OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 9.

Primarily and otherwise speaking the contest over that seat in the United States Senate is beginning to get interesting and the friends of the various aspirants and willing Barkises, and the well-wishers of their State, are discussing it (sometimes agreeing) in the hotel corridors and on the streets hereabouts. This is true especially among the "visiting statesmen" and politicians from other towns, while ever and anon one can hear a business man take a hand in the affair.

SENATORIAL HORSES ENTERED AND THAT MAY ENTER.

With "Cy" Watson and "Bob" Glenn, both of the same town (and once law partners, I believe) and Lee Overman and Locke Craig already donning their racing clothes, with their respective grooms holding their fiery steeds for their masters to vault into the saddle; with Jule S. Carr (according to some published statements by a correspondent in a Georgia and by reporters in some of the North Carolina papers) "considering" the matter of entering his horse when time is called; with possibly another horse tied in the woods and a champing of his bit and all a quiver to prance into the race-track which he seems to see through the trees not far off and apparently recognizing that it is a fast track he wants to get on—well, really, it does look as though we are going to have a most interesting race on the Democratic Senatorial track between these noted political equestrians—all honorable and deserving gentleman, all.

BAPTISTS AND METHODISTS.

The Baptist State Convention in session at Winston-Salem and the North Carolina Conference at Fayetteville, the latter part of last week, were largely attended and much good work accomplished by both. Educational matters claimed a large share of the attention of the Baptists and the reports read showed up finely ament the work done and amounts raised for home and foreign missions. The Methodists looked after some struggling churches of that denomination and put them on their feet again, among other good things accomplished.

On Friday night last in the Academy of Music of this city the annual debate between the Baptist and the Methodist—Wake Forest and Trinity—Colleges took place, and as usual was a hotly contested debate. The proposition was: Resolved, That a compulsory educational law should be enacted in North Carolina. Wake Forest had the affirmative side and the judges decided in favor of them—being governed, of course, by the argument and merit of the debate and deciding the question according to their own views. The utmost good feeling prevailed. Last year Trinity won.

Service by Laymen.

Very enjoyable services were held in the Baptist church Sunday, and in the absence of the pastor Mr. J. W. Bryan conducted the morning service and Mr. M. A. Allen the evening service. Both gentlemen made excellent talks. It was as good as preaching.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

FRANK WILSON,
The King Clothier.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1901.

The next session of the Baptist State Convention will be held at Durham and the next North Carolina Conference at Wilmington.

In the report of Thanksgiving donations sent to the Oxford Orphan Asylum, as published in the last issue of The Orphan's Friend, Greenville made the largest contribution of any lodge in the State.

North Carolina week at the Charleston Exposition has been changed from January 20th to April 7th. There will be much better weather in April than in January and no doubt the exposition will be better then.

There is considerable complaint over the fact that the A. C. L. freight at Kinston leaves for Greenville and points north just a few minutes before the arrival of the Atlantic and North Carolina Shoo-fly from Goldsboro. This connection made would be of great benefit to the traveling public, not to speak of the pleasure given the people of Grifton, Ayden, Winterville and Greenville in having the Raleigh papers in the early morning of day of publication.--New Bern cor. Raleigh News and Observer.

"Where the Laugh Comes In."

At the Opera House on Wednesday evening Dec. 11th will be seen the great farce-comedy hit of the season. It has never been in Greenville before. It is called "Where the Laugh Comes In." Chas. W. Chase is responsible for it and besides introducing many musical numbers has also included several new and original specialties to be given by members of the company. The farce is built on that very humorous story by F. Anstey, called "Vice Versa." In that tale a school boy and his father, by some Eastern magic change places. The father with all his staid ideas and business qualities unimpaired, is transformed into the boy as far as outward appearance goes, and he has to go back to school. The boy becomes to outward appearance, the father, but he has lost none of his mischievous pranks and the tricks he plays on the household before he is transformed back to his original shape are amusing. There is plenty of chance for fun-making in such a plot. Seats on sale at Jas. B. White's tomorrow morning. Prices 35, 50 and 75c.

