Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race,
but let the people know what you are here for.
The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell, and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive ads to illustrate. Remember advertising is not a waste of money
if you use them as you can't know just what you want to say, we will help you say it. Your advertisement, blank in our columns, is like you talk to the people.
The rest of our advertisement is the same as the one you see.

End of the Slot Machines.

Slot machines have come to their end in Greenville, thanks to the efficiency of the Solicitor and court.
After the charge of Judge Winston to the grand jury at the beginning of court, it was clearly seen that the machines in operation here were gambling machines, a fact that the majority of people already believed. Warrants were forthwith sworn out before Mayor W.
H. Long against every bar-keeper in town in whose place one of the machines was operated, and also against E. W. Pace, owner of the machines, and all the parties were bound over to Superior court. Solicitor Moore then pushed the matter so as to get the cases heard at the present term.

The first of the cases was tried Monday, it being considered that the result of that case would determine all the others. The jury returned a verdict of guilty against the defendants.

To make the matter short and as light as possible, the defendants in the other cases all appeared in court this morning and submitted, all agreeing to give up the machines and run them no more.

After some statements by attorneys and the Solicitor, Judge Winston closed the matter by suspending judgment upon payment of costs in all the cases, the purpose of the prosecution having been met in ridding the town of the gambling machines.

Superior Court.

The following cases have been disposed of since last report:

A. R. House, false pretense, not guilty.

Joseph McLawhorn, manslaughter, not guilty.

M. L. Starkey and E. W. Pace,
running unlawful slot machine,
guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

L. Hooker and E. W. Pace,
running unlawful slot machine,
plead guilty, judgment suspended
on payment of costs.

Z. V. Hooker, O. Hooker and E. W. Pace, running unlawful slot machine, plead guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

J. A. Brady and E. W. Pace,
running unlawful slot machine,
plead guilty, judgment suspended
on payment of costs.

R. A. Nichols and E. W. Pace,
running unlawful slot machine,
plead guilty, judgment suspended
on payment of costs.

J. A. Dudley and E. W. Pace,
running unlawful slot machine,
plead guilty, judgment suspended
on payment of costs.

Jacob Latham, murder, defendant submit to a verdict of manslaughter.

Submit to Manslaughter.

Jake Latham, colored, against whom the grand jury returned a bill for murder for the killing of W. H. Proctor, was taken in court this morning for trial when he entered a plea of guilty of manslaughter. This was accepted by the Solicitor and some witnesses for the defendant were examined to show the court the merits of the case. Judge Winston reserved his judgment until he can consider the matter carefully, but Jake will probably get only a light sentence.

We Fit Any Form.

Mr. STOUT MAN

AND

Mr. SLIM MAN.

This way gentlemen, here's your winter Clothing. Many stout men, slim men and men who require different clothes from the average man give up "ready-made" clothing in despair. We bring them hope. We promise to fit every one directly from our clothing tables—with perhaps a little alteration in some particularly severe cases. We'll surprise you with the clothes; possibly more with the prices—for, being abnormal in shape, you've had to pay a penalty to your taylor, so to speak. We do away with that and charge you no more than we do the ordinary man.
Never mind how peculiar your shape may be, bring it in here and we may surprise you by fitting you, as well as by saving you quite a sum of money. Come, see at any rate.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1902.

The news comes from Richmond Va., that another of the country's historic structures is to be sacrificed to the relentless march of modern commercialism. It is stated that negotiations are under way for the sale of old St. John church. It was there that the words of defiance to England were uttered, when Patrick Henry rose in the Virginia convention, then sitting in the building, and hurried his famous challenge to King George, "Give me liberty or give me death."

Tuesday's papers brought the news that Claude Bernard had withdrawn from the fight in Washington for the district attorneyship for eastern North Carolina. He decided that he would not further oppose the desire of Senator Pritchard to recommend Harry Skinner for the place, the promise for this course being that Bernard should have something else. This will probably leave the way clear for the appointment of Skinner, which with some other matters explained to the satisfaction of the President, was expected to be made today. Those Republicans in Raleigh and elsewhere in the State who were backing Bernard for reappointment, express disgust at his withdrawing from the fight.

Newspaper men have noted that there are certain periods when certain things of a similar kind happen almost simultaneously throughout the country. At one period there is an epidemic of murders, at another of rape, at another of burglaries, and at another there are a large number of fatal accidents. Within the past month there has been an epidemic of railroad wrecks. We do not recall that ever before there were so many, nearly, all of them attended by some fatalities, within so short a time. There has also been in the same period and epidemic of murders and these have been largely of one kind—men killing their wives and frequently whole families. We are not attempting to account for these things—merely calling attention to them. Next month there may be an epidemic of suicides, or robberies or disasters by flood and fire. It is the way these things appear to run.—Statesville Landmark.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Jan. 22.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TOBACCO GROWERS.

