress twice a years, made Governor twice of the great State of Ohio, and elected a second time to be president of the United States. "A Prince in Israel has fallen." Long may the memories of his Christian life live to bless the people he served so well.—Rev. P. R. Law in Lumberton Robesonian.

Congress Will Pay the Bills.

Congress will make special provision for the payment of the physicians and surgeons who attended the late President McKinley at Buffalo, and for the payment of his funeral expenses. This was the course pursued after the death of President Garfield.

What these expenses will amount to in the case of President McKinley cannot be stated even approximately, as none of the bills have yet been sent in. In the case of President Garfield Congress appropriated in all $57,500. Of this amount $35,500 was for the payment of the physicians, and $22,000 for the funeral expenses.

The total expenses in the case of President McKinley will probably be fully as great, for though the bills of the physicians will not be so large as they were in the case of President Garfield, who lingered for more than two months after he was shot, the expenses of the funeral are expected to be larger.

Congress not only paid President Garfield's funeral expenses, but also made liberal provision for Mrs. Garfield. She was paid her husband's salary for the remainder of the year, was given a pension of $5,000 per year for the remainder of her life, and was given the franking privilege, by which she can use the mails without the payment of postage. Mrs. McKinley will certainly be treated with equal liberality.

An Old Timer.

Maj. Joe. Morehead exhibited in our sanctum this morning a smooth-bore, flint and steel buck gun, five feet eleven inches in length and whole stocked—that is the stock runs to the muzzle. This was the property of Caleb Crews, of Granville county, and used by him at the battle of Guilford Court House in 1791. There was also shown a powder horn of that period and a buckskin shot bag also used in the battle, all now the property of the Guilford Battle Ground Museum, a presentation of patriotic descendants.

The major is having pictures of these taken to aid Mr. Mullins, of Ohio, in the manufacture of a statute true to life of a North Carolina militiaman of 1771—the pioneer of American liberty who at that date set the Revolutionary ball in motion.—Greenboro Record.

The boards of education in Randolph and Guilford, and perhaps one or two other counties, are doing a most sensible thing in consolidating public schools, where it can be done without serious inconvenience to any considerable number of patrons. The schools are thereby strengthened and the length of the term increased. In Guilford county four schools were consolidated into two schools at the last session of the board of the county and in Randolph county a number of consolidations are to be made. It is more than likely that the same policy might be profitably adopted in other counties of the State.—News and Observer.

Suit Threatened.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College is this year not only full to overflowing with students, but hundreds have been turned away, for lack of room. Dr. Winston has had some trouble with those who were refused admittance. One father was very irate. He said other people's sons had been admitted to the college, and could not understand why his son should not be admitted just because he did not apply in time. He wrote a letter to President Winston, in which he said he would bring suit in order to compel the President to enter his son at the college. The Doctor does not know whether he will bring suit for damages, or have a mandamus issued against him.—Raleigh Times.

Keep the Dollars Circulating.

Now that the summer is over, no better plan can be adopted by every one than to get down at once to business, and this in a practical manner.

Those persons who were fortunate enough to be away enjoying an outing during the summer, or any part of it, should not return home and to business, except upon the very best terms with themselves and their neighbors.

They may have spent money. They had it to spend, and now that they are home it should not be with an idea, that because they have spent their surplus, therefore economy must be practised, and that by refusing to pay their local accounts.

It is this kind of practice, namely, refusing to pay local accounts which causes local depression, and dull trade.

And to put off paying any local bill, when it can possibly be paid, checks the payment of some other account, and thus it is felt all about town.

As for those who have remained at home during the summer, now is the time for them to wake up and get their trade going by advertising and personal effort.

Let all such pay bills when presented, that can possibly be met, and this will result in some of this same money getting back to them, coming in the way of payments of store accounts.

This is the time of year that the dollar wants to be pushed into active circulation, in the payment of accounts, and so stimulates trade in all its branches.

Keep the dollar circulating, actively, and it will not be a dull Fall season for any one.—New Berne Journal.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

Mrs. E. E. Griffin is quite sick.

Mrs. J. L. Moore left this morning for Raleigh.

D. S. Smith is able to be out again from an attack of fever.

Miss Annie Thigpen, of Hill, is visiting Mrs. S. T. Hooker.

W. B. Cunningham and family left this morning for Salisbury.

P. M. Johnson and child returned Wednesday evening from Witsou.

Paul Jones, editor of the Law Journal, of Tarboro, was here today.

H. H. McLamb has gone to housekeeping in the new Rountree building on Pitt street.

H. B. Hardey, agent for the Raleigh News and Observer, passed through this morning enroute to Washington.

Mrs. Pattie O. Winstead, of Rocky Mount, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home this morning.

Miss Annie Beddard and her little brother, Roy, of Fremont, came in Wednesday evening and are visiting Mrs. R. S. Evans.

Mrs. F. G. Whaley returned Wednesday evening from a visit to Suffolk Miss Laura McGuire, of that place, accompanied her home for a visit here.

A Big Concert Band.

Culhane Chace & Westons Minstrels will give their band concert and parade at 2:30 P. M. on Monday Sept 30th. It will be a rare treat to lovers of good music. They will also give an open air concert in front of the Opera House at 7:30 P. M.

The Injunction.

Mr. F. G. James, attorney for the plaintiff and Mr. L. I. Moore, attorney for the defendant, have gone to New Bern to argue the injunction case against the town of Greenville in the matter of the sale of the $75,000 bonds. There is much interest as to how the case will terminate.

Queer Egg.

"Bud" Joe Blow, of Winterville, sent THE REFLECTOR another curious egg that was given him by Mr. W. F. Carroll. This particular egg is somewhat hard to describe, and we hardly know whether to say it is shaped like a half moon or like a short cucumber.

Sent To Edgcombe.

Several convicts sentenced at the last term of court were taken to Edgcombe county today to work on the roads. Some arrangement should be made for Pitt county convicts to work the roads at home instead of having to be sent off to another county. There is plenty of room for improvement on the public roads in this county.

Negro Stole an Ox.

To steal an ox, bring him to town, a distance of twenty miles, effect his sale, pocket the money and get away without apprehension, is an achievement not every day accomplished by the most astute purloiner, but such was the record of Galloway Brown, colored, who came all the way from Cronly yesterday and sold to Mr. J. F. Garrell, for $13.00, an animal which had been taken from Sarah Adams, colored, of Brunswick county. The brother of the woman reached the city in quest of the ox soon after the sale was made but Brown had disappeared. Mr. Garrell, however, returned the ox to its rightful owner, and will seek to bring the guilty negro to justice.—Wilmington Star.

OPERA HOUSE.

Trade Carnival.

This unique entertainment, to be presented at the Opera House on Friday night Sept. 27th, promises from its many novel features to be exceedingly interesting—purely as a stage performance. All the leading firms of Greenville and tobacco town are to be advertised in original verse and "living picture" show, as well as in prose dialogue. The public are cordially asked to attend, when an interesting evening is promised.

The proceeds of this entertainment are to be added to the large fund already raised by the Confederate veterans for the building of a home for indigent and helpless children, grand children, &c. of the Confederate soldiers. The home is to be called "The Davis Memorial Home." All old soldiers should help this noble cause.

Tickets on sale at Wooten's Drug store. Reserved seats 35c, general admission 25c. Give us a full house.

Do You Believe In Signs

If you put a sign on the fence or tree or side of the house people must go to it to read it, hence few read it.

SEND YOUR SIGN TO

the people by putting it in

THE REFLECTOR

and you will see the difference. THE REFLECTOR goes to the people and carries your sign with it, and they all read it.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
