The Truest Thing We Ever Didn't Say.

BUT PERHAPS WE DID AND ONLY REPEAT.

Not sure whether we told you after inventory that our stocks were then in record condition, by which we mean Clear rest of clinkers. If we didn't it was the truest thing we ever didn't say.

Of all the hard lessons a merchant has to learn the hardest is this: NEVER CARRY OVER.

Into goods lately bought, bought right and still in fashion, it's mighty hard to plunge the knife. But do it he often must, or suffer later. It's due to you, as well as us, that we start the new season right. WE DO.

BIG FRESHET.

Nearly Up to the High Water Mark.

There is a big freshet in Tar river, backing only about 3 feet of reaching the high mark of the record made in 1887 and still rising at the rate of half inch an hour. Information from Tarboro says the water is rising some there yet, so it is expected to continue rising here for a day at least.

It is the biggest freshet we have had here except the one in 1887. The water is already touching the foot of the bridge at the north end and there is danger of it going over the dam which is now but little more than a foot above the water.

Agent J. J. Cherry and Mr. G. E. Harris, both of whom had a large quantity of goods and fertilizers stored at the wharf, had to move them. All day Saturday, Saturday night and Sunday they had a force of hands moving and they were none too soon, for this morning the warehouses were not only flooded but the water was also running over the cotton platform.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas He who said "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not," has seen fit to take to His loving arms Edmund Chesson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taft and a member of this Sunday school: therefore Resolved: That while we the members of Greenville M. E. Sunday school feel sad over the loss of this young life, we bow in humble submission to a loving Father that doeth all things well, knowing that our loss is his gain.

2nd. That we extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved parents who were so devoted to him and pray that they may look to Him who loveth whom He chasteneth.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the parents, a copy put upon the records of this Sunday school and a copy sent to THE DAILY REFLECTOR for publication. (Signed.)

WILEY BROWN,
A. B. ELLINGTON,
MISS BETTIE WARREN. } Com.

The Meeting.

Rev. H. M. Eure received five persons into the membership of the Methodist church Sunday morning. His admonition to the new members was very impressive. He said there are many people who assume these solemn church vows who never lived up to them afterwards, and expressed the hope that such could never be said of those now before him.

Sunday night there were several professions. Better sermons are seldom heard than those delivered by Mr. Eure at both services Sunday. He announced that the meeting would continue this week, services being held at 7:30 o'clock each night.

The Safest Way.

A portion of the public may read street car cards; some of them may read posters and hand bills, but the mass of the great buying public read the newspapers. It is safest to chronicle ad-news along with all the other news of the world in the columns of the newspaper. — St. Louis Ad-Writer.

AT THE CLUB.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-hour man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. In short, the store where the good dresser always finds the thing he wants without paying an extra price for style. If you are interested in Clothing and Haberdashery with character, come in.

MONDAY, MARCH 3, 1902

News came from Norfolk today that the street car force in that city had gone on a strike, and policeman were having to ride up and down the streets on the cars to prevent trouble.

Major Jenkins, the South Carolinian who was a member of Roosevelt's Rough Riders, and to whom the sword was to be presented, has wired Lieutenant Governor Tillman that since the invitation to make the presentation speech has been withdrawn from President Roosevelt he (Jenkins) will decline to accept the sword. And so the Tillman-McLaurin-Roosevelt rum-puss keeps moving merrily along.

Honors for Pitt County.

Mrs. R. R. Cotten, of this county, who was recently in attendance upon the National Mothers' Congress which met in Washington City, was elected First Vice-President of the body. In speaking of her the Washington Star says:

"Mrs Robert Cotten of North Carolina, who has been so long the Corresponding Secretary, has now been elected First Vice-President, and she brings to the office the ripened judgment of years spent in deeds of love for suffering and unfortunate humanity. Mrs. Cotten has a name as a writer of books and short stories, and is editor of the organ of the Mothers' Congress. She belongs to the old time Southern type of women; speaking with the quaintness of voice and inflection that is rarely heard now, and which is very fascinating, when the speaker is a beautiful woman, whose culture and refinement are self evident. Mrs. Cotten makes friends everywhere and, having executive ability of a rare order and a wide experience in the organization of clubs, it is thought she will bring to the cabinet of the national president exactly the qualities that will make her an invaluable aid in prosecuting the work."

