OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 2.

The week just passed has been a remarkable one, crowded with events, good and bad. But there are evidences all around us that the world is getting better—a majority of our people, certainly, apparently striving to make it better, and this writer believes God is guiding and directing them, and therefore the end His servants are aiming at must and will be accomplished. This is not preaching, but your correspondent asks your permission to record his belief, in passing, feeling sure it will not hurt any one's feelings.

One of the deplorable events of the week was the burning early Saturday morning of one of the valuable and useful buildings at the College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts of this city—Watauga Hall, together with personal property of a number of students who occupied a portion of the building used as a dormitory. Loss $15,000, of which $9,000 was lost in the destruction of the building itself; insurance $6,000 on the latter, this amount being all the insurance. About sixty students slept in the burned building. Many have now gone home on vacation.

Rev. R. G. Pearson on Sunday night concluded his series of sermons preached in the Presbyterian Church here during the preceding two weeks. The Thanksgiving day meetings here at the churches were more largely attended than in many years, the pastors and rectors and priests of the several churches conducting the meetings—three denominations meeting at one of the churches. The contributions taken up for the orphan asylums in this State were liberal, and seemed to be given by the "laymen" with a cheerful spirit.

Superintendent of Instruction Toon, who has been sick and laid up at Swan Quarter, is back again at his home in Raleigh, but is said to still be a very sick man.

MISCELLANEOUS MENTION.

Governor Aycock, who has been absent from Raleigh during the past week, is now considering a number of applications for pardon. Among the number was that of a man named Cass, who escaped after serving about half his sentence many years ago, while working on the Murphy Branch of the Western North Carolina Railroad, he having been convicted in Surry county for the theft of a horse while he (Cass) was drunk. After his escape he went to Wilkes county and for fifteen years is reported to have lived an upright, honest life with his wife and family. Recently a "neighbor" fell out with him and reported the man's former record and he was arrested and returned to the penitentiary in this city to serve out the unexpired portion of his sentence.

Services in Christian Church.

Elder Sam'l J. Halstead, of Norfolk, Va., the Lord willing, will preach in the Christian church tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "The true hiding place found by a timely look in the future."

Tomorrow night he will preach at the same hour, at the same church. Subject, "The Sin of Omission." Let everybody come.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

The King Clothier.

The steel trust is able to sit up and take nourishment. It doesn't seem long since it was organized—it cannot have been much over a year; yet last Wednesday checks aggregating $25,000,000 were distributed among its stockholders, out of the profits of the concern since it was organized as much as he had originally put in, besides which $60,000,000 profits were left undisturbed, being held on hand for emergencies. Yes, the steel trust is doing very well, thank you.—Charlotte Observer.

Many witty sayings have been manufactured out of the peculiarity of the name of Ed Satan, who was recently sent to the penitentiary from Lenoir county for stealing a cow, but even after all this, we feel constrained to tell of an actual occurrence that took place at his preliminary trial before Mayor Webb. After being told that he would have to give a $200 bond, or in default go to jail, he said "Mr. Mayor, you can't put me in jail, I see a Free Mason." His honor replied that he didn't know Satan was a Free Mason before, but unless a $200 bond was forthcoming he wouldn't be free long.—Kinston Free Press.

No Cigarette Smokers Need Apply.

The Santa Fe has issued an order that no one addicted to the use of cigarettes shall be given employment by that company, and a number of cigarette smokers working for the company have been dismissed.

The crusade against cigarettes has not yet formally reached the Indianapolis roads, but is being quietly enforced on some of them. At present the rule against cigarettes is applied principally in the clerical departments and a number of clerks who have been let out in order "to reduce expenses" are not aware that they were dismissed because they smoke cigarettes. And many applicants failed to get positions for the same reason.

Every applicant has to pass a written examination and in addition to that his personal habits are investigated. An occasional drink is generally overlooked, but if it is found that he is in the habit of smoking cigarettes there is no chance for him. The rule against cigarettes on some of the local roads is applied also to applicants for positions in the train service, though there is nothing in the blank application that announces the fact. Most of the railroad officers, however, are determined that the employees shall not be cigarette fiends, and it is understood that by the first of the year the roads will issue formal orders on the subject.—Indianapolis News.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 2.

