NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Jan. 15.
SPECIAL ATTENTION TOBACCO GROWERS.

Last season we made about 500 Tobacco Trucks, mostly of the Tyndall pattern, and we have not heard of a single man who bought these trucks that does not speak in praise of them. We found many farmers who wanted to use them, but could not, because they had not arranged their rows properly. We advised the farmers last season to consider the use of tobacco trucks and prepare their rows so they could use them when they began to house their tobacco. Many of them took our advice and were glad of it. Others did not, and some of them regretted the fact. We had one customer who said he had rather chop every eighth row of tobacco down and throw it away than to house his tobacco without the trucks. We still advise every tobacco grower to prepare his land with a view of using these trucks in housing his crops during the coming season and our experience is, they will never have cause to regret it.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Preparation is being made for the organization and equipment of a brass band in this place. Subscriptions have been freely donated and every indication is that the toot-c-toot of the musical clarinet and the melodious drum will be heard throughout the realm at no distant day.

What young man in town, who when speaking of his best girl, always calls her by her sister's name? When informed of his mistake he never fails to make proper correction. This is not Jimmie Greene.

Miss May Tillman, of Kinston, after spending several days with the family of W. E. Hamilton, returned home Monday evening.

James Sinclair, traveling auditor for the A. C. L., was here yesterday on business.

Miss Mimie Cox spent Friday and Saturday with Miss Daisy Mumford, of Ayden, and returned home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Bilbro, of Ayden, was in Winterville Sunday on important business.

V. E. Staton, of Bethel, spent Friday night here.

W. G. Bryan received a telegram Monday morning announcing the death of his sister. He left immediately to attend the funeral services which were held at Bethel. All our people sympathize with Mr. Bryan in his bereavement.

John B. Galloway and wife, of Grimesland, spent last night at the dormitory with their children. Mrs. Galloway left this morning to visit relatives in Chatham county.

Barlow & Wilson's minstrels in the opera house Tuesday night gave the best show of the kind that has been here this season. There are some fine voices in the company and the music was excellent.

The Raleigh correspondent Charlotte Observer says: There are grave suspicions that the fire at Grimesland was of incendiary origin and the insurance commissioner will be asked to investigate. He has had great success in his investigation of such fires.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1902.

There is an old saying that a white mule never dies, but the Kinston Free Press reports the killing of one by a passenger train on the A. & N. C. railroad. Whether the mule got on the railroad track with suicidal intent is not stated.

The first half of the first month of the new year chronicles no new enterprise established in Greenville. Our people should think more of those industries that give employment to all wanting it. Enterprises with a large number of wage earners and good pay rolls are the ones that help a town most. Plenty of room for this kind in Greenville. Let us have more of them.

The United States Civil Service Commission will hold examinations at several places in each state during March and April, to secure young men and women for the government service. 9,889 persons secured positions last year through these examinations. Probably 10,000 appointments will be made this year. All appointments are for life and for most positions only a common school education is required. Salaries at appointment vary from $660 to $1200 a year with liberal promotions afterward. Politics is not considered. There is less competition in the southern states than in other parts of the country. This affords a good opportunity for people between 16 and 45 years of age. Those desiring places of this kind can get full information about them free, by writing to the Columbian Correspondence College, Washington, D. C. and asking for its Civil Service catalogue, number three.

Nordau Likes Markham.

Mr. Edwin Markham's verse is the object of the queer approbation of the erratic Dr. Max Nordau. "Edwin Markham," he declares, "is a great poet. I place him higher than Walt Whitman, as his form is more artistic and beautiful. There is sometimes a Miltonic ring in his verses and Swinburnian richness in his rhymes and rhythms. And as to his philosophy and emotion, they are of the noblest kind. It honors Americans that Mr. Markham's poetry should have been able to create at once a sensation among them."

English, You Know.

London tailors make a fortune in New York every spring and fall. They send their representatives over from London, and the latter put up at the best hotels in New York city and take innumerable orders for suits of clothes from the younger members of the swell clubs who cannot go over and who desire to own English clothes with the English mark in the neck of the coat.—New York Sun.

JUST AN OLD TIME DARKEY.

Sees Rain in the Moon—Gratefully Remembers "Ole Missus."

On our usual walk out Dickson avenue to the depot, Tuesday evening, we came up near enough behind an old time colored man to hear him talking to himself as he ambled along, and at once became interested in his soliloquy. Suddenly the old man looked upward and began addressing the moon. "Dar yer is, hol'in' yer water up dar. Nebber min', fus t'ing yer know'll be turnin' it down on us. W'en yer p'int hang low den yer dun dreen yer water all out, but w'en yer p'int rech way up high lak dat, yer hol'in' yer water back. Yer's got plenty water on bo'd now, spec' I sees sum sno' up dar, too.