Don't forget the nice Bibles and Parker Fountain pens at Reflector Book Store when you go to select Christmas presents.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9.

Almost simultaneously with the opening of Congress the Supreme Court rendered its decision in the "Fourteen Diamond Rings" case, declaring that the Philippine Islands are an integral part of the United States and that the provisions of the Dingley tariff law do not, therefore, apply to shipments between the islands and the United States. This, of course, leaves the trade absolutely free and threw the protectionists into paroxysms. The President's message was received with almost unqualified approval by the republicans, and the democrats, while they could detect the erroneous deductions, which are the inevitable concomitant of the acceptance of the protection fallacy, in every line that dealt with economic subjects, could not but admire the frank, direct expression of the individual views of the author. Apart from the specific economic recommendations and reasoning the message is an admirable paper.

There is one recommendation in the President's message which should receive the cordial support of congressmen irrespective of party, and that is his appeal for support of the Postmaster General in his efforts to remove the abuses which have crept into the administration of the laws in regard to second-class mail matter. Mr. Roosevelt says that although second-class matter constitutes nearly sixty percent of the mails, out of a total revenue of $111,639,193 the Post Office Department received only $4,299,445 for the transmission of that class of mail. He goes on to say if the pound rate "were limited to the legitimate newspapers and periodicals actually contemplated by the law no just exception could be taken."

An amusing incident occurred the other day. While standing in the ante-room of the President's reception room I saw a congressman go up to the President as he and Senator Lodge came out and say "I want to say a word for Mr. Blank who holds a small office in my district." "What" the President interrupted, "Is that infernal scoundrel still there? Yes, I knew him when I was on the Civil Service Commission. Yes, I'll remember him," and he left the amazed legislator and passed out with the Senator.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

T. C. Bryan, of Goldsboro, was here today.

Rev. D. W. Davis returned to Pantego today.

Jim Moore returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. White went to Norfolk today.

I. A. Sugg, Jr., went to Ayden Saturday evening.

W. E. Mewborn went to Grifton Saturday evening.

Rev. F. H. Harding returned this morning from Grifton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bateman are visiting in Snow Hill.

Judge F. D. Winston, of Windsor, arrived this morning to hold court.

W. F. Hines who has been visiting his son, W. O. Hines, returned to his home in Sampson county today.

Miss Maud Millbury, the trained nurse who has been attending Mrs. R. M. Moye, left this morning for St. Louis.

Will Go Later.

Owing to "engagements" of another character by several of the delegates to the Old Maids' Convention, they will not be able to have a meeting in Winterville until after the Christmas holidays. They appreciate the kind invitation extended them from Winterville and will go down as early as opportunity will permit.

Took off a Toe.

On Sunday Dr. E. A. Moye performed an operation on the five months old child of Mr. S. W. Erwin. The child had six toes on one foot, the extra toe, instead of growing straight out like the others, being turned downward. It would have prevented the child from walking, therefore was deemed best to remove the extra toe.

Killed a Bear.

Mr. J. J. Carson, of Bethel township, tells us of the killing of a large black bear on Grindle creek, in about a mile of Bethel, Sunday morning. Several men were in the chase and they run the bear about three quarters of a mile, when Bruin took refuge up a tree. It took ten shots to bring him down. The bear weighed 257 pounds.

Much Building.

Speaking about the trouble it is to get carpenters to do any small jobs of work, a gentleman in a position to know remarked that any one would be astonished to know the amount of building that is going on around town. There is hardly a section in which buildings are not going up. Mr. W. R. Parker says the lumber yard and the sash door and blind factory receive orders faster than they can be filled.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor W. H. Long has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

W. A. Johnson, assault with deadly weapon, bound over to Superior court.

James H. Cox, assault with deadly weapon, bound over to Superior court.

John Plumer and Mack Edwards, affray, fined $1 each and one half cost each, $5.75.

Daniel Robins, disorderly conduct, fined one penny and cost, $2.76.

The Best Prescription for Malaria
Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay. Price 50c.
