FALL SELLING.

Putting it Strong.

And why not? When the merchandise and prices will back up the statements made concerning them, we have every right to "Put it Strong." There is nothing wrong in emphasizing excellence when the emphasis is within the bounds of truth, when facts are given without misrepresentation.

Our "Ad" States Facts.

Just facts, something well worth remembering. Counters and tables piled high. Stacks and stacks of mens, boys and youths clothing. Every place rambled and packed with shoes. We can show you to your entire satisfaction. Counter room needed in our dress goods department. Selling must continue to relieve the pressure. Come early before the best things are gone. All the latest styles and weaves in dress goods. Agents for Standard Patterns.

CONFEDERATE HONOR ROLL

List of Pensioners in Pitt County.

Register of Deeds T. R. Moore has received from the State Auditor a list of the names of Confederate soldiers and widows in Pitt county who are entitled to pensions, and handed to THE REFLECTOR for publication. While the names have come, the warrants have not been received, and the Auditor says it will be early in December before they can be sent out. Register of Deeds Moore says he will give notice as soon as the warrants come so that all whose names appear below can then call and then get them.

Following are the names and class to which they belong:

SECOND CLASS—G. S. Johnson, William F. Mills.

THIRD CLASS—Bryan Buck, Willie Bullock, Bennett Dunn, W. H. Gurganus, John F. Parker.

OAKLEY ITEMS.

OAKLEY, N. C., Nov. 18, 1901. We thought we would let you hear from this neck o' the woods. C. H. Ross will move in his new store this week.

Mrs. J. L. Roberson and Miss Bettie Manning, near here, were visiting Mrs. Dr. Ricks, at Parmele, Saturday.

Mr and Mrs. J. E. Hines, of Parmele, were visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams, here Sunday.

Our very clever Dr. Warren, of Stokes, reports not much sickness in this section at the present.

Saturday was a gala day at Oakley. A big barbecue and fox hunt. Men and dogs, then more men and more dogs. Some long eared dogs and some short eared dogs. Result, no fox. Everybody seemed to enjoy it.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

The King Clothier.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1901.

A Philadelphia paper is suggesting that the churches divert the funds now being used for foreign missions to an effort to regenerate the people of the city. Not a bad idea, judging from the reports of corruption coming out of that burg.

The article published elsewhere, taken from correspondence in the Charlotte Observer, relative to the payment of poll tax before the first of May, is a matter of importance to every voter. It is the law, and those who fail to comply with it will disqualify themselves from voting.

The Supreme Court of the United States has granted leave to the State of South Dakota to proceed with its suit against the State of North Carolina to recover on the bonds of the Western North Carolina railroad which were bequeathed to a university in South Dakota. It is not to be supposed that North Carolina will do any yielding in the case, but will fight the suit to a finish.

The Georgia Legislature has adopted a resolution authorizing the Governor to appoint a Commission to provide for the erection in the Capitol at Washington of statues of two of Georgia's notable sons, the expense to be met by popular subscription. More than twenty years ago the Legislature passed a resolution that Georgia should be represented in the statutory hall by statues of James Oglethorpe, the founder of the State, and Dr. Crawford W. Long the reputed discoverer of anaesthesia; but no further action was taken.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

BLACK JACK, N. C., Nov. 19, 1901. Times are very dull here now.

Mrs. L. H. White and daughter, Miss Annie, and Abram Dixon went to Greenville today.

A very sweet little girl made her appearance at C. S. Dixon's son last Thursday.

W. J. White, of Washington, is here now.

It is with much sadness that we announce the death of Mr. L. H. White, who departed this life last Friday morning, November 15, 1901. He had been in bad health for some time. He leaves a wife, eight children and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. "God's will, not ours be done." "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18.

The announcement from Senator Vest, of Missouri, that he will under no circumstances consider a re-election to the Senate will prove a matter of regret to the democrats not only of Missouri but of the country. He has been a loyal democrat and a consistent fighter for democratic measures in the Senate for nearly two decades.

