SATURDAY FEBRUARY 8, 1902.

Farmers should not let the present advance in the price of cotton lead them to plant too large a crop this year. It will be better to increase the acreage in corn and give first attention to home supplies.

Under the present system of taxation a surplus is rolling up in the Treasury. This is all wrong, for the government has no right to take from the people more than enough for its necessary and legitimate expenses.

A new law in Iceland authorizes any adult to administer a sound spanking to any child found smoking a cigarette, and to destroy any of the "destroyers" that are found in the possession of children. This will probably create the necessity of a law to protect people who spank other peoples' children from assault by irate parents.

The census bureau has just reported that the value of the cut flower interests in this country exceed $53,000,000, with an annual income of more than $18,000,000. This will refute part of the charge that Americans are essentially unaesthetic, as the love for flowers is one of the surest indications, as Emerson, says, "that a ray of beauty outvalues all the world."

Raleigh is getting somewhat exercised over the prospect of not getting the next State Convention. Unless the city makes better provision for taking care of the convention than it has in the past it should not even be considered when the time for selecting the place comes. Raleigh has made many promises in this matter that now seem as far from fulfillment as ever.

The Southern people have contributed, directly, to the cause of negro education, since 1865, about $110,000,000. Every great fair held in the section since the civil war has established a negro exhibition, provided a house or houses, and contributed money to aid the colored exhibitors. Here are two historical facts that plainly attest the enlightened feeling of the dominant race where their former slaves are concerned. These acts disclose a policy of righteousness and justice, for which the southern people too seldom receive proper credit.—Chattanooga Times, Ind.

Balsams from the Northern Wood are in Fry-Balsam, the certain cure for coughs

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 7.

President Roosevelt is about to indulge his propensity for administering reprimands once more. This time the victim will be his former Colonel, General Leonard Wood. General Wood has addressed to the Senators a circular letter representing the sore need of Cuba of liberal treatment by Congress and the President considered that his appeal should have been sent through the War Department and that his having addressed the Senators and omitted to address the members of the House was a serious error from the standpoint of tact and diplomacy. Accordingly, the General is to be treated to an expression of executive wrath similar to that administered to General Miles.

On last Monday evening the republicans of the House met in Caucus and considered the proposals to limit the representations of the Southern States and, in the words of one of the members present, "labored the whole night and accomplished nothing." They talked volubly and wildly for several hours and then Representative Sereno E. Payne came in and told them they did not know what they were talking about and, as a large number of those present had come to the same conclusion, they accepted his dictum and adjourned.

A sharp tilt occurred recently in the Senate Committee on Inter-Oceanic canals when Senator Morgan, chairman of the Committee, openly accused Senator Hanna of willfully obstructing canal legislation. Senator Morgan, so I am told, even went so far as to accuse the Senator from Ohio of greater solicitude for his friends, the transcontinental railroads, than for the undubitably expressed wishes of the American people. Senator Hanna is said to have turned very red under the Alabamian's charges and then to have denied them in no uncertain terms and a more severe encounter was only prevented by the interference of the other members of the committee. When the canal question comes up for consideration on the floor of the Senate the same accusations are likely to be implied but in a more veiled form and it is hardly likely that the dignified Senate will be treated to the dramatic scene occurred in Senator Morgan's committee-room.

FORTY YEARS AGO.

"Yankee Thought He Had Played —"

As the years roll around the few old Confederate soldiers left have something to remind them of their experiences in the war of 1861-65. This morning Lieut. C. D. Rountree was telling some of his comrades that it was just forty years ago today that the Yankees captured Roanoke Island. He was there in the thick of it, and even though captured he could always see something to make a good joke and enjoy a hearty laugh in telling it. At the Roanoke Island incident a Yankee pulled off his cap and began hurrahing over the captives. A fellow Confederate officer near Lieut. Rountree remarked, "That — Yankee thinks he has played —, don't he?" then adding in an under tone, "And I think he has too."

