The Truest Thing We Ever Didn't Say.

BUT PERHAPS WE DID AND ONLY REPEAT.

Not sure whether we told you after inventory that our stocks were then in record condition, by which we mean Clearest of clinkers. If we didn't it was the truest thing we ever didn't say.

Of all the hard lessons a merchant has to learn the hardest is this: NEVER CARRY OVER.

Into goods lately bought, bought right and still in fashion, it's mighty hard to plunge the knife. But do it he often must, or suffer later. It's due to you, as well as us, that we start the new season right. WE DO.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 28.

Republican autocracy with many of its attendant evils has marked the course of events in Washington during the past week and scenes have been enacted in the United States Senate Chamber more disgraceful than any that have violated the dignity of that body since the exciting days immediately before the war. The two Senators from South Carolina, Tillman and McLaurin, have engaged in a personal encounter on the floor of the Senate, Wellington and McComas of Maryland have indulged in accusations and recriminations which must have ended in violence but for the prompt suppression of the former by the chair and, as if to create a fitting climax to these deplorable happenings, the president of the Senate, Mr. Frye of Maine, by an assumption of autocratic power never equalled in the national legislature, caused to be stricken from the rolls the names of the Senators from South Carolina.

As soon as order could be restored after the brawl engaged in by the South Carolina senators on last Saturday the Senate went into executive session and unanimously adjudged the offenders "in contempt." On Monday when the roll was called on an amendment to the Lodge Philippine bill, it became evident that Senator Frye had erased the names of the South Carolinians from the rolls and an immediate protest was entered by the democrats. Mr. Bailey, of Texas, appealed in an eloquent speech to the republican majority not to establish such a precedent. By an extremely logical presentation of the law he demonstrated the unconstitutionality of the action of the chair. Pledging the democrats to act with the republicans in imposing any proper punishment on the senators who had violated the dignity of the Senate, he begged the republicans not to violate the constitution and insult the state of South Carolina by disfranchising her. Admitting that by a two-thirds vote the Senate might expell the offenders from membership, because then the governor of their state could send others to take their places, and "the sovereign state would not be deprived of her voice in the Senate" he proved that if it lay within the power of the Senate to deprive a state of suffrage for a day it might do it for years and, in fact, the majority could according to this precedent, declare every member of the minority "in contempt" and so bar every democratic state from voice or vote in the proceedings. Senator Bailey's argument was clear, concise and eloquent but his words fell upon ears that heard not. In the midst of his speech the chair recognized a motion from Senator Aldrich to proceed with the regular order. The precedent was established and several votes, including the final ballot by which the Lodge bill was passed, were taken without South Carolina's having an opportunity to vote yes or no.

AT THE CLUB.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-hour man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. In short, the store where the good dresser always finds the thing he wants without paying an extra price for style. If you are interested in Clothing and Haberdashery with character, come in.

SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1902.

Again we say if Greenville had factories employing a large number of hands to draw wages weekly, the merchants would not so sensibly feel such bad spells of weather as has prevailed lately.

It is announced that Hon. James E. Shepherd will be a candidate before the Democratic State convention for the nomination for Chief Justice of the Supreme court of North Carolina. A better man could not be put in the position.

With so much complaint of bad roads, wouldn't you think that everybody who has to travel them would be interested in having them better? Yet if such a thing as road tax was mentioned there are people who would hold up their hands in horror.

The sub-committee appointed by the Senate to formulate a proposition for the punishment of the two Senators from South Carolina for the altercation they had in the Senate chamber last Saturday, have concluded to recommend that they be severely censured, the President of the Senate to administer the reprimand. This censure will officially close the matter, but the country would perhaps feel better if both Senators would follow it with their resignation.

President Roosevelt has been given a dose of his own medicine—a case of tit-for-tat, so to speak. He withdrew his invitation to dinner from Senator Tillman, of South Carolina. And now Lieutenant Governor Tillman, of the Palmetto State, has withdrawn a invitation previously extended to and accepted by the President to present a sword to a South Carolina hero of the Spanish American war, during the proposed visit of the President to the Charleston exposition. Lieutenant Governor Tillman stated that he regretted to withdraw the invitation, but he was forced to it by the people who subscribed the fund to purchase the sword. As long as the President has called those "anarchists" who fought for the Confederacy, it is a wonder the South Carolinians had not told him flat out that they did not want him down there anyway.

LOCAL TAXATION.

The question of schools and education is now being more discussed in North Carolina than perhaps any other subject. This is fitting and proper, for it is not likely that the State is going to have more education than it needs. At the same time there are phases of the matter that demand careful consideration.

In an address recently issued by prominent educators of the State, local taxation for public schools was strongly urged. In commenting upon that address the Pittsboro Record calls attention to an amendment offered to our State constitution by the editor of that paper, Hon. H. A. London, who was a member of the last State Senate, providing that either race be allowed to tax themselves separately to carry on their own schools longer than the constitutional limit of four months when they so desire. The Record adds "the white people of North Carolina are now paying all they can or will pay for the education of negro children," yet "the white people in nearly every district would pay an extra or special tax to give their own children longer school terms."