Last season we made about 500 Tobacco Trucks, mostly of the Tyndall pattern, and we have not heard of a single man who bought these trucks that does not speak in praise of them. We found many farmers who wanted to use them, but could not, because they had not arranged their rows properly. We advised the farmers last season to consider the use of tobacco trucks and prepare their rows so they could use them when they began to house their tobacco. Many of them took our advice and were glad of it. Others did not, and some of them regretted the fact. We had one customer who said he had rather chop every eighth row of tobacco down and throw it away than to house his tobacco without the trucks. We still advise every tobacco grower to prepare his land with a view of using these trucks in housing his crops during the coming season and our experience is, they will never have cause to regret it.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Quite a number of our young ladies spent Saturday and Sunday in the country visiting friends. Limited space we regret forbids special mention.

Mrs. Moore and children, of Grindool, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, returned home Monday.

John F. Mewborne, of Kinston, was on our market Saturday buying cotton.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson died last Sunday and was buried in the Nobles burying ground Monday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Harding, of Greenville, conducted the funeral services.

E. Brooks, of Griffon, was here Monday.

W. J. Wyatt returned from Raleigh Monday evening.

Misses Bessie and Hattie Nichols were visiting in Greenville Saturday.

John L. Phelps, Revenue Collector from Plymouth, paid his regular visit to the cigar factory Tuesday. We find him a clever gentleman.

Rev. W. L. Laughinghouse, of Greenville, spent part of the day here yesterday. He came to place his daughter in our school.

Three hearts displayed in the place of one is now worn by one of Winterville's charming young ladies, and the heart that fails to respond to these hearts is no heart at all.

W. L. Hurst has been confined to his room for the past few days with an attack of grip.

A. G. Cox left on last night's train for Kinston.

Jimmie Galloway returned Saturday from his visit up in Chat-ham.

Lost Four Legs.

A young British officer in South Africa recently wrote home to his father: "Dear father: Kindly send me $50 at once. Lost another leg in a stiff engagement and am in hospital without means." The answer was: "My dear son: As this is the fourth leg you have lost, according to your letters, you ought to be accustomed to it by this time. Try to wobble along on any others you may have left."

Summer Salad.

Select six fresh cucumbers all the same size. Pare, cut in halves lengthwise, scoop out the centers, and lay in water-till wanted. Dry and fill with mixture of sweetbreads and peas dressed with mayonnaise. Set on a green lettuce leaf on individual plates. Serve with dainty plain bread and butter sandwiches and baked apples.

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,

F. A. WERMAN, 750 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

INTERNATIONAL AMERICAN, 555 LA SALLE ST. CHICAGO, ILL.

Smallest Baby Ever Known. Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 19.—Dr. W. F. Gilliam, who has been practicing medicine for 32 years, tells a story of the birth and growth of a baby girl which is unparalleled in medical experience.

The parents of the child are Mr. and Mrs. Clint McMurtry. On January 28 Dr. Gilliam was called to attend Mrs. McMurtry for pneumonia. She gave premature birth to a baby girl, 10 inches in length. Its head was soft and no larger than a lemon and its thighs were about the size of a man's finger. Dr. Gilliam had the babe wrapped in cotton and told the father that it could not live over an hour.

On returning next day, 18 hours later, Dr. Gilliam was astonished to find the babe alive. He gave it a little milk, and when it survived the second day took great interest in the case, and saw to it that the weakling was given every attention.

At the end of 16 days the infant was dressed for the first time. At the end of three months it weighed 20 ounces and awoke for the first time. The child is now almost a year old and weighs 14 pounds. It is healthy and thriving.

England's Youngest Minister. Mr. Chamberlain at 65 is among the youngest men in the house of commons. He could very well pass for ten years younger; in broad daylight and at times he looks positively youthful. The last two or three years have touched his raven locks with gray, but his figure is as slim and alert as ever. The colonial secretary is a striking proof of the truth that every man is a law unto himself. He boasts of never having taken any physical exercise and walks only when it is impossible to ride. Yet he always appears to be in perfect "training," and a touch of gout now and then is the only reminder the right-honorable gentleman gets that flesh is mortal.—London Chronicle.