Joints Like Rusty Hinges

are among the consequences of rheumatism. The sufferer can move knees and elbows, but the effort makes him wince. He rejoices when a good rubbing with Perry Davis' Painkiller drives the stiffness out and brings the freedom of motion back. No wonder our grandfathers believed heartily in this beneficial liniment. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

ARE YOU WISE? A great many people suffer through ignorance. They don't know that for all inflammation there is no remedy to equal Mexican Mustang Liniment.

an easy way

and with this gargle the throat at frequent intervals. Then bathe the outside of the throat thoroughly with the liniment and after doing this pour some on a soft cloth and wrap around the neck. It is a POSITIVE CURE.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

H. A. White went to Parmele this morning.

Frank Wilson and Raymond Tyson went to Kinston Friday evening.

Mrs. J. S. Barr, of Weldon, came in Friday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Forbes.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

A child was recently born in Reidsville which has six hands.

It looks like the smallpox is getting scattered all over the State.

Judging from the papers, a number of "bums" shows have been working the State recently.

Near Raleigh the two year old daughter of Mr. B. N. Ferrell was burned to death, and in trying to put out the fire his wife was so terribly burned as to permanently destroy the use of both hands.

Rev. T. H. Pelham, who lives at Pelham, North Carolina, just "over the Virginia line," has married over 1,700 couples. Most of these have been young folks running away from Virginia parents.

We are informed by Mayor Webb that Town Clerk L. J. Mewborne has a dog that beats the LaGrange dog, that brought a splinter to start the fire, all to pieces; that yesterday shortly before noon the intelligent dog looked up in Lam's face, rushed out and soon returned with a roast of beef. The dog had seen that his master was hungry. — Kinston Free Press.

Good Doctrine to Preach and to Follow.

Patronize your home paper both with subscriptions and advertising. And don't hold back and wait for this doctrine to be pounded into you, either. It's a good doctrine—both to preach and to follow—but no self-respecting newspaper wants to be everlastingly reminding its people of their remissness. It places the newspaper in the position of mendicancy—of asking for something it needs and has no very clear right to. Besides, it reflects on the people who are patronizing the paper. And yet there are people who should sit in front of a megaphone and hear this shouted at them every minute in the day. — Edward Gilliam in Charlotte News.

Smallpox.

Our Bethel correspondent reports the first case of smallpox in Pitt county, and even this may prove without foundation. A telephone message last night says there is a well developed case a little this side of Robersonville.

It is more than likely that the 20 per cent. of white men in Alabama who disfranchised themselves for a year by refusing to pay their poll tax in the required time, wouldn't have taken the trouble to go to the polls any way, so there isn't much lost. — Wilmington Star.

We fully agree with the Durham Herald that "after the trouble that the courts have in convicting a man of any serious crime it is well enough to let the law take its course, especially where there is no possible doubt as to his guilt."

Do Not Expect Miracles.

If a cold, long neglected, or improperly treated has clutched you by the throat, you cannot shake it loose in a day, but you can stop its progress and in a reasonable time get rid of it altogether. If you use Allen's Lung Balsam. There is nothing like this honest remedy for bronchitis, asthma, and other affections of the air passages.

I will have my new laundry ready for business Monday, February 10th, and will be glad to have your trade. I have had twelve years of practical experience and can guarantee my work.

Yours truly,
J. E. DAYBURY, Manager.

An Outspoken Girl.

She must have been referring to the New Year reception. Anyhow, a Kansas girl writes to the Atchison Globe:

"When we reached the White House there was a stream of carriages four blocks long. There were so many on the inside that we had to stand on the portico over half an hour. It was so jammed where we waited that when I got one foot up I couldn't put it down. Mr. Cochran said it was the largest crowd ever in the White House. When the doors finally opened, the crush was awful, and I lost a very much prized belt buckle. However, I was thankful to get in with my clothes still on. The President was very cordial, but as homely as ever. I don't like to criticize my hosts, but I do believe President and Mrs. Roosevelt are the plainest people I ever saw in my life."

That sounds exactly like a square, honest, truthful, outspoken girl, and notwithstanding the handsome pictures of the President and his wife that appear from time to time in the newspapers we pin our faith to this girl and will bet a dollar that she has them down right. — Charlotte Observer.
