Happy Greeting.

To my friends and customers of Pitt and adjoining counties. Wishing each and every one a happy and prosperous

New Year.

Thanking each one for their patronage and kindness and ask a continuance of the same.

We wish to Say

We are still knocking out high prices. Our motto always will be Down with high prices.

W. T. LEE & CO.

IS THE CASH WHAT YOU ARE LOOKING FOR?

Then you want the attention of the people who have cash to spend. They are the people who read and you can attract their attention and their cash in no better way than by putting your advertisement in this paper.

THE REFLECTOR

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Jan. 1.

Land Sale—A Bargain—One farm containing 87½ acres more or less. Nice tobacco, cotton or corn land, 50 acres cleared. Two good tenant houses and other buildings. Adjoins the lands of Henry Cory, Lewis Worthington and others and may be known as the James B. McGowan land. Apply to A. G. Cox.

A prosperous and happy New Year to everybody.

The Christmas tree in the chapel of the school building last Wednesday evening was as pretty as we ever saw. Tastily arranged and heavily laden with valuable and useful presents it presented an appearance that was beautiful indeed. Everyone seemed to be remembered, and many were the happy hearts and beaming faces that were there on that occasion. Even your humble servant was kindly remembered and his future amply provided for in the gift of a nice set of buttons, a "nigger" baby and a black donkey. It has often been, in the past, with us a question of serious consideration as to what our avocation in life should have been, now that is settled in the provision made, if the tobacco interest of the Greenville market is not greatly enhanced next season, it shall not be the fault of our farming ability, the baby nor the donkey and to what we shall attribute any failure we will inform you later. We are content to wait and see.

The Winterville High School opened with a good number of new pupils and it is very pleasing to us to note that those from a distance who attended last session have all returned without a single exception. This speaks for itself.

It was cheering as well as inspiring at the coming of each and every train to meet the smiling, happy faces of returning pupils and to hear their expressions of delight of a Christmas pleasantly spent. And, too, it was gratifying that all seemed glad to be with us again. God bless every one of them and may they always be thus happy.

We had a customer last week who bought a large lot of wire fence. He said he was going to remove his old fence and put in wire fence. Then he would take the good rails and repair his remaining rail fence and the old or broken rails he would use in burning tobacco beds. We would advise others to think along this line and go and do likewise. 100,000 yards of wire fence for sale by A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Miss Mimie Cox spent Thursday and Friday with Miss Nina Cannon, of Ayden.

W. A. West, of Calico, and his uncle, John West, of Delaware, spent Thursday with J. D. Cox.

Sin Chapman was visiting Luke Jackson near Kinston from Thursday to Monday.

Mrs. Abram Cox spent Friday and Saturday in Ayden.

Misses Laura Cook and Annie Sledge and brother, Forest, who have been visiting their uncle, L. H. Pender, left this morning for their home in Tarboro.

Christmas

Neckwear.

Our Furnishing Department

Is fairly abloom with bright, handsome Christmas Neckwear the prettiest creations that the combined efforts of the weaver and silk worm ever produced. Every shape, too, that fashion allows. There is scarcely a man, young or old, who will not receive a Christmas Tie from his wife, sister, or best girl, and we believe that if every lady who buys a Christmas Tie would look here first, that we would sell every Christmas Tie sold in Greenville.

FRANK WILSON,

THE KING CLOTHIER.

NEW YEAR CHANGES.

Some Present, Some Prospective.

The first of every year brings a number of changes in business circles, and THE REFLECTOR finds the following to note this new year's day.

W. B. Brown is combining his 5 and 10 cent store stock with his other store, doing all the business at one place.

Ormond & Carr have dissolved copartnership, H. L. Carr will continue the hardware business, but will move from the present location in the Forbes store to one of the stores in the Brown & Hooker building.

Baker & Hart will move their hardware stock from the Phoenix building to the Alfred Forbes store which was occupied last year by Ormond & Carr.

