THE MUSICAL

Delightfully Enjoyed by Those Present.

The friends and patrons of Miss Lina Sheppard's music school were delightfully entertained at the musical given by her pupils Friday evening. The little folks acquitted themselves charmingly, showing both the efficiency of their teacher and their faithfulness at practice. Some of them had taken lessons only three months and their progress is remarkable.

The following program was rendered:

Chorus, by class.
Solo—"Thought of Thee," Miss Fannie Bagwell.
Duet—"Through Field and Forest," Misses Shelburn and Warren.
Trio—"Der Freischutz," Misses Gay, Brown and Wichard.
Solo—"Happy Ploughman," Miss Lee Brown
Duet—"Children's Ball," Misses King and Spain.
Solo—"Silver Bells," Miss Hennie Wichard.
Trio—"Rondo," Misses Quinn, Brooks and Smith.
Duet—"Young America March," Misses Smith and Gay.
Solo—"Little Home Pet," Miss Agnes Spain.
Duet—"Little Sunshine Polka," Misses Higgs and Skinner.
Solo—"Danse Moderne," Miss Rosa Hooker.
Trio—"Rondino," Misses Higgs and Skinner and Leon Pender.
Chorus, by class.

BAND CONCERT.

Splendid Entertainment in the Opera House.

There was a large audience at the concert in the opera house, Friday evening, given by the Osceola Band in appreciation of the many courtesies the people of Greenville have shown them.

Besides several of their best selections rendered by the band, there were some delightful special ties. Mrs. J. B. Cherry, always a favorite, sang two solos, her "coon" song just "bringing down the house." Miss Nina James also sang two solos. She has a rich alto voice that is magnificently sweet. The vocal solo by Mr. A. A. Forbes, Jr., in rich baritone voice, met much applause. The orchestral selection by the Forbes family was a prominent feature of the entertainment.

The contribution box was not overlooked and coins were liberally dropped in to give the poor children of the community a happy Christmas. The amount put in was $17.40.

Greenville is proud of the Osceola Band. There is not a better in the State.

Quite an Accident.

Mr. J. B. Cherry, Jr., was out hunting Friday afternoon. In attempting to cross a canal on a rail, the rail broke and he fell on the ice which broke and let him down in the water. In the fall both barrels of his gun were discharged and several of the shot rebounded from a tree and struck him in the face. His right hand and wrist were also badly sprained. It was a narrow escape from more serious injury.

Christmas

Neckwear.

Our Furnishing Department

Is fairly abloom with bright, handsome Christmas Neckwear the prettiest creations that the combined efforts of the weaver and silk worm ever produced. Every shape, too, that fashion allows. There is scarcely a man, young or old, who will not receive a Christmas Tie from his wife, sister, or best girl, and we believe that if every lady who buys a Christmas Tie would look here first, that we would sell every Christmas Tie sold in Greenville.

SATURDAY DECEMBER 21, 1901.

Senator Hanna has introduced a bill in Congress to grant a pension of $5,000 a year to the widow of the late President McKinley.

President Roosevelt has sent a special message to Congress in which he expresses approval of the proposed establishment of an Apalachian park.

The President has ousted one North Carolina colored man, but puts another in his place. He brought about the resignation of H. P. Cheatham as Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia and has appointed J. C. Dancy to that position. Dancy has for some years been Collector of Customs at Wilmington and was in Washington for the purpose of seeking reappointment when this new plumb fell in his lap. The new position carries $1,000 per year better salary than the old one.

Of Interest to Shippers.

The express office will be open some earlier than usual on both Monday and Tuesday mornings for the convenience of those wishing to send Christmas presents by express. No package that reaches the office after 8 o'clock can be forwarded on the morning train, so those expecting to make shipments should not wait until the last minute. A better plan would be for those to bring in packages during the day Monday that they wish to go off Tuesday morning. The express business is very heavy for the holidays, and shippers can facilitate matters by being far enough ahead to avoid the rush.

State Auditor Dixon has issued letters to a large number of registers of deeds in various counties advising them that under the law they can only collect the merchants' tax provided by the present revenue act from January 1st, 1901, to January 1st, 1902. This tax is now in the form of a purchase tax, the merchant being required to give in the gross amount of his purchases during the year from January to January and Auditor Dixon's letter is to correct an impression that the purchases must be given in from October. This error was due to the fact that the revenue act in operation prior to the 1901 legislature provided a merchants' tax on the capital stock instead of the gross purchases and this capital was given in for taxation in October. Dr. Dixon says a large number of the registers of deeds are "mixed up" on this matter.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Dec. 21.

Land Sale—A Bargain—One farm containing 87½ acres more or less. Nice tobacco, cotton or corn land, 50 acres cleared. Two good tenant houses and other buildings. Adjoins the lands of Henry Cory, Lewis Worthington and others and may be known as the James B. McGowan land. Apply to A. G. Cox.

One of the teachers in our school had occasion to compel three lads, all about 12 years of age, to remain in after school hours. When all had departed, but those who had to remain and silence reigned supreme in that school room, and the hour had become monotonous, the youngest of those boys in the most solemn and earnest manner, arose and said, "I move we adjourn." Very promptly the next youngest replied, "I second the motion." To which the teacher responded, "I guess not, I lay the motion on the table." (Tableaux.)

Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Kinston, spent Wednesday with A. G. Cox.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, of Greenville, came down Wednesday evening and left next morning on his tour of school inspection.

Miss Effie Kittrell left on the train yesterday evening to visit Miss Lennie Taylor, near Kinston, and spend the holidays.

School has closed for Christmas and all the boarding pupils have gone home and our town looks a little deserted. We wish each and every one of them a pleasant time and will gladly welcome them on their return for the next session.

The festivities of the holiday season began here Thursday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. T. Cox. The home of this hospitable couple, always pleasant, was doubly attractive on this occasion. The house brilliantly lighted and every preparation made for the pleasure of their guests. It goes beyond question that all who attended again feel indebted to the Doctor and his charming wife for another evening so delightfully spent that the reality of having attended is akin to a fascinating dream, and the reluctance with which they bade their host adieu was a desire that the event might last away.

J. H. Knight, of Newbern, was visiting friends here Tuesday.

Tom Dail, of Lizzie, came in on business Wednesday.

R. G. Chapman, of Calico, has moved his family here and occupies the Mrs. Abram Cox house.

Little Miss Irma Isabella Dawson came home from Baltimore Wednesday and everyone is delighted to know her eyes have very much improved.

Josh Manning went to Greenville Thursday.

W. L. Hurst and son, John, are visiting relatives in Bertie.

W. M. Carroll, of Kinston, was here Thursday.

F. O. Cox and wife, H. L. Hamilton and wife attended the funeral of their nephew, Carrick Mumford, Thursday, who died Wednesday night near Ayden.

You Cannot Change

the course of a storm by turning down the signals that give warning of its approach. Neither can you cure a cold by temporarily stopping a cough with opium-laden "medicines" Allen's Lung Balm, in which there is no opium, cures sore throats and sore lungs because it allays the inflammation and ride you of the mucus that stops up the air passages.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,

F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