Pointed Paragraphs.

Love is one kind of praise and envy is another.

Your life isn't worth living unless you think it is.

Self inspection is said to be a sure cure for self-esteem.

The average man deceives himself oftener than he does others.

Men with narrow views are apt to be broad in their conversation.

How to Get Rid of a Cold.

"Shall I ever be rid of this cold?" This is the daily question of a man racked by a cough that seems to tear his lungs. Let him cheer up and take Allen's Lung Balsam. This remedy not merely overcomes ordinary coughs and colds, however obstinate, but it is recommended even in the first stages of consumption.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 3.

The joint meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee of the State Central Committee, called by Chairman Simmons to be held in Raleigh March 25, will take up several important questions of party policy, one of which relates to the modus operandi of nominating the Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senatorship which the Legislature will be called on to fill next January; another is the question of the payment of poll tax by all electors by May 1, or the consequent loss of their votes under the new law; another is the providing of machinery of organization of the party in the new Judicial and Congressional districts. Still another will be the selection of the date for holding the next State convention, to nominate candidates for Chief Justice and Supreme and Superior Court Judges, Superintendent of Public Instruction, etc. Raleigh will have a big theatre-auditorium by the time set capable of accommodating double as many people as any other hall in North Carolina. The work of enlarging the present Academy of Music will begin next month, I am told, and in it future conventions will be held. It will accommodate over 3,000 persons.

The State Board of Education decides all the counties will be able to secure four months public schools through the distribution of the second $100,000 appropriation soon to be made. There are twenty-two counties in the State which will have more than four months schools without asking for State, and therefore will not be apportioned any of this fund?

Attorney General Gilmer, ex Judges Shepherd and Merrimon and George Rountree, Esq., counsel for the State, in bond suit brought against North Carolina by the State of South Dakota, went to Washington yesterday to appear in the case before the United States Supreme Court.

Postmaster Mullen of Charlotte, who tanked up and went off on a high kicking spree in Washington immediately after being reappointed, and who it has been thought might be "excused" by the Rough Rider for such unseemly conduct, will probably lose his job after all, I was told yesterday by a politician returning from Washington.

Cotton mill owners and officials will meet in Charlotte tomorrow for the purpose of organizing a mutual factory insurance company, for the express purpose of insuring cotton mills at a less cost than they

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain

Very truly yours,

F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

The anti-Saloon League held another meeting here last Friday and appointed a committee of 100, representing all the counties, to further the work of organization locally and in the State.

A revival of "farmers' institutes" is noted occasionally, but as a rule so few farmers turn out that the attempt to make them popular and more general is very discouraging.

It is announced that about 100 deserving cases of insanity are left uncared for because of the continued lack of sufficient room at the Central Hospital (asylum) in Raleigh, the capacity of which is not one-half that of the one at Morganton.

Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Beigler and thousands of other women and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

100 Chicago Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., March 27, 1900.

Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself before I used your medicines, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write any poor woman and tell her how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.

New York 2,700 Miles From Philadelphia by Wire.

Philadelphia's difficulties in getting news of the outside world continued yesterday. Since no direct communication was to be had with New York whence are sent all of the old world happenings, a circuit of half the United States was necessary before the news could reach Philadelphia.

The dispatches which appear in The Philadelphia Times today get here in this manner: From New York they are relayed to Buffalo, a distance of 350 miles; thence to Chicago, 450 miles; to Louisville, 250 miles; to Atlanta, 325 miles; to Jacksonville, 250 miles; to Washington, 650 miles; to Baltimore, 40 miles; to Wilmington, 50 miles. Wilmington—27 miles distant from Philadelphia—is the nearest point with complete telegraphic service to this city.

Thus a wire journey of 2,700 miles, traversing thirteen States, was necessary to bring news from New York, only 92 miles distant. News from other points came in the same manner.—Philadelphia Times, 25th.

HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENT

This department is being added to all the time. Nearly every day there is something new. We will only call your attention to a few specialties.

Nickle Plated Ware.

This is the most serviceable ware you can get. It is a heavy nickle plate on a copper body, so it is almost indestructable. We have this ware in coffee and tea pots different sizes, butter and sugar dishes, milk and water pitchers serving dishes, syrup pots, cuspidors, waiters, &c. If you use this ware once you will never want any other kind for it is the best.

Crockery and China Ware.

It is no use to say anything about this department for everybody knows we are the crockery people in this part of the world. We always carry a large stock and you can select the pieces for a

Dinner and Tea Set

to suit yourself, which is much better than having to buy what you do not want. Did you ever use any of these new goods in

Anti-Rust Ware.

It is guaranteed never to rust. Come in and ask for it. In fact we carry almost everything needed to fit up your kitchen, bedroom, sitting-room, or parlor. All we want you to do is to come in and call for what you want. We try to keep the very best in each of our departments and think we can please you both in price and quality. All we ask is a trial.

In Business Again.

We have made an adjustment of our indebtedness with all creditors and have again

Opened for Business.

In order to raise the money necessary to meet this adjustment as quickly as possible we have started a

Special Cost Sale

and for the next few days will sell all goods at cost

FOR CASH ONLY.

Those familiar with the splendid stock of dry goods, etc., in our store can comprehend the bargains offered in disposing of such goods at cost. Come while you have the opportunity to get these bargains. This special cost sale will not last long.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

R. Greene went to Kelford today.

R. L. Smith left this morning for Richmond.

C. S. Carr left Saturday evening for Kinston.

Miss Lillie Harris returned to Sanford this morning.

J. F. Evans has moved his family out to his farm.

Rev. J. N. Booth is confined to his home with rheumatism.

Solicitor L. I. Moore came home Sunday from Snow Hill court.

Mrs. W. M. King left this morning on a visit to Rocky Mount.

Miss Carrie Andrews returned Saturday evening from Tarboro.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dancy, of Farmville, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Frank Wilson left this morning for the northern markets to buy his spring goods.

Miss Delia Smith, of Ayden, who was visiting here, returned home Saturday.

W. L. Davis and Joe Best, of Wilson, arrived Sunday evening through the country.

S. R. Ross, of Robersonville, who has been spending a few days here, returned home today.

Mrs. H. R. Kinlaw, of Rocky Mount, who has been visiting the Misses Erwin, returned home this morning.

Mrs. Johnson, of Oxford, who has been here a few days soliciting for the Orphans Friend, left this morning.

Miss Hattie Smith and little sister, Grace, went to Ayden Saturday evening and returned this morning.

Miss Mary Gottlieb, of Baltimore, who has been visiting Miss Lizzie Laughinghouse, left this morning.

Mrs. Daniel Berry and daughter, Miss Olive, of Ayden, Mrs. Gaskins, of Wilson and Mrs. Burroughs, of Scotland Neck, spent today here with Mrs. P. E. Dancy and Mrs. J. W. Goodwin.

Foundation Crushed.

The brick foundation under the boiler at Greene & Hooker's mill crushed in Saturday and caused the boiler to fall. It took considerable work and expense to get the boiler raised and a new foundation built under it.

Good Play.

The Fabio Romani company that appeared in the opera house Saturday night were the best actors who have been to Greenville. The play could not be rendered at its best, owing to the small stage in the opera house, yet all present enjoyed it. There were no specialties between the acts and the serpentine dancer did not appear.

The Young Guard.

The Thos. J. Jarvis auxiliary Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy held their monthly meeting on Friday afternoon with a full attendance, Miss Hellen Forbes, the President calling the meeting together.

Miss Ima Allen had prepared and read excellent minutes of the last meeting, and Miss Mary Smith, the Historian, had an excellent little sketch of the fall of Fort Donelson, and the coming into prominence of Gen. U. S. Grant. Miss Margaret Skinner, the Treasurer, reported the financial condition prospering, Miss Mary James having raised the largest amount since last meeting.

The young people are intelligent and energetic and will do a good work.

Mrs. Jarvis gave a short talk on Southern history.