The Record also says the object of such an amendment "was not to decrease the terms of any colored school nor to decrease the amount now paid by white people for colored schools, but was simply to enable the white people of any school district to tax themselves extra, that is levy a special tax on themselves, for the better education of their own children."

This is a very sensible proposition, and one that our law makers had just as well make up their minds to consider. The public schools for both races all over the State are now kept open the four months required by the constitution. While the great bulk of taxes to maintain these schools is paid by the white people, they are not complaining and are not disposed to deprive the colored schools of any of the four months allotted them. But when it comes to local taxation, the white people are going to take hold of the matter slowly unless there is some provision under which each race can get the benefit of its own special tax.

NOTICE.

Last Call For Taxes.

I will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of collecting taxes due for the year 1901:

C. D. Smith & Store, Beaver Dam Township, Monday, March 10 at 10 a. m.

Farmville, Monday, Mar. 10, at 12 o'clock.

Falkland, Wednesday, Mar. 12.

Gun Swamp church, Belvoir township, Thursday, Mar. 13, at 9 a. m.

Bethel, Thursday, Mar. 13, at 12 o'clock.

Stokes, Carolina township, Friday, Mar. 14.

Pactolus, Friday, Mar. 14.

Ayden, Contentnea township, Friday, Mar. 14.

Johnson's Mills, Swift Creek township, Friday Mar. 14.

Grimesland, Chicod township, Friday, Mar. 14.

Under the law this is the last call for taxes before adding cost. All who fail to pay by March 15, will be levied on and the cost added to their taxes.

The Constitutional Amendment provides that no one can vote who fails to pay his poll tax.

Pay your taxes in time to save costs and to save your vote.

O. W. HARRINGTON,
Sheriff.

Taxes--Last Call.

Pay your taxes due town of Greenville by March 15th, or I shall levy and charge you with cost.

The Great American Climate.

On the heels of a bright mild day comes a howling blizzard and the next thing you know the weather is spring-like again. No wonder people have colds and sore chests and stiff backs. Luckily, Perry Davis' Painkiller is at hand to give relief. Take it internally and rub it into the aching flesh. All druggists sell it. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings In North Carolina.

The town of Thomasville had fires on three nights in succession, and there is such suspicion of incendiary that the people are much alarmed.

A freight train pulled into Salisbury a few nights ago that had 106 loaded cars drawn by one engine. It was the longest train ever run in the State.

An old negro woman, formerly of Indiana, committed suicide in Salisbury Thursday morning. She was supposed to be a pauper, but on her person was found a bag containing $750 in cash and a bank book showing a credit of $320 in a bank in Indiana. The woman had been in Salisbury since December.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Feb. 28.
Rev. C. W. Blanchard after filling his regular appointment here last Sunday and visiting several friends during the week, left Tuesday for Kinston.

R. H. Hunsucker was in attendance upon court at Snow Hill Wednesday.

Mrs. Johnson, representing the Orphan's Friend, a paper published at Oxford, canvassed our town Thursday in the interest of her paper and we are glad to say met with a merited success.

Mrs. Jas. C. Albritton, and Mrs. Robt. Greene, of Greenville, were visiting Mrs. J. D. Cox Thursday.

We were sure the special price on one hundred buggies would put the Hunsucker Buggy to rolling. Just think of it $22.50 for a high grade open buggy and $52.50 for the best top buggy.

Ed. Newell, of Greene county, was here last Sunday.

Eld. W. L. Bilbro, of Ayden, was here a short while one day this week.

Be sure to prepare your tobacco rows to you can use a tobacco truck. Then if you select a Ryndall Tobacco Truck you will make no mistake.

Quite a bevy of pretty school girls left yesterday to visit their homes until Monday.

Mr. A. G. Cox is visiting her brother, W. J. Jackson, who is seriously ill near here. Mr. Jackson is one of our most valued citizens.

Miss Annie Sparks, of Kinston, is visiting the family of her brother, J. W. Sparks.

I. A. Sugg, Jr., of Greenville, spent last Sunday in town.

Mary M. Elks, of Greenville, who has been teaching the colored free school in our town for the past three months, closed the public session last Wednesday. Our colored friends, however, are so favorably impressed with her they have secured her services for another session. She is said to be a good teacher and is well spoken of by everyone.

High Water.

Conditions point to very high water. At Rocky Mount the river is within 12 or 14 inches of high water mark. Fishing Creek which furnishes almost as much water as the upper Tar is very high and still rising. Swift Creek is overflowing with water and Deep Creek is impassable. By tomorrow morning the Princeville road will be under water and if the present rate of rise is maintained before Sunday morning the embankment road along the river will be broken in several places. Tarboro Southern, Feb. 28th.

How to Get Rid of a Cold.

"Shall I ever be rid of this cold?" This is the daily question of a man racked by a cough that seems to tear his lungs. Let him cheer up and take Allen's Lung Balsam. This remedy not merely overcomes ordinary coughs and colds, however obstinate, but it is recommended by the first stages of consumption.