At last Congress is in session. Promptly at noon today the gavel of Senator Frye, the new president of the Senate, and of Alexander M. Dowell, Clerk of the House called those bodies to order and the opening session of the Fifty-Seventh Congress was thereby inaugurated. In the Senate Senator Hanna was promptly recognized by the Chairman and, in a few well chosen words, informed his colleagues of the death of President McKinley and moved adjournment out of respect to the deceased. The motion carried unanimously.

In the House the members were sworn in, the Speaker, General Henderson and the other officers elected, seats chosen by lot, with the exception of that of ex-speaker, Galusha A. Crow, who in accordance with precedent, was permitted to choose his seat before the lottery commenced. As soon as Speaker Henderson had taken possession of the chair he recognized Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, who formally announced the death of the late President and moved that the House adjourn out of respect to the dead until Tuesday, his motion, of course, carrying unanimously.

The democratic minority, which completed its organization in caucus on Saturday, though small in number is prepared for vigorous action and strenuous opposition to the extravagant expenditures of public funds which is characteristic of the republicans when in control of both Congressional chambers.

As I have already predicted in these letters, Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, was nominated for the speakership, a purely complimentary nomination but one that carries with it the leadership of the democratic forces in the current Congress.

Republican majorities of both House and Senate are too large to permit of the democrats taking the initiative in the introduction of needed legislation but they will persistently and consistently urge the reduction of the tariff, at least in so far as its provisions are prohibitive, whether they see that such reduction will be most surely accomplished by the ratification of reciprocity treaties or by a change of the tariff schedules.

A constant effort at retrenchment in expenditures and the curtailment of extravagant appropriations will be exerted and it is hoped that unity of action under the direction of an able leader may accomplish much along these lines.

Mr. M. V. Dixon, sawyer for Hines Bros' Lumber Co., yesterday sawed through a bomb shell embedded in a log. The shell appeared to be what is called a 4-inch rifle bomb shell. All of the back end of the shell, which is made of lead and fits the cannon, was in the log, and part of the front of the shell, made of cast iron. The log which contained the shell came from the vicinity of Wise's Fork, about five miles from Kinston, where, it will be remembered, a warm battle took place during the civil war between the Confederate and Federal forces.—Kinston Free Press.

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

Off to Conference.

Rev. H. M. Eure has closed his first year as pastor of the Methodist church in Greenville and left this morning to attend the annual conference at Fayetteville. He takes a splendid report of the church to conference, with all collections made in full. The church has a total membership of 204. There were added during the year by baptism and certificate 18, lost by death and certificate 10, making a net gain of 8. The collections for all objects amounted to $2,452.91, an average of $11.36 per member.

Mr. Eure is a faithful preacher, and has won the highest esteem of his church and community. We hope the conference will return him to Greenville.

Every one who will stand it can expect to be imposed upon.

Hush money usually talks for both parties in the transaction.

The shorter a man is in his accounts the longer it takes him to find them.

The man who compels himself to like the work he has to do is a genius.

The frost is now on the pumpkin and the coat is on the wedding present.

Beauty is Health.

Walnut Lake, Ark., June 8, 1900.
I thank you for the benefit I received from your advice and the Wine of Cardui I took in my terrible condition. My life was no pleasure to me at all and I was of no use to anybody. After receiving your advice and medicine I commenced taking it and began immediately to improve. The pains left me and the meninges, which came at the correct time, continued three days. I have gained strength and my weight has increased. My husband says the medicine has made me better looking than ever before.

Mrs. LIZZIE MANNELL.

Womanly health means bright eyes, rosy cheeks, clear complexion and elasticity of form. This is the youth unmeasured by years—the beauty of perfect womanhood. Beautiful women are happier and get more out of life than their sisters whose faces indicate suffering. Wine of Cardui made Mrs. Mannell "better looking" and infinitely happier because it cured her of those terrible pains. But she is no exception.

WINE OF CARDUI

is giving thousands of women health, beauty and freedom from the dragging pains which made their lives so miserable. Wan faces, haggard eyes and emaciated forms are the results of suffering. What suffering can compare with the torture of irregular menstruation, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb? Beauty flees quickly before the ravages of such disease. The sharp pains of falling of the womb deepen the crow tracks in the face. Menstrual irregularities rob the eye of its fire and the complexion of its transparency. Leucorrhoea drains the body of its strength, but Wine of Cardui restores the natural beauty, brightens the eye, clears the complexion, rounds out the figure and brings back the vigor of health. Every druggist in this city handles $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