The cold experienced by the Alaskan explorers would feel like a genial warmth compared with the chill that the spoilsmen have received during the past week from announcements and rumors that have emanated from the White House. The President has declared that "all appointments in our dependencies" will be made solely on the ground of merit. This assurance was made to Mr. Clinton R. Woodruff, chairman of the Committee on Dependencies of the National Civil Service Reform League. Furthermore the President has allowed it to be known that he will oppose Representative Hopkin's scheme for transferring the clerks of the Census Bureau to the Civil Service classified list, and it is rumored that all the "laborers" in the departments, most of whom, like Maclay of the Navy Department, are laborers in name only, to be placed within the jurisdiction of the Civil Service Commission.

The President recently told Representative Sherman of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, that he would make no recommendation in his message of any particular company or method of acquiring a Pacific cable, but that he would emphasize the necessity of Congress making some provision for one.

The President administered what some people describe as the coup de grace to Senator Platt on Friday when he appointed State Senator Nevada N. Stranahan to the collectorship of the Port of New York. This, of course, means the removal of George R. Bidwell of whom Platt has sworn that he would remain collector as long as he (Platt) remained in the Senate. It remains to be seen if Senator Platt will yield without protest. The appointment is, of course, a triumph for the faction of the New York republicans headed by Governor Odell which have been waging a bitter campaign against Bidwell. Coming as this does in the immediate wake of the election of Low in New York city it seems to confirm the theory that Platt's power in New York is waning.

What! Shall the Democratic Party do to be Saved?

Col. Fred A. Olds, the Raleigh correspondent of The Observer, has asked a number of leading Democrats "What line of policy should the Democratic party pursue to regain its ascendancy in the nation?" and presents this morning utterances from Governor Jarvis and James H. Pou, Esq. Both are notable utterances. Governor Jarvis says that past differences must be forgotten and erimination give place to toleration; that a platform must be adopted having to do with living, not dead, issues, and that the Democracy must nominate better men than the opposition. Mr. Pou replies at greater length and his reply is inspiring; it rings like a bell; the reading of it causes the nerves to tingle. He tells that the events of the past three years have relegated old issues to the rear and raised new ones, and that the Democratic party must meet them courageously and correctly, abjuring policies of mere opposition and negation. We are a world power and must resign ourselves to the by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

use of the world's money; our national domain has expanded and we must not seek to evade the responsibilities which we have assumed, but must give our new citizens a just government, adapted to their needs, under the American flag; our trade must be extended throughout the earth, to which end we must have a merchant marine and an isthmian canal must be constructed; the tariff must be dealt with as a practical question and the benefits of protection must be withdrawn from trusts when they set about to stifle competition. Mr. Pou admonishes us that "we should not be pessimists, nor hysterical. We should not fear chimeras or ghosts," but, looking forward to a yet greater republic than even that of the present, should turn our faces resolutely to the morning.—Charlotte Observer.

A small boy with a stick of candy almost as large as his arm, anchored in front of THE REFLECTOR office today, was a picture of happiness and anticipated sweetness.

Dr. Laughinghouse, County Superintendent of Health, says the cause of death of the man who died in jail Saturday night was organic heart disease instead of consumption, as THE REFLECTOR was informed.

The Poll Tax and Election.

Under the provisions of section 13 chapter 89, acts of 1901, carrying out a requirement of the constitutional amendment, no one will be allowed to vote in the next State election unless he pays his poll tax now due by the 1st of next May. And it also provides that before the person shall be allowed to vote he shall exhibit to the registrar his poll tax receipt, signed by the sheriff or tax collector, and unless this receipt bears date before the 1st day of next May, he will not be allowed to vote. But, in lieu of such poll tax receipt, the registrar and judges of election are permitted to allow one who has paid his tax within the time above required, to vote upon his taking and subscribing an oath to that effect. And any person, who having paid his tax within the time above specified and having lost his tax receipt, shall, upon making affidavit of such loss, be entitled to a duplicate thereof from the sheriff or tax collector. The law also provides that if a sheriff or tax collector wilfully fails to give a tax receipt to any person paying his poll tax, or giving a false date, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Of course the act provides that persons who have become of age since the 1st day of last June, or who were 50 years of age or over on the 1st day of last June, shall not be required to produce poll tax receipt, because not required by law to pay poll tax. There is also a like exemption in favor of persons relieved from the payment of poll tax by county commissioners on account of poverty or infirmity.