Just as he had finished this with a happy chuckle over his ability to read signs in the moon, a young negro came driving by on a cart, his horse going in a trot. "Hol' on sonny, I see goin' yo' way! Let de ole man ride wid yer," and he turned off the sidewalk to go to the cart. But the young buck never drew a rein, nor so much as turned his head to the old man's entreaty. As he drove on the old man sent a look of disgust after him, and continuing his way began talking again.

"Umph! I woul'n't dun er dog lak dat. I doan keet if he doan lemme ride. I 'spise er nigger enny how. I was brung up in de big house wid de white fokes, an' ole Missus larnt me better dat. Po' ole Missus, she's gone long ergo, but she'd be sorry in de grave ef she kno'd de ole man ter do enny body mean as dat. Bless her soul, she was mi'ty gud ter de ole man."

We had passed by and gone too far ahead to hear more, but he had put us to thinking how scarce the old time negro has become, and that the last of them will soon be gone to join "ole Missus." And his seeing rain in the moon put our corns to hurting.

Great work by a Blind Man.

William Brinkman, the Kokomo blind man, who two years ago married Jennie Lamb, who besides being blind is totally paralyzed, has disarmed his critics who insisted that he had his hands full in taking care of himself without assuming additional burdens. In two years, Brinkman, unaided by charity, has paid for a home and improved it to a present worth of $800. The blind man has sold 3,880 pounds of peanuts and 31,000 popcorn balls. After preparing the morning meal and guiding the food to the mouth of the helpless wife, he rolls the peanut roaster down town, returning home at noon and night for the other meals. He does all the housekeeping. Besides that he tunes pianos, repairs clocks and organs. Recently he took an organ of 420 pieces apart, cleaned it and had it together and playing on it in four hours. He declines all offers of charity. A short time ago Mr. Brinkman performed the perilous feat of climbing the court house tower and repairing the town clock, when experts had failed Mr. and Mrs. Brinkman became acquainted at the State Blind School and with them it was a case of "love at first sight," as both expressed it.—St. Louis Democrat.

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

End of the Century Club.

Reported for The Reflector.]

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grimes still make their winter home at their fine estate of Avon, but the latter realizing the inconvenience to which the eighteen members of the club would be subjected by a drive of nine miles in the country and back on winter's afternoon, came to town as a guest of Hotel Macon and was the hostess at an elaborate reception to the club and sundry invited guests on Thursday afternoon of the last week.

Mrs. Grimes is one of the most gifted of this unusually talented coterie of women. It is needless to say that the evening was one of marked enjoyment.

Mrs. Grimes rendered some very charming selections of vocal music.

Mrs. Cherry and Miss Sallie Cotten sang a coon song amid acclamations of applause from the entire company.

Mrs. Cherry and Mrs. Arthur won the first prizes in an intricate puzzle contest.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. F. G. James on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock January twenty first.

in the book or memory: there is no such thing as a harmless cough. Every cough is a warning of a confidence that goes from bad to worse unless it is remedied right away. Opium-laden medicine is a delusion. Allen's Lung Balm cures the worst of colds. It clears the bronchial passages, so that the lungs get plenty of air. Why not get a bottle today?

An Ancient Bit of Cheese.

An object of considerable interest was sold in London the other day—no other than a preserved fragment of a "Protestant cheese." From the inscription on the base of the glass shade we learn that in gratitude for his able vindication of the Protestant ascendancy in parliament on April 25, 1825, H. R. H. the duke of York was presented by the inhabitants of the county palatine of Chester with the largest cheese ever made—149 pounds in weight—of their own producing. The duke gave a small portion of this cheese to Mary Isabella, duchess of Rutland, and it is this fragment, preserved by Professor Cumming, which came under the hammer, realizing $9.

Must be in Court.

In an announcement just before the dinner hour today Judge Winston said that nothing so brings the courts into contempt with the public as the habit of prominent citizens, in the towns where the courts are held remaining away from the court house to be sent for when needed. It makes the humble feel that the courts are run in the interests of such people. He instructed the lawyers to inform all witnesses and suitors to be present when called or there would be due process issued to bind them to attend and they would be charged with the expense of such process. The Judge shows a disposition to run the court in the interest of justice and the public and in this has the encouragement and endorsement of all good citizens.

Be Prepared.

There is no need of any alarm about smallpox, but with Wilson county full of the disease on one side of us, and a case reported in Kinston on another side of us, it will not be amiss for the authorities of this county to be on the lookout and ready to act promptly if any should appear within our borders. In late years, though the disease has several times been nearly all around us, not a case has been found in Pitt county. At the same time its nearness was the cause of a general vaccination in Greenville and considerable in the county, and wherever this precaution was taken there is no danger. It would be wise for those who have not been vaccinated to do so now.