W. S. Fleming has purchased the residue of the Starkey & Bro. stock and will move it to his store in the Jarvis building.

Johnston & Bro. will occupy the store vacated by Starkey & Bro. Drs. E. A. Moye and C. O'H. Laughinghouse have formed a copartnership and will both occupy Dr. Moye's office building on Dickinson avenue.

Dr. R. L. Carr will come down stairs and have his dental rooms in the office lately occupied by Dr. Laughinghouse.

J. S. Mooring has purchased the interest of W. H. White in business of White and Fleming, and the firm will hereafter be Fleming & Mooring.

J. Z. Gardner has opened a buggy repair and blacksmith shop on Cotanch street, near Fifth.

AMONG THE CLERKS.

C. M. Jones, formerly with J. B. Cherry & Co., has gone on the road as traveling salesman for a wholesale shoe house.

B. E. Patrick, formerly with Ricks & Wilkinson is at leisure for awhile, but expects to embark on an important mission soon.

C. C. Parkerson, formerly with C. T. Munford, is now with Sam White. Willie Roberson, of Bethel, and D. C. Dudley have taken positions at the same store.

C. F. White takes a position with J. B. White.

J. L. Carper, formerly with Frank Wilson, will return to his home in Wadesboro.

J. L. Horne, formerly with J. B. White, is now with Frank Wilson.

Exposure to Wet,

dampness and cold, invariably results in a sudden chill which if not attended to immediately will cause a cold. By mixing a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Painkiller in half a glass of warm water or milk, the whole system will be heated and the danger of a cold avoided. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

Brief Record of Events of the Year.

THE NEW CENTURY BEGUN.

Deaths of Great Rulers, a Queen and a President—The Struggle in South Africa—Items of Personal, Political and Miscellaneous Affairs. Disasters From Fire, Storm and Accident—A Classified Summary.

PASSING OF M'KINLEY.

The Assassination, Death, Succession of Roosevelt and Memorial Services.

SEPTEMBER.
6. President McKinley shot while holding a reception in the Temple of Music at the Pan-American exposition by a man known as Fred Nieman, but who proved to be Colquhoun; two bullets entered the president's body, and one was immediately removed by the surgeons; the assailant was seized and locked up.

24. President McKinley died at the residence of President John G. Milburn of the exposition in Buffalo at 2:15 a. m.; the first sinking spell came on the morning of the previous day and was followed by a slight rally in the forenoon; at night on the 13th (Friday) the vitality was low and all hope abandoned; Mrs. McKinley was at the deathbed, and among the last words spoken by her dying husband were those which will pass into history, "God's will be done, not ours."

Vice President Theodore Roosevelt took the oath of office as president of the United States at Buffalo; after taking the oath he proclaimed the following pledge: "In this hour of deep and terrible national bereavement I wish to state that it shall be my aim to continue absolutely unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace and prosperity and honor of our beloved country."

23. Funeral services over the remains of President McKinley held at the Milburn house, Buffalo; the body was then escorted to city hall, where it lay in state.

23. The remains of President McKinley were taken from Buffalo to Washington and placed in the White House, where they lay in state; later the remains were removed from the White House to the capitol, where a state funeral was held.

23. The funeral train of President McKinley reached Canton and the remains lay in state in the courthouse.

23. Final honors paid to the remains of President McKinley at Canton; after religious services at the First Methodist Episcopal church the casket was placed in Woodlawn cemetery; President Roosevelt and the chief officers of the government attended the services; throughout the country there was a complete suspension of business, and religious and special memorial services were held in every city and town.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME AT A NOMINAL COST.

Will You Sleep Well?

Tonight? Not if you have a cough that begins to torment you as soon as you lie down. You can conquer the cough with Allen's Lung Balsam, which will relieve the pain in the chest, the irritation in the throat and the hard breathing. Since it contains no opium, this remedy may be given freely to children, and to the most delicate adults.