The section also requires the tax collector, between the 1st and 10th day of May, 1902 to certify under oath a true and correct list of all persons who have paid poll tax for the previous year, on or before the 1st day of May, to the clerk of the Superior Court, and makes him guilty of misdemeanor for failing to comply with this provision.—Cor. Charlotte Observer.

Surprised Him.

"How long have you been in Greenville?" asked a stranger who wanted to make some inquiries about the town. When we answered a little over thirty-nine years, he cast a doubtful look at us as if to insinuate that there didn't anything good grow here. He stayed long enough to learn better, and went away saying Greenville is a better town than he thought.

NOTICE.

As I am now in the hospital in Baltimore for the purpose of undergoing an operation, I have placed my books and accounts in the hands of my brother, Mr. Wiley Brown, at the store of Greene & Brown, and given him full authority to collect and receipt for same. I earnestly ask those indebted to me to call on him and settle as early as possible.

Play Again Tonight.

The Core-Carlisle Company played "Married for Money" to a large audience Monday night. It was a good play. The company decided to stay over and play here again tonight, when a new drama will be presented.

Changeable.

The weather this week is peculiar, to say the least of it. Monday evening it was cloudy when the sun went down, and it began to look like the forecast for cloudy and warmer was to be verified. But before bed time it was fair and the night brought a big frost with sharp biting temperature this morning. Then before the morning was half gone it was cloudy again.

Mrs. F. M. Dupree Dead.

Mrs. Addie Dupree, wife of Mr. F. M. Dupree, of Farmville, dropped dead Monday. Her only sister, Mrs. Sue Albritton, came to Greenville, leaving her in apparently as good health as usual, but soon after reaching here received a telephone message that Mrs. Dupree was dead.

Deceased was twice married to the husband whom she leaves, the last marriage taking place in August soon after she got a second divorce from her second husband named Visconti. She leaves one son by her first marriage with Mr. Dupree and two daughters with her marriage by Mr. Visconti. The son belongs to the U. S. Navy and is now in the Philippines.

SAVES LIFE

Willard, Ill., August 1, 1900.
I was in bad health this spring and could not sit up in bed for four weeks. When I was confined my child died. When I began to sit up I felt so weak and had such terrible pains in my back and hips. I had kidney trouble and falling of the womb. I also had hysterical spells. I was in a bad condition when I received your "Ladies' Birthday Almanac" and read the advertisement of Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught. Since April 20th, I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui and three packages of Theford's Black-Draught. I feel like a new person now. I can do all my work and can walk out to see any of my neighbors. I believe I would have been in the grave had it not been for Wine of Cardui. IT SAVED MY LIFE.
Mrs. ALICE DAVIS.

It is well that women are more patient than men. Few men could bear the bitter pangs, the agony and distress that women endure. Thousands of women have come to look upon suffering as a duty of their sex. But there are many instances of this heroic fortitude which now renders unnecessary. Women need no longer suffer for modesty's sake. Wine of Cardui brings relief to modest women in the privacy of their homes. Many of the best homes in this city are never without this great medicine. It cures whites and falling of the womb and completely eradicates these dragging periodical pains. Mrs. Davis' cure shows you conclusively what you may expect if you follow her example and take Wine of Cardui. Theford's Black-Draught aids Wine of Cardui by regulating the stomach and bowels. When you ask your druggist for these medicines, be sure you get them. It was Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black Draught that saved Mrs. Davis' life. Never take a substitute.