Bombarding the Clouds. The plan of protecting vineyards from the ravages of hailstorms seems to have been successful in part only, if at all, in France and in Italy. Some experiments have been made in both countries, but the inference drawn up to this time seems to be that whole parks of artillery containing many guns of large caliber will be needed if reasonable security against hail is to be insured. And it is not altogether certain as yet that even if hundreds of 16 inch guns were to be discharged at short intervals the protection would be complete. The bombardment of the heavens cannot yet be considered effectual.

A College of Matrimony. There is some talk of establishing a women's college of matrimony, to be located in Chelsea, England, where the duties of a wife will become the subject of a two years' course of study. The curriculum will embrace not only the usual branches of housewifery, such as cooking, sewing and laundry work, but is intended to deal with physiology and medicine as well, so that the students will receive mental discipline in connection with the manual training.

Happenings In North Carolina.

The Southerner reports of several horses dying of blind staggers in Edgecombe county.

A gin house belonging to the State at the Caledonia farm on Roanoke river, was destroyed by fire Monday. Not much cotton was lost.

The Governor will call a good roads convention to meet in Raleigh February 13th and 14th. A large attendance is expected.

There were representatives of four generations of his family present when Governor Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, was inaugurated at Des Moines last Thursday. They were his father and mother, some of his brothers and sisters, his daughter and his grandson. Governor Cummins was one of ten children. Eight of them are still living, and there has been no death in the family for forty years.

The ladder of fame comes high. A country seat—the top fence rail.

No Reasonable Man

imagines that a neglected cold can be cured in a day. The uncountable air-cells in the lungs are inflamed and the throat is as tender as an open sore. But time and Allen's Lung Balsam will overcome the cold and stave off consumption. The cough will cease and the lungs will be sound as a new dollar. All druggists sell Allen's Lung Balsam.

It Makes New Trade.

The idea that advertising is merely a struggle for a given amount of business is a fallacy. Advertising creates new business by reminding or informing people of their needs—a real service to the people as well as a benefit to the advertiser.—Philadelphia Record.

Opera House Tonight.

Through a misprint in the advertisement the date of the coming of the Thorne-Meyer Company was made to read Thursday, Jan. 22nd, when it should have been Wednesday, 22nd. Their engagement opens tonight and they will sustain their former reputation by giving a good show.

"Dollars and Sense."

J. Robert Jordan, Grand Lecturer of the Knights of Pythias of the Domain of North Carolina, will visit Greenville next week. While here he will give an evening to the benefit of the Daughters of the Confederacy, when he will impersonate Nat Goodwin's famous comedy, "Dollars and Sense or the Gilded Fool." This will be presented in the opera house on Tuesday night, 28th. It will be full of refined humor, and if our people wish to be delightfully entertained they should be present.

MRS. JARVIS ENTERTAINS.

In Compliment to Mrs. Parker.

Monday Mrs. Jarvis was hostess at a delightful dinner party given complimentary to her very attractive guest, Mrs. Parker, of Henderson. Covers were laid for ten and the guests, beside Mrs. Parker, were Me-dames Cherry, Skinner, Wooten, King, James, Grimes, Blow and Ficklen.

Later in the afternoon the Daughters of the Confederacy were also Mrs. Jarvis' guests, and no more delightful evening has been spent since the organization of the chapter. The feature of the evening was an unusually witty and bright paper upon "Clubs and Club Work" read by Mrs. Parker. Each member heartily enjoyed the paper and a rising vote of thanks were tendered Mrs. Parker for giving the club such a treat.

Mrs. Parker has been the recipient of much social attention since her stay in Greenville.

Watches and men are known by their works.

Setting a Prisoner Free.

A man with rheumatism is a prisoner. His fetters are none the less galling because they are invisible. To him Perry Davis' Painkiller comes as a liberator. Rubbed well into the swollen, stiffened joints it not merely drives away the pain, it makes the muscles pliable so that the prisoner becomes a free man. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis. 25 and 50cts.

Desperate Fight With Wolves.

After a desperate struggle with a pack of wolves, Olaf Halesrud, farmer living about ten miles from here, lies in a critical condition, with the flesh literally torn from his body in many places. Physicians say he cannot live.

Last night Halesrud was awakened by a disturbance among the animals in his barnyard. Going out, he was surrounded by a pack of wolves. He attempted to regain his house, but before he had gone 20 feet the wolves were snapping and snarling at his heels. He attempted to defend himself with a club, but several times he was forced to the ground with the wolves upon him. Each time, however, he managed to fight them off, until he regained his feet. Fighting his way, inch by inch, he finally succeeded in reaching the door of his house and he staggered in and drew the bolt. Wolves have been so numerous and their work so destructive in this vicinity of late that an organized effort is being made to hunt them down. La Crosse, Wis., Dispatch.
